Arnold's Vital Fluid

PURIFIES and strengthens the blood by eradicating, through a nice chemical action, the cause of impurities and debility, which it has power to cure humors that mere medicine cannot cure. Hence its power of strengthening and vitalizing the blood. It furnishes to a certain extent, the element of which pure blood is composed. It eradicates and cleanses away what ever clogs and thickens the blood.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID

Renders the system strong and healthy, by freeing the blood and stomach from objectionable materials. It nerves and vivifies the system, by furnishing the elements which give vitality.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID

Gives to the system an influence and effect similar to that produced by exercise in the free open air. It enlarges by strengthening the blood to brighter and better action—doing its work by beginning at the beginning. It is pleasant to the taste, and becomes a favorite wherever known.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID

Removes Biliousness in the most direct and easy manner, by neutralizing the cause. This is the principle of its action in removing illness generally. It neutralizes the cause, by freeing the blood from impediments to its proper fulfilment of its life-giving functions.

This principle of neutralizing the cause is why ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID CURES HUMORS that mere medicine cannot sensibly affect, and why it cures other diseases

Resulting from Poisons in the Blood,

that mere medicinal preparations cannot alleviate. Humors are poisons in the blood, and it is by their chemical action in neutralizing those poisons that ARNOLD'S GLOBULES AND VITAL FLUID are enabled to cure them so that they stay cured.

Zinc Paints,

j6 RAYNES & NEIL.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,

(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)

No. 70 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, drawn on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

TREMONT MILLS.

Teas, Coffees, Chocolates, Cocoas, Spices, &c.

WHOLESALE,—AND ALSO IN SMALL PACKAGES.

E. E. DYER & CO.

(Sign of the Chinaman grinding coffee.)

141 Washington St., Boston,

SUPPLY the best, finest and purest articles, at lowest Cash prices. Their Stock consists of Teas, Coffees, Chocolates, Allspice, Pepper, Mustard, Ginger, Cayenne Pepper, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Cream Tartar; Taraxacum, or Prepared Dandelion Root, &c., &c.

Having every facility for manufacturing and preparing the several articles named, they can supply those having them pure and genuine, as they are put up carefully, and bear our name and label, "TREMONT MILLS, E. E. DYER & CO."

To give consumers some idea of our sales, we annex the following scale of prices, viz.:

5 lb. Souchong Tea,	1.50	5 lb. Mocha Coffee,	1.00
5 lb. Oolong "	1.62	5 lb. Java "	[illegible]
5 lb. Y. Hyson "	2.25	8 lb. good "	1.00

☞ The Spices are put up in ¼ and ½ lb. tin cases, expressly for family use, and are warranted to be strictly genuine, and only need a trial to establish them in public favor.

SPANISH COFFEE.—We would call the attention of customers and dealers to our Spanish Coffee as an article which is highly esteemed, and gives the greatest satisfaction. It is prepared with particular care, and by a peculiar process in roasting, one pound of this coffee, it is believed, is equal to 2 lb. of any other.

DANDELION COFFEE.—This article is carefully prepared at our Mills, and put up in packages bearing our trade mark, and may be relied upon as the best and most approved mixture of dandelion and coffee.

TARAXACUM, or Prepared Dandelion Root.—This article is prepared and roasted at our Mills, is retailed by Family Grocers generally in city and country, and bearing our trade mark, "Chinaman grinding coffee," may be relied upon as the GENUINE ARTICLE. The proportion used is about one-half the quantity of coffee. The price is 20 cents a pound, and it is warranted to be the same as that which has been sold for fifty cents a pound by Druggists.

The medical properties of Dandelion are well-known, and held in high estimation by all who use it. This being a preparation of the root, with all its medicinal virtues retained, can be mixed with coffee or not, as best suits the taste, and will be found cheap and economical as a family beverage, one pound of which being nearly equal to two pounds of coffee. It is prescribed by many eminent physicians for invalids, children and aged persons, as a nutritious beverage, and as a remedy for Dyspepsia, Bilious affections, &c.

☞ Be careful to observe that all our Coffees have our trade mark, "Chinaman grinding coffee."

☞ To Grocers and Dealers a liberal discount is made, enabling them to supply their customers at the same low rate.

☞ TO CASH PURCHASERS.—Our object being to secure large sales at small profits, we offer inducements which cannot be afforded by those who do business on the credit system; and we confidently invite an examination of the quality of our stock and our prices, as compared with those of any other house.

Morning Chronicle.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 21. 1857.

PENNSYLVANIA SENATOR.—The Portland, Me., Argus, gives the following statements of the choice of Cameron and the defeat of Forney:

It is reported by a despatch from Harrisburg that Menear of York, openly boasts that he received $8000 for voting for Cameron, and that he says he would have voted for Forney for $5000. The boarders at Wilk's hotel, where Menear has been stopping, protested against his remaining; he was consequently dismissed by the landlord. Brady, to whom he applied for board, refused to receive him. Omit has given Wagonseller and Lebo notice to quit. In the House an effort will be made to expel Menear.

At a meeting of the Philadelphia Keystone Club, on the 14th inst., resolutions were adopted holding up Foster and his friends and Wagonseller, Lebo and Menear to the execration of the Democratic party, and openly accusing the latter of corruption and receiving Middleton Bank notes for their votes. A committee was appointed to prepare a memorial to the U. S. Senate, to inquire into the legality of the election.

The Argus offers the following remarks:

The Senators of the United States owe it to their own character—they owe it to their country—to investigate the circumstances attending Cameron's election thoroughly, and to stamp the fraud by which he is believed to have been chosen, with a rebuke that will serve as a fearful warning to political corruption.

The remarks strike us as quite pertinent. The first statement of the despatch, about the Menear's boast of the bribe, is most improbable, and throws a shade of incredibility over the whole.

SPANISH SMALL COIN.—In compliance with the law of Congress, the Secretary of the Treasury has issued orders that the Spanish quarters, eighths and sixteenths of the dollar shall not be received but at the rate of 20, 10 and 5 cents.

We suppose that in compliance with these instructions these coins will be received at the Custom House and Post Office only at the above named rates.

These coins after being received at the public offices cannot be re-issued, but must, by order of Congress, be sent to the mint to be re-coined into American money.

The probable result will be, that few of these pieces will get into the Post Office.—No man need to lose a copper on them.—Steamers go from New York and New Orleans to Havana, very often, and sailing vessels go there from Portland, in great numbers. These Spanish coins are the legal currency there;—and the quarters are besides, generally worth more by weight, for old silver, than twenty cents.

☞ In the severe gale of Sunday night, at New Haven, Conn., the steeple of Rev. Mr. Eustiss' Church, next to the depot, was blown down at 2 1-2 o'clock Monday morning. It went through the roof, crushe the galleries and the seats on the first floor. Damage about $5000. All travel there was suspended by the snow drifts.

A FUEL FAMINE.—Many towns and cities on the Ohio river are suffering from a scarcity of fuel. They obtain their chief supplies of coal by flat boats from Pittsburgh; but during the past summer and autumn the river was so low that very little could be taken down, and now the river is frozen up, so that none can be conveyed by that route. The railroads are, unfortunately, not prepared with the proper cars and other arrangements necessary for coal transportation; and, besides, the freight on coal over the Ohio roads is so high that it would raise coal to a ruinous price for poor people. At Cincinnati, the City Council has made an appropriation for bringing a large quantity of coal to the city by railroad, in order to relieve the necessities of the poorer classes. At New Albany, Ind., the gas has been shut off from the street lamps, in consequence of the scarcity of coal.

COASTING ACCIDENT.—On Monday evening, as a party of ladies and gentlemen were coasting in Worcester, one of the party, Mr. A. W. Stevings, had one of his legs broken. He was on a sled with several ladies when the sled turned and whent violently against a stone post; Mr. Stevens being the first on the sled, his leg came in contact with the post, and consequently the accident—Transcript.

GEORGE WHITEFIELD.

CHAP. VI.

We begin this chapter, by correcting a typographic error which crept into Chap. 5, and mentioned Rev. Dr. Haven as Pastor of the North Church in Portsmouth.—He was, as is well known, the Pastor of the South.

We have now before us, an old handbill, or broadside sheet, of the date of Whitefield's death, which bears the following imprint:

Printed and Sold by D. and R. Fowle, Portsmouth.

The reader will perceive, as we transfer the contents of the handbill to our columns, that a part of the poetry is from Whitefield's own pen, other parts from Watts and Addison: and the rest from sources to us unknown.

A Funeral Hymn, Composed by that eminent Servant of the Most High God, the late Reverend and Renowned George Whitefield, Chaplain to the Right Hon. the Countess of Huntingdon, &c. &c. Who departed this Life in full Assurance of a Better, on Lord's Day, the Thirtieth of September, 1770, at Six o'Clock in the Morning, of a sudden Fit of the Asthma, at Newburyport, in New England.—This Hymn was designed to have been Sung over his Corpse, by the Orphans belonging to his Tabernacle in London, had this great, pious, and learned Man died there.

I.

Ah! lovely Appearance of Death!
No Sight upon Earth is so Fair;
Not all the gay Pageants that breathe,
Can with a dead body compare.

II.

With solemn Delight I survey,
The Corpse when the Spirit is fled;
In Love with the beautiful Clay,
And longing to lie in it's Stead.

III.

How blest is our Brother, bereft
Of All that could burthen his Mind!
How easy the Soul, that hath left
This wearisom Body behind!

IV.

Of Evil incapable Thou,
Whose Relicks with Envy I see;
No longer in Misery now,
No longer a Sinner like me.

V.

This Earth is affected no more
With Sickness, or shaken with Pain;
The War in the Members is o'er,
And never shall vex him again.

VI.

No Anger henceforward, or Shame,
Shall redden this innocent Clay;
Extinct is the Animal Flame,
And Passion is vanished away.

VII.

This languishing Head at rest,
Its thinking and aching are o'er;
This quiet immovable Breast
Is heav'd by Affliction no more.

VIII.

This Heart is no longer the Seat
Of Troubles and torturing Pain,
It ceases to flutter and beat,
It never shall flutter again.

IX.

The Lids he so seldom could close,
By Sorrows forbidden to sleep,
Seal'd up in eternel Repose,
Have strangely forgotten to weep.

X.

The Fountains can yield no Supplies,
These Hollows from Water are free,
The Tears are all wip'd from these Eyes,
And Evil they never shall see.

XI.

To mourn and to suffer is mine,
While bound in a Prison I breathe,
And still for Deliverance pine,
And press to the Issues of Death.

XII.

What now with my Tears I bedew,
O! might I this Moment become!
My Spirit created anew,
My Flesh be consign'd to the Tomb.

The Reverend Mr. Whitefield Wrote an Account of the First Part of his Life himself, from his Birth, to his entering into Holy Orders, being then twenty one Years and seven Months old; born in Gloucester in England, in the Month of December 1714.

And says, he could not better close the Account of his Life than with the following Poem.

I.

When all thy Mercies, O my God,
My rising Soul surveys;
Transported with the View, I'm lost
In Wonder, Love and Praise.

II.

O how shall Words with equal Warmth
The Gratitude declare,
That glows within my ravish'd Heart?
But thou canst read it there.

III.

Thy Providence my Life sustain'd,
And all my Wants redrest,
When in the silent Womb I lay,
And hung upon the Breast.

IV.

To all my weak Complaints and Cries,
Thy Mercy lent an Ear,
Ere yet my feeble Thoughts had learnt
To form themselves in Prayer.

V.

Unnumber'd Comforts to my Soul
Thy tender Care bestow'd,
Before my infant Heart conceiv'd
From whom those comforts flow'd.

VI.

When in the slipp'ry Paths of Youth,
With heedless Steps I ran,
Thine Arm unseen convey'd me safe,
And led me up to Man.

VII.

Thro' hidden Dangers, Toils, and Deaths,
It gently clear'd my Way,
And thro' the pleasing Snares of Vice,
More to be fear'd than they.

VIII.

When worn with sickness oft hast thou
With Health renew'd my Face,
And When in Sin and Sorrows sunk
Reviv'd my Soul with Grace.

IX.

Ten thousand thousand precious Gifts
My Daily Thanks employ,
Nor is the least a cheerful Heart
That tastes those Gifts with Joys.

X.

Through every Period of my Life
Thy Goodness I'll pursue,
And after DEATH, in distant Worlds,
The glorious Theme renew.

XI.

When nature fails, and Day and Night
Divide thy Works no more,
My ever-grateful Heart, O Lord,
Thy Mercy shall adore.

XII.

Through all Eternity to Thee
A joyful Song I'll raise,
For Oh! Eternity's too short
To utter all thy Praise.

On the Death of Rev. Mr. George Whitefield.

IN ELEGIAC VERSE.

Whitefield, thy Shade ten thousand groans await,
While through the Village moves thy sacred Bier,
The Weeping Peasant sickens at thy Fate,
And pays the gen'rous Tribute of a Tear.

Ah Me! How soon the Phantom Life decays!
How quick the vision'ry Charm is o'er!
Wisdon nor Worth, nor awful Virtue saves,
Or kindly shelters from the destin'd Hour.

How did he charm with wondrous Art the Soul,
And ev'ry boistrous Sentiment assauge;
In many a pleasing Tract bid Fancy roll,
And melt the Youth, and thaw the Snow of Age.

How did thy Beauties, Virtue gentle byam,
And tempt the straying w[illegible] thy Road,
Till chang'd like thee, he views the mighty

And wonders at the Mercy of a God.

Oft wou'd thy Top, O Golgotha, arise,
A bl[illegible] and Rome's fierce bloody Throng;
While many a Tear diffus'd the Hearer's Eyes,
Nor pain'd the Mind, nor thought the Service long.

But [illegible]eath, stern Monarch, warns the Saint away,
And heavy Pains the trembling Flesh consume,
See rigid Fate its ebon Wand display,
And point the gloomy Mansions o fthe Tomb

While the great Soul with smiling Youth enrob'd,
By Angels convoy'd, soars to fields above,
Where kindred Spirits join him on the Road,
And hail him welcome to the Realms of Love.

There will he meet the Plaudit of his King,
Happy in Bliss and ever springing Joy,
Where Death no more shall dart its venom'd Sting,
Nor Sickness, Pain nor lurking Sin annoy.

Mean while soft Slumbers to thy Dust below,
While many a Sigh shall consecrate the Gloom;
While many a Tear from greatful Hearts shall flow,
And many a Bay shall shade thy hallow'd Urn.

And ye, who oft aspers'd the Saints Name,
Tho' late, this friendly Counsel weigh with care,
"Go, bid at last, Grief's generous current flow, Go, wash th'unworthy Action with a Tear."

CYNEHIO.

A FUNERAL THOUGHT.

1. Hark! from the tombs a doleful sound,
My ears attend the cry,
Ye living men, come view the ground
Where you must shortly lie.

2. Princes, this clay must be your bed,
In spite of all your tow'rs:
The tall, the wise, the rev'rend head
Must lie as low as ours.

3. Great God! is this our certain doom!
And are we still secure!
Still walking downwards to our tomb,
And yet prepare no more!

4. Grant us the pow'rs of quick'ning grace,
To fit our souls to fly;
Then, when we drop this dying flesh,
We'll rise above the sky."

To this blest Place of Rest, this blest abode,
Great Whitefield's gone, on Cherubs wings he rode;
Gone from a World of Trouble, and of Noise,
The Fruits of all his Labours he enjoys.

He teared that Great God he walk'd before,
And Preach'd His holy Word from shore to shore,
He tried to bring the Sinner's Heart to God,
And wash their Sins in our Redeemr's Blood.

He warn'd all Sinners of their dreadful Fate,
If they did not repent before too late;
And thus the Worthy Man of God did strive,
In bringing Sinners that were dead alive.

But God Commanded, & he Drop't his Breath,
And now his Body Rests in silent Death;
But we may hope (from Works that he is giv'n,)
That he doth wear a Crown of Joy in Heaven.

LOST—On Friday evening last, a Fitch fur VICTORINE. The finder will be suitably rewarded on leaving the same at No. 4 Whidden street. Portsmouth, Jan. 20. *

WHITE RIVER JUNCTION, Vt., Jan. 19.—The thermometer was 27 degrees below zero, Sunday morning. At Woodstock it was 30 below. A severe snow storm has been raging this morning with no signs of abatement.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 19.—No trains left for the north or south to-day. It has stopped snowing, and there is a cold north wind blowing.

DUBUQUE, Iowa, Jan. 19.—At sunrise this morning the thermometer registered at 17 degrees below zero.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., Jan. 19.—In this village yesterday all the mercury therein congealed at 37 degrees below zero?

THE ICE BARRIER.—The ice embargo upon Nantucket was severe. During the past week there were a large number of persons stopping at Hyannis awaiting the steamer. Many of those who have been thus cruelly detained have suffered much both pecuniarily and in their feelings.—One case that has come to our knowledge, considering the coldness of the weather, strikes us as being extremely hard. It appears that a young gentleman was engaged to marry a Nantucket lady on Tuesday, 6th inst., and that he started for the Island on Tuesday morning, never doubting that he should be supremely happy with her he loved, ere another sun should dawn upon this wicked world. But a wise philosopher has said that "there is many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip," and so it turned out. Nantucket was ice-besieged, and the luckless swain passed many a weary day and night in that Cape Cod village, gazing anxiously upon the ice-bound coast, and ice-covered sea; but the ice did not break or crack. It continued of Arctic thickness. As the old song says: "Wait a little longer."—New Bedford Standard.

SUBMISSION.—The late Rev. Ephraim Peabody, about twenty years ago, was attacked with bleeding at the lungs, and was obliged to resign his pastoral charge at Cincinnati; his only child was laid in a New England grave; his young wife had temporarily lost the use of her eyes; his home was broken up, his prospect was very dark. They sold their furniture and went to board in a country tavern in the town of Dayton, One day, as he came from a walk, his wife said to him,

"I have been thinking of our situation, and have determined to be submisive and patient."

"Ah," said he "that is a good resolution; let us see what we have to submit to. I will make a list of our trials. First we have a home—we will submit to that. Second, we have the comforts of life—we will submit to that. Thirdly, we have each other. Fourthly, we have a multitude of friends. Fifthly we have God to take care of us."

"Ah," said she, "I pray stop, and I will say no more about submission."

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

TUESDAY, Jan. 20.

The Court came in at 9 A. M., but as the absent jurymen had not returned, no business could be done.

The Court were occupied in the afternoon in the trial of the case No. 242, William Rushworth vs. Henry D. Moore, an action brought to recover the amount paid by the plaintiff, as second endorser of a note made and endorsed by the defendant.

The defendant objected to the date of the protest and its form, as well as to the propriety of its being used as evidence, having been made in Philadelphia all of which were overruled by the Court and a verdict for $412 04 and interest ordered.

☞ Going up Congress street Monday, we observed a gigantic set of teeth, about 4 feet across the jaw, carved in front of Dr. Fuller's dental establishment. The snow having so blockaded the way to the bath house, that he was unable to take his customary plunge, (although he "was in" on Sunday morning with the thermometer 15° below) the Dr., determined to have his full quota of out door exercise, had here sculptured molars, bicuspides, canines and incisors in a masterly style, as pure though not as lasting as those he manufactures within.

They were not exactly incorruptible, nor exactly mineral, unless snow is a mineral.

☞ On Tuesday morning, the force of the Portsmouth & Concord Railroad started from Portsmouth with three engines and a first rate snow plough, at 9 o'clock precisely, — encountered some immense drifts, and reached Concord at half past 4, — returning immediately, on the clear track, arrived here at half past 7.

The Monday's trains from the North had not arrived when this train left.

The steamship America, from Liverpool Jan. 3d, arrived at Halifax 5 1-4 P. M.—On Sunday she experienced heavy weather.

INDIA.—The Indian mail w s at hand, Bombay Dec. 3d, Hong Kong Nov. 15.

No news had reached India from the Persian expedition, but the 78th Highlanders and other reinforcements were to be forwarded.

A letter in the Indian papers attracts attention, describing Bushire, which, the writer thinks, can offer no defence, but further advances of the British invading force towards Shiraz would be impossible, the only road being through three mountain passes, not 15 feet wide, and impracticable for the passage of artillery. The whole distance is only 143 miles.

Details of China news confirm previous news, viz., that on the 8th of October the Chinese took 12 Chinese seamen from a coaster under the British flag—that the British Consul remonstrated, but was insulted,—and that 10 British vessels took their forts and burnt their junks.

Some days elapsed, but the viceroy would not apologize. He however sent to the Admiral twelve prisoners, purporting to be the seamen taken from the ship, but they not being the same men, the squadron on the 27th opened fire on the city walls and Viceroy's palace.

The Boque forts at the entrance of Canton river were taken on the 15th.

The Chinese had re-manned the barrier forts and fired into the mail steamer Canton on her way down.

The British loss in the above operations was trifling.

The British and American ladies were removed from Canton and sent Oct. 23d, with the treasure, to Hong Kong.

A detachment of marines from the U. S. ship Portsmouth assisted in guarding the factories.

An account of the American proceedings is not full. It is however announced that an American steamer was fired upon by one of the Chinese forts in the Macao passage, whereupon the U. S. frigate Portsmouth immediately proceeded to destroy it, and also notified the Chinese authorities that unless instant reparation was made for the insult offered to the flag, hostile operations would be commenced.

The San Jacinto, after landing Dr. Parker at Macao Nov. 11th, returned to Whampoa, and is anchored off the French Island with the Portsmouth and Levant.

British Consul Parks, of date of November 15th, officially informs the European community that the Admiral does not deem it expedient to say what future measures he will adopt; but sees no immediate prospect of restoration of quiet.

The Congress of Paris have assemble l; and the affairs of the European nations are discussed in the English papers,—but their speculations are not very interesting to the American reader.

BY TELEGRAPH TO CHRONICLE.

BOSTON, Tuesday Night, 10 o'clk.

The Railroads are not yet in running order. Most of them are open, but the trains are not yet regular.

The eastern mail of Monday, arrived at Boston on Tuesday afternoon—twenty four hours late.

No New York mails received since Saturday night. The Sunday mail from New York was thirty-six hours going twenty miles.

Boston Harbor is again open, and the steamship America will doubtless come up on Wednetday morning.

In some parts of New York, on Sunday, the thermometer was forty degrees below zero.

The ship Orissa, from Calcutta, went ashore on Nauset Beach, on Sunday night. The first mate and three seamen were lost. The ship was bilged. Several other disasters are reported, but none to Portsmouth vessels.

No news. C.

CONGRESS.

MONDAY, Jan. 19.

The Senate discussed and passed the diplomatic and consular bill.

An ineffectual effort was made to restore the appropriation stricken out by the House giving a salary of $1000 to each of the 25 consular pupils. An amendment was added to the bill repealing so much of the former law as authorized the appointment of such officers. Adjourned.

HOUSE.—Mr. Morrill offered a resolution which was adopted, calling on the President to inform the House whether resistance, organized or otherwise, has been made, or is to be apprehended against the official authorities of Utah, and to communicate all correspondence relative to the appointment or declination of office in that territory, since January '56, and whether the laws thereof are practically administered with impartial justice to the inhabitants there.

MAIDENS, BEWARE!—Madame M.——, a celebrated beauty, had the habit of white-washing herself—so to speak—from the soles of her feet to the roots of her hair.

One day she discovered that certain pimples, like a group of volcanoes, were piercing the thick crust of dead white, and threatened to cover her arms with pathological arabesques.

Under the advice of a physician, she ordered a medicated bath, and with the hesitation of a woman of delicate nerves, she plunged therein her beautiful person. Hardly had that adorable plaster cast disappeared to the neck, in that sulphurous wave, when suddenly, from head to heel, the whiteness of milk changed to the bronzed blackness of the Ethopian. You would have declared her a negress badly whitened, or a white dame attacked with extraordinary cholera symptoms.

The last supposition prevailed, and the physician called in haste, laughed immodorately.

'Madame,' said he, 'you are not ill; you are a simple chemical product. You are no longer a woman, you are a sulphuret, but of simple chemical re-action. I shall analyse you.'

'Come, I shall submit you to a bath of sulphuric acid diluted with water. The acid will have the honor to combine with you—will take up the sulphur and the metal—will produce a sulphuret, and we shall find as a precipitate a very pretty woman.'

Snowy Dinnas, let this serve as a lesson. —Never use a white powder which has a metallic basis.—Courier Des Etat Unis.

A HEROINE.—The ship Neptune's Car arrived at San Francisco, (says a letter from the consignees,) Nov. 15th. Fifty days ago, Capt. Patten was attacked with the brain fever, and for the last twenty-five days he has been blind. Previous to his illness, he had put the first mate off duty, on account of his incompetency. Afterward, the second mate took charge of the ship, but as he did not understand navigation, the Captain's wife worked up the reckoning every day, and brought the ship safely into port. The first mate wrote Mrs. Patten a letter, reminding her of the dangers of the coast and the great responsibility she had assumed, and offered to take charge of the ship, but she stood by the judgment of her husband, and declined the offer. During all this time, she acted as nurse to the Captain; studied medicine, to learn how to treat his case; shaved his head, and by her constant care and watchfulness, kept him alive. She said that for fifty nights she has not undressed herself. Few women could have done so much, and done it so well. She was at once, navigator, nurse, physician, and protector of the property entrusted to her husband. The matter has excited a good deal of interest here, and, independent of other considerations, all are anxious for her sake that the Captain shall recover.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce, Jan. 15.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.

DR. CHESEMAN'S PILLS FOR FEMALES,

Prepared by an old Physician of 40 years experience

THE combination of ingredients in these Pills, is the result of a long and extensive practice, they are mild in their operation, and certain to restoring nature to its proper channel. In every instance have the Pills proved successful. They are certain to open those obstructions to which females are liable, and bring nature into its proper channel, whereby health is restored, and the pale and deathly countenance changed to a healthy one. No female can enjoy good health unless she is regular; and whenever an obstruction takes place, whether from exposure, cold, or any other cause, the general health immediately begins to decline, and the want of such a remedy has been the cause of so many consumptions among young females. Headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, loathing of food, and disturbed sleep, that most always arise from the interruption of nature; and whenever that is the case, the Pills will invariably remedy all those evils. In all cases of painful menstruation, or nervous and spinal affections in the back and limbs, lowness of spirits, hysterics, &c. they are efficacious in the cure of Leucorrhœa, commonly called the "Whites." These Pills should never be taken during pregnancy, as they would be sure to cause a miscarriage. Warranted purely Vegetable, and free from anything injurious to life or health. Full and explicit directions which should be read, are wrapped on each box. These Pills are put up in square, flat boxes.—Persons residing where there are no Agencies established, by enclosing One Dollar in a letter, prepaid, to Dr. C. L. Cheseman, Box No. 4,681, Post Office, New York City, can have them sent to their respective addresses by return of mail.

AYER'S Cathartic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED,)

ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK

Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians, Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues.

FOR THE CURE OF

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach, Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, WASHINGTON, D. C., 7 Feb., 1856.

Dr. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the most headache and bilious attacks by the use of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will cure others as they do me they will be worth a fortune.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE, Clerk of Steamer Chowan.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, WASHINGTON, D. C., 7 Feb., 1856.

Dr. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have used your Pills in my family for the last two years. My hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decisive, and they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease in which I did not resort to them.

Respectfully yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D., Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARTLAND, LIV. CO., MICH., Nov. 14, 1855.

Dr. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my little girl more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She commenced taking your Pills, and they soon rid her of her complaint by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children with dysentery. One of our neighbors had a child, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured after all. Such a medicine as your pills is worth to actually good and honest, will be prized here.

GEO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

Dr. AYER: I have used your Pills in my family, and in mine in my family and among those I am called to visit to advise. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARREN, WYOMING CO., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1854.

Dear Sir, I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Prominent Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

Dr. AYER: Your Pills are the purgative of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of a disease which upon her head and neck had baffled the skill of the most eminent physicians for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her face. After our child was cured, I gave her your Pills, and they have cured her of the Salt Rheum.

ASA MORGHTOM.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkins, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6, 1856.

Dr. AYER: I should be ungrateful for the relief your admirable preparations one of them gave me, if I did not report my case. I was settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best medical advice, the disease grew worse and worse, until, by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, BATON ROUGE, LA., 5 Dec., 1855.

Dr. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease which has long afflicted me at times.

VINCENT SULIVEL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are unequalled, and the many

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its inadvertent use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, INFLUENZA, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in our civilized community, not some one of whom some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some fearful trophy of the subtlety with which it lays the grievous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the fatal decline and dangerous disease of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon their unprepared hearts with the stealthy step of disease. We believe the CHERRY PECTORAL saves more lives by the early assurance it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are colds. Let the neglect them until no human skill can master the incurable disease that fastened on the vitals, sets your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of these diseases, and they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not appeal to them to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no thought in the produce of the most perfect possible, and it has afforded the world only as it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their use.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE celebrated machines are in practical and profitable use in all parts of the civilized world. In all the various trades, and in sewing every sort of fabric, either of cloth or leather, they have been fully tried and approved. Sewing machines of other manufacturers often fail to work, but SINGER'S MACHINES being strong, durable and complete in contrivance and workmanship. A perfect sewing machine seldom or never needs repairs, and costs but a year; but an imperfect one is a cause of constant vexation and loss. The entire RELIABILITY of our machines is one great reason for their unparalleled popularity.

ALWAYS OPERATE PERFECTLY,

MACHINES FOR FAMILY SEWING,

of a trifle and delicate construction, are recommended to the attention of those who have not made to catch the eye, not to perform substantial work. The truth is, family sewing machines ought to be stronger than any other, because they are used in a delicate hand than when sold to manufacturers, and are used for a greater variety of work. The machines which have proved best for all other purposes must be best for family use, and they are Singer's. The speed of our machines has lately been doubled. No other can compare with them in quantity of work.

☞ New machines of the latest improved style will be exchanged on liberal terms for old sewing machines of our own make, or for operative machines of other manufacturers. Local agents wanted to sell our machines.

N B.—All persons desiring full information about sewing machines can obtain it by applying for a copy devoted entirely to the subject. It will be sent gratis. I. M SINGER & CO.

FAREWELL TO EXETER.

BY W. P. B. JACKSON.

The time has come, the sad, sad time of parting—
Bitter emotions fill each swelling breast;
And memories sweet thro' each young heart are darting,
Like swift-winged swallows to their quiet nest.
The tear will come, the voice will sometimes falter,
The cheek will flush as by an inward force,
When we remember him who stole the halter
From Deacon Jones's* 4-year-old gray horse.

No more the bell will wake us from our slumbers,
Telling the hour for the morning prayer;
Others will listen to its golden numbers,
As they ring out in sweetness on the air.
No more we'll hearken to the slow declension
Of Latin nouns, by Freshmen newly fledged;
No more by mysteries of "Right Ascension,"
Shall the free spirit of of our minds be hedged.

No more we'll wander after bright May flowers,
In woods remote, beyond the 'Hampton Road,'
Or steal the fruits, which Nature, lavish, dowers
To bless the honest farmer's snug abode.
The thought of this will cause the mouth to water,
And send a flood of tears up to the eyes;
Fit counterpart of that immortal slaughter
We made one evening of those loved mince pies.†

How many long, long evenings have we wandered,
When moonlit skies poured down their silver rain;
How many were the happy hours we squander'd,
To Virgil due—by Horace claimed in vain,
When loving words and tender vows were spoken,
And pure heart-offerings on Love's altar laid;
When there were gates unhinged and windows broken,
For which the owners never have been paid.‡

In after years, with a tumultuous thronging,
These hoodoos fresh will come at Memory's call;—
And turning hither, with an eager longing,
We'll greet our 'alma mater,' Phillips Hall.
Fdr though in other scenes loved forms may charm us,
We leave old Exeter in tearful glee;
With only one forboding thought to harm us—
That as we're so attached, our trunks may be.

* We would assure the reader that this "Jones" is merely a fictitious name. The author chose it because of its uncommonness: any other name, such as "Brown," or "Jenkins," might have been used, had the metre permitted of it.

† Ab ipsa Æsculapi, per nocten plurima volentes; etc.

‡ The author denies any participation in the proceedings recorded in this stanza.

☞ In all parts of Virginia the people are busy harvesting ice, with the expectation that no supply will be needed from the North next summer. The Snow Hill, Md., Shield says 25,000 bushels were housed there last week.

IN DEBT AND OUT OF DEBT.—Of what hideous progeny of ill is debt the father! What invasions of self respect, what double dealing! How in due season it will carve the frank, open face into wrinkles; how like a knife it will stab an honest heart.—And then its transformation. How it has been known to change a goodly face into a mask of brass. How, with the miserable custom of debt, has the true man become a callous trickster! A freedom from debt, and what nourishing sweetness may be found in cold water; what tooth-someness in a dry crust; what ambrosial nourishment in a hard egg! 'Be sure of it, he who dines out of debt, though his meal be a biscuit and an onion, dines in the Apollo.

And then for a raiment, what warmth in a thread-bare coat, if the tailors receipt be in your pocket! What Tyrian purple in the faded waistcoat not owed for; how glossy the well worn hat if it covers not the aching head of a debtor. Next the home sweets, the outdoor recreation of the freeman. The street door falls not a knell on his heart; the foot of the staircase, through his anatomy at the rap of his door he can crow "come in," and his pulse still beats healthfully, his heart sinks not in his bowels.

Poverty is a bitter draught, which may, and sometimes can, with advantage be gulped down. Though the drinker makes wry faces, there may after all, be a wholesome goodness in the cup. But debt, however courteously it may be offered, is the cup of Circe, and the wine spiced and delicious though it be, is poison. The man out of debt, though with a flaw in his jerkin, a crack in his shoe-leather, and a hole in his hat, is still the son of liberty, free as the singing lark; but the debtor, although clothed in the utmost bravery, what is he but a serf out upon a holiday—a slave, to be reclaimed at any instant by his owner, the creditor.

My son, if poor, see wine in running springs; see thy mouth water at a last week's roll; think a thread-bare coat the only proper thing to wear: and acknowledge a white-washed garret the fittest housing place for a gentleman! Do this and flee debt? So shall thy heart be at rest, and the sheriff confounded.—Douglas Jerrold.

EPIGRAMS.—This kind of poetry is not so much in fashion as it was in the time of Piron and Voltaire, when they fought their biggest personal battles with epigrams, as they did somewhat later with pamphlets and such like stupid instruments of hostility; but the epigram is undoubtedly the best form of wit, and provided it is really terse and pointed, will never cease to please. Here is one by Coleridge—rather too long—but exceedingly quaint and witty:—

"Sly Beelzebub took all occasions
To try Job's constancy and patience,
He took his honor, took his health,
He took his children, took his wealth,
His servants, horses, oxen, cows,
But cunning Satan did not take his spouse!
But Heaven, that brings out good from evil,
Had predetermined to restore
Two fold all he had before;
His servants, horses, oxen, cows—
Short-sighted devil! not to take his spouse!"

ALBANY, Jan. 19.—The train which left Syracuse at 8 this A. M. ran off the track on the Central Railroad, through the displacement of a rail, this afternoon, near Spencerville. David Howlitt of Utica, a brakeman, was killed; J. Mahoney of Albany, brakeman, had both legs cut off and cannot survive; J. Smith of Johnstown, a passenger in the first car, had both legs broken. Several passengers were more or less injured, but none others seriously.

HOT WATER FOR HOUSE PLANTS.—A correspondent of the Boston Cultivator, writing of the management of house plants, says:

The way to have healthy plants is to shorten all struggling growth, and remove every leaf and flower as soon as the least symptoms of decay is perceivable, washing them occasionally with warm water, from the fine nose of a watering pot held high above them, thus giving them the benefit of a warm shower at any time or place.

But the thing of all others most important, is to water them with hot water at all times; hot to the touch, even beyond what is supposed to be prudent until after experiment—and it is only necessary to watch the result on the health and vigor of the plants, especially when in bloom, to be convinced of the virtue of this "grand specific."

The writer says he has fuchsias now in bloom, mere cuttings about six inches in height, not one failing out of seven, or even more cuttings, planted in a single pot and watered with hot water.

SHIPWRECK AND LOSS OF LIFE.—A despatch by the Cape Cod Marine Line reports that the barque New Empire, Capt. Randall, from Mobile for Boston, with a cargo of cotton, went ashore on Monday evening at 6 o'clock, on the outer rocks off Cohasset. She drifted over and went on Black Ledge, where she bilged and is full of water.

The crew effected a landing with the life boat, and were rescued with the greatest difficulty. One man was drowned, another had an arm broken, and another a leg broken. The vessel lies half a mile from the shore. The surf is very heavy.

We also learn that the ship California, from Surinam, with a cargo of sugar and molasses on board, while at anchor in Gloucester harbor, dragged her anchors, was driven out by the force of the wind on Monday, and drifted across the bay and went ashore on Black Ledge, Cohasset, near the barque New Empire, reported ashore. Only three men were on board the ship.—They were saved, but the vessel will probably go to pieces. The ship and cargo were owned by Geo. H. Rogers of Gloucester.

☞ Rev. E. W. Jackson, temperance agent for Maine, as we learn from the Saco Democrat, held a temperance meeting at Central Hall, Biddeford, on Sunday evening. The hall was well filled, notwithstanding the severity of the weather.—Mayor Somes presided, assisted by several clergymen. Mr. Jackson argued for a prohibitory liquor law, as the only sound and effectual legal principle to restrain the evils of intemperance. All license laws had been a failure; but the prohibitory laws had been eminently successful. Mr. J. said he had been employed by the Maine State Temperance Committee to lecture, and he would invite the clergymen of these towns to lecture upon temperance, as had been done in Portland.

THE DEATH OF HUGH MILLER.—The advices by the last steamer leave it no longer in doubt that Hugh Miller died the death of a suicide. A post-mortem examination was held by the medical authorities, and they came to the following conclusion:

"The cause of death we found to be a pistol shot through the left side of the chest, and this we are satisfied was inflicted by his own hand. From the diseased appearances found in the brain, taken in connection with the history of the case, we have no doubt that the act was suicidal, under the impulse of insanity."

The following lines to his wife were found written on a sheet of paper lying on a table beside the corpse:

"Dearest Lydia—My brain burns. I must have walked; and a fearful dream arises upon me. I cannot bear the horrible thought. God and Father of the Lord Jesus Christ have mercy upon me. Dearest Lydia, dear children, farewell. My brain burns as the recollections grow. My dear wife, farewell. HUGH MILLER."

CABINET.—The last speculations about the new Cabinet indicate a change of no slight importance in its construction. Of course we do not say how much or how little credit they are entitled to. The correspondent of the Tribune writes from Washington:

Recent developments give reasonable assurance that Gen. Cass is defeated for the Premiership. An immense adverse pressure has been brought to bear, which he could not resist. Mr. Buchanan has said, within a few days, if he could settle on a Secretary of State, the rest would follow naturally within twenty-four hours. The Southern interest, headed by Mr. Toombs, is making a formidable demonstration in favor of Mr. Toucey, in preference to Mr. Clifford, as the New England man.

Robins were seen on Saturday afternoon within six miles of Boston.

THE LOTTERY BUSINESS.—Gift enterprises, joint stock associations, and other forms of lotteries on a small scale, are abundant just now. One of these affairs at Chicago lately turned out an entire and absolute swindle; most of them are half or two-third swindles. The Chicago affair was called the Union Joint Stock Company, with 100,000 shares of $1 each. The directors sold 65,000, and retained in their own hands 35,000 tickets, and they had the luck to draw all the prizes, thus realizing $65,000 by the operation. So great was the indignation among ticket holders that the directors thought it prudent to leave with their easily gotten fortunes.

It may not be generally known that this species of gambling is a penal offense in Massachusetts. Making or selling a lottery ticket incurs a fine of not over $2000, one half to go to the informer; and a second offence is punishable with imprisonment in addition to the fine.—Boston Jour.

The law in New Hampshire is about the same, though the fines are not so heavy; and we guess the fact is "generally known," both here and in Massachusetts, that all lotteries are illegal—even the decision of the simplest case among friends. As the item above says that "most gift enterprises" are "half or two-thirds swindles," it would seem to imply that there may be and are some "schemes" honestly and honorably carried through. We would not trust a man in one business, who would cheat in any other; and we don't see why the exception of games of chance is to be made.

☞ In the Supreme Court of Maine, held in York County last week, the following case was tried, interesting to some of our neighbors, locally,—and interesting generally, as relating to the duties and liabilities of towns. The report is from the Saco Democrat.

Henry Sargent Jr. vs. Town of Eliot.—This was an action brought to recover damages for an injury said to have been received by Sargent on the 23d of January, 1854, by coming in contact with a loaded sled of wood, which was lying on or near a wheel rut in a road in Eliot. The plff. endeavored to pass the wood with a Daguerrean saloon, and by some means got entangled and fastened between the Saloon and the load of wood. The plff. proved most conclusively that he was severely injured by reason of the accident; that his eye was badly cut, some of his ribs broken, collar bone broken, &c., and that in consequence of the injury received, he was unable for a long period of time to attend to his ordinary business. There was also evidence that the injuries received by him were of a permanent character. The jury were out about four hours and a half, and came in with a verdict for the plaintiff for two hundred seventy-two dollars and eighty-seven cents. Hayes and Tapley for plf. Leland and J. N. Goodwin for deft.

A writer in the London Lancet says that if persons who are addicted to sprees will, when they feel the periodical appetite coming on, take half a drachm of ipecac, and vomit, they will lose the appetite for the time entirely; and if they follow up the emetic plan, will cure themselves of the habit. When the intense desire for alcoholic stimulants comes on, the stomach is at fault; evacuate it, and the desire is removed.

☞ One of the Southern railroads has lately set the subject of morality in a new light by putting a mercantile value upon it. The value of temperance in an engineer is $37 50 a quarter; in a conductor $25; in a woodman, brakeman, &c., $15. Seventy-one have been induced to forego spirituous liquors, and the railroad has found itself a gainer by the arrangement.

☞ The police of the city of Breslau in in Silesia, have been instructed to see to the tuning of hand organs which are allowed to be played in the streets, and to take care that they do not offend by unpleasing discords, to prevent which they are subjected to a monthly inspection and trial by authorized officers of the municipality.

The barque Tedesco, of Boston, Captain Peterson, from Cadiz Nov. 5, with a cargo of salt for Boston, went ashore in the gale of Sunday night, near Swampscot, and became a total loss. Six bodies have washed ashore on the beach. It is also stated that the bodies of six men have been recovered from the wreck. A cask of wine and some raisin boxes have also been picked up. It is also said there are two other large vessels ashore at the same place.

The steamship Washington arrived at New York Tuesday, after a passage of twenty days. She brings Capt. Hartstein and his companions, who took the barque Resolute so England. Her intelligence is anticipated by other arrivals.

Hon. Wm. A. Newell, republican, has been inaugurated as Governor of New Jersey.

CONGRESS.

TUESDAY, Jan. 20.

SENATE.—Mr. Clay of Alabama introduced a bill repealing all laws allowing bounties to vessels engaged in the cod-fishery; he advocated the bill in a speech of some length, and dwelt upon the sectional nature of the bounties which cause the "codfish aristocracy" of six States to be supported by the people of twenty-five others.

The result of this bounty was that the farmers, mechanics, and miners of the country were taxed in order to raise $300,000 per annum to distribute among wealthy ship owners, principally of Maine and Massachusetts, for attending to their own business, and were then taxed twenty or thirty per cent. to provide proper guards to keep these men from robbing the government.

This was a question, not merely of political economy, but of political morality. It was a question whether Congress shall longer continue to offer a premium for fraud and perjury.

Mr. Seward said the object of these bounties must have been to promote the commerce, and fortify the navigating interests of the United States, so as to enable successful competition with the navigating interests of Great Britain and other European countries. More than a hundred years ago very vigorous opposition was made to the treaty of peace between France and England, on the ground that the treaty permitted the citizens of the latter country to participate in the Cod fisheries within 3 leagues of the coast; and more or less of the same policy was continued throughout, so long as this country was under the government of Great Britain.

He would say to the Senator from Alabama that it was no aristocracy that was engaged in taking fish. If either class was especially interested in this measure, it was probably the democracy of New England, and it was, therefore, Codfish Democracy, instead of Codfish Aristocracy. It was not the aristocracy that were chiefly concerned in the cheapness of this article, but it enters like tea, coffee, sugar, and salt, into the consumption of the poor, rather than the rich. He regarded the attempts to raise prejudice against the fishing bounties on such grounds, as unjust.

There might be grounds for the charge that the continuance of these bounties encouraged frauds on the revenue, but the moment any government began to raise revenue in any manner, either by direct or indirect taxation, the moment that it began to tax any branch of industry, that moment the door was opened for jobs and frauds of various kinds. But since this was not a measure of revenue, but one relating to commerce, he moved its reference to the Committee on Commerce.

Mr. Clay had no objection to such reference, and when the bill came up, he would enter fully into the subject in reply to the Senator from New York, and produce proof.

Mr. Fessenden referred to the vituperative strain of remark, not only against the laws granting bounties, but at the operation of those laws, in which Mr. Clay had seen proper to indulge. He (Fessenden) was of opinion that there must be some good reason why these laws passed in the first place and continued on the statute books more than 60 years. He believed that when the subject was again discussed, there would be found two sides to the question. There might be wrong in the matter, but he believed that the good had over-balanced the evil.

Mr. Clay said if he had used harsh language, it was fully justified by the constituents of the Senator from Maine.

He could not be just or generous towards tyrannny, and he knew of no greater tyranny than taking the money out of the pockets of one class, and putting it into the pockets of another class, not in consideration of any public service, but merely for doing their own business.

HOUSE.—The bill extending the Land laws to the lands lying east of the Cascade Mountains, was passed.

The House then took up the adverse report on the petition of the inhabitants of Arizonia, praying for the establishment of a territorial government, and other business, in accordance with the special order, relative to Territories.

Bills were passed, appropriating $30,000 for a Penitentiary at Nebraska, establishing three additional land districts in that Territory, and for completing and opening roads in Oregon, Washington, and Minnesota Territories. Adjourned.

SEND THEM A BIBLE.—The annual ceremonies attendant upon the opening of the Missouri Legislature, the other day, were delayed because no Bible could be found upon which to administer the necessary oath to the Governor! A committee was sent to look up a copy,—but they do say, that after an hour's hunt, not one could be found in the capitol. Gentlemen of the Home Missionary Society—at your next meeting we move an appropriation for Jefferson City.

The Sergeant-at-Arms of the U. S. House of Representatives has arrested Mr. Chester, who refused to testify before the Investigating Committee of that branch; but is detained at Philadelphia by the storm.

"Sweet are the slumbers of a virtuous man." Yes, provided his health is good. A sound stomach is quite as essential to sound sleep as a good conscience.

☞ The New York Legislature has voted a gold medal, to cost $500, to Lieut. Hartstein, the Arctic navigator and rescuer of the ship Resolute.

The two branches of the Pennsylvania legislature, having failed to meet in convention for the election of U. S. Senator, a new law must be passed before the election can be made.

Hon. James Harlan, whose election as U. S. Senator from Iowa was declared illegal, was on Friday last re-elected by 30 majority.

One of the buildings of Amherst College, known as "North College," was destroyed by fire on Monday night. The students saved most of their furniture.

The Kansas Legislature is in session.—Gov. Geary recommends the repeal of several obnoxious laws, but seems to favor the pro-slavery party.

Obscene books and practices have been detected among the school children at Lowell, and the school committee are endeavoring to eradicate them.

The case, Pickering vs. Robinson, was not given to the jury, but referred.

☞ The second lecture of the Young Americans' course, Readings by Mr. Wm. G. Nowell, came off last evening at Washington Hall. The room was crowded, and the reading fine. The next lecture will be delivered Feb. 5, by Master Wm. A. Rice.

☞ It will be seen by the advertisements, that the Union Concert, by the Old Folks Choir and Lawrence's Orchestra, is to take place on Sunday Evening, Feb. 1: and a Rehearsal at Exchange Hall on Sunday Evening next.

☞ Mrs. Wyatt, formerly landlady at a hotel in Dover, N. H., and of the Marlborough hotel in Boston, has written a book, entitled, "The Autobiography of a Landlady of the Old School, with Personal Sketches of Eminent Characters, Places, and Miscellaneous Items." Rev. Hubbard Winslow commends the book as interesting and instructive, and says that reverses of fortune have made exertion or dependence the only alternative of the author.

Mrs. Wyatt, then Mrs. Hayes, a widow, kept a private school in Portsmouth, previous to the war of 1812.

LEGISLATIVE.—Mr. Monroe has given notice in the Ohio House of Representatives, that he will soon introduce a bill of amend the Constitution of that State, by striking out the word "white" therefrom. A petition was also presented praying for the passage of such a bill, and "the repeal of all laws making a distinction on account of color."

A bill has been introduced into the North Carolina House, to admit negro testimony in cases where white persons are tried for exciting insurrection. The bill is not regarded with favor.

"SUFFER LITTLE CHILDREN TO COME UNTO ME."—A gentleman in West Newton recently lost a lovely child of seven years of age under circumstances of a very affecting character. She had been suffering from a common cold for several days, but no uneasiness was felt with regard to her, and she continued as lively and playful as usual. One morning a neighbor called in to pay the family a visit, during which the child suddenly stopped playing, looked up to her face with a composed and serious expression and said—"I am going to die—I am going to Heaven—I shall be an angel." The lady attempted to reason her out of the idea, considering it to be a childish fancy, but she reiterated the remark. The little girl grew worse during the day, and towards evening was seized with croup, which terminated her existence on the same night. Her last words were: "Do you see the angels over there?"

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—The Washington correspondent of the Herald telegraphs that Mr. Mace has prepared an amendment which he will offer to the tariff bill, which will receive the entire vote of the South. It is as follows—that a duty of 15 per cent. be levied ad valorem on all imported articles whatever, except coin and bullion.

DESTITUTION.—A family of four persons was found at East Boston, by the police, Monday night, in a building known as the Beehive, without food. They were provided for. A family of seven persons was found by the police at East Boston in a state of destitution. Five of the family are children, nearly all of whom are sick with the scarlet fever. The case was made known to the overseers of the poor, and the family temporarily provided for by the police.—Chron.

RAILROAD TROUBLES.—We learn through private sources that the Boston, Concord Montreal railroad of New Hampshire, has suspended, and gone into the hands of trustees or assignees. The company owes debts exceeding $1,000,000, on which the stock holders are personally liable. Suits are commenced and the Directors have conveyed their property to avoid attachments.

This road extends from Concord to Wells River, 93 miles, and cost about $3,000,000. The laws of New Hampshire make any stockholder liable for all the debts of corporation in the same manner as partners.—State of Maine.

HIGHLANDS, Jan. 20.—The brig wrecked near the Ocean House on Sunday, proves to have been the Emeline, of some eastern port, with a cargo of logwood, scrap iron and copper. She has gone to pieces, and the cargo is strewed along the beach. All the crew perished, and some of the bodies have been found. The name of one of the men was James Knox.

There were manufactured at Machias, Me., last year, 32,300,000 feet of lumber, and 47,500,000 laths.

In Corsicana, Texas, pork is 3 1-2 cents per pound. Beef is sold at from 2 to 3 cents, and corn at 50 to 75 cents per bush.

Wolfe's Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps.

A SUPERLATIVE TONIC, DIURETIC, ANTI DYSPEPTIC AND INVIGORATING CORDIAL.

This medicinal diet drink, manufactured solely by the proprietor, at his distillery in Schiedam, in Holland, expressly for medicinal purposes. It is the pure tincture of juniper, distilled from the best barley that can be selected in Europe, at any cost. It is flavored and medicated, not by the common harsh berry, but by the choice botanical variety of the aromatic Italian juniper berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spirituous solvent, and thus it becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether transcendent in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcholic stimulant now in use in the world.

It has been submitted to all the first chemists and physicians in the United States, who endorse it over their own signatures as one of the great essentials of the materia medica. It is now prescribed with great success in gravel, gout, rheumatism, obstructions of bladder and kidneys, dyspepsia, whether acute or chronic, in general debility, sluggish circulation of the blood, inadequate assimilation of food, and exhausted energy, are acknowledged by the whole medical faculty, and attested in their highest written authorities. Put up in quart and pint bottles, enveloped in yellow paper, with the proprietor's name on the bottle, cork and label. For sale by all the respectable Druggists and Country Merchants.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

Since the introduction of this superior medicinal beverage into the United States in 1848, a number of the liquor mixers of New York have put up a mixed and poisonous Gin, which they call Schnapps, London Cordial Gin, and various other names, with forged medical certificates, certifying to the purity of their article. The public should be on their guard against such impositions. Read the following extract from the New York press.

From the New York Mercury.

Fraudulent Imitations of Superior Commodities.

Among the many dishonesties of trade, which the moral sense of the community is called upon to suppress, we would particularly notice a most pernicious and infamous practice adopted by unscrupulous dealers of imitating and counterfeiting the exterior appearance and precautionary labels of popular drugs, medicaments, and other articles of personal consumption, and thus, by seizing upon the well acquired reputation of an enterprising trader, palming off most destructive and worthless compounds, to the sore detriment not only of the consumer, but to the character of the man who has expended thousands of dollars in bringing the genuine article into esteem and demand. These petty larceny thieves are the pest of all honorable dealers and traders, and the trade is as much highway robbery as the violent appropriation of their neighbor's purse; in fact, they are beneath the burglar and highwayman in dignity—for those latter felons exhibit a bravery or recklessness of character in nowise distinguishing the mercantile assassin, who stabs in the dark. And ought they not be rewarded with a punishment commensurate with the cowardice of their crime? We were led to these remarks by accidentally observing a spurious counterfeit of Udolpho Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps. The labels were imitated perfectly, with the slight addition of a few letters to plead technical avoidance of the law against counterfeiting; the bottles were very similar, and everything carefully prepared to impose upon a careless purchaser. Now is not the man who perpetrated this fraud a low-lived robber? Assuredly he is; for as Mr. Wolfe has expended large sums to bring his genuine imported Schnapps into popular demand, that demand may justly be considered a part of his capital in trade, and a fellow stealing a part of his reputation, is as much of a thief as if he had stolen a barrel of his Schnapps in bulk. And to this crime he adds a further one of defrauding the community, by giving them a ruinous article for the money they intended to expend for a commodity the which they had confidence. And, further, every man who participates indirectly in the fraud, by selling spurious articles, is as much of an offender as the principal who planned the imposition. We trust that Mr. Wolfe will obtain names, not only of the concoctors of these counterfeits, but of every man offering them for sale, and then publish them to the world; for his own reputation and the health of the community demand that all parties should be nailed to the pillory of popular execration.

MEDICAL REFERENCES IN EASTERN STATES.

The following correspondence affords such a body of medical testimony to the inestimable remedial properties pure Holland Gin, as was probably never before arrayed in print in behalf of any article in the pharmacopœia. The Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps, as admitted by the profession—as proved by an amount of scientific and other evidence that would form a library in itself—is precisely the pure stimulant, tonic and diuretic that is required.

To the numerous letters and extracts from letters it has been deemed proper to add the names of some five hundred physicians who use the Schnapps, and kindly permit the proprietor to refer to them. These names will be found in their appropriate place.

It will be seen that the following extracts, &c., cover a space of nearly two years.—Most of the letters, however, were written in reply to a circular written in 1852; and in every instance where specimens have been forwarded, they have been approved; so that it may be stated, without exaggeration, that full two thousand physicians are now successfully using the Schnapps in their practice.

In New England, where the Maine Liquor Law prevails, the advantage of having such a guaranteed article for remedial purposes, instead of the impure spirits sold by the persons appointed under the liquor law, must be apparent; and every friend of humanity must hope that the suggestion to that effect, in a letter from a well known practitioner in Boston, whose remarks are quoted among the following extracts, will not be thrown away.

It is bad enough to give drugged spirits to the healthy; but to administer them to the sick, is little better than constructive murder.

Dr. Frederick Say, New London, Conn., September 17, 1852, testifies as follows to the general adulteration of liquors, and the desirableness of reliable articles:—

"A few days ago I was favored with a circular from you, respecting an article of Holland Gin, of superior stamp. I have long regretted that the race of man should be made to suffer so horribly from bad distillation, and also by the murderous process of adulteration, &c., &c. A great desideratum in the art of medicine might be attained by attending strictly to a sound philosophical manufactory of the pure spirits. We can get no spirits in this vicinity that we can strictly rely on as remedial agents."

The subjoined letter, from Dr. Paine, of Manchester, New Hampshire, relates to one of the most valuable medicinal properties possessed by the Aromatic Schnapps, and shows that it acts as a specific in a very painful disease—the gravel:

"FRIEND WOLFE—Permit me to address you a few lines, which you are at liberty to use, if you think proper, in respect to your medicine called Schiedam Schnapps. I have have had a very obstinate case of the gravel and stone, of some five years' standing, causing very acute pain in every attempt to urinate. After using many remedies without much relief, I was induced to try a bottle of your medicine. In the course of three days it proved effectual, dislodging large pieces of stone, some of which were as large as a marrowfat pea. I continued the cordial according to directions, and the patient continues to gain, and is fast recovering. I think a medicine of so much value in so distressing a complaint, should be known to the public and the world at large. And I, for one, must give it my approbation and signature.

"THOMAS PAINE, M. D."

Dr. George Heston, Boston, August 18, 1852, receives with pleasure a bottle of the article, for the purpose of testing it in his medical practice.

Dr. B. Brown, of the same city, under date of August 12, 1852, writes in a similar strain, and complains of the frequent adulteration of every species of spirits.

Dr. J. C. Garland, Nashua, New Hampshire, September 10, 1852, sends a communication, from which the following is an extract:

"I will very gladly accept a bottle, and if it proves what it claims to be, will do what I can to introduce it to the suffering who may need such a remedy, as well as to my professional brethren; for we are more troubled to get a fair article of Holland Gin, than almost any other remedy."

Dr. William Hawes, Boston, August 16, 1852, writes as follows:

"The peculiar institution, (the Maine Law) prevailing in our State, has made me curious to know more of your article, as it may possibly, from more or less necessity, become an essential article at the stores of retailing druggists and apothecaries."

Dr. B. P. F. Randall, of the same city, August, 13, 1852, expresses a wish to try the Schnapps on a patient who has received some benefit from the best Gin procurable from other sources, and hopes the pure article will cure him."

Dr. E. G. Cross, of Guilford Centre, Vermont, August 9, 1852, accepts a specimen, and hails with pleasure the opportunity of obtaining a good Holland Gin, so useful in medical practice, and so difficult to procure.

Dr. S. M. Whipple, New London, Conn., September 14, 1852, says:

"Having experienced the various difficulties which you mention in procuring a good article of Holland Gin, on account of the various adulterations, I will simply say, that if you furnish me with a pure article in your Schiedam Schnapps, you will greatly oblige me."

Dr. A. A. Moulton, Meredith, New Hampshire, September 9, 1852, desires a specimen, and concludes thus:

"If it proves to be a pure Holland Gin, I shall most certainly order more, as it is with us a great desideratum."

Dr Oliver B. Briggs, Pequonnock, Conn., October 5, 1852, remarks as follows:

"I have now several patients for whom I would prescribe a pure article of Holland Gin, if I could obtain any in which I could place confidence. I will therefore thankfully accept a trial bottle of your Schnapps, and if as described, will send an order for more."

Dr. J. R. Sanborn, of New Market, New Hampshire, Sept. 9, 1852, states that a pure article of Gin is not to be had there, and sends an order for the Schnapps.

Dr. W. A. Weeks, McIndoe's Falls, Vermont, writes, October 26, to the same effect.

Dr. W. C. Williams, New Milford, Conn., October 28, 1852, mentions that he has a patient whose case requires Holland Gin, and desires a specimen bottle.

Dr. E. A. Parsons, St. Albans, Maine, October 25, 1852, describes a case of renal disease, in which all other remedies have failed; but in which he hopes to succeed with the Schnapps.

Dr. E. G. Snow, Waterbury, Connecticut, September, 1852, deplores the want of a wholesome Gin. He has been obliged to give up prescribing the article, because he cannot get it pure. He will gladly avail himself of the Schnapps in his practice.

Dr. Wells Board, Kent, Conn., September 4, 1852, writes that he is seventy one years of age, suffers from a disease of the bladder and kidneys, and will use the article in his own case, and recommend it.

A. C. Smith, Esq., Brattleboro', Vermont, November 6; 1852, writes to this effect—

"In behalf of Syrus Butterfield, M. D., of this town, in reply to a line from you, would say he would like a bottle of your pure Holland Gin, or Schiedam Schnapps, to test its virtues in the medical profession."

Dr. L. Wells Hibbard, Bellows Falls, August 13, 1852—

"I am of the opinion that it might be a very convenient and efficient remedy for many of the bad complaints."

From Dr. J. B. Cross, Boston, August 10, 1852—

"That the pure Holland Gin is a very valuable medicine, all admit; that it is very difficult to obtain, is also certain. I have very little hope of obtaining it in Boston, and shall be happy to receive a sample of yours."

From Dr. Roderick A. White, Simsbury, Connecticut, August 17, 1852—

"Being a member of the profession, and knowing the difficulty of procuring a good article of Gin for medical purposes, I should be pleased to receive a specimen of your manufacture whenever you see fit to forward it."

Dr. Ira F. Prouty, Paper Mill Village, New Hampshire, September 13, 1852, writes:

"Such an article as you represent will be well received in this section, as much relief may be had in the use of it, particularly by those in advanced life."

From Dr. E. O. Whipple, Danby, Vermont, August 13, 1852—

"I have long since ceased to use Gin, except in very limited quantities, on account of the difficulty of obtaining a genuine article, but as I am constantly meeting cases where I should use such as yours purports to be, you would confer a favor by sending a few bottles as soon as convenient."

From Dr. A. S. Butler, Sudbury, Vermont, August 10, 1852—

"Your circular, recommending the Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps as a medicine in various abnormal conditions of the system, meets my cordial acceptance, knowing that various compounds are and have been sold under the name of Gin, and the want of an article that physicians may rely upon, induces me to answer the intimation referred to in your circular."

From Dr. T. B. Adams, Boston, August 7, 1852—

"A patient of mine is now suffering under complaints which I have thought might be relieved by something of this sort. But we cannot obtain the right article here. Send me a bottle of your Schnapps."

From J. B. Woodward, M. D., Waterbury, Vermont, May 2, 1853—

"I am treating at the present time a chronic affection of the kidneys, which has shown itself very obstinate to diuretics, and I have been advised to use your Schnapps."

From Dr. J. I. Farrington, Sealrook, New Hampshire, Oct. 22, 1852—

"I have found it almost impossible to get an article of Gin that would completely answer my purpose."

From Dr. G. M. Hall, Swanton, Vermont, July 18, 1852—

"Truly glad was I to learn where a reliable article of Aromatic Spirits could be obtained. The profession generally have long felt the necessity of establishing an importation of the pure article."

From Dr. John Jenkins, Boston, August 20, 1852—

"I am gratified to learn that there is one place where pure Gin can be obtained. I have been much troubled to obtain pure liquor of any kind, especially of Holland Gin."

S. Perham, M. D., Boston, August 10, 1852, writes as follows—

"I should be very happy to try a bottle of your Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, and if it proves to be what your card asserts, I should wish to make use of it in my practice. I not only use it in the diseases you mention, but prepare many medicines with it for numerous other complaints."

Dr. D. Calkins, town physician and surgeon at Lyme, Connecticut, says in a letter dated October 14, 1852—

"I consider your Schiedam Schnapps a superior article, and one that will not come short of our highest expectations. It is an article the medical fraternity have long wanted. I have used it so far with every apparent success. Please forward me as soon as you can conveniently, twelve bottles.

D. CALKINS."

Dr. McGowan of Boston, writing August 11, 1852, mentions the difficulty of obtaining Compound Spirits of Juniper—an article considered useful in dropsy, urinary diseases, &c., and then says—

"I felt happy on receiving your circular, that I would have in your Holland Gin a good substitute for what I had so long and so often felt the want of."

Dr. C. Robbins, of Boston, celebrated for his cure of epilepsy, cholera, &c., complains of the great difficulty of procuring a pure Holland Gin, and speaks of the Schiedam Schnapps as follows, under date of October 5, 1853—

"I commended your article in four cases—two in Connecticut, one in Vermont, and one in Rhode Island. An article of this character is much needed. I have been unable to find a substitute in the materia medica for pure Holland Gin. C. ROBBINS.

Dr. William H. Cooper, of Boston, in a letter of August 12, 1852, refers to the Schnapps as a palliative in asthma, with which he is himself affected for two months every fall. He says—

"Although opposed to a constant use of the article, I am convinced by experience that Gin is a very valuable medicine in asthma."

Dr. R. L. Hinkly, of East Boston, Aug. 11, 1852, writes—

"I have just received yours of the 7th inst., and being convinced that pure Holland Gin is possessed of many medicinal properties, which, when judiciously administered, produced very beneficial results, I shall be happy to introduce your Schiedam Schnapps among my friends in this vicinity."

A letter from Dr. S. E. Maynard, Montville, Connecticut, dated Nov. 1, 1852, contains the following passage—

"Physicians here find it very difficult to procure good Gin. I should think yours a very useful article, and I should like you to inform me by letter how I can procure it."

From Dr. Robbins, Boston, October 13, 1852—

"My attention has been arrested within the last two or three years to the fact (respect) that as I am inclined to believe overlooked) affections of the urinary and genital organs. I have now five or six patients under treatment for the latter of these affections, and am disposed to make the experiment of your 'Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps.' You will oblige me by forwarding some as soon as possible."

From Dr. William Prescott, Physician to State Prison, Concord, N. H., September 7, 1852—

"It will give me great pleasure to accept a bottle of your pure Holland Gin. I will make a fair trial of the article, and communicate to you the result."

Dr. J. W. Warren, of Boston, under date of August, 1852, says—

"I have been long in pursuit of such an article, and consequently shall be very glad to avail myself of it."

From Dr. H. S. Lee, Boston, August 11, 186:—

"Many of my patients laboring under nephritic complaints, have felt the want of a pure Holland Gin, but have not generally been able to obtain it here. I shall be pleased to receive a bottle of the Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps."

Dr. Samuel Webber, of Charlestown, Massachusetts, remarks, Sept. 5, 1852—

"I have occasionally wanted a similar article for medical use, and have found it difficult to procure one that might be depended on; so that if what you offer can readily be had, it will be a desirable thing."

Dr. Lloyd Seely, of Easton, Connecticut, testifies to the urgent want of such a preparation as the Schnapps, in a letter, dated Sept. 24, 1852, from which the following is an extract—

"For many years it has been almost impossible to procure a genuine article of any species of distilled liquor. Patients whose peculiar condition required the aid of stimulants of the purest and most perfect kinds, have often been utterly unable to obtain anything of the sort which was unadulterated. They and I would rejoice to find a perfect article, manufactured with honesty and skill.—Our doctrine here is, that no healthy man can receive stimulants into his system without detriment; but diseased action sometimes demands artificial aid, and then we want choice medical agents. I have now a wealthy and aged patient, whose system is benefitted by a moderate use of Gin; and he asked me yesterday to point to him a place where he could get one of the choicest and best. I can now satisfy his interrogatory."

Dr. Moody D. Page, of Manchester, N. H. Sept. 10, 1852, says—

"It is with difficulty that physicians can obtain any spirits suitable for medicinal purposes; therefore as I use many mixtures containing Gin in my practice, your Schiedam Schnapps will be received by me with the greatest gratification; and I think the introduction of a pure article of Holland Gin in this city, will meet the approbation of the physicians and patients general."

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. FRANCE & Co. are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the drawing next to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are offered for sale, unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Ternary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

No More Honorable.—The Concord Statesman announces that the word Honorable is not hereafter to be used in that paper "as a title to men."

An Inveterate Joker.—Mr. Abram Beard, the editor of the Nashua Telegraph, famous for his dog stories, is a capital joker. We last week published one of his best—which was a statement he made, that people not acquainted with such things would be astonished to see a shadow marked by the working of his press, palpably wearing a hole in the floor!

At the Manchester Horse Show, last summer, Beard was appointed Chairman of the Committee on Trick Horses—and in his report in his paper, he said the trick horses all "knew a trick worth two of that," and not one appeared.

In 1840, he was appointed Postmaster of Nashua, an office worth $2000 a year. During the height of John Tyler's treachcrous administration, some Southern editor asked, "Why is John Tyler like an ass?" Beard copied it, and gave as an answer, "Because he is an ass." In less than a week his office was taken from him.

William Crozier, the young mechanic who killed John and Henry Fleming in Monmouth, Ill., was discharged upon examination, the justice saying that the homicide was in self defence. It will be recollected that those young men attacked him with pistols, to make him renounce his attachment to their sister.

The Christian Ambassador, a Universalist paper published at Auburn, N. Y., says that the Universalist denomination have raised nearly $500,000 for educational purposes during the last five years.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)
No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers for Obtaining Patents, executed on the liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions; also, to give opinion and advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered from elsewhere. The following testimonials have given proof that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. They were, at that time, distinguished in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

Ancust 11, 1853.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business at this office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

Arnold's Vital Fluid

PURIFIES and strengthens the blood by eradicating, through a nice chemical action, the causes of impurities and humors. Hence its power to cure humors that mere medicine cannot cure. Hence its power of strengthening and vitalizing the blood. It furnishes nutriment to support the elements of which pure blood is composed. It eradicates and cleanses away what ever clogs and thickens the blood.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID

Renders the system strong and healthy, by freeing the blood and stomach from objectionable materials. It nerves and vitalizes the system, by furnishing the elements which give vitality.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID

Gives to the system an influence and effect similar to that produced by nerve tonics. It invigorates by strengthening the blood to brighter and better action—doing its work by beginning at the beginning. It is pleasant to the taste, and becomes a favorite wherever it is used.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID

Removes Biliousness in the most direct and easy manner, by neutralizing the cause. This is the principle of its action in removing illness generally. It neutralizes the cause, by freeing the blood from impediments to its proper fulfilment of its life-giving functions.

This principle of neutralizing the cause is why ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID CURES HUMORS that mere medicine cannot sensibly affect, and why it cures other diseases

Resulting from Poisons in the Blood, that mere medicinal preparations cannot alleviate. Humors are poisons in the blood, and it is their chemical action in neutralizing these poisons that ARNOLD'S GLOBULES AND VITAL FLUID are enabled to cure them so that they stay cured.

Vital Fluid 50 cents per Bottle; Globules 25 cents per box.

Prince & Co.'s Improved Melodeons.

THE OLDEST ESTABLISHMENT IN THE U.S.

Employing Two Hundred Men, and finishing

Eighty Instruments per Week.

BETWEEN 18,000 AND 19,000 of these instruments have been finished, and are now in use.

THE latest improvement in our Melodeons is the DIVIDED SWELL, secured to us by Letters Patent 22d May, 1855.—By means of this Swell Solo Passages may be played with the full power of the Wind Instrument, while the Accompaniment is soft and subdued.—Heretofore, all Melodeons made by us, will be furnished with this attachment without extra charge.

Extract from the Commercial Advertiser, July 27, '55.

"Messrs Prince & Co. could realize a handsome fortune by disposing of rights to other manufacturers to use their new improvement; but as they prefer to make it a feature in their Melodeons, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufacture"

In the short eight years since we commenced the manufacture of this new celebrated Musical Instrument, during which time we have finished and sold nearly NINETEEN THOUSAND, Voluntary testimonials to the excellence of our Instruments, from many of the most distinguished Professors of Music in different parts of the United States, have from time to time been received. Thus far we have said but little, and our advertisements were seldom seen for the reason that we could not supply the demand. We have lately erected one of the largest and most perfect Manufacturing Establishments in the United States and we now think that we can fill orders promptly. We therefore give one testimonial we have received.

NEW YORK, 15th Oct., 1855.

"G. A. Prince & Co.: Gentlemen—The Double Reed Melodeon has arrived, and a most charming instrument it is. It has been played on by Wallace, Dodd, Hodges, Wm Mason, and a host of others, and they all pronounce it one of the most beautiful toned reed instruments they have ever touched. Very truly, JAMES F. HALL."

We are not aware that the above mentioned Melodeon will be purchased elsewhere, for those we are daily finishing, and we can assure those who are inclined to favor us with their orders, that they will be furnished with an instrument equally as good. Our Instruments are all finished in Rosewood Cases, and the workmanship is of the very best quality. The styles and prices are—

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE celebrated machines are in practical and profitable use in all parts of the civilized world. In all the various trades, and in sewing every sort of fabric, either of cloth or leather, they have been fully tried and approved. Sewing machines of other manufacturers often fail to work, but SINGER'S MACHINES being strong, durable and simple in contrivance and workmanship. A perfect sewing machine kept employed affords a clear profit of $1000 a year; but an imperfect one is a bane of annoyance and vexation. The entire reliability of our machines is one great reason for their unparalleled popularity.

ALWAYS OPERATE PERFECTLY,

IT ALL KINDS OF FAMILY SEWING, of a trial and delicate construction, are recommended by other manufacturers. Such machines are made to catch the eye of the purchaser, but it is a sad truth in family sewing machines ought to be stronger than any other, because they go into less skillful hands than when used in manufactories, and need for a greater variety of work. The machines which have proved best for all other purposes must be best for family use, and they are singer's. The price of our machines has lately been doubled. No other can compare with them in quantity of work.

☞ New machine, of the latest improved style will be exchanged on liberal terms for old sewing machines of our own make, or for operative machines of other manufacturers. Local agents wanted to sell our machines.

N B. All persons desiring full information about sewing machines, can obtain it by applying for a copy of "I M Singer & Co's Illustrated Circular" entirely to the subject. It will be sent gratis. I. M. SINGER & CO.

SONG.—The power of song is great.—Wharton boasted that a song of his—and a wretched affair it was—drove James II from his throne. The Democratic party, (says the Boston Telegraph,) was sung out of power and spoils in 1840. But a more remarkable case than either of these was that which happened some years since in Brittany. The cholera having broken out there, and the mass of the people being remarkably ignorant, despair prevailed, and it seemed as if the pestilence were to have its own way without encountering an enemy. The authorities circulated printed placards by thousands, directing the people how to act, but the peasants paid no more attention to them than Mississippi to her promises to pay her debts. Now, the Britons are very fond of legendary songs, to the singing of which they will listen at all times, their singular country abounding with such things, many of which are wild and weird-like as that country itself, as it is proper they should be. It occurred to a bookseller that this peculiarity might be turned to account, and he had the medical placards written in rhymes, and they were used throughout the country in that way, and with such effect that the cholera was literally sung out of Brittany (Chansonne hors de la Bretagne,) Perhaps quite as remarkable an effect of the labors of the ballad-makers of Brittany was accomplished for the temperance cause. The Bretons are great drunkards. The clergy did what they could to stop the vice, but they had no occasion to complimentate themselves on the results of their labors. Then the ballad-makers took up the matter. It is said that some of these rude poets, shocked by the scenes which they witnessed at public gatherings, composed ballads reproving drunkards and showing the fatal effects of intoxication. These, it is added, were sung in the communes prior to fetes with such good effect, that the number of drunken peasants was greatly diminished.

SMALL PROOFS.—One day a gentleman asked Mr. Ricardo, "What is the secret by which you have accumulated so much wealth?" "I will tell you," said Mr. Ricardo. "I was always contented with small profits. I sold whenever I could make a gain, and never held on to goods in hope of a rise in price, a practice by which more lose than gain in a long run."

SUICIDE.—The Newport Argus says that Mr. Ebenezer Wood of Washington committed suicide on Sunday the 21st ult., by hanging himself with a rope. No cause is assigned for the rash act. His age was about 78 years. He leaves a wife and several children.

PAYING DEAR FOR THE WHISTLE.—The Missouri border ruffians, under the lead of Atchison & Co., have been a dear whistle to the State of Missouri. The St. Louis Democrat estimates that the conspiracy against the free emigration to Kansas has lost the people of Missouri, in their blockade of the river alone, at least $300,000 on steamboat passengers, and as much more on freight. The loss in the purchase of supplies, groceries, clothing, &c., — and provisions of the Missouri farmers, cannot be computed. The Democrat says:

It is safe to say each steamer plying in the Missouri river, would have paid for itself in one year, by the profits it would have derived from the white emigration to Kansas, and which has been lost by the illegal and outrageous interference of Atchison and his accomplices, with their business.

NEW DODGE OF THE LIQUOR MIXERS.—Since our exposure of the London Cordial Gin mon, they have tried a new dodge on the Southern and Western merchants.—They now bottle brandy, gin, rum, &c., with beautiful gilt labels with foreign names and old vintages, claiming medical properties, and having certificates of chemists, &c., attached.

A bottle was sent us as a sample. We sent it to a chemist to have it analyzed, and he pronounced it nothing but common American whiskey flavored with what is now called the "Oil of Cognac," a most deadly poison. The bottle was labelled Old Otard, vintage of 1803. We would caution the public against purchasing any brandy, wine, &c., in bottles, unless put up by some respectable firm, who are known not to be engaged in mixing liquors. We have the names and places of business of a number of these rascals, and intend to get the rest and expose them to the public.—We have not done with these chaps yet.—N. Y. State Register.

The price of genuine liquors is so enormous that the temptation to frauds and adulterations is very great, and such are the ingenuity and science applied to the manufacture of liquors that only the most experienced judges can detect the cheat.—The safest thing to buy is American whiskey, which is so much cheaper than other liquors that it is not so likely to be imitated; and upon which a man may make a brute of himself at a moderate expense, and contrive to kill himself in a few years.—Providence Journal.

And we advise the reader to let the useless, dangerous stuff alone.

EXTRAORDINARY AFFAIR IN EDINBURGH.—A startling event took place in Edinburgh, Scotland, in the arrest of a foreign doctor, who has very extensive practice among the higher classes, on a charge of willfully poisoning three sisters, and forging a will, by which he became their heir. Having attempted to raise money on the security of this suppositious will, it fell into the hands of a law agent, in the confidence of these unfortunate ladies, who instantly saw that the whole was a counterfeit. One sister still lingers, and the bodies of the two others will be exhumed.

The Lexington Branch Railroad train was passing the Brattle station, on a down grade in West Cambridge, Tuesday, when the locomotive threw the snow with such violence against the depot building that it broke in a window, filled the room, and knocked down a young man named William Lawton, senseless, cutting his face and hands very severely with the glass.

Morning Chronicle.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 23. 1857.

TRANSFER OF SLAVE PROPERTY.—We do not pretend to say (says the Baltimore American,) how far the recent rumors of insurrection have effected the result, but an attentive observation of our Southern exchange papers convince us that never before, probably, was there so general a disposition to sell negroes, as at present. Of course this state of things is more apparent in Virginia, Maryland, and the other "border" States, than elsewhere, but particularly in the first named Commonwealth. Throughout those States, from which escape is supposed to be easiest, we see indications of unusually heavy sales, while, the prices, without exception, show a large advance and an almost unlimited demand.

The reflections suggested by this state of affairs are potent, but they cover too wide a field, are the subject of too much angry feeling, and lead to too little that is practical just at present, to tempt us beyond a mere notice of the fact itself. Whether the fanaticism of the North will attain any rational purpose by hastening what appears to us the necessary ultimate migration of the colored race Southward, we do not care to say; but one thing is certain, while the mode of doing it is a pestilential nuisance, the benefits naturally redound to those who dispose of a very unsatisfactory and insecure property at a high valuation, while the negro himself is hurried to a more secure and lasting bondage, in precise proportion to the greater suitability of the climate and soil to which he is transferred. Every step the negro takes towards the sun widens the distance between him and nominal freedom—the freedom which "keeps the word of promise to the ear, but breaks it to the hope;" the freedom of the hovels of Boston, back alleys, and Ann street dens, and New York "Breweries," and "Five Point" basements—the freedom, in a word, which will not allow his presence in a railroad car, or allow his breath to pollute a theatre pit.

A Virginia editor is informed that the negro sales by auction in the city of Richmond alone, the past year, exceed four millions of dollars in value, and are still increasing.

The reader is requested to keep his countenance, while he remembers that no fanatic writes the above but the able editor of a Baltimore paper.—Taking the moral part of it to be the true gospel of slavery, let us see what it amounts to.

If every step the negro takes to the South, widens his distance from the nominal freedom [but real slavery?] of the North—then it brings him nearer to the nominal slavery [but real freedom?] of the South.

Is this so?—Then, if so, slavery is the most blessed condition of the negro,—(and the white laborer, too, vide the southern papers)—and the "fanaticism of the North" has done a fine thing when it has sent these laborers further away from the curse and danger of nominal freedom!

Does the reader say this is trash and nonsense? Very well; let it be so, and it follows properly from the extract above copied: it is just such trash as grows on such a soil.

CHARACTER!—An exchange paper says,—"The opposition papers are jubilant for the election of the infamous Cameron to the United States Senate from Pennsylvania. Honesty of character is of no account, as success is only virtue—bribery leaves no stain, as detection is only crime. Rejoice and laugh on, but remember"—&c. &c.

Well, everybody must laugh, except those who are terribly mad about it,—at the idea of so pure and spotless a man as Mr. Forney, being defeated by any infamous person who could command a majority of the votes in the legislature of Pennsylvania.

Cameron, however, as we see by the papers, was Mr. Buchanan's pet candidate and successor in the U. S. Senate, when Mr. B. went into the Cabinet. Doubtless Cameron was famous then, not infamous. But by and by, he went for Mr. Cass, as president, and then, and thenceforward, he became an infamous freesoiler, a black republican, and what not—descending lower and lower, till at last he has been chosen U. S. Senator. Facilis descensus averni.

THE BRIGHTON ROAD RUFFIANS.—In the Cambridge Police Court the four persons—Patrick Dunn, Thomas Wilson, Thomas Brannon, and James Monahan—charged with committing the assault on the Brighton Road, were arraigned on three separate complaints. One charging them with committing a felonious assault on John C. Boyson; one on Elizabeth M. Boyson; and the other for assault and battery on the persons of Geo. W. Boyson and James L. Stone.

Owing to the inability of Mr. Boyson, the principal witness, to be present, the examination was deferred to Tuesday, the 28th inst.

The defendants were ordered to find sureties in the sum of $2,200 each for their appearance. Wilson and Brannon obtained the required bail, but Dunn and Monahan were remanded to prison.

CONGRESS.

WEDNESDAY, Jan. 21.

SENATE.—Mr. James S. Green, elected Senator for Missouri, in place of Mr. Atchison, appeared and was qualified.

Mr. Seward presented a petition from the Geographical Society of the city of New York, protesting against the coinage of three dollar and three cent pieces, and praying that none but decimal coins may be issued from the mint. Referred to the Committee on Finance.

The Sub-Marine Telegraph Bill was taken up, and a very interesting debate ensued.

Mr. Hunter thought the bill required some amendment, as it left the whole matter at the discretion of the President.

Mr. Collamer replied there was this limitation—that this government should afford the company no more aid than was afforded by the British government.

Mr. Hunter contended that such a project should be carried out by a private company.

Mr. Collamer stated that the company desired to have some kind of security, before they hazarded such an immense outlay.

Mr. Benjamin suggested that this bill did not limit this government to the same aid that the British government had already afforded, but to what they might afford in future, which was very indefinite.

Mr. Seward moved to amend the bill, to obviate objections, with the proviso that the contract to be made by the British government shall not be different from that already proposed by that government to the New York and Newfoundland Telegraph Company.

Mr. Rusk thought the granting of $40,000 per annum by this government for a work of such magnitude and importance, was very moderate. He would be willing to vote for $200,000 a year.

Mr. Douglas trusted that Mr. Seward's amendment would be adopted, as the bill, in its present form, was liable to the objection of uncertainty as to the amount of obligation this government would incur.

Mr. Seward stated that the wire for this telegraph was already made, and the whole enterprise had heretofore been conducted and managed with American capital. On the fourth of July next, if the bill pass, there will be a girdle around the world.—It is proposed to lend vessels belonging to the U. S. Navy, as the British government will find her vessels to lay down this wire, because there are not, in the commercial marine, vessels suitable for that work.

If we do not make this contract, the British government will have priority of messages, and we shall have to pay for the use of the line, in accordance with the contract which they may make; but, if we do make this contract, we shall stand upon terms of equality with that government.

Mr. Seward's amendment was adopted.

Mr. Hunter remarked that both termini of the line were within British dominion, and he would like to know what guarantee we would have in time of war that we could have use of the line.

Mr. Seward replied, it appeared not to have been contemplated by the British government, and he hoped, if they proceeded reasonably, there would never be an interruption to the amicable relations between the two countries. If we shall ever go to war with Great Britain, which he hoped might never happen, we should need to have both termini in our possession, in order to avail ourselves of the telegraph; but his notion was that when the telegraphic wire was once laid, there would be no more war between England and the United States.

Mr. Hunter should be glad to think that the millenium was so near at hand as the Senator from New York supposes. For his part he should like to see some substantial guaranty in the bill, by which the United States shall have the same advantages in the time of war as the British government.

Mr. Rusk replied, we were not making a contract with Great Britain, but with a private company. How could we make a contract to guarantee rights to us in case we should go to war with Great Britain?

Messrs. Hunter, Rusk, Pugh, and Cass, offered suggestions.

Mr. Seward said that if this government does not choose to make a contract, it would be easy for Britain to advance the whole amount, and have the entire control of the line in war as in peace. If we make the contract we share the control in the time of peace, and postpone or lessen the chances of war.

Mr. Hale was sorry to hear the chance of war referred to in connection with matters of this kind. The same argument would apply against making appropriations for commercial purposes. If the British choose to cut off their end of the suspension bridge, our end would not be worth much. (Laughter.) He did not believe that the Creator put man on the earth to be always in a state of war.

Mr. Toombs (in his seat)—War is the natural state of man.

Mr. Hale—We are coming to a spiritual state, now. (Laughter.) We have lived forty years without having war with Britain, and I believe war not likely to occur in forty years to come. I advocate the proposition as a peace, not a war measure.

Mr. Butler spoke adversely to the bill.

Mr. Douglas opposed Mr. Pugh's amendment.

Mr. Toombs regarded the bill as for the benefit of private individuals, rather than government.

Mr. Toucey favored the bill, but suggested amendments.

Without final action, the Senate adj.

HOUSE.—The House were five hours at work on the corruption investigation.

The Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms brought Mr. Simonton before the bar of the House, and, in reply to a question from the Speaker as to what he had to say why further action should not be taken against him, Mr. Simonton spoke for more than half an hour in justification of his refusal to answer what two members of the House had approached him with corrupt propositions. He denied the powers of the House to proceed against him in this particular case, and concluded by asking to be heard by Council.

Various propositions were made respecting him.

One by Mr. Orr was adopted, for the Sergeant-at-Arms to keep him in close confinement till he purge himself of contempt.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—The Board of Directors of the American Colonization Society held their annual meeting yesterday, when ten members were in attendance.—This is but a nominal meeting, and the regular meeting is not to take place until travel is resumed. The whole amount of receipts for the year is $81,388 41; expenditures, $71,394 79. The present indebtedness of the society is $24,126 74.—The society earnestly calls attention to the increasing value of trade on the African Coast, and hopes that some act will soon be passed by Congress to foster, nourish and protect it. The value of the trade with the United States from that point in 1854 was $3,146,122, while that of Great Britain was about eight times that amount, in consequence of the latter power having for years encouraged and protected its commerce there. It is stated that several other European nations have been awakened to the value of trade upon the Western Coast of Africa, and are taking steps to increase it. The whole amount of legacies paid the society during the year was $14,575 84; contributions from auxiliary societies, $9,789 75. The number of emigrants sent out during the year was 538.

The whole number sent out 9,502. The balance of the report refers generally to the state of affairs in the colony, of which it gives an encouraging account.

THE SNOW STORM.

Announced by all the trumpets of the sky,
Arrives the snow, and, driving o'er the fields,
Seems nowhere to alight! the whited air
Hides hills and woods, the river, and the heaven,
And veils the farm house at the garden's end.
The sled and traveller stopped, the courier's feet
Delayed, all friends shut out, the housemates sit Around the radiant fireplace, enclosed
In a tumultuous privacy of storm.
Come see the north wind's masonry,
Out of an unseen quarry evermore
Furnished with tile, the artificer
Curves his white bastion with projected roof
Round every windward stake, or tree, or door.
Speeding, the myriad handed, his wild work
So fanciful, so savage, nought cares he
For numbers or proportion. Mockingly,
On coop or kennel he hangs Parian wreaths;
A swan like form invests the hidden thorn;
Fills up the farmer's lane from wall to wall,
Maugre the farmer's sighs; and at the gate,
A tapering turret overtops the work.
And when his hours are numbered, and the world
Is all his own, retiring, as he were not,
Leaves, when the sun appears, astonished Art,
To mimic in slow structures, stone by stone,
Built in an age, the mad wind's night work,
The frolic architecture of the storm.

—[Emerson.

The number of deaths in Claremont, in 1856, was 63. Males 33, females 30. The ages of the four oldest persons were 90, 83, 87, 84. Ther were two deaths from causes allied, one by a fall, and one by drowning.

UNCLE TOBY ON SCHNAPPS.—As he read over the long list of medical commendations for the Scheidam Schnapps, he remarked on the difficulty of which the doctors in New England complain, even those in Boston, viz. this:—While vile, corrupt liquors abound, pure liquors, for medical use, are difficult to be procured,—many of the doctors say, impossible. He could not help remarking, that the safest way, for the sick or the well, is to let the dirty, impure, dangerous stuff alone. The dire necessity of the sick, may plead excuse—but for the well there is no such plea.

This reminds him of an old and highly esteemed friend, who but lately deceased at the age of almost fourscore. For the first 50 years of his life, he, in common with all his neighbors, drank spirits.—With the temperance reformation, his practice in this regard was changed to total abstinence, and so remained to the end of his life. As his strength declined, physicians and friends suggested wine as a stimulant, tonic, and restorative; but he declined, gently, firmly, and pleasantly, saying,—No, No: I have lived without it; and I prefer to die entirely free from its influence; I have seen the benefit of total abstinence on many people, and I mean to maintain it to the close of my days. He died so: and never did mortal fall asleep more gently or peacefully.

One of the doctors, in commending the Schnapps, speaks of the impure liquor which abounds since the Maine Law.

Uncle Toby has no doubt this is true,—though he is no judge of liquors, and knows nothing about the Schnapps. But if it be meant that prohibitory laws are the creative cause of bad liquor, he pronounces the assertion not only erroneous, but ridiculous.—The liquors in New Orleans and Baltimore are as impure as those of Boston and Portland. And the Agents, by authority, no doubt buy as pure spirits as they can find, advertisements and sneers to the contrary notwithstanding.

In Newburyport, Sunday evening, the 18th inst., a stable, four horses and a quantity of hay, owned by Major Shaw, were consumed by fire set by an incendiary. Loss, $1000.

AT THE TEMPLE,
SUNDAY EVENING, Feb. 1st.
THE OLD FOLKS CHOIR, of Portsmouth, with aid from abroad, as heretofore, will give a Concert at the Temple on Sunday Evening next, under the direction of

From their continued practice together, of the sterling old music, and the fact that the Instrumental portion of the Choir will be much heavier (and the number of Singers larger) than at their former Concerts—they can promise a more attractive entertainment even than those of last year, which were received with so much favor.
LAWRENCE'S ORCHESTRA,
Consisting of Piano, Melodeon, 6 Violins, 2 Violincellos, 2 Basses, Clarionet, Flute, Ophicleide, and Bassoon,—under direction of

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.

WEDNESDAY, P. M., Jan. 21.

The case of Dr. Nicholas L. Folsom vs. City of Portsmouth, was closed by a verdict for the Plaintiff of $800. The claim was for damages sustained by the plff., who was overturned in a sleigh near the corner of Vaughan and Congress streets, two years ago. His leg was broken, whereby he was laid up for the winter, and subsequently continued lame.

THURSDAY, Jan. 22.

282, Rogers vs. Pettigrew, an action of trespass, (driving off cattle,) verdict for defendant. Hackett for plff., Hatch and Webster for deft.

The afternoon was occupied in calling the docket, and in a final disposition of actions preparatory to an adjournment on Friday; the jurors will be discharged Friday morning.

☞ The public are already pretty well informed that Perham's celebrated and popular Ethiopian Opera Troupe, give a Concert at the Temple to-night—if they do not get blockaded at Newburyport by the storm. The entertainments of this company are among the best of the sort—which very many people consider the best sort, as is evinced by their full houses everywhere and always. They do all they promise, which, as will be seen by their advertisement, is not a little.

☞ Another beautiful snow storm began here on Thursday morning early, lasting all day, with the wind N. W., increasing towards night, and bidding fair for another blockade.

ORCHESTRAL AND "OLD FOLKS" CONCERT. This varied entertainment will take place at the Temple on Sabbath evening of next week, and no postponement on account of the weather. A glance at the programme displays the fact, that it is made up to suit the tastes of all who may attend. The first part embraces the beautiful "Requiem (Brevis) Mass," by Mozart, to please classical tastes. This is one of the very best compositions for any occasion. Report speaks very favorably of the orchestra who are to perform this part of the concert. The moderns will improve the opportunity to exhibit their love for classical eloquence; and the "Old Folks" will show their enthusiasm for the music that was wont to captivate in years agone.

REPUBLICAN NOMINATION.—The Senatorial Convention for District No. 1, held in this city, on Thursday, nominated for Senator, Samuel P. Dow of Newmarket.

ACCIDENTS AT CHARLESTOWN, MASS.—At the Charlestown Navy Yard, on Friday, while Mr. Engineer Butts was examining the small engine at the ropewalk, his right hand accidentally came in contact with a portion of the machinery, and he lost a part of his fore-finger, at the first joint. One of the engine men, who was standing by, fainted at the sight; but Mr. Butts coolly picked up the severed member, and with some funny and characteristic remarks, proceeded to the doctor's.

While workmen were engaged in hoisting salt from the ship Suffolk, to a wharf, near the Navy Yard, it became necessary to lower the staging on which the men who wheeled away the salt stood. A man unfastened the rope, and commenced lowering the staging, the men standing upon it at the time, when losing his hold to the rope, the two men were precipitated to the deck of the vessel. One had his back broken and one leg fractured in two places and was conveyed to the hospital; the other had one of his thighs dislocated, and received other serious injuries, and was conveyed to the hospital.—A third, while stepping from the vessel to the wharf, was precipitated into the dock, the ladder over which he was passing being broken by the fall of the staging. He escaped without serious injury.

A despatch from Waterbury, Conn., says that at four o'clock on Sunday morning, the steeples of the Episcopal and 2d Congregational churches were blown down by the gale. The dwelling houses contiguous were badly damaged. One of them was occupied by the Hon. Chauncey Jerome. No persons injured.

NEW SONG.—H. S. Thompson has just published a new and beautiful song entitled "Mother's dead and gone," fully equal to his "Lilly Dale" and Willie's on the dark blue sea." It will be for sale by Messrs. Harvey and Mr. Foster, and every body that can sing will want it.

HEAVY LIABILITIES.—The liabilities of Chas. B. Fessenden, the East India merchant whose failure was made known on Monday, are stated to be upwards of $500,000. An English banking house is the largest creditor, being secured, it is reported, in the sum of $200,000.—Boston Bee.

Wolfe's Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps.

A SUPERLATIVE TONIC, DIURETIC, ANTI DYSPEPTIC AND INVIGORATING CORDIAL.

This medicinal diet drink, manufactured solely by the proprietor, at his distillery in Schiedam, in Holland, expressly for medicinal purposes. It is the pure tincture of juniper, distilled from the best barley that can be selected in Europe, at any cost. It is flavored and medicated, not by the common harsh berry, but by the choice botanical variety of the aromatic Italian juniper berry, whose more vinous extract is distilled and rectified with its spirituous solvent, and thus it becomes a concentrated tincture of exquisite flavor and aroma, altogether transcendent in its cordial and medicinal properties to any alcholic stimulant now in use in the world.

It has been submitted to all the first chemists and physicians in the United States, who endorse it over their own signature as one of the great essentials of the materia medica. It is now prescribed with great success in gravel, gout, rheumatism, obstructions of bladder and kidneys, dyspepsia, whether acute or chronic, in general debility, sluggish circulation of the blood, inadequate assimilation of food, and exhausted energy, are acknowledged by the whole medical faculty, and attested in their highest written authorities. Put up in quart and pint bottles, enveloped in yellow paper, with the proprietor's name on the bottle, cork and label. For sale by all the respectable Druggists and Country Merchants.

CAUTION TO THE PUBLIC.

Since the introduction of this superior medicinal beverage into the United States in 1846, a number of the liquor mixers of New York have put up a mixed and poisonous Gin, which they call Schnapps, London Cordial Gin, and various other names, with forged medical certificates, certifying to the purity of their article. The public should be on their guard against such imposters. Read the following extract from the New York press.

From the New York Mercury.

Fraudulent Imitations of Superior Commodities.

Among the many dishonesties of trade, which the moral sense of the community is called upon to suppress, we would particularly notice a most pernicious and infamous practice adopted by unscrupulous dealers of imitating and counterfeiting the exterior appearance and precautionary labels of popular drugs, medicaments, and other articles of personal consumption, and thus, by seizing upon the well acquired reputation of an enterprising trader, palming off most destructive and worthless compounds to the sore detriment not only of the consumer, but to the character of the man who has expended thousands of dollars in bringing the genuine article into esteem and demand. These petty larceny thieves are the pest of all honorable dealers and traders, and the trade is as much highway robbery as the violent appropriation of their neighbor's purse; in fact, they are beneath the burglar and highwayman in dignity—for those latter felons exhibit a bravery or recklessness of character in novice distinguishing the mercantile assassin, who stabs in the dark. And ought they not be rewarded with a punishment commensurate with the cowardice of their crime? We were led to these remarks by accidentally observing a spurious counterfeit of Udolpho Wolfe's Schiedam Schnapps. The labels were imitated perfectly, with the slight addition of a few letters to plead technical avoidance of the law against counterfeiting; the bottles were very similar, and everything carefully prepared to impose upon a careless purchaser. Now is not the man who perpetrated this fraud a felon—a robber? Assuredly he is; for as Mr. Wolfe has expended large sums to bring his genuine imported Schnapps into popular demand, that demand may justly be considered a part of his capital in trade, and a fellow stealing a part of his reputation, is as much of a thief as he who steals at ten a barrel of his Schnapps in bulk. And to this crime he adds a further one of defrauding the community, by giving them a ruinous article for the money they intended to expend for a commodity in which they had confidence. And, further, every man who participates indirectly in the fraud, by selling spurious articles, is as much of an offender as the principal who planned the imposition. We trust that Mr. Wolfe will obtain names, not only of the concoctors of these counterfeits, but of every man offering them for sale, and then publish them to the world; for his own reputation and the health of the community demand that all parties should be nailed to the pillory of popular execration

MEDICAL REFERENCES IN EASTERN STATES.

The following correspondence affords such a body of medical testimony to the inestimable remedial properties of pure Holland Gin, as was probably never before arrayed in print in behalf of any article in the pharmacopœia. The Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps, as admitted by the profession—as proved by an amount of scientific and other evidence that would form a library in itself—is precisely the pure stimulant, tonic and diuretic that is required.

To the numerous letters and extracts from letters it has been deemed proper to add the names of some five hundred physicians who use the Schnapps, and kindly permit the proprietor to refer to them. These names will be found in their appropriate place.

It will be seen that the following extracts, &c., cover a space of nearly two years.—Most of the letters, however, were written in reply to a circular written in 1852; and in every instance where specimens have been forwarded, they have been approved; so that it may be stated, without exaggeration, that full two thousand physicians are now successfully using the Schnapps in their practice.

In New England, where the Maine Liquor Law prevails, the advantage of having such a guaranteed article for remedial purposes, instead of the impure spirits sold by the persons appointed under the liquor law, must be apparent; and every friend of humanity must hope that the suggestion to that effect, in a letter from a well known practitioner in Boston, whose remarks are quoted among the following extracts, will not be thrown away.

It is bad enough to give drugged spirits to the healthy; but to administer them to the sick, is little better than constructive murder.

Dr. Frederick Say, New London, Conn., September 17, 1852, testifies as follows to the general adulteration of liquors, and the desirableness of reliable articles:—

"A few days ago I was favored with a circular from you, respecting an article of Holland Gin, of superior stamp. I have long regretted that the trace of man should be made to suffer so horribly from bad distillation, and also by the murderous process of adulteration, &c., &c. A great desideratum in the art of medicine might be attained by attending strictly to a sound philosophical manufactory of the pure spirits. We can get no spirits in this vicinity that we can strictly rely on as remedial agents."

The subjoined letter, from Dr. Paine, of Manchester, New Hampshire, relates to one of the most valuable medicinal properties possessed by the Aromatic Schnapps, and shows that it acts as a specific in a very painful disease—the gravel:

"FRIEND WOLFE—Permit me to address you a few lines, which you are at liberty to use, if you think proper, in respect to your medicine called Schiedam Schnapps. I have have had a very obstinate case of the gravel and stone, of some five years' standing, causing very acute pain in every attempt to urinate. After using many remedies without much relief, I was induced to try a bottle of your medicine. In the course of three days it proved effectual, dislodging large pieces of stone, some of which were as large as a marrowfat pea. I continued the cordial according to directions, and the patient continues to gain, and is fast recovering. I think a medicine of so much value is so distressing a complaint, should be known to the public and the world at large. And I, for one, must give it my approbation and signature.

"THOMAS PAINE, M. D."

Dr. George Heaton, Boston, August 18, 1852, receives with pleasure a bottle of the article, for the purpose of testing it in his medical practice.

Dr. B. Brown, of the same city, under date of August 12, 1852, writes in a similar strain, and complains of the frequent adulteration of every species of spirits.

Dr. J. C. Garland, Nashua, New Hampshire, September 10, 1852, sends a communication, from which the following is an extract:

"I will very gladly accept a bottle, and if it proves what it claims to be, will do what I can to introduce it to the suffering who may need such a remedy, as well as to my professional brethren; for we are more troubled to get a fair article of Holland Gin, than almost any other remedy."

Dr. William Hawes, Boston, August 16, 1852, writes as follows:

"The peculiar institution, (the Maine Law) prevailing in our State, has made me curious to know more of your article, as it may possibly, from more or less necessity, become an essential article at the stores of retailing druggists and apothecaries."

Dr. B. P. F. Randall, of the same city, August, 13, 1852, expresses a wish to try the Schnapps on a patient who has received some benefit from the best Gin procurable from other sources, and hopes the pure article will cure him."

Dr. E. G. Cross, of Guilford Centre, Vermont, August 9, 1852, accepts a specimen, and hails with pleasure the opportunity of obtaining a good Holland Gin, so useful in medical practice, and so difficult to procure.

Dr. S. M. Whipple, New London, Conn., September 14, 1852, says:

"Having experienced the various difficulties which you mention in procuring a good article of Holland Gin, on account of the various adulterations, I will simply say, that if you furnish me with a pure article in your Schiedam Schnapps, you will greatly oblige me."

Dr. A. A. Moulton, Meredith, New Hampshire, September 9, 1852, desires a specimen, and concludes thus:

"If it proves to be a pure Holland Gin, I shall most certainly order more, as it is with us a great desideratum."

Dr Oliver B. Briggs, Pequonnock, Conn., October 5, 1852, remarks as follows:

"I have now several patients for whom I would prescribe a pure article of Holland Gin, if I could obtain any in which I could place confidence. I will therefore thankfully accept a trial bottle of your Schnapps, and if as described, will send an order for more."

Dr. J. R. Sanborn, of New Market, New Hampshire, Sept. 9, 1852, states that a pure article of Gin is not to be had there, and sends an order for the Schnapps.

Dr. W. A. Weeks, McIndoe's Falls, Vermont, writes, October 26, to the same effect.

Dr. W. C. Williams, New Milford, Conn., October 23, 1852, mentions that he has a patient whose case requires Holland Gin, and desires a specimen bottle.

Dr. E. A. Parsons, St. Albans, Maine, October 25, 1852, describes a case of renal disease, in which all other remedies have failed; but in which he hopes to succeed with the Schnapps.

Dr. E. G. Snow, Waterbury, Connecticut, September, 1852, deplores the want of a wholesome Gin. He has been obliged to give up prescribing the article, because he cannot get it pure. He will gladly avail himself of the Schnapps in his practice.

Dr. Wells Beard, Kent, Conn., September 4, 1852, writes that he is seventy one years of age, suffers from a disease of the bladder and kidneys, and will use the article in his own case, and recommend it.

A. C. Smith, Esq., Brattleboro', Vermont, November 6; 1852, writes to this effect—

"In behalf of Syrus Butterfield, M. D., of this town, in reply to a line from you, would say he would like a bottle of your pure Holland Gin, or Schiedam Schnapps, to test its virtues in the medical profession."

Dr. L. Wells Hibbard, Bellows Falls, August 13, 1852—

"I am of the opinion that it might be a very convenient and efficient remedy for many of the renal complaints."

From Dr. J. B. Cross, Boston, August 10, 1852—

"That the pure Holland Gin is a very valuable medicine, all admit; that it is very difficult to obtain, it is also certain. I have very little hope of obtaining it in Boston, and shall be happy to receive a sample of yours."

From Dr. Roderick A White, Simsbury, Connecticut, August 17, 1852—

"Being a member of the profession, and knowing the difficulty of procuring a good article of Gin for medical purposes, I should be pleased to receive a specimen of your manufacture whenever you see fit to forward it."

Dr. Ira F. Prouty, Paper Mill Village, New Hampshire, September 13, 1852 writes:

"Such an article as you represent will be well received in this section, as much relief may be had in the use of it, particularly by those in advanced life."

From Dr. E. O. Whipple, Danby, Vermont, August 13, 1852—

"I have long since ceased to use Gin, except in very limited quantities, on account of the difficulty of obtaining a genuine article, but as I am constantly meeting cases where I should use such as yours purports to be, you would confer a favor by sending a few bottles as soon as convenient."

From Dr. A. S. Butler, Sudbury, Vermont, August 10, 1852—

"Your circular, recommending the Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps as a medicine in various abnormal conditions of the system, meets my cordial acceptance, knowing that various compounds are and have been sold under the name of Gin, and the want of an article that physicians may rely upon, induces me to answer the intimation referred to in your circular."

From Dr. T. B. Adams, Boston, August 7, 1852—

"A patient of mine is now suffering under complaints which I have thought might be relieved by something of this sort. But we cannot obtain the right article here. Send me a bottle of your Schnapps."

From J. B. Woodward, M. D., Waterbury, Vermont, May 2, 1853—

"I am treating at the present time a chronic affection of the kidneys, which has shown itself very obstinate to diuretics, and I have been advised to use your Schnapps."

From Dr. J. I. Farrington, Seabrook, New Hampshire, Oct. 22, 1852—

"I have found it almost impossible to get an article of Gin that would completely answer my purpose."

From Dr. G. M. Hall, Swanton, Vermont, July 18, 1852—

"Truly glad was I to learn where a reliable article of Aromatic Spirits could be obtained. The profession generally have long felt the necessity of establishing an importation of the pure article."

From Dr. John Jenkins, Boston, August 20, 1852—

"I am gratified to learn that there is one place where pure Gin can be obtained. I have been much troubled to obtain pure liquor of any kind, especially of Holland Gin."

S. Perham, M. D., Boston, August 10, 1852, writes as follows—

"I should be very happy to try a bottle of your Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps, and if it proves to be what your card asserts, I should wish to make use of it in my practice. I not only use it in the diseases you mention, but prepare many medicines with it for numerous other complaints."

Dr. D. Calkins, town physician and surgeon at Lyme, Connecticut, says in a letter dated October 14, 1852—

"I consider your Schiedam Schnapps a superior article, and one that will not come short of our highest expectations. It is an article the medical fraternity have long wanted. I have used it so far with every apparent success. Please forward me as soon as you can conveniently, twelve bottles.

D. CALKINS."

Dr. McGowan of Boston, writing August 11, 1852, mentions the difficulty of obtaining Compound Spirits of Juniper—an article considered useful in dropsy, urinary diseases, &c., and then says—

"I felt happy on receiving your circular, that I would have in your Holland Gin a good substitute for what I had so long and so often felt the want of."

Dr. C. Robbins, of Boston, celebrated for his cure of epilepsy, cholera, &c., complains of the great difficulty of procuring a pure Holland Gin, and speaks of the Schiedam Schnapps as follows, under date of October 5, 1853—

"I commended your article in four cases—two in Connecticut, one in Vermont, and one in Rhode Island. An article of this character is much needed. I have been unable to find a substitute in the materia medica for pure Holland Gin. C. ROBBINS.

Dr. William H. Cooper, of Boston, in a letter of August 12, 1853, refers to the Schnapps as a palliative in asthma, with which he is himself affected for two months every fall. He says—

"Although opposed to a constant use of the article, I am convinced by experience that Gin is a very valuable medicine in asthma."

Dr. R. L. Hinkly, of East Boston, Aug. 11, 1852, writes—

"I have just received yours of the 7th inst., and being convinced that pure Holland Gin is possessed of many medicinal properties, which, when judiciously administered, produced very beneficial results, I shall be happy to introduce your Schiedam Schnapps among my friends in this vicinity."

A letter from Dr. S. E. Maynard, Montville, Connecticut, dated Nov. 1, 1852, contains the following passage—

"Physicians here find it very difficult to procure good Gin. I should think yours a very useful article, and I should like you to inform me by letter how I can procure it."

From Dr. Robbins, Boston, October 13, 1852—

"My attention has been arrested within the last two or three years to the most frequent (but as I am inclined to believe overlooked) affections of the urinary and genital organs. I have now five or six patients under treatment for the latter of these affections, and am disposed to make the experiment of your 'Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps.' You will oblige me by forwarding some as soon as possible."

From Dr. William Prescott, Physician to State Prison, Concord, N. H., September 7, 1852—

"It will give me great pleasure to accept a bottle of your pure Holland Gin. I will make a fair trial of the article, and communicate to you the result."

Dr. J. W. Warren, of Boston, under date of August, 1852, says—

"I have been long in pursuit of such an article, and consequently shall be very glad to avail myself of it."

From Dr. H. S. Lee, Boston, August 11, 1852—

"Many of my patients laboring under nephritic complaints, have felt the want of a pure Holland Gin, but have not generally been able to obtain it here. I shall be pleased to receive a bottle of the Aromatic Schiedam Schnapps."

Dr. Samuel Webber, of Charlestown, Massachusetts, remarks, Sept. 5, 1852—

"I have occasionally wanted a similar article for medical use, and have found it difficult to procure one that might be depended on; so that if what you offer can readily be had, it will be a desirable thing."

Dr. Lloyd Seely, of Easton, Connecticut, testifies to the urgent want of such a preparation as the Schnapps, in a letter, dated Sept. 24, 1852, from which the following is an extract—

"For many years it has been almost impossible to procure a genuine article of any species of distilled liquor. Patients whose peculiar condition required the aid of stimulants of the purest and most perfect kinds, have often been utterly unable to obtain anything of the sort which was unadulterated. They and I would rejoice to find a perfect article, manufactured with honesty and skill.—Our doctrine here is, that no healthy man can receive stimulants into his system without detriment; but diseased action sometimes demands artificial aid, and then we want choice medical agents. I have now a wealthy and aged patient, whose system is benefitted by a moderate use of Gin; and he asked me yesterday to point to him a place where he could get the choicest and best. I can now satisfy his interrogatory."

Dr. Moody D. Page, of Manchester, N. H. Sept. 10, 1852, says—

"It is with difficulty that physicians can obtain any spirits suitable for medicinal purposes; therefore as I use many mixtures containing Gin in my practice, your Schiedam Schnapps will be received by me with the greatest gratification; and I think the introduction of a pure article of Holland Gin in this city, will meet the approbation of the physicians and patients general."

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which H. Faires & Co. are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. Every day is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The price of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and 1 terna or combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

QUAINT OLD SONG.

Ye who would save your features florid,
Lithe limbs, bright eyes, unwrinkled forehead,
From Age's devastation horrid,
Adopt this plan;
'Twill make, in climate cold or torrid,
A hale old man.

Avoid in youth luxurious diet,
Restrain the passion's lawless riot,
Devoted to domestic quiet,
Be wisely gay!
So shall ye, spite of Age's fast,
Resist decay.

Seek not, in Mammon's worship, pleasure—
But find your richest, purest treasure,
In books, friends, nature's book, joyful leisure,—
The mind, not coffers;
Make the sole scale by which ye measure
Opulence.

This is the solace, this the science,
Life's purest, sweetest, best appliances,
That disappoint not man's reliance,
Whate'er his state—
But challenges, with calm defiance,
Time, fortune, fate.

SINGULAR ACCIDENT.—On Sunday night last, Mr. Albert, Clerk of Brighton, an officer in the employment of the United States at Boston Custom House, met with a singular accident. He was in the Appraiser's Building, Commerce street, employed in watching the building, and was sitting in a chair in the lower story. Suddenly at about twelve o'clock, a "dumb waiter," for speedy communication between the upper and lower portions of the building, but which had not been used of late, and hung by a rope in one of the upper stories, fell and struck Mr. Clark on the leg, by which he was so badly injured that he was unable to obtain assistance, and remained on the spot in a suffering state until relieved the next morning, a period of some six or seven hours. An investigation showed that the accident was caused by a rat or mouse having gnawed the rope which held the dumb waiter.—Boston Traveller.

American and Foreign Patents.

E. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)

No. 76 State st., opp. Kilby st., Boston.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers relating to Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or inventions; and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Claims of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting three dollars. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for obtaining Patents, or establishing the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered from other agencies. The subscriber would give proof that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES and EXPERIENCE, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, enable him, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, E. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were at that time persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office, and there were none who conducted it with more skill, ability, and success than Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot confer a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure to them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AMOSKEAG, 1852.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, E. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him among of the most competent and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. Commissioner of Patents.

Arnold's Vital Fluid

PURIFIES and strengthens the blood by eradicating, through a healthy channel, from it, the causes of impurities and humors. Hence its power to cure humors that mere medicine cannot cure. Hence its power of strengthening and vitalizing the blood. Inflammation is a vitalizing element, the element of which your blood is composed. It eradicates and cleanses away what ever clogs and thickens the blood.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID

Renders the system strong and healthy, by freeing the blood and stomach from objectionable materials. It serves and invigorates the system, by furnishing the elements which give vigor.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID

Gives to the system an influence and effect similar to that produced by exercise in the free air. It accelerates by strengthening the blood to brighter and better action—doing its work by beginning at the beginning. It is pleasant to the taste, and becomes a favorite with children.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID

Removes Biliousness in the most direct and easy manner, by eradicating the cause. This is the principle of its action in removing illness generally. It neutralizes the cause, by freeing the blood from impurities to its proper fulfilment of its life-giving functions.

This principle of neutralizing the cause is why ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID CURES HUMORS that mere medicine cannot sensibly affect, and why it cures other diseases.

Resulting from Poisons in the Blood, (that mere medicinal preparations cannot alleviate. Humors are poisons in the blood, and in their chemical action in neutralizing those poisons that ARNOLD'S GLOBULES AND VITAL FLUID are enabled to cure them so that they may need.

Extract from the Commercial Advertiser, July 27, 1855

"Messrs. Prince & Co. should realize a handsome fortune by disposal of rights to other manufacturers to use their new improvement; but as they prefer to make it a feature in their Instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufacture."

It is now eight years since we commenced the manufacture of this new celebrated Musical Instrument, and we have sold and finished just sold nearly NINETEEN THOUSAND. Volunteering testimonials to the excellence of our Instruments, from the most distinguished Professors of Music in different parts of the United States, have from time to time been received. Thus far we have said but little, and our advertisements were solicited on the ground that we could not supply the demand. We have lately erected one of the largest and most perfect Manufacturing Establishments in the United States, and we now think that we shall be able to supply the demand, for give one testimonial we have received

Hodges, Wm Mason, and a host of others, and they all pronounce it one of the most beautiful toned instruments they have ever touched. Very truly, JAMES F. HALL."

We are not aware that the above mentioned Melodeon is in any particular superior to those we now make, (they are all good,) and we invite those who are inclined to favor us with their orders that they will be furnished with an instrument equally as good. ☞ One of the ruffians who was pardoned by Gov. Clark of New York, just previous to his retiring from office, has since become implicated in another criminal act. His name is Bernard Mooney. At a New Year's Jubilee, in which he was a participator, a man was killed by a blow from a from a slung shot, and the verdict of the coroner's jury was that "the deceased, Wm. Dunn, came to his death by blows received at the hands of one or more of three men, named Bernard Mooney, Patrick Tammany, and Elijah McKee, on the first of January, 1857, at the corner of 27th street and Broadway."

The mistaken acts of clemency of this Governor are already bearing bitter fruits.

REVOLT IN THE AUBURN STATE PRISON.—A revolt has occurred among the convicts of the Auburn (N. Y.) State Prison, which was quieted by the officers yielding to the demands of the prisoners. One of their number had been placed in a dungeon for insolence to an officer, and his associates armed themselves with tools from their workshops and demanded his release. The officers succumbed and released him, and now the contractor under whom they labor, dares not enter the prison workshop for fear his life may be taken. Further trouble is anticipated, and a mill any company has been ordered to be in readiness at a moment's notice.

A NEW COMPLAINT.—It is complained of the present chaplain of the Massachusetts House of Representatives, Rev. Daniel Foster, that he makes too short prayers. One morning he occupied about thirty seconds; on another a little less than a minute by the watch, a member having the curiosity to note the time.

FATAL MEDICINAL ERROR.—Baltimore, Jan. 21.—A terrible tragedy occurred here to-day. A druggist filled a prescription ordered by Arnold, a German physician, for a child.—The child took the medicine and died immediately. Arnold took the remainder to the druggist, and told him he had made a fatal mistake. The druggist persisted that the medicine was right, and, to show his confidence in his correctness, he swallowed a portion himself. He was immediately attacked with horrible convulsions, and died in five minutes. The doctor, who merely tasted the preparation and spit it from his mouth, was attacked, and with difficulty saved. The affair occasioned much excitement.

The druggist had mixed cyanuret of potassium with lemon juice, developing enough prussic acid in the preparation to have killed three hundred people.

CHINESE IN CALIFORNIA.—The Oriental population of California is organized into five great companies, each of which has its hotels, agents, and all the arrangements of an American corporation. These companies embrace all the Chinese emigrants except about one thousand. The following authentic statement shows the number of arrivals in, the departures from the State, of members of these companies, the deaths, and present strength:

Companies.	Arr.	Dep.	Died.	Pres.
Yeung Wo,	16,900	2 500	400	14,600
Sam Yap	8,400	1,300	300	6,800
Yam Wo,	2,100	160	160	1,780
Sze Yap,	16,650	3,700	300	9,200
Ning-Yeung,	4,899	1,259	172	6,907
Total,	48,949	8,919	1,332	38,687

This is a peculiar feature of Chinese civilization, as yet but imperfectly understood in the United States. The companies are admirable arrangements, serving to look after the safety, property, health and morals of large numbers of persons. No one who belongs to a company of this kind can be without friends in California. The company looks after him wherever he may be.

A COLD PROMENADE.—While the gale of Sunday night was at its height, a Boston lightering vessel, having six men on board, was at anchor off Marblehead. Suddenly the anchor parted, and the vessel, amidst the dense darkness, drove before the storm, those on board knew not whither. At last, after hours of anxiety, the vessel struck the ice at Long Island Head, and remained. The crew scrambled on shore and obtained some refreshments of the lighthouse keeper. They then started to walk across the ice to the city. Leaving Long Island, they passed by the head of Thompson's Island, and after a long and weary tramp, reached City Point, South Boston. While on the ice, one of them became so fatigued that he laid down on the ice to die, but his companions urged him to exertion, and he was finally carried to the shore.—Boston Chron.

The continued cold weather has completely blockaded the harbor of New Haven, having formed firm ice for a distance, as far as the eye can see. The steamers Elm City, Traveller, and Champion, are locked up at New Haven, and communication with New York by water is completely suspended.

Captain Allen Blodgett of Warren, says the Springfield Republican, came near being killed by a cow, last Thursday morning. He entered a stable where the cow was kept with a young calf, when the animal attacked him, hooking him in one of his eyes, breaking the bridge of his nose, and otherwise seriously injuring him, before he could escape.

OLDEST WEATHER OF THIS CENTURY.

On Friday morning, Jan. 23, the mercury of the thermometers in various parts of Portsmouth, at 7 A. M. stood at from 20 to 23 deg. below zero,—and at noon, it was 12 below zero. We have examined the records of the last sixty years, and find no weather so cold as the present during that period.

On the ever-memorable cold Friday of Jan. 19, 1810, the mercury in Portsmouth was 12 below zero at noon, and the next morning at 16 below. For 15 years previous it had not been colder than 1 below.

On Friday, Feb. 14, 1817, the mercury descended to 13 below.

On Thursday, the 25th of January, 1821, the mercury was 19 below.

On Sunday, the 4th of Jan. 1835, the mercury was 18 below zero in the morning, and 13 below in the evening. At Newmarket on that day it was 42 below.

It thus appears that Friday, Jan. 23, 1857, was colder than any previous record shows.

There have been six days in Jan. below zero.—The average of the thermometer at 7 A. M. from Jan. 1st to Jan. 23d, has been only 44 degrees above zero.

We have received a record of the Thermometer at the Marine Barracks, for the past week. It corresponds almost exactly with our own. The mercury stood 20 below on Friday morning. Our correspondent remarks, that "the whole of the channels in the rear, North and South sides of the Navy-Yard, are closed in with ice—but the lower harbor is open and accessible to vessels."—Journal

ICED HARBORS.—Harbors and rivers south of us, are seriously obstructed by ice. New-York harbor has suffered in this respect, and some of the shipping greatly exposed. Navigation round the city, says the Journal, was never more difficult. Most of the ferry boats are more or less disabled. Boston harbor has been closed, but by the activity of the authorities a passage way was soon opened. While scarcely a harbor on the coast has been kept clear for navigation through the cold weather, Portsmouth harbor has not been obstructed for an hour. On Monday last, our harbor did present for half an hour a sight which the oldest inhabitant had never witnessed—at still tide a thin coat of ice was formed across the Narrows—and the floating skin ice in the river extended from the wharves beyond the beacon, and probably at one time a dog might have passed on the ice over the river. Such an evidence of cold was never before seen by our citizens.

On Friday, thermometer 20 to 23 degrees below zero, it is only frozen in the small bays, and our noble river flows on, free as on the 4th of July

For the Portsmouth Journal.

A WORD FOR HOME MUSIC.

Mr. Editor,—I hope I do not trespass upon your courtesy, in asking the favor to offer a few remarks upon the "Grand Union Concert," announced in the last Journal. I notice with pleasure that though the "Old Folks" do not hesitate to acknowledge the great superiority of the works of the old European masters, they are unwilling to forget the early music of our own country. May they persevere to elevate Art, and raise the standard of American music.

Having had the opportunity of hearing the amateur Orchestral Association, who are to assist in the Concert next Sabbath evening, in the mass music at Exeter, last fall, I think I can advise the lovers of music in your good city to go and hear them. The "Mass," or rather the Requiem, is exceedingly beautiful. That announced is a solemn mass in D minor, for the burial of the dead, and is justly considered one of Mozart's best productions.

It was performed in Vienna at the death of Haydn, although that city had just been taken by the French; also was performed on this occasion in France and Europe generally. On Sunday evening last it was performed, in connection with Thalberg, by the Handel and Haydn Society of Boston. And although this is the Brevis Mass, it is similar and more pleasing.

For music's sake, I trust there will be a "well-packed house," and I maintain the idea that your good citizens will encourage the cultivation of high ecclesiastical art. SWANCOTT

THE PRINTERS OF MANCHESTER celebrated the anniversary of the birth-day of Franklin on Saturday evening last, at the City Hotel. About sixty were present, including editors, reporters, compositors, clergymen and the devil, and, judging from the published reports, it was a most happy celebration. J. C. Abbott, Esq., presided, and John B. Clarke, Esq., officiated as toast-master, and after an excellent entertainment, some hours were agreeably spent in reading letters from distinguished gentlemen, in pithy speeches and numerous sentiments, many of which sparkled with wit and humor. Daniel Pratt, jr., supposed to be a printer from the "American Traveller" office, Boston, was present, and appeared to be quite a lion among the types.

The printers of Portsmouth acknowledge the courtesy of an invitation to meet and celebrate this interesting occasion with their Manchester brethren, and regret that the weather and necessary family arrangements prevented their attendance.—Gazette.

IMPORTANT POST-OFFICE CHANGE.—The provision of the postage laws, allowing transient printed matter to be sent through the mail without pre-payment, is repealed; all transient newspapers and other periodical matter will require to be pre-paid to secure a transit. No newspaper or periodical, except sent regularly from the office of publication, will be forwarded from any post-office until the stamps are put upon them. Our Postmaster, Mr. Rundlett, last week, received specific orders from Washington to this effect.

Morning Chronicle.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 24, 1857.

FORTUNE.

The Rev. Dr. Osgood has lately delivered a Lecture on Fortune, of which the following abstract is given in the Charlestown Advertiser:

Rev. Dr. Osgood remarked: "Among the Divinities of heathen antiquity, was one styled Fortuna. She was variously represented. Sometimes with a rudder at her side, to indicate her power in guiding the destinies of men; sometimes with the horn of plenty, signifying the abundance with which she blessed her favorites; sometimes with a ball, to indicate her ever-changing nature. The temples of pagan antiquity with their idol worship have passed away, but still the fickle goddess Fortuna numbers her devotees by thousands.

Our subject, Fortune, may be considered first in its nature. By Fortune is meant, not blind chance, but what is probable.—Man, to a certain extent, is the architect of his own fortune. But Fortune is, in a measure, dependent and uncertain. It is dependent on physical phenomena, on the changes of the weather. The recent storm has had a vast influence in shaping the fortunes of many. Fortune is affected by the uncertainty of men; and the times also have their influence.

The Minions of Fortune were next considered:

The first of them is the Gambler: with him, life is a lottery. He may commence his career by playing at cards or pitching coppers, but ends with the gambling hell. Have nothing to do with it—for it is bad business—indeed, it is no business at all.—It creates no value, and brings ruin and loss of character.

The lecturer here alluded to some operations in the stock and produce market that are in vogue at present, and denounced them as unworthy of honorable men. The Adventurer is a minion of fortune. He is a fast man and impatient of Providence.—In his estimation modern improvements are nothing, the telegraph a humbug, and thirty miles per hour in the railroad train a "slow coach." He thinks the Millennium will have come, when receiving money is all now, and paying at some future time, or, as the boys say, in the "middle of next week," which means never.

The Schemer, another Minion of Fortune, is superior to the Gambler and Adventurer; but when his scheming is combined with selfishness, it is terribly destructive. The schemer deals in magnificent house lots, and homesteads, at fifteen dollars each.—But it usually turns out that these house lots are situated somewhere under water, and until some remarkable geological change takes place, must continue the abode of eels and water-rats. The schemer is indeed fortunate if basescapes without the execration of widows and orphans, who have been defrauded of their little pecuniaries through his representations.

Another class of the Minions of Fortune is represented by the Sluggard, some country Lawrence, who drinks deep and sits long. There is also the Dandy, who produces nothing, and wonders that the world fails to appreciate him. The Croaker fails through his timidity, and if you point him to fortune's horn of plenty, he invariably calls attention to its little end. The Rake and the "Old Bachelor" fall by the same reason.

The Masters of Fortune were those who manfully strive with, and overcome circumstances; those who exercise a practical, New England judgment; those who courageously struggle with difficulties, believing with Boyle, that every difficulty leads to a new discovery. They are not always the Masters of Fortune who acquire great wealth or learning, but those who make right and noble use of them.

The lecture was closed with an appeal to the young men, exhorting them to make the most of their advantages and strive to attain to something noble."

☞ Rev. B. M. Tillotson (Universalist) and Rev. Samuel C. Bartlett, (Orthodox,) clergymen in Manchester, are discussing the merits of their respective faiths or creeds, in the Mirror. Well there is no danger from error with free reason to combat it; and there is no medium like the daily press, for communicating with the people, now-a-days—where a minister can speak for half a thousand hearers, he can put his sermon or ideas in "the paper," and reach ten thousand eyes.

So also of the tradesman,—where a hundred dollars spent in shop-rent, for a store where his goods will meet the eyes of a score of customers, a $10 bill invested in advertising, will bring them to the notice of thousands.

☞ An intelligent correspondent of the Boston Bee, states that Mr. Cameron, Senator elect from Pennsylvania, is not only a Republican, but he also "is an American; was one of the earliest in the American organization in his State; and by reason of his Americanism, which comprehends opposition to slavery extension, was selected for the high position which he has been chosen to fill. The American element in Pennsylvania is the real strength opposed to the democracy. That element, Mr. Cameron distinctly represents; while a minor element of straight out anti-slavery extensionists permit him, at the same time, as holding their sentiments in common with his more leading principles, to be their representative. This position of Mr. Cameron should be known as widely as it is his election."

PENNSYLVANIA SENATORIAL ELECTION.—The Harrisburg Telegraph publishes the following letter addressed to M. Mott, the Canal Commissioner, on the Senatorial election:

"As my position on the subject of electing a United States Senator may be misunderstood, I beg you to say to my friends that Col. John W. Forney, in my opinion, will best serve my administration of all those named, and I will feel complimented and obliged for the votes of my friends in his favor for that office. Mr. Robbins, Mr. Black, and so on, are very fair men, but Col. Forney's claims are far superior to those of all others. JAMES BUCHANAN."

It was the above letter which contributed so much to the defeat of Forney. Mr. Foster and his friends would not submit to the dictation of Pennsylvania's favorite son, and three Democrats went so far as to vote for and elect Col. Cameron.

OLD FOLKS CONCERTS.—We notice by the papers, that concerts of the ancient sacred music are being given all about this winter, as last. The celebrated Chelsea choir, are coming before the public again; the Manchester singers have had one of these concerts, this week; and the Dover folks are preparing to give their first, in a short time.

This is all right, and we rejoice that the sterling old tunes are heard again, but we very much dislike the rigging up in the old fashioned costume, which gives a sort of burlesque to the whole affair, and would destroy all the interest we feel in it. Let those who seek for fun, find it elsewhere than in the singing of "the good old songs our fathers sang."

No other entertainments have proved so popular as the Old Folks Concerts,—which do not need the attraction of "old clothes."

BETTING ILLEGAL.—The Concord, Ind., Democrat reports the following case, just tried in the Court of Common Pleas, Merrimack County:

This was Samuel George v. Samuel U. Dearborn, being suit for services and expenses of George, who resides in Franklin, as stakeholder in a bet between the defendant, a resident of Hill, and Joseph Noyes, on the weight of a yoke of oxen, at Brighton, owned by defendant. Defendant brought back from Brighton, a certificate of weight, not sworn to, and the plaintiff, the stakeholder, refused to pay over the money deposited with him, to either party. A suit was then brought in Grafton County by the defendant in this case against the plaintiff, to recover the amount deposited by the former with the latter, and the amount was recovered. George then brought this action against Dearborn to recover for his services and expenses as stakeholder. The defence set up was that betting was illegal, and no recovery of damages could be had upon any contract growing out of it. The jury returned a verdict for the defendant.

The stakeholder, then, is liable to the man from whom he received the money, and not to any one else. He can get no pay, and the bet itself is illegal and void in law.

A STALE JOKE.—We are sick of seeing the press giving notices of Mellen and Pratt,—the two "natural borns," who deem themselves candidates for the Presidency, &c. Mellen has just recovered from an attack of outright insanity, and resumed his business as a chemist in Charlestown, Mass., and the press had better "let him alone." Pratt has been making a fool of himself and other people, at Manchester, lately,—and we were surprised to see that he was admitted to the Printers' Supper on Franklin's Birthday; and was pronounced by the papers, the great attraction of the evening.

DEATH IN A RAILROAD DEPOT.—On Saturday afternoon about half past 5 o'clock, a woman named Broderick was found dead in the depot at North Braintree, Mass.—She went out from Boston in the 3½ o'clk train, and was waiting in the depot for the arrival of her friends, but before they came she died. A post mortem examination made under the direction of Coroner Binney showed that the cause of her death was a cancer.

The gossips of Louisville have had some little food in a recent case before the courts there. Samuel Bell married Ellen, by whom he had some children. She dying, he married her mother—his mother-in-law—whom he left a widow. Right of dow was claimed by the widow, but denied by the executors. She brought a suit, when the Circuit Court decided such marriage void under laws 1798. The Appelate Court reversed this decision—decided that though such marriages are prohibited, a divorce must be had before the supposed wife could be considered out of the proper line of inheritance.

DISUNION CONVENTION IN ALBANY.—A Disunion Convention will be held by the Garrisonian Abolitionists, in Albany, N. Y., some time in February, similar to that lately held in Worcester. Messrs. Garrison, Phillips, Pillsbury, Foster, and other noted Abolitionists, will be in attendance.

☞ Two more verdicts have been rendered in the Superior Court against the New Haven Railroad Company for damages resulting from the Norwalk disaster.—The amounts were five and four thousand dollars, respectively. In the former case the person died of his injuries, and in the latter the individual was maimed for life.

☞ We learn that the steeple of the church in Campello, North Bridgewater, Mass., was blown down during the gale Monday night. It fell through the body of the church into the cellar, demolishing everything in its way.

☞ Josiah Bradlee, Esq., of Boston, has just given a donation of $2000, in addition to $1000 given by him three years since, to the society for the relief of aged and destitute clergymen.

Widow Mahala Rohrer locked her two little children into her house in Hagerstown, Md., and went to visit a neighbor; and they and the house were burnt together.

A COLD BED.—John Bell was found in a drunken sleep on a vacant lot near G street, South Boston, Thursday night. He was taken home by the police.

Two children, the daughters of a minister in California, died recently within five days of each other. Their names were Martha and Amy. Bertha, a few moments before her departure, said: "Amy, come!" Amy died saying, "To-morrow I shall see Bertha."

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

This wonderful preparation is having an extensive sale in all parts of the Union. It is one of the few patent medicines which are now sold over the country, that are really what their inventors claim for them. Wherever it has had a fair trial, the result has been precisely as Wood predicts. It has never failed to turn the white hair back to the natural color, when the directions have been strictly followed, and in numerous cases it has restored the hair upon heads that had been bald for years. It is not pretended that it will make the hair grow in every case, but where it fails there is certainly no remedy. The restoration of the hair has been effected in so many instances where the case seemed utterly hopeless, that it is certainly worth while for all who have lost their hair to try the experiment of using a bottle or two of Wood's Restorative.—[Moline Workman.

THE GREAT DISCOVERY.

Many years ago, Doctor Jurielgh Smart of Kennebunk, Me., discovered that a simple article never before used as a medicine, was a never failing cure for coughs of every description, and an enrichener of blood purifier. By its use in his private practice, he acquired the reputation of being the best physician in New England, for all diseases of the lungs. After his death, Messrs. Shaw & Clark of Biddeford, Me., obtained a Copy Right from Government, for its exclusive manufacture, and now have it carefully prepared and according to the original recipe. There is no cure but it will not cure, unless the patient is past all his man and before commencing the use. It is called "Doctor Jurielgh Smart's Cough Medicine," and is for sale by all apothecaries. nov FuTuh 6m

LOCAL.

☞ The blockade of our city on Friday was complete. Mails were no-where, or rather, anywhere except the point where they were destined. The expressmen shut up in disgust at the non-arrival of the trains, while the newsmen rattled their heel against the counter in lieu of the coppers in the draw. The day was the coldest on record for forty years. Crinoline seemed to have vanished, and all the whoops in the streets were those of a little boy, whose mother sent him after a cent's worth of yeast, (to make the family rise earlier in the morning,) and who shouted as he went to revive his courage, which appeared to have fallen with the mercury.—There 's no accounting for tastes; 'Doctor,' our aquatic friend, took his daily bath in the Piscataqua. The superiority of our harbor over any on the coast was made evident, it being open during all the present 'cold term.'

☞ Miss E. E. Smith, of Boston, a good Speaking Medium, is expected to speak in Academy Hall on Sunday at the usual hours. Seats free.

Per order of the Committee.

☞ The next lecture before the Granite State Club will be delivered on Wednesday evening, Jan. 28th, by N. K. Raynes, Esq. Evening tickets may be obtained at the store of Wm. R. Preston.

☞ Owing to the postponement of the "Old Folks" Concert, an important alteration has been made in the Orchestra, by which a Grand, and about Æolian Piano, will be substituted for the common piano and melodeon. These powerful instruments will be played by Mrs. Lawrence and Miss E. M. Hadley, and will be fully equal to three common pianos and a melodeon. Miss Hadley was a former pupil of Mrs. L., who was formerly well known in Portsmouth as a skillful player; and we notice their performance at Exeter was highly spoken of. This alone will be a rich treat to the lovers of music, as indeed will be the Concert itself, which promises to excel anything we have heretofore had of the kind.

☞ Owing to the storm on Thursday evening, but a small audience was present to hear Rev. Dr. Gannett, of Boston, who delivered a lecture, worthy of his reputation, on Man, as an individual, and as combined with his fellow men.

THE EASTERN RAILROAD company have asked for an extension of time for the payment of $500,000, loaned them by the State of Massachusetts twenty years ago. They give various and good reasons for the request, and show that the payment at this time would be oppressive to the 2,500 stockholders, many of whom are widows, orphans, and persons of moderate property, dependant upon their usual dividends for their support. It appears from the Legislative railroad reports of 1855, that the capital stock of the road is $3,345,900, and that they have a funded debt of $2,410,000, a floating debt of $539,737, and this mortgage to the State of $500,000.—Upon that gross capital of $6,795,637. they paid at the rate of 5.24 per cent. In the Report to the Legislature (1856), it is stated that $75,000 of the funded debt has been paid since Dec. 1, 1855; consequently the sum of $4,500, being the interest on the redeemed bonds, will not be chargeable to expenses for the last year. This would make the net income for 1856 (all other charges being the same) 5.41 per cent. on the capital stock.

The petition has been referred to the Committee on Railroads, and the prayer ought to be granted.

A newspaper poetess, who wrote under date of 1818, in giving "advice to a young wife," says that the proper sphere and duty of a married woman is—

"To guide the house with prudent care,
With judgment wise to spend and spare,
And make her husband bless the day
He gave his liberty away."

Think of that, Mrs. Lucy Stone! Isn't that small business for a woman? The next two lines contain a confession which rather betrays the secrets of the sex—

"Be sure you ne'er for power contend,
Nor try by tears to gain your end!"

So it seems that among the fair sex weeping was once considered a "valuable water privilege!" Scandalous!—Boston Post.

Alfred the Great, who reigned from 871 to 991, introduced great improvements in the British boats. The old wicker work boats covered with skins, and the "dug out," were superseded by larger and finer vessels, manned by fifty or sixty oarsmen, after the fashion of the Roman galleys, to be used when the wind failed.

No less than 1800 Swiss residents in Paris have, within the last few days, demanded passports to return to Switzerland.

BY TELEGRAPH TO CHRONICLE.

Boston, Friday Night.

This has been the coldest day we have had for many years. The thermometre in the morning was from 12 to 16° below zero; at noon 3° below; at 8 o'clock in the evening, 3 below.

In Portland, the thermometre was 29° below; in Keene 24 to 31; in Fitchburg 20.

It is cheerless enough. The Railroads are in a bad state—the snow having blown in solid upon them. The Fall River and Old Colony are in oblivion. We have heard nothing from Plymouth this week. No mail received yet, except from Springfield and New York—from whence the midnight train was thirteen hours late.

Boston harbor is frozen, and men cross on the ice to East Boston. The docks are frozen up.

Two omnibus drivers were discovered today, on their seats, nearly frozen to death, and were recovered with difficulty. Feet, noses, ears, hands, have frozen by hundreds.

An interesting letter of acceptance of the U. S. Senatorship, from Hon. Charles Sumner, was read in the Massachusetts Legislature this morning.

The steamship ——, from Liverpool 7th inst., is below New York. No news by her. C.

ACCIDENT ON THE ERIE ROAD.—The rumor of an accident on the Erie Railroad proves to have been well founded, though there were not so many lives lost as were reported. The express train ran off the track about 5 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, near Hawkins, about 150 miles from New York, at a curve on the bank of the Delaware river, where there was a broken rail. The entire train, consisting of two passenger cars, a baggage car and locomotive, dashed down an embankment of twenty feet into the river, with such force as to break through the ice and submerge one end of each car, and bring in water to the great terror of the passengers, who numbered about seventy. Only one person—a sailor going from Cincinnati to Boston—was killed. He was terribly crushed.—About thirty others, four of them ladies, were badly hurt, though it is supposed that all will recover. A brakeman had some of his ribs broked; several were burned by the upsetting of the stoves. They escaped though the doors and windows. The weather was intensely cold, but the farmers near by were very hospitable. The passengers were brought on to New York after a detention of six hours,—New Haven Palladium, 21st.

INCONSISTENCY.—Rev. N. M. Crawford, a Baptist pastor in Georgia, writes to the Examiner, a long letter, in which, he admits that the slave is a man and a brother, and rejoined that where he is "converted, the negro is as gladly welcome into our churches, as a brother, as if he were of pure Anglo Saxon blood." And what gives Mr. Crawford a right to sell his brother? Or, to hold him in bondage? Speaking of the work of preaching to slaves, this reverend slaveholder says: "Can we engage in this work, without believing in our very heart that the negro is a man, without affirming the essential manhood and brotherhood of the negro? And yet the man and the brother is whipped to his daily task. If he tries to escape, he is hunted with dogs; if he resists he is shot. If the negro is a man and a brother, the slaveholder is often a demon. All Mr. Crawford admits, only shows the infernal character of the slave system. The christian master, whips, brands, sells and shoots his brother. We are living in Austria, of course, and in the dark ages—say about the tenth century.—Christian Era.

DEATH FROM EATING POISONED CONFECTIONERY.—The Natick Observer says:

"A child of Mr. L. P. Spooner of this village, aged one year and six months, died on Thursday morning last, from eating red 'popped corn ball.' Its death was attended by all the symptoms of poison—soon after eating it being seized with vomiting. This sad calamity should be a timely warning to parents to guard themselves from a like affliction."

The vote in the Missouri Legislature by which Gov. Trusten Polk was elected U. S. Senator, was as follows: Polk 101, Benton 23, Gamble 34, scattering 3. The resolution to adjourn the Legislature to St. Louis, on the 19th inst., has passed the House by a vote of 76 yeas to 44 nays, and will probably pass the Senate. This is a curious response to Gov. Price's attack upon that abolition city, in his message.—Boston Tel.

The eccentric Lord Holland, of the reign of William III., used to give his horses a weekly concert in a covered gallery especially erected for the purpose. He maintained that it cheered their hearts and improved their temper; and an eye-witness says that they seemed to be greatly delighted therewith.

Sir Henry Halford, the eminent London physician, says:—

"Of the great number to whom it has been my painful professional duty to have administered in the last hours of their lives, I have sometimes felt surprised that so few have appeared reluctant to go to 'the undiscovered country from whose bourne no traveller returns.'"

M. Zeigler, historical painter, has just expired in Paris. Amongst other works, the deceased painted the altar piece of the Madeleine.

LOTTERIES.

The well known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. FRANCIS & Co. are the managers, are chartered by the State of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Ternary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

In calling the attention of the public to my list of Magazines and Newspapers; I would CAUTION all against subscribing for Magazines, Newspapers, or other works, to irresponsible and transient persons, or travelling agents; for in nine cases out of ten you will be swindled and cheated.

If you wish to take any Magazine or Newspaper, subscribe of some responsible firm in Town.—Hundreds of dollars are lost every year by subscribing for works of strangers and travelling agents, and by being induced to subscribe by the thousands of contrivances to cheat the public—such as Art Unions, Premiums, Cosmopolitan Art Associations, and various humbugs to gull the unwary. Keep clear of all these, and pay your money to those whom you know to be responsible.

The subscriber has been in the business fourteen years, and will guarantee to furnish any publication as cheap as can be obtained.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.

DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS FOR FEMALES,

Prepared by an old Physician of 40 years experience

THE combination of ingredients in these Pills, is the result of a long and extensive practice; they are mild in their operation, and certain in restoring nature to its proper channel. In every instance have the Pills proved successful. They are certain to remove those obstructions to which females are liable, and bring nature into its proper channel, whereby health is restored, and the pale and deathly countenance changed to a healthy one; for female can enjoy good health unless she is regular: and whenever an obstruction takes place, whether from exposure, cold, or any other cause, the general health immediately begins to decline, and the want of such a remedy has been the cause of so many consumptions among young females. Headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, loathing of food, and disturbed sleep, that most always arise from the interruption of nature; and whenever that is the case, the Pills will invariably remove all these evils. In all cases of painful menstruation, or nervous and spinal affections in the back and limbs, lowness of spirits, hysterics, &c. Nor are they less efficacious in the cure of Leucorrhœa, commonly called the "Whites." These Pills should never be taken during pregnancy, as they would be sure to cause a miscarriage. Warranted purely Vegetable, and free from anything injurious to life or health. Full and explicit directions which should be read, accompany each box. The Pills are put up in a private box, that boxes—Persons residing where there are no Agencies established, by enclosing One Dollar in a letter, prepaid, to Dr. C. L. CHEESEMAN, Box No. 4,031, Post Office, New York City, can have them sent to their respective addresses by return of mail.

A GIRL'S BLUSH.

Girls blush, sometimes, because they are alive,
Half wishing they were dead to save the shame.
The sudden blush devours them, neck and brow
They have drawn too near the fire of life, like gnats,
And flare up bodily, wings and all. What then!
Who's sorry for a gnat—or girl?

I blushed,
I feel the brand upon my forehead! now
Strike hot, scar deep, as guiltless man may feel
The felon's iron, say, and scorn the mark
Of what they are not. Most illogical,
Irrational nature of our womanhood,
That blushes one way, feels another way,
And prays, perhaps, another! After all,
We cannot be the equal of the male,
Who rules his blood a little.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)

No. 75 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions, and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantage for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials now given prove that there is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents, which, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render his aid, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. I have very favorable testimonials to the fact capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 1, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.
CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

Arnold's Vital Fluid

PURIFIES and strengthens the blood by eradicating, through a slow chemical action, the causes of impurities and disease. Hence its power to cure humors that have resisted all measures. Hence its power of strengthening and vitalizing the blood. It furnishes to a certain extent, the element of which pure blood is composed. It strengthens and cleanses away whatever clogs and thickens the blood.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID

Renders the system strong and healthy, by freeing the blood and all the fluids of objectionable materials. It nerves and vivifies the system, by furnishing the elements which give vitality.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID

Gives to the system an influence and effect similar to that produced by exercise in the free open air. It exhilarates by strengthening the blood to brighten and better action—making the word cheerful and the feeling strong. It is pleasant to the taste, and becomes a favorite wherever known.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID

Removes Biliousness in the most direct and easy manner, by neutralizing the cause. This is the principle of its action in removing illness generally. It neutralizes the cause, by freeing the blood from impediments to its proper fulfilment of its life-giving functions.

This principle of neutralizing the cause is why ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID CURES HUMORS that mere medicine cannot sensibly affect, and why it cures other diseases.

Resulting from Poisons in the Blood, that mere medicinal preparations cannot alleviate. Humors are poisons in the blood, and it is by their chemical action in neutralizing those poisons that ARNOLD'S GLOBULES AND VITAL FLUID are enabled to cure them so that they stay cured.

VITAL FLUID 50 cents per bottle; GLOBULES 25 cents per box.

Improved Melodeons.

THE OLDEST ESTABLISHMENT IN THE U.S.

Employing Two Hundred Men,
and finishing

Eighty Instruments per Week.

BETWEEN 18,000 AND 19,000 of these instruments have been finished and are now in use.

THE latest improvement in our Melodeons is the DIVIDED SWELL, secured to us by Letters Patent 22d May, 1855—By means of this swell Solo Passages may be played with the full power of the instrument, while the Accompaniment is soft and subdued—therefore all Melodeons made by us, will be furnished with this attachment without charge.

Extract from the Commercial Advertiser, July 27, '55

"Messrs Prince & Co could realize a handsome fortune by disposing of rights to other manufacturers of this new improvement; but as they prefer to make it a feature in their instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufacture."

It is now eight years since we commenced the manufacture of this new celebrated Musical Instrument, during which time we have finished and sold nearly NINE TEN THOUSAND. Volunta ry testimonials of the excellence of our Instruments, from the most distinguished Professors of Music in different parts of the United States, have from time to time been received. Thus far we have said but little, and our advertisements we seldom seen for the reason that we could not supply the demand. We have lately erected one of the largest and most perfect Manufacturing Establishments in the United States, and we now think that we can fill orders promptly. We there fore give one testimonial we have received.

NEW YORK, 15th Oct., 1855

"G. A. Prince & Co.: Gentlemen—The Double Reed Melodeon has arrived, and a most charming instrument it is. It has been played on by Walkins, Bristow, Hanff, and a host of other others, and they all pronounce it one of the most beautiful toned reed instruments they have ever touched. Very truly, JAMES P. HALL."

We are not aware that the above mentioned Melodeon is in any particular superior to those we are daily finishing, and we can assure those who are inclined to favor us with their orders, that they will be furnished with instruments equally as good. Our Instruments are all finished in Rosewood Cases, and the workmanship is of the very best quality. The styles and prices are—

Four octave Melodeon, from C to C.....$45
Four and a half octave, " C to F.....60
Five octave Melodeon, " F to F.....75

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE celebrated machines are in practical and profitable use in all parts of the civilized world. In all the various trades, and in sewing every sort of fabric, either of cloth or leather, they have been fully tried and approved. Sewing machines of other manufacturers often fail to work, but SINGER'S MACHINES being entirely free from complexity in construction and workmanship. A perfect sewing machine kept employed affords a clear profit of $1000 a year; but an imperfect one is a source of constant vexation and loss. The entire RELIABILITY of our machines is one great reason for their unparalleled popularity.

ALWAYS OPERATE PERFECTLY,

MACHINES FOR FAMILY SEWING, of a trifling and delicate construction, are recommended by other manufacturers. Such machines are made, but with the eye, not the hand, of substantial work. The truth is, family sewing machines ought to be stronger than any other, because they go into less skillful hands than when used for manufacturers, and are used for a greater variety of work. The machines which have proved best for all other purposes must be best for family use, and the Singer Family Sewing Machines have lately been doubled. No other can compare with them in quantity of work.

☞ New machine of the latest improved style will be exchanged for any second hand sewing machines of our own make, or for operative machines of other manufacturers. Local agents wanted everywhere.

N. B.—All persons desiring full information about sewing machines, can obtain it by applying for a copy of "THE SINGER MACHINE GAZETTE" a paper devoted entirely to this subject. It will be sent gratis. I M SINGER & CO.

☞ A letter from Davenport, Iowa, to the Congregational Journal, gives the following item on a woman who lectures on temperance:

I am not inclined to advocate the recently assumed "rights" of women to speak in public, but a lady came to Davenport a few days ago, who justly excited considerable sympathy. Having been cursed with a drunken and brutal husband, she felt it her duty after his decease to devote herself personally to the Temperance cause, and during the summer past she has found her sole employment in visiting tippling houses and drunkard's families, distributing tracts and otherwise "using the arts of persuasion privately," the true sphere of woman's influence. She had labored three months in Chicago, before coming here, and was obliged reluctantly to commence public lecturing in order to gain a sustenance, and supply herself with the necessary comforts during the cold season.

NEWSPAPERS.—Newspaper reading is indeed, all other reading, except among a small class comparatively, is confined in this country to the free States. We see this in the wide circulation of the New York Tribune, which, so soon as it became recognized as the leading free State paper, swelled its list to double what a newspaper ever before had. The New York Herald followed in the same track when Fremont was nominated, and when some said that such a course would be its ruin, Bennett showed from his books, that though peculiarly southern before, in its tone, its southern support had not been worth having; and the last year gave it an increased patronage of more than a hundred thousand dollars. The Journal of Commerce, representing the mercantile interests of New York, maintained its high conservatism in showing no sympathy with the Republican movement last fall, but a while since it noticed that Mr. Strickland, "the bookseller who was banished from Mobile for the heinous crime of selling three copies of Uncle Tom's Cabin, has opened a bookstore in Milwaukie," whereupon it was attacked at the south and several subscribers discontinued. The Journal, which is now the most partial to southern institutions of any of the leading papers, said if every subscriber they had in the southern States should discontinue, it would scarcely make a perceptible impression on the profits of their business. Only a fifteenth of the circulation and a twentieth of the advertising was in the slave States.—Newburyport Herald.

The new status of the Immaculate Conception, in the Piazza di Spagna, at Rome, is so little liked and venerated by the Romans, that a guard of soldiers is placed around it night and day for protection.

A SAD CASE.—In the Ohio Penitentiary there is a young prisoner who entered about a year ago, for some small offence against the laws. He was troubled with weak eyes, upon which the prison doctor made a forced operation, totally destroying his sight. The prisoner resisted the cruel op ration till he was overpowered by the main strength of his keepers, and the cruel cunning of his physician, by whom he was made stone blind for life. A few weeks ago, the time for which he was incarcerated expired; but without friends, money, or sight, he chose to remain and wear out his days in that disgraceful solitude. The Legislature, learning of the outrage, referred it to a Special Committee of Investigation.

"YET THE POOR THING DIED."—"Ah! poor thing its gone at last," said a fond father to a friend alluding to the death of a baby two months old; "but we did all we could for it, and there's no use repining. It was only ill a week, and during that time we had four doctors, who gave it eight calomel powders, applied one leech to the chest, one blister and six mustard plasters, and gave it antimony wine, and other medicine in abundance! And yet the poor thing died!"

The friend in amazement replied, "Died! it would have been a miracle if it had lived."

AN AMERICAN SHOT IN PARIS.—A letter in the London Times from "an English prisoner for debt in France," dated the 30th, says: "This morning at 9 o'clock, Mr. Charles Morrett, an American gentleman, patentee of the vulcanized India rubber, was deliberately shot dead by a soldier of the 88th regiment on guard, when standing with his hands in his pockets at one of the windows of the prison, which is public to all the inmates."

Several years ago a young literateur published a rather weak and decidedly dull satire entitled "Parnassus in Pillory," the motto of which was, "lend me your ears." Brown, who was one of the poets "pilloried" in the satire, observed, in allusion to the author's motto, that it seemed to him the writer had "no occasion to borrow any thing of that sort." Moral—Let Brown alone.

Morning Chronicle.

MONDAY, JANUARY 26, 1857.

HARD FARE.

In the New York train of Saturday, the 18th, for New Haven, there were about 70 passengers. Left New York at 7 1 2 P. M. on the 18th, arrived at Bridgeport without much loss of time, passed over the Housatonic Bridge, and soon after encountered drifts. It being an up grade, the engineer was obliged to reverse, and soon the crank pin of the engine broke, and "there they were."

There were ten or a dozen more than could be accommodated with seats, but each one sunk his personal comfort in a desire to relieve his neighbor. About 2 o'clock two or three groped their way through the drifts and blinding snow to the station, where chairs were eagerly substituted for beds. Those in the car by alternate shifts and accommodation passed the night, which was one of uncommon severity both of wind and snow.

The dawn brought no hopes of relief.—Near noon hunger began to be felt, and a party of about a dozen started for the nearest farm-house. Mr. D. Baldwin and family showed them every attention, cooking an excellent dinner and building a good fire. Those on board the car found in the baggage apartment a barrel of dressed chickens, which were immediately seized and broiled upon the only stove on board. One or two kegs of lager beer were fortunately discovered also. The scene at this time bordered on the ludicrous—the smoking chickens, the frequent pulls at the beer kegs, and the eager disposal of the half cooked chickens by the hungry men, looked like short allowance.

At this time some of those whole-souled members of the "Higgins Club" of Milford, Messrs. Baldwin, Tibbals, Sweet and others, made their appearance with a liberal supply of crackers, cheese, sardines and other refreshments. They gave the passengers an earnest invitation to accompany them back. Some dreading the severity of the storm remained, but about half the number took the track for Milford, two and a half miles distant. Frosted ears and hands were felt by some of the party on reaching fires.

Provisions were sent down to those who still remained in the cars, among whom was F. O. J. Smith, who doubtless wished for telegraphic communication with the outside world, as all other communication was not to be mentioned. The hospitality of the Higgins Club was shared until two o'clock on Tuesday, when the arrival of the Bridgeport train brought up the mails and passengers. The travellers once more took the train and went on to West Haven, near New Haven, where they again took foot passage through the drifts to New Haven. They left on the Springfield train at eight o'clock Wednesday morning, with their faces toward Boston.

HUGH MILLER'S SUICIDE.—The terrible story of Mr. Miller's death has created a deep gloom in Edinburgh by the publication of the particulars. But another sad tragedy in connection with this late had at the same time to be disclosed. After the judicial and medical inquiry on Friday, Professor Miller took the pistol to the gunsmith from whom it had been purchased by Mr. Miller, in July, 1855, in order to ascertain how many shots had been fired, and how many were still in the chamber. In the master's absence, the foreman, Thomas Leslie, as old and experienced workman, received the pistol from Professor Miller, and unfortunately, instead of taking off the chamber, he looked into the muzzle, holding the hammer with his fingers, while he turned the chamber round to count the charges. The hammer slipped from his fingers, struck the cap, and the charge in the barrel exploded.

Professor Miller still standing outside the counter, exclaimed, "That's a narrow escape;" but unhappily it was not so, for as the smoke cleared away he saw the old man's head gradually droop, and his body then fall lifeless on the floor. The charge had entered the right eye and penetrated the brain. Leslie was a steady, trustworthy man, and had been 25 years in his present employment. He has left a widow and a family of eight children.

THE PORTLAND AND BOSTON STEAMERS.—The Portland Steam Packet Company are still obliged to detain the Forest City there, and the Lewistown in Boston, for the reason, that the former cannot get up to her dock in Boston and the latter cannot get out of the harbor of that city.—A despatch received yesterday states that the Tow Boats are stuck in the ice, and that it is only "newspaper talk" that Boston harbor is open.

DESTITUTION AND SUFFERING AT THE WEST.—Among the heart rending incidents of the fuel famine related, we select the following from the Cincinnati Gazette:

One night last week, one of our city officials saw a man come out of an alley with a load of wood on his shoulders. He went up to him and charged him with stealing it.

The reply was—"I have stolen it. My children are freezing with cold. I have no wood, and no money. The man from whom I am taking this has lenty of wood. When better times come, I will go and tell him what I have done, and pay him. If you with to put me in jail, I will go to the station house with you without a word, but sir, for God's sake, let me take this wood home first!"

The other instance was of a family near the intersection of George and Mound streets, who from Friday last until Sunday were without fuel and without food. The consequence of their privation was, that on awaking on Sunday morning, their little infant of five months old, lying stretched out dead from privation and cold.

The Common Council have sent a committee into the country to purchase wood and coal, to be disposed of to citizens at a reasonable rate, and have appropriated $30,000 for that purpose.

The Louisville Journal says that the last bushel of coal has disappeared from the market. There is a little in the cellars of the citizens, but none in the yards of the dealers. The sufferings of the poor and the needy are without precedent. Instances are mentioned where poor women have actually burnt up portions of their furniture and the slats of their beds for fuel.

DEFEAT OF THE REVOLUTIONARY PENSION BILL.—We have already recorded the fact that the Senate have postponed to next December, by one vote, the bill which provides for the final settlement of the claims of the officers of the revolutionary army, and of the widows and orphans of those who died in the service. We deeply regret this action. Never was a bill more just, and at the same time more patriotic. Hundreds of needy widows and orphans were hanging their hopes upon its passage. These must now be left to their fate, because certain politicians are ungrateful to the memory of those who gained us all the privileges we enjoy. The bill was very moderate, so much so that Col. Webb, whose father bled on Bunker Hill, opposed it as grossly inadequate. Many of our citizens were interested in the measure, and confidently expected it would pass this time. They will gratefully recognize Senators Fessenden and Hamlin's efforts, though unsuccessful. There is still some chance of a reconsideration.

It was materially prejudiced by the presence of a hungry set of agents who infested the galleries daily during the discussion, and were ready to pounce upon the claimants, should it pass.

CONGRESS.—PACIFIC RAILROAD BILL.—In the House of Representatives on Wednesday the 14th inst., the following proceedings took place:

Mr. Wood—I ask leave to introduce a bill to provide for the construction of one or more railroads, and a telegraphic line or lines of communication from some point or points in the Mississippi valley, and one or other corresponding point or points on the shore of the Pacific Ocean.

The bill was read a first and second time.

Mr. Wood—I move that the bill be referred to the Committee on the Post Office and Post Roads.

Mr. Cobb, of Alabama—I think the gentleman does not propose to give the bill a proper direction; I think it should be referred, like other railroad bills, to the Committee on Public Lands. There is no doubt that it is a Pacific Railroad Bill. I move that the bill be referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

Mr. Wood's motion was rejected, and the bill was then referred to the Committee on Public Lands.

The Indiana Senate stands firm against a Senatorial election. The two houses are at dead lock on another question. The House (Democratic) passed a bill increasing the (Democratic) Governor's salary, which must be done before he is inaugurated or it cannot be done at all. The Senate (Republican) passed a bill re-apportioning the State. The House refuses to pass this, as it will deprive its party of its advantages under the old arrangement. The Senate retaliates by refusing to raise the Governor's salary.

The two branches of the Pennsylvania Legislature, having failed to meet in convention for the election for State Treasurer, a new law must be passed before the election can be made.

A paragraph respecting no choice of Senator, has gone all over the country. The above is the true version.

QUERY.—Was it not rather mal apropos to send Alderman Frost with the steamer Enoch Train to clear Boston Harbor of ice the other day?—Portland Adv.

It soon froze over again, as might have been expected.

CURES.—One of the most eminent French physicians and physiologists, Magendie, whose treatises are regarded as standard works, the world over, says he knows nothing about medicine, and don't know anybody that does. In one of his lectures he asks:

Who can cure the gout, or the disease of the heart? Nobody. O! you tell me doctors cure people. I grant you, people are cured. But how are they cured? Gentlemen, nature does a great deal.—Doctors do devilish little—when they don't do harm. Let me tell you, gentlemen, what I did when I was head physician at the Hotel Dieu. Some 3000 or 4000 patients passed through my hands every year. I divided the patients into two classes; with one I followed the dispensary, and gave the usual medicines, without having the least idea of wherefore; to the other I gave bread pills and colored water; without of course, letting them know anything about it—and occasionally, gentlemen, I would create a third division to whom I gave nothing whatever. These last would feel they were neglected, (sick people always feel neglected, unless they are well drugged—the fools!) and they would irritate themselves until they really got sick, but nature invariably came to the rescue, and all persons in the third class got well. There was little mortality among those who received but bread pills and colored water, and the mortality was greatest among those who were carefully drugged according to the dispensary.

NEGRO MELODIES.—R. Storrs Willis, editor of the New York Musical Times, in a recent lecture on music, says:

Let us not neglect or despise simple things in music. A good polka is a good thing. It has as much right to live as a grand symphony. It is entitled to its just share of consideration. True, a polka share—but still, a share. There is a great deal of cant about simple music of this humbler kind. None but half educated musical people ever indulge in it. The field of art is broad and the true artist takes the whole field—not that small part of it alone which circumscribes his own sphere of attention.

Mendelssohn, himself, once expressed great pleasure at some of our native American Ethiopian melodies. I cannot, while in Germany, to be passing a summer in a remote spa of the Taunus mountains, where was accidentally gathered a rare galaxy of German genius—Mendelssohn, Freiligrath the poet, Gutzkow the dramatic writer, and Hoffman von Fallersleben, the people's poet. These highly cultivated men were all charmed with some of the better Ethiopian melodies—the earlier ones—which were popular some years ago.

At the request of Hoffman von Fallersleben, (who, it may be stated, was one of the seven Gottingen professors, deposed for their liberal principles,) I furnished him with quite a number of these melodies, to which he afterward wrote German words for the German people. I recollect, also, that a stern old German theorist in Frankfort, who usually condescended to nothing less classic than Bach and Beethoven, quite went into ecstacies, when I thrummed on a guitar and hummed to him, the notable air of "Coal black Rose"—a very beautiful melody by the way. I may say, also that at all the merry makings and pick-nickings which I participated in during a six years' stay in Germany, our native American melodies invariably bore off the palm for musical charm.

A NOBLE DEED.—Some months since, a poor German neighbor of Gerrit Smith was charged with murder. A singular combination of unfavorable circumstances induced a general belief that he was guilty, and the public excitement against him was very strong. Mr Smith visited the suspected man in the jail, and became convinced that he was innocent. In the face of a hostile public sentiment he volunteered his services as counsel for the German, spent nearly a thousand dollars from his own purse in collecting evidence, and arguing his case before the jury. By his untiring exertions, the very dark cloud of unfavorable circumstances was made red up, and the innocence of his client made manifest, not only to the the court and jury but the public. Mr. Smith with characteristic beneficence, crowned his magnanimity by giving the poor German a small farm and $200 in money. Noblenes like this is its own praise and its own reward. We wish that it was less rare.

THE WEATHER UNCONSTITUTIONAL.—This cold weather, is "unconstitutional!" It is dangerous to slavery. It has again bridged the Ohio so that slaves are running off by moonlight to "'tother side of Jordan."—Three men and a woman started from Kentucky on Thursday; they were hotly pursued, but love of freedom furnished more steam than love of negroes, and sliding away before the wind, they were not overtaken at last accounts.—Portland Adv.

R. B. Sheridan had a great distaste to anything like metaphysical discussion, whereas his son, Tom, had a great liking for them. Tom one day tried to discuss with his father the doctrine of Necessity.—"Pray my good father," said he, "did you ever do anything in a perfect state of indifference, without a motive of one kind or another?" Sheridan, who foresaw what was coming, and did not relish it much, after a moment replied, "Yes, certainly." "Indeed!" "Yes, indeed." "What' total, entire indifference—thorough indifference?" "Yes—total, entire, thorough indifference!" "Well then, my dear father, do, pray tell me what it is that you can do with such total, entire, complete indifference?" "Why—listen to you, Tom"—said Sheridan. This rebuff, Tom said so disconcerted him, that he never attempted wit with his father afterwards.

RATHER COOL.—The Trenton Gazette is responsible for the following:

A verdant young man entered a fancy store in that city lately, while the lady proprietor was arranging a lot of perfumery. She asked him if he would not like to have some musk bags to put in his drawers.—After the examination of the article he told the young lady he did not wear drawers, and wanted to know if they wouldn't do to wear in his pantaloons.

The crop of tobacco has become one of the staple productions of the Chemung Valley, New York, and it is said to be more profitable than any other crop. It is only about three years since it was introduced, and this year two or three hundred tons have been raised in that county alone.

A letter from Salt Lake city says:

"We have dreadful accounts of the sufferings among the Mormon emigrants, by the band cart train, which is now in the mountains. The train contained three hundred and fifty souls; one-seventh are already dead, and they are dying at the rate of fifteen per day. There are six hundred more behind, of which we have heard nothing. We hope that they stopped at Laramie. It is impossible for them to get through this fall. The Mormons estimated that there are not less than 1500 of their brethren yet to come in, and the snow is reported to be deep in the mountains."

A RESERVATION.—A gentleman on the cars asked the man who came to collect the passage money, if their was any danger of being blown up, as the steam made such a horrid noise.

"Not in the least," said the sharp collector, "unless you should refuse to pay your fare."

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

This wonderful preparation is having an extensive sale in all parts of the Union. It is one of the few patent medicines which are now sold over the country, that we really what their inventors claim for them. Wherever it has had a fair trial, the result has been precisely as Wood predicts. It has never failed to turn the white hair back to the natural color, where the directions have been strictly followed and in numerous cases it has restored the hair upon heads that had been bald for years. It is not pretended that it will make the hair grow in every case, but where it fails there is certainly no remedy. The restoration of the hair has been effected in so many instances where the case seemed utterly hopeless, that it is certainly worth while for all who have lost their hair to try the experiment of using a bottle or two of Wood's Restorative.—[Mohne Workman.

THE GREAT DISCOVERY.

Many years ago, Doctor Burleigh Smart of Kennebunk, Me., discovered that a simple article never before used as a medicine, was a never failing cure for a vast number of complaints, and an excellent blood purifier. By its use in his private practice, he acquired the reputation of being the best physician in New England, for all diseases of the lungs. After his death, Messrs. Shaw & Clark of Biddeford, Me., obtained a Copy Right from Government, for its exclusive manufacture and now have it carefully prepared strictly according to the original recipe. There is no cow'sh ha it will not cure, unless the patient is past all human aid before commencing its use. The pill is called "Doctor Burleigh Smart's Cough Medicine," and is for sale by all apothecaries.

SPANISH COFFEE.—We would call the attention of our customers and dealers to our Spanish Coffee, as an article which for a low price, it gives the greatest satisfaction. It is prepared with a particular care and by a peculiar process in roasting one pound of this coffee, it is believed, is equal to 1 lb. of any other.

DANDELION COFFEE.—This article is carefully prepared at our Mills and put up in packages having our trade mark, and are warranted upon as the best and most approved mixture of dandelion and coffee.

TARAXACUM, or Prepared Dandelion Root.—This article is prepared and roasted at our Mills, is retailed by Family Grocers generally in city and country, and bearing our trade mark, Chinaman grinding coffee, may be relied upon as the VERY BEST ARTICLE. The medical properties of Dandelion are well known, and held in high estimation by all who use it. This being a preparation of the root, with all its medicinal virtues retained, can be mixed with coffee or not, as best suits the taste, and will be found cheap and economical as a family beverage, one pound of which being nearly equal to two pounds of coffee. It is prescribed by many eminent physicians to invalids, children and aged persons, as a nutritious beverage, and as a remedy for Dyspepsia, Bilious affections &c.

LOCAL.

A DAY TO BE REMEMBERED.—On Saturday, Jan. 24, 1857, at low water slack, the floating ice from the branches of the Piscataqua was met at 7 A. M. opposite the city by the flow of the tide, and became jammed between Badger's and Noble's Islands, and Rice's Point in Kittery, and braced against Portsmouth Bridge in some places. The thermometers at this time varied from 20 to 25 below, some say more. The blocks of ice, thus crowded together, were soon welded together by the frost, and hundreds of people crossed and recrossed, for the fun or oddity of the thing, on the ice, keeping up the sport the whole forenoon. Such an occurrence, we suppose, never took place before on this river. Uncle Toby was invited to cross, but he contented himself with such a look as Dr. Kane and others gave to the Polar Sea. He saw vapor, and houses and hills and trees on the Kittery side; imagined himself gathering sticks in the State of Maine—[Just here the City Marshal gave him a twig, which he put on his dinner-basket, exactly as some gunners bag the game they buy, and he marched up town with the more adventurous voyagers, who had discovered as great and useful a wonder as the Arctic voyagers.] Moreover he imagined himself getting a wet foot and a frosted beard as he came back—but he didn't get them.—probably because he did not go.

Five travellers together, from this city, passed from Noble's Island to Badger's—thence to the Navy Yard; thence to Trefethen's Island; thence across the Narrows to Pierce's Island; thence to Long Wharf in this city, all on the ice.

A correspondent sends the following view:

"Friday and Saturday, Jan. 23 and 24, 1857, will be memorable days. They were the coldest in all human probability that our living Portsmouthians will ever experience; forty years have seen nothing equal to it, and ere the next forty shall roll round to bring another such "cool term," it will be for the benefit of another generation.

Our unconquerable river, has contested the right of freedom successfully—not free soil, but free water—and although to day she held her breath long enough for the insinuating enemy to skim over the Narrows, and although some of her limbs are fast bound in icy fetters—yet old Piscataqua is free, open, and ready to receive into its sheltering harbor, any craft from a pink stern to a war steamer.

Above the bridge the river had closed on Friday its entire breadth, uniting Maine and New Hampshire by something more than a cold water tie; and on Saturday flocks of Arctic voyagers were traversing from Noble's Island to Badger's Island upon the firm ice. To stand upon Portsmouth Bridge in the atmosphere tempered to 15 below zero, with a strong breeze at that, was to realize something of the Arctic voyagers' sensations, whilst the scene around of extended ice fields, hummocks, floes, and far down the river, the rising vapor, indicating open water,—all give intensity to the frigid feeling. The little bath house of Noble's Island, enveloped in casings of ice, and surrounded by huge hummocks, might be taken for the Advance in winter quarters. A slight stretch of imagination would see Dr. Kane emerging from the cold depths of the craft—but on closer examination it is not he, but another Dr., returning from his every-day plunge. On this day he had to cut away the ice, some twelve inches in thickness, to admit of the luxury of a sea bath. It was full enough to look at that hole; we should not like a FULLER sense of its nip.

The receipts of the Eastern Railroad must be seriously depressed, with the road blockaded by snow, and a new foot bridge, free of toll, across the river. The road has asked an extension, and Mrs. Partington wants to know why they wish to extend further down east, when they are unable to run over the length of its present extent.

ZERO.

☞ On Saturday afternoon, at 5 o'clock, we received our latest Boston evening papers of Thursday, which had been in the express car at North Hampton or Greenland in the mean time.

At the same time, i. e. 4 P. M. on Saturday, a train with the mails from this city started for Boston, with the direction to work its way through to Salem;—a considerable job, probably,—as a new crop of snow began to fall here about 3 P. M., with the wind North.

The ice in the river, at the Narrows, broke away with the afternoon ebb tide on Saturday, and went to sea, thus clearing the harbor.

The pack of drift-ice, over which so many had passed, cleared away with Saturday evening's tide, leaving the river clear to the bridge on Portsmouth side.

We had a mail from Portland on Friday evening; and sent on that way on Saturday morning.

☞ The alarm of fire on Saturday evening was caused by the burning of a chimney of house No. 114 State street, occupied by Mr. Tilton. Through the thoughtlessness of some previous occupant the house came near being destroyed, as the contents of a closet in the second story were found on fire, and an examination showed that a funnel had formerly passed through the closet into the chimney, and when it was dis-used the hole was merely papered over!

Jan. 24, 1857.

From the N. H. Gazette.

"OLD FOLKS" AND ORCHESTRAL CONCERT.—The first Concert of this character will be given in this city on Sunday evening, Feb. 1st., and will embrace a variety; commencing with the instrumentation of Mozart's beautiful "Requiem Brevis Mass" in D minor. It is the first of Classical music by native talent, and we trust that the management will meet with a recompense for the necessary outlay required by the furnishment of so popular music, and at the same time a species of gratification will be happily created.

The orchestra has the reputation of a good share of musical talent, and the members, generally, have become well accustomed with playing together. The conductor of the orchestra was "in days of yore" known and appreciated for his musical attainments in this place; and he will appear before us as a memento of the happily-remembered past. The public are largely indebted to him as a skillful conductor and experienced teacher, and for his hard working energy; and his capabilities are "household words."

The rage for "Old Folks" Concerts continues unabated, and the many friends of this species of music will turn out en masse to hear; while that portion of the community who have heard the Orchestral Concert, will need no urging. See by the advertisement, where to procure tickets, &c. *.

FROM EUROPE—FOUR DAYS LATER.

ARRIVAL OF THE ATLANTIC.

The steamship Atlantic, from Liverpool 7th inst., arrived at New York 23d.

Lord Napier is appointed minister to Washington. He is a practical diplomatist, having served in Austria, Persia, Naples and Turkey. The London Times objects to the appointment.

The Archbishop of Paris was assassinated while performing religious services in the Church St. Etienne, by a discharged priest named Verges. The assassin stepped forward and lifting his cape, plunged a catlan knife into his heart. The Bishop fell to the pavement and instantly expired. Verges was formerly a priest, but had been suspended for preaching against the dogma of the immaculate conception.

The Swiss difficulty remains as before, but expectation of a peaceable settlement increases.

So far as is known, the Neufchatel question has advanced no further towards a solution. The last despatch from Berne, Jan. 3d, states that an ultimatum from France and England was expected to be received there.

BY TELEGRAPH TO CHRONICLE.

BOSTON, Saturday Night.

The steamship Persia arrived at New York at 12 o'clock to-day—from Liverpool Jan. 10th.

Napoleon has virtually settled the Swiss difficulty. Prussia has surrendered to Neufchatel and Switzerland her prisoners.

The Congress at Paris has agreed on a protocol to conclude a treaty of peace.

The weather is warmer than yesterday—the wind south-east with indications of more snow.

Boston harbor is frozen over for a considerable distance, and men and horses are plenty thereon.

I will send you ship-news on Sunday, if we get any. C.

In calling the attention of the public to my list of Magazines and Newspapers I would caution all against subscribing for Magazines, Newspapers, or other works, to irresponsible and transient persons, or travelling agents; for in nine cases out of ten you will be swindled and cheated.
If you wish to take any Magazine or Newspaper, subscribe of some responsible firm in Town.—Hundreds of dollars are lost every year by subscribing for works of strangers and travelling agents, and by being induced to subscribe by 1. the thousands of contrivances to cheat the public—such as Art Unions, Premiums, Cosmopolitan Art Associations, and various humbugs to gull the unwary. Keep clear of all these, and pay your money to those whom you know to be responsible.
The subscriber has been in the business four teen year, and will guarantee to furnish any publication as cheap as can be obtained.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.
DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS FOR FEMALES,
Prepared by an old Physician of 40 years experience
THE combination of ingredients in these Pills, is the result of a long and extensive practice; they are mild in their operation, and certain in restoring nature to its proper channel. In every instance have the Pills proved successful. They are certain to open those obstructions to which females are liable, and bring nature into its proper channel, whereby health is restored, and the pale and sickly countenance changed to a healthy one. No female can enjoy good health unless she is regular; and whenever an obstruction takes place, whether from exposure, cold, or any other cause, the general health immediately begins to decline, and the want of such a remedy has been the cause of so many consumptions among young females. Headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, loathing of food, and disturbed sleep, that most always arise from the interruption of nature; and wherever that is the case, the Pills will invariably remedy all these evils. In all cases of painful menstruation, or nervous and spinal affections in the back and limbs, lowness of spirits, hysterics, &c. Nor are they less efficacious in the cure of Leucorrhœa, commonly called the "Whites." These Pills should never be taken during pregnancy, as they would be sure to cause a miscarriage. Warranted purely Vegetable, and free from mercury. Injurious to life or health. Full and explicit directions which should be read, accompany each box.
These Pills are put up in large flat boxes.—Persons residing where there are no agencies established, by enclosing One Dollar in a letter, prepaid, to Dr. C. L. CHEESEMAN, Box No. 4531, Post Office, New York City, can have them sent to their respective addresses by return of mail.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,

(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1836.)

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to ascertain the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. Testimonials below offered them elsewhere. Testimonials below offered them elsewhere. Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE ONLY TRUE ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services more moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents, These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render the subscriber, in question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials:

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, principally for Patents. There were very few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States and I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the Scientific American.

ANCOURT, 1855.—"During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business at the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and skillful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents."

Arnold's Vital Fluid

PURITIES and ennobles the blood by stimulating, through a nice chemical action, the causes of impurities and lassitude. Hence its power to cure humors that mere sarsaparilla cannot reach, and to prevent and relieve wasting and exhausting diseases. It furnishes a certain relief, the remedy of which very blood is composed. It eradicates and cleanses away whatever clogs and thickens the blood.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID

Renders the system strong and healthy, by freeing the blood and stomach from those miserable materials, it nerves and invigorates the system, by furnishing the elements which give stability.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID

Gives to the system an invigorating effect similar to that produced by exercise in the free open air. It exhilarates by strengthening the blood to bright ter and better action—doing its work by healthy means at the beginning. It is pleasant to the taste, and becomes a favorite wherever known.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID

Removes Biliousness in the most direct and easy manner, by neutralizing the disease. This is the principle of its action in removing illness generally. It neutralizes the sense, by freeing the blood from impediments to its proper fulfilment of its life-giving functions.

This principle of neutralizing the cause is why ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID CURES AILMENTS that mere medicinal preparations scarcely affect, and why it cures other diseases that mere medicinal preparations cannot affect at all. Humors are poisons in the blood, and it is by their chemical action in neutralizing those poisons that ARNOLD'S GLOBULES AND VITAL FLUID are enabled to cure humors, which they must and will. Vital Fluid, 75 cents per bottle; Globules 25 cents per box.

Resulting from Poisons in the Blood,

LOTTERIES.

The well known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which E. Frank Coe is the manager, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and are conducted under the supervision of a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify to everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who trade at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $3 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan, and Terms per combination. Prices vary from $3 to $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

Prince & Co.'s Improved Melodeons.

THE OLDEST ESTABLISHMENT IN THE U.S.
Employing Two Hundred Men,
and finishing

Eighty Instruments per Week.

BETWEEN 18,000 AND 19,000 of these instruments have been finished and are now in use.

THE latest improvement in our Melodeons is the DIVIDED SWELL, secured to us by Letters Patent, May, 1855—By means of this Swell Solo Passages may be played with the full power of the instrument, while the Accompaniment is softened and subdued—Hereafter all Melodeons made by us will be furnished with this attachment without extra charge.

Extract from the Commercial Advertiser, July 27, '55

"Messrs Prince & Co could realize a handsome fortune by disposing of their right to other manufacturers to use their new improvement; but as they prefer to make it a feature in their instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufacture."

It is now eight years since we commenced the manufacture of this new celebrated Musical Instrument, during which time we have finished and sold nearly TEN THOUSAND. Voluntary testimonials to the excellence of our instruments, from the most distinguished Professors of Music in the different parts of the United States, have from time to time been received. Thus far we have sold no bill title, and our advertisements were not even for the reason that we could not supply the demand. We have now erected one of the largest and most perfect Manufacturing Establishments in the United States, and we now think that we can fill orders promptly. We where store give one testimonial we have received.

NEW YORK, 15th Oct., 1855

"G. A. Prince & Co.: Gentlemen—The Double Reed Melodeon has arrived, and a most charming instrument it is. It has been played on by Wallace, Dodt, Hodges, Wm. Mason, and a host of others, and they all pronounce it one of the most beautiful toned instruments they have ever touched. Very resp'ly, JAMES F. HALL."

We are not aware that the above mentioned Melodeon is in any particular superior to those we are daily receiving, and we can refer those who are inclined to favor us with their orders, that they will be furnished with an instrument equally as good. Our Instruments are all finished in Rosewood Cases, and the workmanship is of the very best quality. The styles and prices are—

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE celebrated machines are in practical and profitable use in all parts of the civilized world. In all the various trades, and in sewing every sort of fabric, either of cloth or leather, they have been fully tried and approved. Sewing machines of other manufacture often fail to work. SINGER'S MACHINES being strong, durable and complete in contrivance and workmanship. A perfect sewing machine is capable of affording a profit of $1000 a year; but an imperfect one is a cause of constant vexation and loss. The entire authority of our machines is one great reason for their unparalleled popularity.

ALWAYS OPERATE PERFECTLY,

MACHINES FOR FAMILY SEWING,

of a brilliant and delicate construction, are recommended by the highest authorities. Such machines are made to catch the eye, not to perform substantial work. The truth is, family sewing machines, ought to be stronger than any other, because they go into less skillful hands than when used to manufacturers, and are used for a greater variety of work. The machines which have proved best for all other purposes must be best for family use, and they are Singer's. The speed of our machines has lately been doubled. No other can compare with them in quantity of work.

☞ New machine, of the latest improved style will be exchanged on liberal terms for old sewing machines of our own make, or for operative machines of other manufacturers. Local agents wanted to sell our machines.

N. B.—All persons desiring full information about sewing machines can obtain it by applying for a copy of "I. M. Singer & Co.'s Gazette," a paper devoted entirely to the subject. It will be sent gratis on application at SINGER & CO.

SHOCKING BRUTALITY.—A CHILD FROZEN TO DEATH!—We are informed that a family—man and wife and several children—moved into Portland on Saturday last, and the weather not driving them to put up their stove, they neglected to do it. But instead, being intemperate people, both man and woman went to drinking till they got intoxicated—and their children of course neglected. The next day—Sunday—was the terrible cold day of the season, prior to that of yesterday—and the neighbors hearing what to them seemed to be the voice of suffering, went in during the day, and found a most pitiable sight. The youngest child, an infant, was found frozen to death! and the others suffering terribly from the cold. The criminal parents had had their carouse. Their drunken revelry had sent a soul out of the world and left an indelible pang within their hearts that, unless they are brutes indeed—will cling to them while life lasts! The neighbors made the little ones as comfortable as possible, and the sympathy of all who heard the tale were enlisted in their behalf.—Argus.

TEMPERANCE PLEDGE.—The Pledge, it seems to us, is quite too much neglected. We have in our midst, large numbers of young people and children who have never put their names to it. It has been the means of saving thousands in the past. Let its hallowed influence be brought to bear upon the young, and all others, but the young especially, that they may be kept in the hour of temptation, which may, and probably will overtake them in the future. We should like to see the pledge circulated at every temperance meeting.

Every cause is advanced by keeping the standard erected, and rallying around it often. Let the virtues of cold-water be again sung by the children. Let the cold-water army be again marshaled. Let the enthusiasm of young hearts find vent, and have pleasurable pastime in the circulation of pure principles and the establishment of right, and it shall be well with them now, and a guarantee of their future good. Circulate the pledge!—Portland Temperance Journal.

A DRUNKEN COASTER.—Yesterday afternoon a drunken man named Jas. O'Brien, robbed a lad of his sled on the Common and attempted a slide down the hill. Being somewhat too much by the head to make straight course, he ran into one of the seats by the side of the path, knocked out all his front teeth and broke his jaw. He was taken to his house in Orange lane. —Boston Telegraph.

DEAR.—The Pennsylvanian says that Mr. Forney has already been "dear to the Democracy of Pennsylvania." We have no doubt of it—he has cost them the high price of a United States Senator. He is very dear to them.—Philadelphia Sun,

WALKING ON THE WATER.—A correspondent of the Portland Advertiser says:

During the cold weather, last week, a solid pack of ice, connected the shores of Brooklyn and New York for the space of at least half a mile, in which vessels were fast locked, and hundreds of people were crossing over, or were disporting themselves upon the treacherous pathway. At length by a movement in the tide, the biass broke up, and moved gracefully toward the Hudson, bearing upon it quite a number of unwilling voyagers, who were rescued from their perilous position by a steam tug.

Another gentleman of notoriety, himself also an adventurer, the Rev. Mr. Beecher, having crossed to New York on the ice with his daughter, on their return were plunged into the water on the Brooklyn shore, from which they were saved with no other damage than a cold bath.

An omnibus driver in New York, while caracoling through Broadway, last Friday night, with an abandoned woman on each side of him, singing old songs with as much energy as their drunken voices and the freezing air would permit, was started by the shrill, shrewish voice of his wife from the inside of the coach, indignantly calling him to account. His cyprian companions leaped from the coach and fled at the first corner, (which was entirely unnecessary, considering the quality of the police arrangements in that city.) The abused wife mounted to the side of the sobered John, who was compelled to drive home with quite other music in his ears than that of which he had been so suddenly bereaved.

A case of decided "immoral insanity" is related by a correspondent of the Evening Gazette. A young female of loose habits took it into her head, that Archbishop Hughes was indebted to her for a large sum of money, and went there to demand payment. He saw Mary, and denied the "soft impeachment," whereupon she became enraged, and shied a stool at the head of the reverend father. Mary was seized by the police, and was pronounced to be insane! which of course she was.

A young woman in Quebec, Mrs. Bison, a French Canadian, has been committed to gaol on a charge of poisoning her husband to whom she had been married only six weeks. It appears that she had been forced to marry Bison against her wishes, and during the short time they lived together, they led a very unpleasant life.

It is stated that there was a train of fifteen cars, at Amsterdam, about thirty miles west of Albany, on Tuesday, which had been there near a week. They were loaded with hogs, and the poor brutes were so famished, that they were devouring one another.

Morning Chronicle.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 27, 1857.

THE FIRST PASSENGER CARS used on a railroad in this country, were originally mail stage bodies placed on railway trucks. Each would accommodate nine persons inside, who sat facing each other. Four horses drew two of these "cars" over the road at the rate of about eight or nine miles an hour.

No locomotive was employed for a year or two after the road opened. The first was a small one, made in England. The first improvement in this style of railway coach was a car having three compartments, each capable of accommodating six passengers, who sat facing each other.. These compartments connected with each other only by small windows, which could be opened or closed at will.

No fires, no easy-cushioned seats, no oil cloth or matting under foot, no water tank or other convenience; walking about was out of the question. One could scarcely move. Reading was nearly out of the question. In severe weather cold feet were common enough. No place to stow away hats, caps, bonnets, clothing, satchels, &c. The conductor walked along on the outside of the car and took fare and tickets through the side windows. Queer ideas, that, wasn't it? Wonder how conductors would like to take tickets after that fashion now. The world moves. The improvements made in railroad travelling since 1832 will probably be considered decidedly old fogyish in 1870.

DRUNKENNESS ON ELECTION DAY.—The Albany Prohibitionist, in an extended article with the above title, says: "Except in Vermont, Connecticut, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Michigan, Iowa and Delaware, where prohibitory laws are in force, and work a vast diminution in the amount of drinking and drunkenness, the whole United States exhibited a spectacle of which Albany and the State of New York are only specimens.

The number of drunkards in the nation until lately was usually estimated at about five hundred thousand. In those States which have adopted Prohibitory Liquor Laws, the number of drunkards is greatly reduced—in some sections of country, where the law is vigorously enforced, almost all have been reclaimed and clothed in their right mind. In other States where Prohibition has not been adopted, or where, as in Illinois or New York, it has been nullified by the courts, we are constrained to believe that the number of drunkards is now increasing.

To be within bounds, however, let us suppose that the number who were drunk on the 4th of November throughout the Union, was only equal to what long ago was regarded as the number of habitual drunkards, and we will have this frightful and appalling spectacle: Five hundred thousand drunken voters on the great day of ballot!"

☞ Rev. J. S. Kalloch, the eloquent Baptist minister who preaches at the Tremont Temple, Boston, has been made the subject of street and newspaper report for several days in that city—the reporter of the Times charging him with improper intimacy with a married woman not his wife. The charge was grounded on the statement of a fare taker on the Cambridge line, who suspected something wrong between the parties, as they went together to Cambridge, where Mr. K. delivered a lecture; the fare taker followed and watched them, and says that what he saw through a window confirmed his suspicions. A committee of Mr. K.'s Church, having investigated the case, pronounces him guiltless;—and he preached on Sunday, to immense congregations; subject Slander. The Times of Monday, however, reiterates the charge, and demands further investigation.

The Archbishop of Paris was assassinated by a discharged priest, while he was performing religious services in the church St. Etiens. The assassin stabbed him in his heart, crying—"Down with the Goddess," referring to the dogma of the immaculate conception. The Bishop fell and expired immediately. The murderer priest, whose name is Verges, had been suspended for preaching against the immaculate conception.—This crime created a deep sensation among all classes of the community.

An insane man named Nazro, has recently been sent to the State Asylum, from Syracuse, N. Y. He was well educated, an excellent linguist, and a fair lecturer. His "speciality" was the not very uncommon delusion that he was the people's candidate for President of the United States.

INSTALLATION IN PORTLAND.

The Union Church and Society of Portland, gathered under the ministry of Rev. Henry D. Moore, have unanimously concurred in extending to Mr. M. a call to be formally settled with them in the Gospel Ministry. The call has been accepted, and the Installation will take place on Thursday next, the 29th inst.

The council for the examination of the pastor elect, will meet on the morning of that day, at 10 o'clock; and the services will take place at 2 P. M.

Rev. Professor Phelps, of Andover, will preach the Sermon on the occasion; and Rev. Lyman Whiting of this city will give the Charge to the Pastor. We learn that this church and society are in the enjoyment of great prosperity, and that the pastor enjoys the confidence and love of the churches, as well as of the large congregation gathered to him in this new enterprise. We copy the following from the Maine Evangelist:

UNION CHURCH.—As our readers know, this church has been completed, and was dedicated a few weeks since. Few enterprises in our State have been undertaken and prosecuted with such energy and unanimity as the erection of this structure.—Its cost, including its entire equipment, has been something over $40,000, we have been informed, and the parish is now out of debt. The pews are all sold or let, and there is still a demand for seats, which cannot be met. The congregation is full, and is made up largely of young men of enterprise and promise. The meetings for prayer are crowded on Sabbath evening, and about three hundred attend on Tuesday evening. It is about a year ago that the church was constituted, and within that period a great work has been accomplished. The gentlemen that have had the business in charge have had a mind to the work, and have manifested from the first an abounding generosity. The example of an enterprise enlisting such force and liberality is worth a great deal in our State. It shows what can be done when there is a will. We congratulate the congregation and its prospective pastor upon their eminent success. We shall expect, and have a right to expect from a society exhibiting such energy and generosity in their own affairs, a corresponding energy and generosity in supporting all our benevolent institutions. What may not a congregation composed so largely of young men, so fired with zeal and hope, and so ready to give, be expected to do in sustaining all that is philanthropic and Christian in our State?

Ship Typhoon, Salter, of New York from Liverpool, has had very heavy weather since 1st inst. On the 3d, the ship under close reefed fore and maintopsails, wind NNW, blowing a hurricane for 8 hours; blew two topsails away, and the sails which were furled; the mizen topgallantmast went at the cap, the maintopmast close to the eyes of the rigging, the truss of the main and topsail drew out, parted main stay, and broke back stay channel bolt, leaving the mainmast a complete wreck. 18th, coming on to blow from SE, hauled off short; that night lost close reefed main and mizen topsails. At daylight the ship was a complete floating iceberg, and a great many of the crew were frozen. Since Jan. 1, lost seven topsails, close reefed, besides other sails, and had nothing left on main and mizen masts but a mainsail and spanker. Jan. 14, a block fell from aloft, killing a passenger, named J. Seddons, and badly cutting a sailor's head. Out of a crew of 40 men, but ten were left to do ship's duty.

☞ Advices from Manilla report that the seamen who were on board the ship Waverly, of Boston, bound from China to the Chincha Islands, when the coolies were suffocated, had been tried by the Spanish authorities and condemned, on the 1st of Nov., to two years in chains, in Spain.—The captain and first officer were condemned to the same punishment for ten years. The captain's name was French. He had not long been in command, having succeeded to it on the death of the former master, Capt. Wellman.

A FATAL MISTAKE.—On Sunday afternoon Mrs. Geo. Wyman, daughter of Andrew Haskell, Esq., of Chelsea, feeling somewhat ill, took as a medicine what she supposed to be a dose of rhubarb, but which must have been some other drug, as she soon fell into strong convulsions and died in about two hours. The deceased was a young and most estimable lady, deeply beloved by a numerous circle of friends. It is not known what the article was which she thus took by mistake, but a post-mortem examination will disclose.

The "old horse Charley," who was owned for many years at what is now the Massasoit House, in Barre, was killed a few days ago, by his owner—having become so old and weak as to be unable to get upon his feet. He was raised in Vermont, and his age was forty three years eight months and seventeen days.

Some of our exchanges are excessively annoyed because a weekly journal in this city has received a little government patronage. If the rule for the distribution of such favors depends on the amount of service rendered to the ruling party, we don't see how any other choice could be made. And if religious must be made a test, we hold it better to encourage those whose habitual training under despotic systems impels them into a wretched partisanship, than their companions who entered into the same service against the spirit of the institutions under which they have always lived, and hypocritically pretended to admire.—Boston Chronicle.

This item refers to the fact that the Boston Pilot,—(a Roman Catholic paper, peculiarly Irish in its tone,)—has a long government advertisement, — as a reward, probably for its political services, or as a bait for Irish votes. It is not a new thing, exactly;—for Mr. Webster, when Secretary of State under Pres. Fillmore, had the U. S. Laws and Treaties removed from the N. H. Statesman, then anti-slavery, and given to the Congregational Journal, then edited by Mr. Wood, the minister who afterwards certified to the temperance and piety of Gen. Pierce, and who has since been made Consul at Beyroot and Chaplain in the Navy.—Mr. Webster also gave the laws to the Portland Christian Mirror—as a matter of politico-religious favor.

SOMEBODY HUMBUGGED.—The Christian Advocate, a Methodist paper published at Memphis, Tenn., contains a terrible communication from J. W. Knott, respecting a deed which took place, says the writer, in "Portland, Maine." The up-shot of it is, that a young lady—"beautiful," of course—was entombed alive while "gagged with a rough billet, her feet and hands bound with cords, and silent tears falling from her angel cheeks!" Mr. Knott remarks in conclusion:—"Oh, God! is thy power slumbering? Eternal justice! where are thy thunderbolts?"

Mr. Knott avers that the statement is "based upon the observation and experience of a pious man and communicant in our church." We are afraid, says the Portland Advertiser, that Mr. Knott has got himself into a very knotty piece of delusion and nonsense.

☞ The Maverick House, a large public house in East Boston, was burnt on Sunday morning; the fire breaking out about 3 o'clock, from a bad flue in the attic.—Several stores, beneath and in Maverick block, were also burnt, with their contents. Loss $40,000 or $50,000. Insured, and will be rebuilt. The colored cook, "Susey," courageously saved "Little Growler," the canine pet of the establishment.

TO ALL NEW ENGLAND!—Any person who can, is requested to make public what degree of temperature was indicated by the thermometer on the memorable "Cold Friday," Jan. 19th, 1810.—Hartford Courant.

Answer: 12 below at noon; and next morning, Saturday, 16 below. Vide Portsmouth Journal.

JUNE AND JANUARY.—The thermometer stood at 100 degrees above zero on the 22d day of June last. On the morning of the 23d day of January instant it stood at 21 below—a difference of but 121 degrees.—Gloucester Telegraph.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

This wonderful preparation is having an extensive sale in all parts of the Union. It is one of the few patent medicines which are now sold over the country, that are really what their inventors claim for them. Wherever it has had a fair trial, the result has been precisely as Wood predicts, it has never failed to turn the white hair back to the natural color, where the directions have been strictly followed, and in numerous cases it has restored the hair upon heads that had been bald for years. It is not pretended that it will make the hair grow in every case, but where it fails there is certainly no remedy. The restoration of the hair has been effected in so many instances where the case seemed utterly hopeless, that it is certainly worth while for all who have lost their hair to try the experiment of using a bottle or two of Wood's Restorative.—[Moline Workman.

THE GREAT DISCOVERY.

Many years ago, Doctor Nurleigh Smart, of Belmont, Me., discovered that a simple article never before used as a medicine, was a never failing cure for coughs of every description, and an excellent blood purifier. By the use in his private practice, he acquired the reputation of being the best physician in New England, for all diseases of the lungs. After his death, Messrs. Shaw & Clark of Biddeford, Me., obtained a Copy Right from Government, for its exclusive manufacture, and now have it carefully prepared strictly according to the original recipe. There is no cure, but it will not cure, unless the patient is past all hope, nor will it fail to cure, unless the patient is past all hope, man and before commencing its use! It is called "Doctor Burleigh Smart's Cough Medicine," and is for sale by all respectable dealers. m7 1uTuSu 6m

HEALTH AND STRENGTH.

☞ DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S SHERRY WINE BITTERS is the best Medicine ever used for Summer Complaints. It has been more liberally patronized than any other ever established in this country. It is the same Richardson's Bitters which has restored so many invalids to health throughout New England during the past thirty years.

N. B.—Beware of imitations called Sherry Wine Bitters. The genuine have a fac simile of my signature upon the outer envelope. For sale by Druggists everywhere, and at my office, No. 51 Hanover St., Boston.

COCOORD, Jan. 23.—The Machine Shop, engine house, and four locomotives of the B. C. & Montreal R. R., at Lake Village, were burnt this morning. The fire caught about 2 o'clock. Loss about $40,000. Origin of the fire unknown; it was first discovered in the upper part of the repair shop.

SEIZURE OF DIAMONDS.—In New York, on Friday, the Custom House officers seized a box containing $40,000 worth of diamonds, which had been smuggled in the steamship Washington. Subsequently the officers seized the entire stock of Henle Bros., in Maiden Lane, who are implicated in the above affair. The stock consists of diamonds and precious stones of the estimated value of $150,000.

From their continued practice together, of the sterling old music; and the fact that the Instrumental portion of the Choir will be much heavier (and the number of Singers larger) than at their former Concerts—they can promise a more attractive entertainment even than those of last year, which were received with so much favor.

TREMONT MILLS.

Teas, Coffees, Chocolates, Cocoas, Spices, &c.

WHOLESALE,—AND ALSO IN SMALL PACKAGES.

E. E. DYER & CO.

(Sign of the Chinaman grinding coffee,)

141 Washington St., Boston,

SUPPLY the best, finest and purest articles, at lowest cash prices. Their Stock consists of Teas, Coffees, Chocolates, Allspice, Pepper, Mustard, Ginger, Cayenne Pepper, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Cream Tartar, Taraxacum, or Prepared Dandelion Root, &c., &c.

Having every facility for manufacturing and preparing the several articles named, the public may rely upon having them pure and genuine, as they are put up carefully, and bear our name and label, "TREMONT MILLS, E. E. DYER & CO."

To give consumers some idea of our sales, we subjoin the following scale of prices, viz:

5 lb. Mocha Coffee,	1.50	5 lb. Mocha Coffee,	1.40
5 lb. Oolong "	1.75	5 lb. Java "	90
5 lb. Y. Hyson "	2.25	8 lb. good "	1.00

☞ The Spices are put up in tin jars, expressly for family use, and are warranted to be strictly a pure article, and only need a trial to establish them in public favor.

SPANISH COFFEE.—We would call the attention of customers and dealers to our Spanish Coffee, as an article which is highly esteemed, and gives the greatest satisfaction. It is prepared with particular care, and by a peculiar process in roasting, and powder of this coffee, it is believed, is equal to 1½ lb. of any other.

DANDELION COFFEE.—This article is carefully prepared at our Mills and put up in packages bearing our trade mark, and may be relied upon as the best and most approved mixture of dandelion and coffee.

TARAXACUM, or Prepared Dandelion Root.—This article is prepared and roasted at our Mills, is retailed by Family Grocers generally in city and country, and bearing our trade mark, "Chinaman grinding coffee," may be relied upon as the GENUINE ARTICLE. The proportion used is about one-half the quantity of coffee. The price is 20 cents per pound, and it is warranted to be the same as that which has been sold for fifty cents a pound by Druggists.

The medical properties of Dandelion are well-known, and held in high estimation by all who use it. Its being a preparation of the root, with all its medicinal virtues retained, can be mixed with coffee or not, as best suits the taste, and will be found cheap and economical as a family beverage, one pound of which being nearly equal to two pounds of coffee. It is prescribed by many eminent physicians to invalids, children and aged persons, as a nutritious beverage, and as a remedy for Dyspepsia, Bilious affections &c.

☞ Be careful to observe that all our Coffees have our trade mark, "Chinaman grinding coffee."

☞ To Grocers and Dealers a liberal discount is made, enabling them to supply their customers at the same low rate.

☞ TO CASH PURCHASERS.—Our object being to secure large sales at small profits, we offer inducements which cannot be afforded by those who do business on the credit system; and we confidently invite an examination of the quality of our stock and our prices, as compared with those of any other dealers.

LOCAL.

POLICE COURT.

MONDAY, Jan 26.

Before Justice Odell—Susan Chase was charged with selling one pint of spirituous liquor on the 17th. Plea not guilty.—Held in $200 bonds to appear at the S. J. Court, in February, at Exeter.

Jacob Smith was charged with a similar offence, committed on the 18th. Plea not guilty. Held to answer at the S. J. Court in bonds of $200.

CHARITIES ACKNOWLEDGED.—The undersigned would express his thanks in behalf of the poor of this city, to those individuals who, during the extreme cold of the last week, contributed so liberally to the funds of the City Mission, thereby enabling him to afford seasonable relief to a number of destitute and deserving families. And, as in consequence of the extreme severity of the winter, the unusual cost of living, and the difficulty of obtaining employment, there is a great amount of destitution in our midst, he would earnestly solicit the continued aid of the benevolent.

"He that giveth to the poor lendeth to the Lord." N. MEDBERY.

Portsmouth, Jan. 26.

GAS OR NO GAS.—Our gas—everybody's gas, we suppose, went out, of a sudden, on Monday night — subjecting us to some inconvenience and the purchase of a pound of candles and a quart of burning fluid. We seldom find fault with the Gas Company—for we are so thankful for the blessing of their light, that the price is with us of comparatively little consideration; and the only request we have to make of them is, that they will deduct from our next bill the cost of the candles and fluid—for the rats will carry off the tallow, and the fluid will "evaporate," or be used up in "taking out spots" from breeches and coats. The gas came back just as we were completing our arrangements for an invisible illumination, "and there was light."

SMART WOMEN.—The Portsmouth Journal states that two sisters who live in Eliot, received for the work they took from the merchant tailoring establishment of C. E. Myers & Co., in this city, the last year, the sum of three hundred dollars. Their work had principally been making pantaloons. These girls also did the housework and attended the dairy of a good farm.

This is smart; but Messrs. Moses & Downie think they have a seamstress yet smarter in their employ—a married lady who has done all the housework for her family of five, and part of the time six, including a baby; and yet during the year, has received of them one hundred and ninety dollars ($190) for making pants! They think there is not a lady in this region who can beat this—which they consider the more remarkable from the fact that in the latter case the lady had no sister to help her.

For the Chronicle.

OUR RIVER.—Our River frozen over!—Our brave, beautiful River! whose laughter always seems to bid defiance to old Winter, and who, despite his sternest threats, flows merrily by, shaking her curls of foam! Well—the indulgence of the stern monarch has touched Her Grace with an audacity that becomes her wonderfully. During the past week, however, he has fairly succeeded in clasping the crystal fetters around her, and she wears them with mock gravity. She may well submit, once in a century or so, to let the generations as they pass, see how gracefully she can yield. Once in a century? Yes; for we have been told that this occurrence is no less rare.

There is a kind of frost-bitten satisfaction, gradually warming into enthusiasm in our minds, when we think, amid shivers and complainings, that we have seen this wonder. Nor have we been restricted to mere sight; for many and many feet passed over the shining bridge that spanned the noble stream. In after times, when we shall tell our children and grand-children of the "remarkable winter," which, in the dim distance, with all the frost taken out of our remembrance, will seem as delightful as it is rare, in imagination we shall walk the crystal planks again, leading the listeners with us! The fact will live hereafter, like a flower on the century plant, amid the snow-drop and ice plant—annals of Portsmouth and our brave Piscataqua. ——.

☞ According to Porter's Spirit, Flora Temple, the fastest trotting horse the world has ever seen, and now valued at many thousand dollars, was sold at Utica, N. Y., in 1854, for $80—and her owner was glad to be rid of her, at that price.

FROM CALIFORNIA.

NEW YORK, Jan. 24.—The steamship James Adger arrived here to-day. She left Aspinwall Jan. 11th, and San Juan 13th, bringing 180 passengers, mostly from California. She put into Key West for coal, and was detained there by bad weather for 32 hours. The Adger encountered great fields of ice on homeward passage, between lat. 37 and 39.

The purser reports that Cholera had disappeared on the Isthmus. There had been but little sickness and no death on board the James Adger. When the Adger left Aspinwall, the U. S. sloop-of-war Cyane was in port, and six English men-of-war were at San Juan. Steamer Sierra Nevada was daily expected at Panama to take up the California passengers of the Adger.

Col. Lockbridge and his 300 men, were still waiting at Punta Arenas the completion of a steamer, to be ready about the 17th inst., to go up the river and retake, if possible, Castillo and San Carlos, and re-open the Transit route.

Passengers from Nicaragua give a gloomy account of Walker's situation. The seizure of the transit route and steamboats by Spencer is confirmed. S. states openly that he acted in behalf of Vanderbilt. No injury was offered to the passengers in the captured boats, but they were escorted to Greytown, where the steamer was boarded by an officer from a British man-of-war, who ordered the baggage of the men to be put off instantly. Spencer kept the American flag flying from his steamer, although he made his captures in the name of Costa Rica. President Mora of the Costa Rican government, has issued a proclamation granting a pardon to Walker's men and a free passage back to the States. Many of Walker's men, both officers and privates, were deserting. They all tell hard stories of their sufferings from hunger and sickness. Walker was still at Rivas, with 600 men, and another account says 1200.

Spencer states that the Costa Ricans have 1500 troops posted along the route. They are also in strong force at Seragui, and have guns posted at both shores. The report that Gen. Henningsen had fought his way out of Granada and joined Walker is confirmed, as is also the rumor that Gen. Chilton with a large body of men had pronounced for Walker at Leon. Walker, it is said, retook Rivas without losing a man. Capt. Saunders with his rifles had advanced to Leon to occupy that post. The foregoing despatch is made up from the statements of several returned Nicaraguans who give very conflicting stories.

FROM EUROPE.

Steamship Persia, Capt. Judkins, from Liverpool Jan. 10, arrived at New York on Saturday.

LIVERPOOL, 7th.—The Paris Moniteur of this day announces that the Emperor has signed a protocol, which puts an end to the difficulties which have delayed the execution of the treaty of peace.

Advices from Constantinople announce that the Turkish government has definitely arranged with English capitalists for the loan of 12,000,000 sterling, at 6 per cent.

The monthly statement of the Bank of France shows an increase of commercial discounts and a heavy decrease of bullion.

The English market is easier. The Bank has raised the charge for loans on stocks 1-2 per cent.

At a meeting of the leading iron masters at Birmingham, an inclination was shown towards a further advance, but none was declared.

A movement against the income tax has spread to Ireland, where it is discussed vigorously.

The French papers generally approve the hostile measures of England against Canton.

MALTA, Jan.—There was a frightful storm here on New Year's day. Four ships foundered at sea, and three hundred vessels of all sizes have been wrecked against the wharves and piers.

Liverpool Breadstuffs Market, Jan. 10. A moderate business has been done during the week, and prices were without material alteration.

CONGRESS.

SATURDAY, Jan. 24.

SENATE.—Mr. Wilson presented the credentials of Mr. Sumner, Senator from Massachusetts for six years from the 4th of March next.

The Senate proceeded to the consideration of bills relative to the District of Columbia.

Mr. Fessenden presented the credentials of Amos Nourse, of Maine, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Mr. Hamlin. Mr. Nourse then appeared and was qualified. The Senate then passed sundry private bills of no general interest, and adjourned.

HOUSE.—Mr. Wakeman presented a petition from many merchants of New York, asking that the duty be taken off imported sugar.

The Sergeant-at-Arms brought Mr. Chester before the House, and after a debate, it was determined that Mr. Chester should answer in writing, under oath.

Private bills were considered until adjournment.

If you wish to take any Magazine or Newspaper, subscribe of some responsible firm in Town. —Hundreds of dollars are lost every year by subscribing for works of strangers and travelling agents, and by being induced to subscribe by the thousands of contrivances to cheat the public—such as Art Unions, Premiums, Cosmopolitan Art Associations, and various humbugs to gull the unwary. Keep clear of all these, and pay your money to those whom you know to be responsible.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.
DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS FOR FEMALES,
Prepared by an old Physician of 40 years experience
THE combination of ingredients in these Pills, is the result of a long and extensive practice; they are mild in their operation, and certain to restoring nature to its proper channel. In every instance have the Pills proved successful. They are certain to open those obstructions to which females are liable, and bring nature into its proper channel, whereby health is restored, and the pale and deathly countenance changed to a healthy one. No female can enjoy good health unless she is regular; and whenever an obstruction takes place, whether from exposure, cold, or any other cause, the general health immediately begins to decline, and the want of such a remedy has been the cause of so many consumptions among young females. Headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, loathing of food, and disturbed sleep, that most always arise from the interruption of nature; and whenever that is the case, the Pills will invariably remedy all these evils. In all cases of painful menstruation, or nervous and spinal affections in the back and limbs, lowness of spirits, hysterics, &c. Nor are they less efficacious in the cure of Leucorrhœa, commonly called the "Whites." These Pills should never be taken during pregnancy, as they would be sure to cause a miscarriage. Warranted purely Vegetable, and free from anything injurious to life or health. Full and explicit directions which should be read, accompany each box. These Pills are put up in square flat boxes—Persons residing where there are no Agencies established, by enclosing One Dollar in a letter, prepaid, to Dr. C. C. CHEESEMAN, Box No. 4,531, Post Office, New York City, can have them sent to their respective addresses by return of mail.

WOMAN-LIKE.

Laughing, the youthful Isabel
Had challenged me to kiss her! Well,
By stratagem I soon obtain
What force would labor for in vain.
I boasted. "Don't be proud," said she;
"'Tis nothing wonderful; for, see—
Your valor's not so very killing;
You kissed me—true—but I was willing."

"THE LIGHT WINES OF FRANCE."—In England, as in America, the cry is for the "light wines of France." "The way to keep the people from drinking spirits, is to make light wines cheap and plenty." In the meantime, to make these very "light wines," France is importing millions of gallons of spirits from England and America. From the 1st of January to the 31st of October last, British spirits were exported (mostly to France) to the extent of 3,708,901 gallons. Thus is explained the secret, that though the grape crop fails over and over, yet the "juice of the grape" is furnished as abundantly as ever.

A TEMPERANCE TOWER.—As you sail up the Cove of Cork, says the Dublin Tablet, a tower meets your eye. It was built by a tradesman of the city, in honor of the great Apostle of Temperance in Ireland—Father Matthew.

AYER'S Cathartic Pills,
(SUGAR COATED.)

ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK
Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians, Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues.

FOR THE CURE OF

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach,

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. I always recommend them to my friends when they complain at once. If they will cure others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE,
Clerk of Common Pleas.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
WASHINGTON, D.C., 7 Feb., 1854.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my family for bilious complaints ever since they came into the city, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, coming out in it, little or no inflammation being left behind to disorganize the organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease in which I did not readily yield to them.

Fraternally yours, W. A. MACKAY,
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARTFORD, LIV. CO., MICH., NOV. 16, 1853.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than all else put together. She had been sick and pining away for months. Worms of all to be dreaded or great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her, by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from the body. They effectually cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had to bed, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars for doctor bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here.

GEO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among my parishioners, when sick in distress. Turpentine is the organ of digestion and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARREN, WYCOMBE CO., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1853.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an efficacious purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Prominent Member of the Boston Bar.

BOSTON, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her head and feet that had proved incurable before. Her scalp was so badly ulcerated as to leave her bald. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they bestowed her a fair skin. MORRIS WHITE.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Thos. Hodgson, Methodist Episc. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be unpardonable for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my joints, which soon developed acute neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Nevertheless, I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until I tried your Pills, and your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Duncanson, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely cured.

SENATOR CLAYTON, of Ala., writes, Dec. 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that I suffered from for years. VINCENT COLYER.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or Kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and beneficial.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, arising from Costiveness or Sluggishness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although it will salivate and kill, yet its effects last so long, it is a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, INFLUENZA, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, IN INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet in the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its virtues, or that of their very communities, any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtile and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. Where is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs. It is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that creeps them unprepared. We have abundant proofs to believe the Cherry Pectoral, administered at the first symptoms, it prevents that from ever taking place. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, for neglect them until so human skill the master the insidious canker that fastened on the vitals, cats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung diseases, and as they know too the virtues of the remedy, we plead not in vain that we urge them to it as still more the best in our power to give. We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and those who have used it in the best accept which our skill has furnished for their use.

Prince & Co.'s Improved Melodeons.

THE OLDEST ESTABLISHMENT IN THE U.S.
Employing Two Hundred Men,
and finishing
Eighty Instruments per Week.
BETWEEN 18,000 AND 19,000

of these instruments have been finished and are now in use.

THE latest improvement in our Melodeons is the DIVIDED SWELL, secured to us by Letters Patent 22d May, 1855.—By means of this Swell Solo Passages may be played with the full power of the Instrument, while the Accompaniment is soft and subdued.—Heretofore, all Melodeons made by us, will be furnished with this attachment without extra charge.

Extract from the Commercial Advertiser, July 27, '55.

"Messrs. Prince & Co could realize a handsome fortune by dinging of rights to other manufacturers to use their new improvement; but as they prefer to make it a feature in their Instruments it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufactures."

It is now eight years since we commenced the manufacture of this new celebrated Musical Instrument, during which time we have finished and sold nearly TWO THOUSAND PER YEAR. Testimonials to the excellence of our Instruments, from the most distinguished Professors of Music in different parts of the United States, have from time to time been received. Thus far we have said but little, and our advertisements were seldom seen for the reason that we could not supply the demand. We have always proved one of the largest and most perfect Manufacturing Establishments in the United States, and we now think that we can fill orders promptly. We therefore give one testimonial we have received.

NEW YORK, 15th Oct. 1855

"G. A. Prince & Co.: Gentlemen—The Double Reed Melodeon has arrived, and a most charming Instrument it is. It has been played on by Mr. Balfe, Jacobs, Dect. Hodges, Wm. Mason, and a host of others, and they all pronounce it one of the most beautiful toned reed instruments they have ever touched. Very really, JAMES F. HALL."

We are not aware that the above mentioned Melodeon is in any particular superior to those we are daily finishing, and we can assure those who are about to favor us with their orders, that they will be furnished with an instrument equally as good. Our Instruments are all finished in Rosewood, Black Walnut and Mahogany, of the very best quality. The styles and prices are—

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE celebrated machines are in practical and profitable use in all parts of the civilized world. They will sew anything they can hold, every sort of fabric, either of cloth or leather, they have been fully tried and approved. Sewing machines of other manufacturers often fail to work, but SINGER'S MACHINES being strong, durable and complete in contrivance and workmanship. A perfect sewing machine has been offered and gladly accepted at $100 a year; but an imperfect one is a cause of constant vexation and loss. The entire RELIABILITY of our machines is one great reason for their unparalleled popularity.

ALWAYS OPERATE PERFECTLY,

MACHINES FOR FAMILY SEWING, of a frail and delicate construction, are recommended by other sewing machine venders, but such machines are made to catch the eye, not to perform substantial work. The truth is, family sewing machines ought to be stronger than any others, because they go into less skilful hands than those sold to manufacturers, and are used for a greater variety of work. The machines which have proved best for all other purposes must be good for family use, and they are Singer's. The speed of our machines has lately been doubled. No other can compare with them in quantity of work.

☞ New machines of the latest improved style will be exchanged on liberal terms for old sewing machines of our own make, or for operative machines of other manufacturers. Local agents wanted to sell our machines.

N. B.—All persons desiring full information about sewing machines, can obtain it by sending for a copy of "I. M. Singer & Co.'s Gazette," a paper devoted entirely to the subject. It will be sent gratis. I. M. SINGER & CO.,

MOZART'S REQUIEM.—The splendid "Requiem Mass," to be performed in this city next Sabbath, was written for the burial of the dead. It is a classical, as also an ecclesiastical composition; rich in orchestral elegance and symphonic effect; and needs to be listened to often to be duly appreciated, and will richly repay much study and practice.

All the instruments except the flutes, join in the commencing chorus, which opens in an adagio movement in the key of D minor, in which the "Requiem" is written.

Next follows an andante in the relative major, F; and this followed by Kyrie, in the original key.

Now comes the Dies Iræ, or Day of Judgment, in an allegro upon A minor.—This bold effect, suddenly introduced, startles the hearer, and gives an impression of awe. Here the violins are actively employed, and surprise by their admirable execution.

Following which, is the Duetto, in C major, which is somewhat lengthy, and is exceedingly delicate, melodious and elegant; rich in orchestral effects—in which the flute is introduced; a perfect gem of itself, and doubly worth the price of admission.

Next follows a chaste and short Elegy, if it may so be expressed—slow and plaintive, in which the Basses are made to produce the tremulo.

After a short rest, the offertorium bursts forth in an animated and spirit-stirring triple movement, embracing solo and chorus, and closing with a few measures of long notes, just after a brilliant movement in the bass.

The opening of the Hortias, which next follow, is by all the instruments except second flute, in 3-4 time, and perhaps is the most brilliant movement in the Mass—abounding in orchestral elegance, and leading into an admirable Fuge, which closes on the relative minor.

The Sanctus is an adagio, and of a religious character, in which the subject enters into the bass, and the Violins are made to play in the first strings in a rapid accompaniment, producing that effect which only a mass of violins can do.

The Benedictus, which now follows, is a beautiful Quartet in 3-8 time, upon the piano, accompanied by the basses.

The closing Agnus Dei commences upon A major, in 3-4 time, larghetto.

Here for the first time all the instruments join upon a dirge of exceeding beauty, and which carries the modulation into and closes the "Mass" upon the original key.

FALSE CENSUS RETURNS FROM UTAH.—Elder John Hyde, sent as a Mormon Missionary to the Sandwich Islands, has turned State's evidence against the Saints, and while denouncing their polygamy and villainy generally, charges them with falsifying the Census Returns of the Territory.—He affirms that there are not half as many inhabitants in Utah as the Census indicates. The names of deceased persons, of immigrant disciples who never came to hand, and of Mormons who long ago recanted their beastly creed and fled the country, were all retained and used to make the number of "70,000."

☞ Hon. John Appleton, editor and proprietor of the Eastern (Portland) Argus, is to be Mr. Buchanan's right-hand editor and organist at Washington, from and after March 4. The Union says:

After the 4th of March, the editor of this paper will retire, when the Hon. John Appleton will become sole editor and proprietor. The arrangements which have resulted in this change have been consummated without the slightest difficulty, and we sincerely congratulate our readers on a result which secures the services of a gentleman whose eminent qualifications are so truthfully set forth in some remarks of the Albany Argus. We may be excused for adding that our retirement is voluntary, and in pursuance of a resolution long since made. At present we deem any further remarks unnecessary.

SMALL CHANGE.—The cent—that unwieldy, jaundiced coin that has played so important a part in the financial history of this country—is approaching its last great change. A petite, shrewd metal calling itself nickel, has won favor at the mint, and sent the dull and heavy copper heads into banishment. The Albany Journal presents their history as follows:

The cent was proposed in 1782 by Robert Morris, the great Financier of the Revolution, and was named by Jefferson, two years later. It began to make its appearance from the Mint in 1792. It bore then the Head of Washington on one side, and a chain of thirteen links on the other. The French Revolution soon after created a rage for French ideas in America, which put on the cent, instead of the head of Washington, the head of the Goddess of Liberty—a French Liberty with neck thrust forward and flowing locks.—The Chain on the reverse was replaced by the Olive Wreath of Peace.

But the French Liberty was short lived, and so was her portrait on our Cent. The present staid classic dame, with a fillet round her hair, came into fashion about thirty or forty years ago, and her finely chiselled Grecian features have been but slightly altered by the lapse of time.

Morning Chronicle.

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 28, 1857.

THE CASE OF REV. I. S. KALLOCH.—A meeting of clergymen and trustees of Tremont Temple was held yesterday morning to consider the grave charges and allegations which have been made by certain parties against Rev. I. S. Kalloch. After careful deliberation and investigation, the meeting expressed the fullest confidence in the entire innocence of Mr. Kalloch, and an earnest hope that the public would suspend their opinion in reference to the statements alluded to till after the publication of a report of a committee of investigation, which will soon be given to the public. We think it is due to Mr. Kalloch, under every view of the case, that the public wait for an official and reliable account of the affair.—Henceforth let facts instead of fiction be placed before the community.—Boston Bee, 27th.

We have this day (27th) read the original statement from the Boston Times against Mr. K.—which we see copied in another paper, (our Times of that day being among the missing,) — and we perceive several things in it which are highly improbable. We had seen only the milder and more general statements of papers copying from the Times, all of which laid much stress upon the fact that Mr. K. had gone to the South, not soon to return.

But he went, by appointment, to deliver a lecture in Philadelphia,—and he returned as promptly as the roads would let him. This takes all the wind out of that sail.

As to the main charges against him,—he must have a fair trial before the public,—if he can get it, which is not easy. The charges made against him in the Times are some of them incredible to us,—not because he is a clergyman, (for we have known some clerical scoundrels not a whit better than their article represents him,)—but because they would make him too arrant a fool to go at large without a guardian.—The witnesses in the case against the accused, are rather swift, in giving their testimony—and the paper itself, the Times, bears no responsible name, of printer, editor, or proprietor.

☞ The Boston Telegraph of Tuesday evening says that the statement which has been made in most of the papers that the Baptist clergymen of Boston held a meeting Monday morning to consider the case of Rev. I. Kalloch is incorrect. The Baptist ministers of Boston and vicinity hold a meeting every Monday forenoon. At the meeting held yesterday, the ministers, as might have been expected, talked about Mr. Kalloch's case, and agreed in the opinion there was no ground for the accusation which has been brought against him. They believed him to be innocent, and will sustain him unless additional evidence is brought in proof of the charge.

HORRID FLUID ACCIDENT.—Miss Mary Eastman, daughter of Wm. E. Eastman, in Elm street, Manchester, was badly burned on the 21st, by fluid; narrowly escaping with her life. While in a chamber up one flight of stairs, she tripped her foot against a woolen rug, and falling, struck the lamp against a bedstead, breaking it into many pieces and scattering the fluid over her clothing. The fluid ignited immediately, and she was completely enveloped in flames. The girl's screams were somewhat smothered, and she reached the room below with the fire blazing a foot above her head, before she could obtain help. Her father seized a large overcoat, which was near by, and succeeded in smothering the flames, but not till her breast and neck were burnt to a blister. The bed clothes and floor, which caught fire from the fluid, were extinguish without raising an alarm for the fire department. Had it not been on a Wednesday evening, the house would have burned down, and the girl burned with it, but fortunately the stores were closed and her father was at home to save her life.

Miss Eastman is a lady of about 22 years, and a large circle of friends sympathise with her in her suffering. Fluid is unsafe for burning, and makes a dwelling as dangerous as a powder house, says the Mirror.

DEATH FROM INJURIES RECEIVED IN WRESTLING.—Last Friday afternoon, a man named James Kennah, about sixty years of age, died at his residence, on Jefferson avenue, Charlestown, it is supposed from injuries received while wrestling in a grocery store on the Monday previous. Coroner Sumner has the inquest in charge.

BAD ENDORSEMENT ON A GOOD BILL.—The following words were written on the back of a fifty dollar bill of the Suffolk Bank:

J. W. M——; Sept. 23, 1854. The last of a fortune of $50,000 left by my uncle, (O. T. L.)

Rum did it.

These last words sound like one of Coroner Pratt's verdicts.—Boston Transcript.

NEW-FASHIONED CHRISTIAN UNION.—Rev. Messrs. Humphrey and Wells, Congregationalists, Eastman, Methodist, and Perkins, Universalist, with the wives and little ones of such of them as were therewith favored, and a few other friends, met on Thanksgiving Day at the house of Deac. S. W. Buffum, in Winchester, N. H., where they united in discussing roast turkey, chicken pie, and the etceteras, with other subjects of particular and general interest. The discussion was warm and hearty, yet the utmost good feeling and good fellowship prevailed.

If any New England village is yet afflicted with a wrangling clergy, we would suggest to some peace-loving deacon the propriety of trying for their benefit the magic of a thanksgiving dinner, so says the Christian Freeman.

☞ A Mare, harnessed to a sleigh owned by Mr. Geo. G. Lougee of Exeter, ran away from the driver about 7 o'clock on Satuday evening, 17th inst, from Stratham, about three miles or so from Exeter. She passed through the village and ran on the Epping road about three miles, when turning aside from the main road, she went into the bushes, where she was stopped by the sleigh meeting with some obstruction. She was was not found till Tuesday, at 10 o'clock A. M., when Mr. Daniel Smith heard her whinney and took her to his stable. She had nothing to eat during these 63 hours, except what she browsed from the surrounding shrubbery. She has received no material injury. So says the Exeter News-Letter.

SEWING MACHINES, VS. PIANOS.—Henry F. French, Esq., of Exeter, a gentleman much interested in Agricultural and Industrial matters, says in the News Letter, that he thinks a good sewing machine is worth as much in a New England family, as a sewing woman for whom a Southerner would pay a thousand dollars, and there are various considerations besides those merely pecuniary, in favor of the Northern "Institution" of Yankee ingenuity.

He has had in use, in his family, for about three years, one of the machines, and has no hesitation in saying that the hundred dollars paid for it is one of the best investments he ever made.

These inventions have interested him from the first, as among the possible means by which New England women may escape some portion of the weary burdens imposed on them by the structure of our society. There ought to be a sewing machine, he thinks, in every large family.

The hundreds of pianos in the village, might, in his view, most of them, without much mourning among the Muses, be well exchanged for sewing machines. Instead of being laid aside, at the first cry of an infant in a family, as musical instruments usually are, quoth he, these machines chime in more harmoniously, and are played upon more constantly, as the family circle increases.

☞ At the late term of the S. J. Court, Manchester, Patrick McGlynn of Nashua, arraigned for keeping liquor for sale, was sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and costs.

Dennis Flynn for selling liquor, was found guilty, and the defendant recognized for his appearance, and the case was carried up on a question of law.

James O'Brine of Manchester, for selling liquor, was fined $50 and costs.

Edward McCann for larceny at Nashua, sentenced to the State Prison for two years.

WOMAN ROBBED.—The New Bedford Standard says that a girl living in the family of Mr. Job Almy, in Fairhaven, was knocked down and robbed of a small sum of money by a man, in Fairhaven village, on Tuesday evening. Her cries alarmed the people in the vicinity, who went to her assistance, when the scoundrel fled.—During the struggle, the girl secured the hat which the villain wore.

☞ In the vicinity of the Grand Trunk Works, near Toronto, last week, a gas pipe exploded, owing to the severity of the weather, filling the cellar of a Mr. Gorman with gas. Descending into the cellar with a light in his hands, an explosion took place, which blew the house to atoms, horribly mutilated Mr. Gorman, and injured more or less severly all the inmates of the house.

BOILER EXPLOSION AND LOSS OF LIFE.—An explosion took place at the Concord Steam Mills, at Concord, Friday afternoon, caused by a flue of one of the boilers collapsing, instantly killing Mr. Loring A. Webster, and severely but not fatally injuring the fireman, Mr. Kenieston. Mr. Webster was a joiner connected with the Mills, and at the time stood warming himself before the boiler fire. He was 30 years old, and leaves a wife.

FIRES.—The house of Mr. J. Ingersoll Bowditch, a large wooden structure, situated on the highest land in West Roxbury, Mass., was destroyed by fire early on Monday morning. The family narrowly escaped, and only had time to save a few articles of clothing, some family pictures, a marble bust of Dr. Bowditch, (father of the occupant) and the silver ware. The thermometer was at zero, and the fire companies could not render any practical assistance. The family were comfortably provided for at the house of John J. Dixwell, Esq. The library of Mr. Bowditch was one of great value. There is an insurance on the house and furniture at the Boylston and Neptune offices, Boston.

Between five and six o'clock on Saturday night, a portion of the Alms House at South Danvers, devoted to a hospital for insane poor, was totally destroyed by fire. Two of the inmates—females—perished in the flames. The fire originated in a defect of the heating apparatus. The names of the deceased were Elizabeth Heath, aged 43, and Dolly Bagley, aged 38.

ARRIVAL OF THE BLACK WARRIOR—SEVERE GALE ENCOUNTERED.—New York, Jan. 26.—The steamer Black Warrior arrived this morning. She left New Orleans the 11th and Havana the 14th inst. On the 18th encountered a terrific gale; lost fore and mainmast, and all rigging attached. The gale lasted fifty-two hours, during which the fuel gave out and the boat drifted to the southward. When the gale abated, attempted to reach Norfolk, using cabins and furniture for fuel. She arrived at Hampton Roads 21st, but could not reach Norfolk on account of ice. Procured fuel at Old Point Comfort, and proceeded thence 24th.

MORE SHIPWRECKS—TWENTY-ONE LIVES LOST.—Eastport Me., Jan. 26.—British ship Lord Ashburton, from Toulon for St. John, N. B., was totally lost 19th inst. on Grand Nenan. The officers were all lost, and only eight out of twenty-nine were saved, and they were badly frozen.

Ship Manlius, from Newcastle, E., for St. John, N. B., was also totally lost on Grand Menan. The crew were saved, after being more than a week in the boat, and in the woods.

Capt Noyes, of the Revenue cutter, goes to Grand Menan to-day to render assistance.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

This wonderful preparation is having an extensive sale in all parts of the Union. It is one of the few patent medicines which are now sold over the country, that are really what their inventors claim for them. Wherever it has had a fair trial, the result has been precisely as Wood predicts. It has never failed to turn the white hair back to the natural color, where the directions have been strictly followed, and in numerous cases it has restored hair upon heads that had been bald for years. It is not pretended that it will make the hair grow in every case, but where it fails there is certainly no remedy. The restoration of the hair has been effected in so many instances where the case seemed utterly hopeless, that it certainly worth while for all who have lost their hair to try the experiment of using a bottle or two of Wood's Restorative.—[Moline Workman.

THE GREAT DISCOVERY.

Many years ago, Doctor Jurleigh Smart of Kennebunk, Me., discovered that a simple article never before used as a medicine, was a never failing cure for coughs of every description, and an extreme benefit to consumers. By its use in his private practice, he acquired the reputation of being the best physician in New England, for all diseases of the lungs. After his death, Mr. Shaw & Clark of Biddeford, Me., obtained a Copy Right from Government, for its exclusive manufacture, and now have it carefully prepared strictly according to the original recipe. There is no cure in her it will not cure, unless the patient is past all human aid before commencing its use! It is called "Doctor Jurleigh Smart's Cough Medicine," and is for sale by all apothecaries. au27 TuTuh 6m

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,

(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)

No. 76 State st, opp. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, effected on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent Office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in saying that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure the early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE, Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

Arnold's Vital Fluid

PURIFIES and strengthens the blood by eradicating, through a nice chemical action, the causes of impurities and humors. Hence its power over humors that manifest themselves in cutaneous eruptions, or strengthening and vitalizing the blood. It furnishes to a certain extent, the element of which pure blood is composed. It cradicates and cleanses away whatever clogs and thickens the blood.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID

Renders the system strong and healthy, by freeing the blood and stomach from objectionable materials. It nerves and vivifies the system, by furnishing the elements which give vitality.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID

Gives to the system an influence and effect similar to that produced by exercise in the free open air. It exhilarates by strengthening the blood to brighter and better action—doing a work by beginning at the beginning. It is pleasant to the taste, and becomes a favorite wherever known.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID

Removes Biliousness in the direct and easy manner, by neutralizing the cause. This is the principle of its action in removing illness generally. It neutralizes the cause, by freeing the blood from impurities to its proper fulfilment of its life-giving functions.

This principle of neutralizing the cause is why ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID CURES HUMORS that mere medicine cannot sensibly affect, and why it cures other diseases

Resulting from Poisons in the Blood, that mere medicine cannot alleviate. Humors are poisons in the blood, and it is by their chemical action in neutralizing those poisons that ARNOLD'S GLOBULES AND VITAL FLUID are enabled to cure them so that they stay cured.

VITAL FLUID 50 cents per bottle; GLOBULES 25 cents per box.

LOCAL.

PERHAM'S TROUPE have got out of the snow-drifts, and will sing, play, dance, &c., at the Temple, this (Wednesday) evening—when the crowd, who have been impatiently waiting and longing to hear them, will be on hand. This is one of the best, and most popular Ethiopian companies that has ever circulated music and fun round the country—hence their great and continued success.

☞ The second Lecture before the Granite State Club, will be delivered This (Wednesday) Evening, by N. K. Raynes, Esq., at Washington Hall, and not in Rochiab Hall, as has been before stated. See advertisement.

☞ We understand, that the Lecture, appointed for this evening, at St. John's Chapel, is necessarily postponed.

☞ Meeting at the Second Advent Chapel, this evening, 7 1-2 o'clock. Preaching by Elder D. S. Robinson.

☞ The Lecture before the Mechanic's Lyceum, on Tuesday evening, by Rev. Lyman Whiting of this city, was an excellent Essay on Books and Reading. It was received by the audience, as it deserved to be, with the most favorable attention.

☞ We regret to be compelled to chronicle the fact that the bathing season was brought to a sudden close on Tuesday morning, by the destructive power of the elements. Ice, in immense quantities, had formed around the piles which support the platform leading to the floating bath on Noble's Island, and an upheaval of the ponderous pillars by the unusually high tide of Monday noon, was the result. At the next low tide, the heavy posts capsized into the briny deep, carrying with them about forty feet of that platform over which our indefatigable bathing friend, the Doctor, has passed to enjoy his daily plunge, regularly and without a single omission, for the space of two hundred and fourteen days. We doubt if a like case of perseverance in sea-bathing ever occurred in our northern climate. The Doctor has promised us at an early day, an article on "Winter Sea-Bathing and its Advantages"—which must prove interesting, coming as it will from one competent to treat the subject with ability, aside from his experimental knowledge of the facts in the case.

A shipbuilder on the Island informs us that the energy displayed by our undaunted bather, has so excited the admiration of the workmen connected with the various yards there located, that they have determined to unite their forces, and immediately repair the injuries done to the bathhouse in the late elemental warfare. A temporary platform will be erected, and it is hoped the Doctor will re-commence his operations on Saturday morning next.

OLD FOLKS AND ORCHESTRAL CONCERT.—This agreeable as well as novel admixture of ancient and modern music, is to take place at the Temple on Sabbath evening next. As this diversified entertainment will no doubt prove an attraction for a crowded house, we advise those of "ye old en tine" to go early.

In another column, we give some description of the instrumental portion of the concert; and in the advertisement, a list of the Orchestra,—which it will be seen embrace some of those who have long done much to elevate and improve our home music.

The ancient portion of the programme needs no explanation—and the singers will be found able to speak for themselves.

COURT REPORT CORRECTED.—It is suggested by a member of the legal profession, that "Our report of the case Wm. Rushworth vs. H. D. Moore in our paper of Jan. 21st contained important errors. The defendant was endorser and not signer of the note; and he contended that the note had been paid by the maker, and that he was lawfully discharged from all liability upon it. The trial in the C. C. Pleas was formal only, and the questions of law arising upon the case were transferred to the Supreme Court for decision."

We make the correction most cheerfully,—as we desire to have the Court Report as correct as may be. The other report also, was furnished by another member of the bar.

YOUNG, M.D. It is written in plain language for the general reader, and is illustrated with upwards of one hundred Engravings. All young married people, or those contemplating marriage, and having the least impediment to married life, should read this book. It discloses secrets that every one should be acquainted with. Still it is a book that must be kept locked up, and not lie about the house. It will be sent to any one on the receipt of twenty-five cents. Address Dr. WM. Our Fire.

Like Marius amid the ruins of Carthage stands Uncle Toby at his desk, at half-past 4 o'clock on Wednesday morning. This desk was not burnt, although the building in which the Chronicle is printed, has been damaged by fire during the night, and its contents put into confusion.

Fire was discovered about half past 3 in the back part of the store below, occupied by Mr. Henry Ham, watchmaker. It seemed to be in or near an old staircase used as a closet,—and soon reached the room above, occupied by Mr. Amos Pearson, as a Music Room, where it destroyed or greatly injured two Pianos, a grand and a square, and other musical instruments and furniture. The fire was principally confined to this room, the contents of which were pretty effectually spoiled by fire and water.

Mr. Pearson lodges in the building, and at 11 o'clock all appeared right—but he was awakened by the smoke and fire coming through his closet door, over the other, and he gave the alarm about half-past 3 o'clock. He loses at least $500; including his porte monnaie, clothing, music books, &c. on which was no insurance.

Mr. Pearson had barely time to escape, with his pants in his hand, being compeled to leave his coat, with $125 in the pocket, to be destroyed. Mr. Pearson loses everything he possessed.

There was insurance on the effects in the Room belonging to Frank W. Miller, of $800, in the Home Insurance Co.

The Chronicle office is considerably damaged by water and careless handling, almost everything being in confusion.

The Watchmaker's effects, and Capt. Clark's Refreshment Room, were put into pi generally; and the building scorched and damaged to the roof. The building belongs to the heirs of James Sheafe, and is insured.

The fire department and citizens came together promptly, and at half-past 4 the fire was out.

The origin of the fire is unknown. Mr. Pearson uses no hand lamp in his room, which is lighted with gas. No fire is kept in the lower back room, nor is it known that any light was carried there, during the previous evening.

A CARD.

FRANK W. MILLER wishes to thank the Fire Department, and the numerous friends who were so promptly on hand and rendered such efficient service in rescuing his goods and chattels from the fire this morning.

Portsmouth, Jan. 28, 1857.

CONGRESS.

MONDAY, Jan. 26, 1857.

SENATE.—Mr. Wilson gave notice of a bill to secure to actual settlers the alternate sections of lands reserved in grants to states for railroads.

After debate, the Senate passed it.

On motion of Mr. Seward, it was resolved that the Secretary of War, be required to direct topographical engineers to inquire and report whether public interest will be promoted by a survey of the Niagara River, or any part of the same. Adjourned.

HOUSE.—Mr. Chester, the correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer, appeared, purged himself of contempt, and was discharged from custody.

Thursday and Saturday were set apart for the consideration of business relative to the territories, as the two former days specified for that purpose were absorbed by questions of privilege.

On motion of Mr. Quitman of Mississipi, the House, under a suspension of the rules, passed the bill increasing the pay of commissioned officers in the army and military storekeepers $20 a month, and commutation to 30 cents a ration.

The bill to enable property to a considerable amount, belonging to an emancipated slave, who died intestate, to descend to his slave wife and children, was passed, their owners being willing to set them free. The reason for this act is a belief that the property, under the laws of the District of Columbia, vests in the United States, without such legislation. Adjourned.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 26.—The Committee on Elections will act definitely next week, on the Kansas case. The best impression seems to be that they will report that the seat should be vacant, on the ground that the House, by a large majority at the first session, refused to admit either Mr. Whitfield, who was elected under the Kansas laws, or Mr. Reeder, who was elected by persons who did not recognize them, and that there is no resolution of the House, or any law of Kansas, directing a special election to fill the vacancy.

The House was officially informed to-day that the President had approved the Compulsory Witness bill.

Hon. John Barney, ex-Member of Congress, and long known to the political and fashionable circles of Washington, died this morning.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. TATNOR & Co. are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Ternary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.
DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS FOR FEMALES,
Prepared by an old Physician of 40 years experience.

THE combination of ingredients in these Pills, is the result of a long and extensive practice; they are mild in their operation, and certain to restoring nature to its proper channel. In every instance have the Pills proved successful. They are certain to open those obstructions to which females are liable, and bring nature into its proper channel, whereby health is restored, and the pale and deathly countenance changed to a healthy one. No female can enjoy good health unless she is regular; and whenever an obstruction takes place, whether from exposure, cold, or any other cause, her general health immediately begins to decline, and the want of such a remedy has been the cause of so many consumptions among young females. Headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, loathing of food, and disturbed sleep, that most always arise from the interruption of nature; and whenever that is the case, the Pills will invariably remedy all these evils. In all cases of painful menstruation, or nervous and spinal affections in the back and limbs, lowness of spirits, hysterics, &c. Nor are they less efficacious in the cure of Leucorrhœa, commonly called the "Whites." These Pills should never be taken during pregnancy, as they would be sure to cause a miscarriage. Warranted purely Vegetable, and free from anything injurious to life or health. Full and explicit directions which should be read, accompany each box.
These Pills are put up in square, flat boxes.—Persons residing where there are no Agencies established, by enclosing One Dollar in a letter, prepaid, to Dr. C. L. CHEESEMAN, Box No. 4,531, Post Office, New York City, will have them sent to their respective addresses by return of mail.

A bill has been introduced into the New York Legislature providing that the wife of any man, who habitually spends his time and money at places where intoxicating liquors are sold as a beverage, thus bringing his family to want and destitution, shall be entitled to her own earnings, and those of her minor children, without molestations, on account of the caprice, debts, judgments, or other liabilities of her husband.

PROGRESS AT THE NAVY YARD.—The old plan of having a porter at the main gateway of the Charlestown Navy Yard has been abolished, and that governing other naval stations adopted. A guard consisting of sergeant, corporal and three privates, marines, is posted every twenty-four hours. The old porch adjacent the gateway has been turned into a guardhouse for their accommodation, where they mess and quarter during the time allotted them.

IMPORTANT VERDICT.—Isaac F. Sherlock, who has been on trial at Philadelphia, for the murder of Philip S. Clanges, for the seduction of his wife, was on Saturday acquitted. Great enthusiasm was manifested in the court on the rendition of the verdict.

AYER'S Cathartic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED,)

ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK

Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians, Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues.

FOR THE CURE OF

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach,

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1855.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any mortal can have by one dose of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will cure others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE,
Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR,
WASHINGTON, D. C., 7 Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my own and my hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not yield to them.

Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M. D.,
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARTLAND, LIV. CO., MICH., Nov. 16, 1853.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than all else she has taken. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, and soon cured herself by expelling large quantities of worms (Seul) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors was ill and nigh unto death with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely from them. Such a medicine as your Pills, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here.

GEO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Cathartic Pills extensively in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, WYOMING CO., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Prominent Practising Merchant of St. Louis, Mo. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her neck and head that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her of salt rheum.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which lodged in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease for years grew worse, until, by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, BATON ROUGE, LA., 5 Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that has afflicted me for years. VINCENT SLIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are unequaled, as they are not nauseous, and may be taken by anyone without inconvenience.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town and village in every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country, but have some among them some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the CHERRY PECTORAL cures more lives by the consumption it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and none your children with that awfully curable, nor reject them until no human skill can master the inexorable conker that fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disease. Many they know too the virtues of Ayer's remedies, we need not ignore than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and those who have relied on it the best agent which our skill can furnish for their ease.

Extract from the Commercial Advertiser, July 27, '55.

"Messrs. Prince & Co. could realize a handsome fortune by disposing of rights to other manufacturers the fruits of their improvements; but as they prefer to make it a feature in their Instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufactures."

It is now eight years since we commenced the manufacture of this new celebrated Musical Instrument, during which time we have finished and sold nearly NINETEEN THOUSAND. Voluntary testimonials to the excellence of our Instruments, from the most distinguished Professors of Music in different parts of the United States, have flowed in so fast, that it hardly necessary for us to say anything further, than that we have a large invoice of all the different sizes, for wood or coal.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE celebrated machines are in practical and profitable use in all parts of the civilized world. In all the various trades, and in sewing every kind of fabric, either of cloth or leather, they have been fully tried and approved. Sewing machines of other manufacturers often fail to work, but SINGER'S MACHINES being strong, durable and complete in continuance and workmanship. A perfect sewing machine lasts the average of a lifetime, profit of $1000 a year; but an imperfect one is a cause of constant vexation and loss. The entire RELIABILITY of our machines is one great reason for their unparalleled popularity.

ALWAYS OPERATE PERFECTLY,

MACHINES FOR FAMILY SEWING, of a frail and delicate construction, are recommended by some manufacturers. Such machines are made to catch the eye, not to perform substantial work. The truth is, family sewing machines ought to be stronger than any other, because they are used by delicate hands than when sold to manufacturers, and are used for a greater variety of work. The machines which have proved best for all other purposes have been best for family use, and they are Singer's. The speed of our machines has lately been doubled. No other can compare with them in speed or work.

☞ New machines of the latest improved style will be exchanged on liberal terms for old sewing machines of our own make, or for operative machines of other manufacturers. Local agents wanted to sell our machines.

N. B.—All persons desiring full information about sewing machines, should send for and obtain a copy of "I. M. Singer & Co.'s Gazette," a paper devoted entirely to the subject. It will be sent gratis. I. M. SINGER & CO.

TRAVELS IN AFRICA.

We have been much interested in reading some brief accounts of the travels of Rev. Dr. Livingston, the celebrated African traveller, who has returned to England, after seventeen years' absence. He crossed the great African continent almost in the centre from west to east, has been where no civilized being had ever been before, and has made many notable discoveries of great value. He had great difficulty in speaking a sentence of English, having disused it so long while travelling in Africa. He had with him a native from the interior of Africa. This man when he got to the Mauritius, was so excited with the steamers and various wonders of civilization that he went mad, and jumped into the sea and was drowned.

Dr. L. discovered tribes who had iron tools, and could work iron, and who were quite advanced in many of the useful arts,—living far away from the slave coast.—The following account of him is from the London Chronicle:

This celebrated African traveller is nearly forty years of age, his face is furrowed through hardships, and is almost black with exposure to a burning sun. He hesitates in speaking, has a peculiar accent, is at a loss sometimes for a word, and the words of his sentences are occasionally inverted. His language is, however, good, and he has an immense fund of most valuable and interesting information which he communicates most freely. He is in good health and spirits. His left arm, which was broken by a lion, is improperly set, a defect which he will endeavor to get corrected while he is in England. He has an affection of the uvula, which will prevent him from speaking much in public for the present. This affection has been brought on by preaching in the open air in Africa. If he now speaks much he loses his voice, notwithstanding he submitted to an operation in Africa to enable him to speak in public. He has scarcely spoken the English language for the last sixteen years.—He lived with a tribe of Bechuanas, far in the interior, for eight years, guiding them in the paths of virtue, knowledge and religion. He, in conjunction with Mr. Oswald, discovered the magnificent Lake Ngami, in the interior of Africa. He traced by himself the course of the great river Zambesi, in Eastern Africa, and explored one of the extensive and arid deserts of the African continent. In the interior of that continent he reached the eighth degree of southern latitude, that is twenty-six degrees north of the Cape of Good Hope, far beyond the range of any former traveller. The Lake Ngami is far to the west of the hunting grounds of Gordon Cumming. Livingston was in those grounds when the lion-slayer was there, and they both met often. Livingston never could make the Africans believe or understand that his countrymen came for sport. They believed he came for meat which he could not get at home. The last news that Dr. Livingston heard from Europe while far away from the coast was when he was near Loando. He then read of the battle of Balaklava. It was a twelve-month before he heard further news. The wife of the Doctor is the daughter of Mr. Moffatt, the civilizer of the Bechuana nation. Moffatt had lost sight of his son-in-law for some time, and attempted to penetrate into the interior to see what was become of him. He failed to reach him, however, but he sent on by friendly tribes a package of books, newspapers and letters. This package was brought to the southern bank of a river which separated two hostile tribes. Livingston was then living far to the north of the river. The southrons called to the northmen, and told them that they had some property belonging to the Doctor, who was held in great respect by both tribes. The northmen refused to cross over for it, saying that the books and papers contained witchcraft medicine. "Very well," said the southrons, "we leave them here, and if they are lost, on your heads the blame will fall."—They then retired. The northmen thought better of it, crossed over, placed the parcel on an island in the river, and built a hut over it. Twelve months afterwards Dr. Livingston found the parcel there safe.—The Doctor has been struck down with African fever upwards of thirty times.—He has constantly slept in the open air, in the most unwholesome climates, and he has travelled over the "sands and shores and desert wildernesses," with no earthly defence, he says, save his own right arm, but under the protection of the Almighty. It is impossible to talk with the Doctor without discovering that he has a brave heart, and possesses quiet and enduring energy.

Dr. Livingston explored the country of the true negro race. He saw a multitude of tribes, of Africans, and several races, many of whom had never seen a white man until he visited them. They all had a religion, believed in an existence after death, worshipped idols, and performed religious ceremonies in groves and woods. They considered themselves superior to white men, who could not speak their language. Lions were numerous and destructive, because many tribes in Africa believed that the souls of their chiefs migrated into the bodies of those animals. These native clapped their hands together whenever they saw lions, to cheer and honor them. The Doctor and Mr. Oswald discovered the Lake Ngami by stratagem. The natives south of the lake always directed travellers to it in a straight line, which was at most times through the arid desert, which could not be traversed. Messrs. Oswald and Livingston skirted this desert, and thus reached the lake, which was exactly where the natives pointed to it by a circuitous route. Far north the Doctor found a country abounding in game and oases, though at some parts the game had been thinned by the natives, who had been supplied with fire arms by the Portuguese.—At the time when Dr. Livingston was supposed to have been lost, owing to the ship which contained his dispatches foundering near Madeira, he was then in the interior of the country, trying to seek a road to the sea coast. A chief was anxious to open a communication with the coast for the purpose of trading, and the Doctor and a large number of the chief's subjects were seeking the means of doing it. The difficulty consisted in finding a route for vehicles, on account of the marshy state of the country. He describes the language of the Bechuanas, amongst whom he lived, as remarkably sweet and expressive. It has none of the clicking sound which distinguishes the Bosjemen language. The whole of the dialects of the African tribes have affinities one with another, a circumstance which assists a traveller who understands one dialect to make himself intelligible in another. The Doctor left the interior of Africa by descending the river Quelamanen, which empties itself in the Mozambique channel. It was in an attempt to find him that several of the crew of Her Majesty's brig Dart were drowned. He hopes next year to enter Africa again from the east, and proceed to extend his discoveries. Although so long away from the abodes of civilized men, he has not lost the manners and polish of a gentleman.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 30, 1857.

☞ Rev. Mr. Kalloch, of Boston, has been pronounced innocent of the charges laid against him in the Boston Times.—The Boston Chronicle says that the meeting of investigation consisted of about 70 persons of various denominations, and of the highest respectability. After a full and careful examination of the slanderous reports, the committee and the meeting pronounce them false and unfounded—the vile work of evil-minded persons. We understand (says the Chronicle) that those who have investigated the case have discovered that the originators of these stories have not succeeded to tell them twice alike, that they contradict themselves, having evidently neither the good memories so necessary to make lying successful, nor anything like facts, which are so much more easily remembered than inventions.

The testimony is somewhat lengthy;—and fully bears out the following extract from the Report which acquits Mr. Kalloch. The lady who was implicated is said to be an excellent woman, above suspicion. She and Mrs. Kalloch were going together; but Mrs. K. declined, being unwell.—The Report concludes thus:

On the testimony of a Deputation of the the Trustees of Tremont Temple, (these Trustees are members of Baptist churches in Boston and its neighborhood,) who visited the spot of the alleged immorality, examined it, and examined also by careful questioning the individuals who had given birth to the reports that have reached the public through said newspaper, these charges are ascertained to stand upon no foundation, of even presumptive evidence. All proof of guilt is utterly wanting. The proper semblance of it does not exist. The whole matter, as woven into the tissue of a narrative, seems a process of guess work in minds of questionable purity, rather than any authorized induction from the facts in the case. These facts, as stated in the hearing of the Committee by the Deputation of the Trustees and by others, and the facts are neither numerous nor complicated, make it plain to them that Mr. Kalloch is in this instance the subject of a most unjust and slanderous assault. This attack on his character as a Christian and a Minister of Christ, is not only discredited by the examination of the present case, but is rebuked by his antecedents from boyhood through the labors of a former pastorate in Maine, to his residence in this city. Whatever motives, therefore, may have urged this most extraordinary assault upon the most valuable possession of a Christian Minister, the Committee feel bound to characterize the assault itself as in their judgment baseless and without excuse; and to state that the innocence of Mr. Kalloch of the charges made against him is, in their minds, fully established.

In view of all the circumstances in the case, they would advise Mr. Kalloch to take no notice of the rumors sent abroad to do him injury, but to apply himself with all diligence to the work of the Christian Ministry.

The latter paragraph seems to mean that the accusers are not very responsible persons, either in money or character.

The Times of the 29th contains affidavits of Ephraim P. Bailey, of the Lechmere House, and Samuel Giddings, faretaker, who peeped with him through the crack of the door. The affidavits go into particulars, and make statements which must be ruinous to Mr. K.'s reputation as a minister, unless the witnesses can be broken down as liars: though we do not see enough evidence to convict him, before a jury.—The Times says, however:

We understand that an accusation will be made before the Grand Jury of Middlesex against the Rev. Mr. Kalloch at their next meeting. It may be previously before the Police Court of East Cambridge.

One feature in the aspect of the dispute about Mr. Kalloch has given us great pleasure. It is the fact, that in the view of the tavern keeper who sold the liquor, and of the men who made and told the stories, whiskey drinking, by a minister, was at once disgraceful and suspicious,—leading them to suspect, and the reader to believe, that the man who would do that, might also do almost anything else! In this, they condemn their own traffic, their own practice, and their own pleas. For if a minister may not drink whiskey, why not? Will it do him any more harm than it will do to anybody else? Or will they say, he should be an example? So he should: but what's the use of an example, if no one follows, or is expected to follow it? We have seen no better temperance argument for a long time, than can be made out of the hot haste with which these story tellers reported Mr. Kalloch's medical whiskey, with additions, variations and fabrications.

☞ Six clergymen of Manchester, N. H., signed a request that the Directors of the Lyceum there, would annul their arrangement with Theodore Parker, so as to shut him out of their list. The Directors decline to make the change.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

LETTER FROM EXETER.

Exeter, Jan. 28, 1857.

Dear Chronicle:—Last week was such a remarkable one, at least out of doors, that we concluded to become an extempore clerk of the weather. We congratulated ourselves on the fact that we had made the brilliant discovery that on Friday last it was decidedly cold. On Saturday, moreover, so impressed were we with the idea that it was without doubt the coldest day of the season, that we were determined to knock everybody down without further ceremony (provided they were not too big for us) who had the coolness to deny it.—We were almost in the very precarious condition of the settlement out West, who were so severely nipped, as to positively declare that if the thermometer had been a quarter of an inch longer, they would have all frozen to death! We didn't dare to look at any glass that morning, excepting our customary glass of—never mind that, however; but we understood that it had fallen—

"O what a fall was there, my countrymen!" to 38° below zero.

It occurred to us that Exeter had monopolized all the frigidity that existed this side of the North Pole, and we were about to communicate this important information to your paper; but, alas for our expectations! we discovered that all places had been served alike, and consequently the charm of the thing was lost. We did think that your good people of Portsmouth wouldn't follow suit after Boston, &c., and let your noble Piscataqua feel the Ice King's touch; but you did suffer it to get tight for a few hours. Still we have your word for it that a like circumstance shan't happen again for forty years, at least.

A real, live Indian, with a terrible long cognomen, (we should not be surprised if folks called him bad names, sometimes,) gave us a lecture on the "children of the forest" generally, last Sunday evening.—He, with eight companions, has travelled this way to procure an English education, and now takes this means to enable him to return to his wigwam.

Prof. C. P. Bronson of Boston proposes to give a course of six lectures at the new Town Hall, on the human body, voice and mind. His free, introductory lecture, on Monday evening last, was well attended, and he entertained the audience for an hour and a half by a general review of his subject. If the contribution that was taken on that occasion proved satisfactory, he will deliver the remaining lectures free of charge. The course promises to be interesting and instructive.

The extraordinary meteorological developments of the past week have so completely overcome us, not exactly like a "summer's cloud," that we are too full for further utterance, and consequently will close.

Yours, F. G.

Mathematical Question.—I have two boards, each 20 feet long, and 36 inches wide at each butt end, and 4 inches wide at each narrow end. Each board I cut in two lengths crosswise, so that the two butt ends shall contain 33.4 square feet, and be 13 feet long, and the two narrow ends 33.4 square feet, and be 27 feet long. Required each one of the four lengths, and the contents of each length.

To the above question, published two or three weeks ago, we now append the following answer:

Cut No. 1 board 7 and 13 feet long.
" No. 2 board 6 and 14 " "
Contents:—

Butt Ends.	7 ft. length : 17 11-15 sq ft.
	6 ft. length : 15 9-15 sq ft.
	13	33.4
Narrow Ends.	13 ft. length : 15 9-15 sq ft.
	14 ft. length : 17 11-15 "

A Fortunate Comedian.—The morning after his late benefit at the Gaiety, Mr. W. H. Davidge, the clever comedian, was glad to discover that he had drawn the nice little sum of $40,000 in the Maryland Lottery, of which R. France & Co. are the managers. A consolation for a thinnish house the night before.—New Orleans Picayune, Dec. 13.

If Mr. Davidge can draw in the lottery in that style, it is of little consequence whether he draws houses or not.—N. Y. Sunday Dispatch.

☞ Two men were saved from the raft of the Lyonnais, by the barque Essex, Ray, from Boston for Rio Janiero. Capt. Ray, when three days from Boston, had taken from a raft two seamen belonging to the French steamer Le Lyonnais. The seamen picked up reported "the steamer as having been run into and sunk by a vessel when three days from New York; sixty were drowned, the rest took to the boats; there were other vessels in sight; the boats were probably picked up."

☞ Mr. Buchanan, the President elect, has arrived at Washington, for a ten days' visit.

☞ Harper's New Monthly, for February, is just received by A. Williams & Co., Boston, and by James F. Shores, jr., in Portsmouth.—The first article is a Notice of Dr. Livingston's new book of Travels in Africa, with numerous illustrations. From this specimen, we think we should greatly like to read the book itself. The whole number is, as usual, made up of interesting matter.

An Irishman was killed at the end of Hoosac tunnel, near North Adams, last Monday. The fuse of a blast had been lighted, and after the men had retired this Irishman stuck out his head to see if the fire had gone out, when the explosion occurred, and he was hit by a piece of rock and killed.

A seaman was frozen to death on board brig Hancock below Boston, at anchor, on the passage from Jacksonville.

Washington, Jan. 28.—Mr. Buchanan was serenaded last night by his political friends, but made no response.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

This wonderful preparation is having an extensive sale in all parts of the Union. It is one of the few patent medicines which are now sold over the country, that are really what their inventors claim for them. Wherever it has had a fair trial, the result has been precisely as Wood predicts. It has never failed to turn the white hair back to its natural color, when the directions have been strictly followed, and in numerous cases it has restored the hair upon heads that had been bald for years. It is not pretended that it will make the hair grow in every case, but where it fails, there is certainly no remedy. The restoration of the hair has been effected in so many instances where the case seemed utterly hopeless, that it is certainly worth while for all who have lost their hair to try the experiment of using a bottle or two of Wood's Restorative.—[Moline Workman.

THE GREAT DISCOVERY.

Many years ago, Doctor Burleigh Smart, of Kennebunk, Me., discovered that a simple article never before used as a medicine, was a never failing cure for cough of every description, and an excellent blood purifier. By its use in his private practice, he acquired the reputation of being the best physician in New England, for all diseases of the lungs. After his death, Messrs. Shaw & Clark of Biddeford, Me., obtained a Copy Right from Government, for its exclusive manufacture, and now have it carefully prepared strictly according to the original recipe. There is no cough but it will not cure, unless the patient is past all hope, and death has commenced its work! It is called "Doctor Burleigh Smart's Cough Medicine," and is for sale by all apothecaries. ow7 TuTuSh 6m

CONGRESS.

Tuesday, Jan. 27.

Senate.—Mr. Wilson of Massachusetts, presented the petition of the Committee of the Humane Society of Massachusetts, asking Congress to grant $120,000 for establishing and supporting life boat and mortar stations on the coast of that state. The Indian Appropriation bill was taken up.

A debate was indulged in, and various amendments made to it. Adjourned.

LOCAL.

☞ In the account given of "Our Fire" in Wednesday morning's Chronicle, some items need correction. Uncle Toby there stated, as it was stated to him repeatedly, and not contradicted by any one, that the fire was first discovered in the lower back staircase,—leaving it to be inferred that the fire certainly commenced there. — But it is not certain, and cannot be, whether it began above or below,—as the floor between the two was only a single plank, and fire would ascend or descend very readily.

The fire was discovered issuing not from the closet floor, but from both closet doors in Mr. Pearson's room.

Then, as to the ownership of some property in the room, a portion was erroneously set down to F. W. Miller, by Mr. Gray, his former partner, who reported the property as it had been, but not exactly as it was then.

The probable if not the possible origin of the fire, is an inexplicable mystery—the occupants of the premises, both above and below, Mr. Pearson and Mr. Ham, being among the most careful men in the world. The doors, windows, &c., were all fast, as usual, and no indications of interlopers have been discovered.

Mr. Pearson's escape was very narrow—his arm being scorched and his hair singed in trying to take his coat from the hook on which it hung. His loss (aside from the grand piano, worth near $800) as we stated, was not far from $500, on which was no insurance. We are pleased to learn that, besides the sympathies of all, he has received "material aid" from several friends. Mr. J. W. Clark kindly tendered him the use of his room, piano, &c.; but Mr. Pearson had previously accepted a similar offer from Mr. Cobb, as will be seen by his advertisement.

Our loss, on furniture and pictures, in the music room, was about $200—insured $150; and a new piano, worth $225, not insured. The damage to the Chronicle Office was about $200, of which $70 was covered by the insurance.

Mr. H.H. Ham's loss was probably about $100—no insurance.

Capt. Clark lost little or nothing.

The damage to the building has been decided to be about $500.

A couple of base viols, temporarily stored in the room, were destroyed.

The whole damage by fire and water, to the building and contents, must have been from $2000 to $2500.

☞ Our "form" (of types) was all ready for striking off our paper of Wednesday morning, before the fire; but owing to the disarrangement of our Office, we printed no paper on Thursday.

The Daily Chronicle for a few days, and our Weekly of this week, will, a portion of each days' issue, bear smoky testimony to our narrow escape.

☞ The Mercantile Lecture advertised for last evening, was postponed on account of a railroad accident, which detained Dr. Vinton at Albany. Due notice will be given of his appearance.

☞ The half-past 2 Portland train on the Boston & Maine Railroad, was delayed several hours near Haverhill, on Wednesday afternoon; by the bursting of a flue in the locomotive, a second iron-horse was obtained, which proceeded as far as New Market Junction, where the axle of the tender broke, which occasioned further delay, so that the train did not arrive at South Berwick Junction, till past twelve o'clock, at night. Conductor Akerman of the P. S. & P. R. R. telegraphs to this city, after waiting the usual hour for the Boston & Maine train, and an engine with Conductor Towle, was sent from here, which took the train into Portland; the train on the Eastern Railroad, having proceeded to Portland without the B. & M. train.

MISSING VESSEL.—Barque Hesper, of Newburyport, from Cronstadt, has now been out 109 days. As yet no tidings have been heard from her. It is possible she may be at St. Thomas, disabled. The Hesper is a good vessel, built at Newburyport, by Mr. John Currier, and owned by the Messrs. Cushing. She is loaded with hemp and iron for Boston.

Capt. Briard, of the Hesper, was a native of Portsmouth, son of Capt. Wm. A. Briard. The wife of Capt. B. was on board with him.

☞ It will be seen by reference to our Foreign News that the ship James Buchanan is reported to be lost. This brief paragraph is the only information received here as yet, concerning her loss. The James Buchanan was a new and staunch ship, built at this port by Sam'l Badger, Esq.; launched in July last, we think; and was owned by Capt. Daniel Marcy and others of this city—Capt. Burdick being master.

☞ Rev. A. G. Comings is expected to preach at Hanover Street Chapel next Sabbath.

FOUR DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE ARAGO.

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—Steamship Arago, from Southampton 14th inst., arrived at her dock at 11 o'clock. She brings London dates of 14th inst.

The Neufchatel question was definitely settled. Switzerland releases the insurgent prisoners, and Prussia acknowledges the independence of Neufchatel, and suspends all military preparations.

The Russians have met with a disastrous defeat near Bayuk, where they were attacked by 10,000 Circassians, and forced to retire, with loss of 2000 men and artillery.

Hostilities continue at Canton, and the Americans have become fully engaged in the struggle.

It will be remembered that High Commissioner Yeh replied to the last demand of the British authorities for an apology, by offering a reward of $30 for the head of any Englishmen, and that the British Admiral thereupon directed the bombardment of the town. The Chinese, in their eagerness to carry out Yeh's command, and to strike terror into the foreign devils, decapitated some American persons, in mistake for Englishmen, and stuck their heads upon the city walls.

It will hardly occasion wonder that the Americans, who showed every disposition from the first to strengthen the hands of the British authorities, should have made common cause with them after this wanton act of barbarity.

It was also reported at the time the last account left China, that Shanghae had been attacked by the Chinese rebels, and that the town had fallen into their hands. This rumor, if confirmed, would seem to indicate that the insurgents availed themselves of the opportunity offered by the present collision, to secure an advantage which they hope, with British assistance, to turn to account.

The ship James Buchanan, of Portsmouth, is wrecked on the Irish coast.

3 DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE ARABIA.

HALIFAX, Jan. 29.—Steamer Arabia, from Liverpool 17th, for Boston, has arrived at this port.

Her news is three days later than by the Arago; but it is not of much consequence politically; breadstuffs are a shade lower; cotton 1-8 of a penny lower than the Persia's rates; provisions dull.

NATIONAL KANSAS COMMITTEE.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Pursuant to a call, the National Kansas Committee met at the Astor House Friday and Saturday last. Members were present from Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York, Ohio, Illinois, and Wisconsin and the territory of Kansas. Members are still expected from Pennsylvania, Indiana and Michigan.

The session of Friday was occupied chiefly with the report of the Secretary. From this document, we extract the following items:

There have been received from all sources, since the organization of the body in June last, in round numbers, $90,000; and expended in various ways, as specified in the report, $81,000. Balance in the Treasury, subject to draft, $9000.

Of the total receipts, as above, Massachusetts has furnished $27,000; and New York, including the fund sent to the New York Tribune, $33,000.

There have been forwarded by the Committee about 2000 emigrants. These have gone exclusively by the land route of Iowa and Nebraska.

The Committee have expended between $20,000 and $30,000 in provisions and groceries for the most needy settlers. There were also forwarded prior to the 1st of December about 400 boxes of clothing, valued at $60,000. 100 boxes were frozen up on the Missouri river, and, we understand, have or will be hauled by teams into the territory.—Since the closing of the Missouri the Committee have received some 300 boxes, which will go forward in March.

Professor E. Daniels of Wisconsin was appointed Agent of Emigration for the coming year, and a special Railroad Committee was appointed to confer with the principal railroad companies between the seaboard and Kansas territory.

The session of Saturday was chiefly devoted to a discussion of plans and policy of the ensuing year. It was not apprehended that the difficulties experienced in the territory, and on the Missouri river the past season, would operate hereafter to the embarrassment of plans for peaceful emigration and a general development of the resources of the territory.

W. F. M. Arny Esq., tendered his resignation as General Agent of the Committee, in consequence of his design to remove to Kansas. Mr. Arny's resignation was accepted, and a resolution passed expressing the thanks of the Committee for his valuable services.

The Committee appointed to confer with the Agents of the principal railroads between the seaboard and Kansas, reported that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. would be made on the entire route to St. Louis, and tickets would be issued to the Agent of the committee from St. Louis to Leavenworth at $10 each, being equal to a reduction of twenty per cent. on that portion of the route.

☞ Schooners Waldron Holmes, and Melrose, from Provincetown, arrived below Boston 27th, and the passengers, 27 in number, walked up to the city on the ice.

The canal in Boston harbor was cut through to East Boston, so that the steamer America started out from her dock at 11 A. M. on Thursday, but was wedged in by the ice and stopped. She went to sea with the ebb tide in the afternoon,—probably.

Arnold's Vital Fluid
PURIFIES and strengthens the blood by eradicating, through a nice chemical action, the causes of impurities and humors. Hence its power to cure humors that mere medicine cannot cure. Hence its power of strengthening and vitalizing the blood. It furnishes to a certain extent, the element of which pure blood is composed. It eradicates and cleanses away whatever clogs and thickens the blood.
ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID
Renders the system strong and healthy, by freeing the blood and stomach from objectionable materials. It nerves and vivifies the system, by furnishing the elements which give vitality.
ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID
Gives to the system an influence and effect similar to that produced by exercise in the free open air. Exercise invigorates the blood by bringing it bright and better action—doing its work by beginning at the beginning. It is pleasant to the taste, and becomes a favorite wherever known.
ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID
Removes Biliousness in the most direct and easy manner, by neutralizing the cause. This is the principle of its action in removing illness generally. It neutralizes the cause, by freeing the blood from impediments to its proper fulfilment of its life-giving functions.
This principle of neutralizing the cause is why ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID CURES HUMORS that mere medicine cannot sensibly affect, and why it cures other diseases
Resulting from Poisons in the Blood, that mere medicinal preparations cannot alleviate. Humors are poisons in the blood, and it is by their chemical action in neutralizing those poisons that ARNOLD'S GLOBULES AND VITAL FLUID are enabled to cure them so that they stay cured.
VITAL FLUID 50 cents per bottle; GLOBULES 25 cents per box.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.
DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS FOR FEMALES,
Prepared by an old Physician of 40 years experience.
THE combination of ingredients in these Pills, is the result of a long and extensive practice; they are mild in their operation, and certain to restoring nature to its proper channel. In every instance have the Pills proved successful. They are certain to open those obstructions to which females are liable, and bring nature into its proper channel, whereby health is restored, and the pale and deathly countenance changed to a healthy one. No female can enjoy good health unless she is regular; and whenever an obstruction takes place, whether from exposure, cold, or any other cause, the general health immediately begins to decline, and the want of such a remedy has been the cause of so many consumptions among young females. Headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, loathing of food, and disturbed sleep, that most always arise from the interruption of nature; and whenever that is the case, the Pills will invariably remedy all these evils. In all cases of painful menstruation, or nervous and spinal affections in the back and limbs, lowness of spirits, hysterics, &c. Nor are they less efficacious in the cure of Leucorrhœa, commonly called the "Whites." These Pills should never be taken during pregnancy, as they would be sure to cause a miscarriage. Warranted purely Vegetable, and free from anything injurious to life or health. Full and explicit directions which should be read, accompany each box.
These Pills are put up in square, flat boxes.—Persons residing where there are no Agencies established, by enclosing One Dollar in a letter, prepaid, to Dr. C. L. CHEESEMAN, Box No. 4,531, Post Office, New York City, can have them sent to their respective addresses by return of mail.

ADVENTURES.—The delegation to the Massachusetts General Court from Fall River, who returned home on Saturday last started to return on Thursday morning and got as far as Myrick's (12 miles) at ten o'clock of the same day. Here they remained until four o'clock in the afternoon, when they managed to reach Mansfield, and took the Providence train for Boston. They reached Sharon Hill at about ten o'clock in the evening, where they remained hard and fast until ten o'clock on Friday night. Several then took the foot train to Campton, where a relief train rescued them, and took them to Boston in safety at twelve o'clock Friday night after a passage of thirty-eight hours from Fall River.

On board the train was a newly married member from New Bedford, with his blooming bride and bridal party, whose first experience of conubial felicity could not have been the most cheering. During their embargo at Sharon Hill the unfortunates were most hospitably treated by Dr. Clark of that place, and the ladies in the train having adjourned from the desolate cars where the thermometer stood at 20 below, to his comfortable mansion, organized the "Rose of Sharon Ladies Sewing Circle," and worked like heroines during their stay. The party thus were enabled to make light of their trials, and the Fall River members and the bridegroom, all reached the State House on Saturday morning in health and spirits.

AYER'S Cathartic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED,)

ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK

Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians, Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to cleanse them thoroughly, when they cleanse at once. If they will cure others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE,
Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, WASHINGTON, D. C., 7 Feb., 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot in conscience say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for all diseases of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom failed a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them.

Fraternally yours, ALEX. HOSACK, M. D.,
Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARTLAND, LIV. CO., MICH., Nov. 16, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and taking medicine for months. Went off to be discharged at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her, by expelling a large quantity of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, which others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctor bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be valued here.

OLIV. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among my friends, and now, yet in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, WYOMING CO., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountain of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Formerly Merchant of St. Louis, MR. A, 1855.

DR. AYER: I have spoken of the dangers of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her face was much disfigured and she by afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also took your Pills, and they have cured her. ASA MORRILL.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Bangs, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my joints and brought on a violent attack of neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until, by the advice of your agent, I took Ayer's Cathartic Pills. Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, BATON ROUGE, LA., 5 Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that has afflicted me for years. VINCENT PIERCE.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skillful hands, yet when given in a public pill, from the manifold consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We find not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of apparently complicate have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and there are few communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disease of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous disease of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the remedy here offered to the public by the AUTHOR, will prevent consumption, if taken in time, and even in advanced stages of the disease, will generally relieve the patient, and in a large proportion of cases, cure the complaint. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, not neglect them until no human skill can master the inscrutable enemy that, fastened on the vitals, sets your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung diseases, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not dwell upon them to assure them that it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and then afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can bestow.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. FRENCH & Co. are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to experintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another which has been established by the same parties, is that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every week in some part of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets are from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Ternary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

of these instruments have been finished and are now in use.

THE latest improvement in our Melodeons is the DIVIDED SWELL, secured to us by Letters Patent 22 May, 1855—By means of this Swell Solo Passages may be played with the full power of the Instrument, while the Accompaniment is soft and subdued.—Hereafter, all Melodeons made by us, will be furnished with this attachment without extra charge.

Extract from the Commercial Advertiser, July 27, '55.

"Messrs. Prince & Co could realize a handsome fortune by disposing of rights to other manufacturers to use their new improvement; but as they prefer to make it a feature in their Instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufactures."

It is now eight years since we commenced the manufacture of this new celebrated Musical Instrument, during which time we have finished and sold nearly TWO THOUSAND. Volunteer testimonials to the excellence of our Instruments, from the most distinguished Professors of Music in different parts of the United States, have from time to time been received. Thus far we have said but little, and our advertisements were seldom seen for the reason that we could not supply the demand. We have hitherto kept one of the largest and most perfect Manufacturing Establishments in the United States, and we now think that we can fill orders promptly. We therefore give one testimonial, of many received.

NEW YORK, 15th Oct., 1855.

"G. A. Prince & Co.: Gentlemen—The Double Reed Melodeon has arrived, and a most charming Instrument it is. It has been placed in the parlace, Doct. Hodges, Wm. Mason, and a host of others, and they all pronounce it one of the most powerful and perfect instruments they have ever touched. Very really, JAMES F. HALL."

We are not aware that the above mentioned Melodeon is in any particular superior to those we are daily finishing, and we can assure those who are inclined to favor us with their orders, that they will be furnished with an instrument equally as good. Our Instruments are all finished in Rosewood Cases, and we warrant them for the very best quality. The styles and prices are—

HORRIBLE ROMANCE.

NEWS FROM PORTLAND, VIA TENNESSEE.

We occasionally in our exchange papers, get very new news of what is going on here at home. But we think the following affecting story is the newest. We find it in the Christian Advocate, published at Memphis, Tennessee, by the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. From so high a source it ought to be entitled to credit; yet we are compelled to say that the organ of the "General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South" had been badly humbugged. Mr. Knott is not correct. So says the Portland Argus.

Here follows the story.

"Eternal Justice, where are thy thunderbolts?" A gentleman of undoubted veracity related to me the following incident, based upon the observation and experience of a pious man and communicant in our Church.

Some years ago, the man who saw and heard and felt what I am about to relate, walking in one of the streets of Portland, Maine, with his trowel and plumb in hand, was met by two well dressed men, who accosted him thus:

"Are you a mason?" "I am," was the reply. "We have a job of work which we wish done—we care not for price—we will pay any amount. Will you do it?" "I will," said the man. "Then come with us." A few steps, and they were all seated in a carriage, and the driver commanded to go forward. A hood was drawn over the face of the mason, and after travelling about six miles, (whether out of the city or not, God only knows) they came to a halt. He was commanded to alight, one of the men leading him by the hand. They entered a house, and passing up three flights of steps, came to a room, the darkness of which could almost be felt. A candle was lit, the hood raised, and the mason commanded to cut a hole in the wall, three feet wide, two feet deep, and five feet long. "I have no tools," said the man, shivering with fear.

"What do you need?" said the men.—"A chizel and mallet." In a few minutes these implements of honest labor were put into the hands of an honest and unsuspecting man, with which to execute death in the most heart-rending and appalling manner.

The grave was prepared in the solid wall—the noise of the mallet was hushed—the men depart—the door was locked—and in a few minutes they reappear with a beautiful young lady. Her mouth is gagged with a rough billet, her feet and hands are bound with cords, while silent tears are falling from her angel cheeks. She is now placed in the grave out out of the solid brick, and the mason ordered to close it up. "I will not," said the horror-stricken man. In a moment a pistol was drawn and presented at his heart—"Do it, or you are a dead man." With a trembling hand, with an aching heart, and weeping eyes, he closes the grave, and innocence and virtue stand silent and toneless in the solid wall. O God! is thy power slumbering? "Eternal justice! where are thy thunderbolts?"

A moment's pause, and the hood is drawn over the mason's face—he is conducted to the carriage, and taken to the street from which he started, and left alone to brood over this melancholy incident.—These are the facts as given me by one who got them from the mason himself, who is a pious man and a member of the church.

Memphis, Dec. 26, '56. J. W. KNOTT.

The above story, for substance, with more particulars, has been told in the trashy romances of the last hundred years. It is located away down east, now, we presume, by the sanctimonious scoundrel who tells the story, as a sort of pious fraud to frighten the troublesome negroes, who might run away from their blissful state of servitude, and get built into a brick wall up three pair of stairs, in Portland, Maine!

HORRIBLE BARBARITY IN KENTUCKY.—A Slave Whipped and Burned to Death.

Portsmouth, O., Jan. 7, 1857.

Happening to have occasion to visit Carter County, Ky., last week, I was made the unwilling witness of a scene of barbarity that would have made the blood-thirsty Nero tremble. It seems, from what I afterwards learned, that the slave of one Wm. McMinnis, quite an extensive farmer of Carter County, were suspected of being engaged in a conspiracy, to rise on a certain night, and, in connection with the slaves upon an adjoining farm, murder the white people. This report having gained credence, the slaves were arrested and tried by one of those mock courts so common in the Southern country. One negro, who was supposed to be in the conspiracy, was closely questioned and threatened with severe punishment in case he did not reveal the whole affair. The negro stoutly denied having anything to do with such a proceeding, disclaimed any knowledge of such an insurrection, and begged to be released. But he was doomed to be tortured until he confessed.

In order to intimidate the other slaves, it was deemed necessary to torture this miserable creature before their eyes. Accordingly, he was stripped—the weather being cold—and then he received 200 lashes on the bare back. Still, the negro swore that he knew nothing about the insurrection. Not yet satisfied, these inhuman monsters, excited as it were by the blood already drawn, proceeded to tie him up to a stake, with the evident intention of burning him. When told he was next to be burned, the screams of the poor creature were indeed terrific and heart-rending; but, despite his entreaties and cries, a pile of dry wood was heaped around him, and again he was told if he did not confess he would be burned to a crisp; still he refused, when the pile was lighted, and soon began to blaze around the victim. Unable to witness such unexampled cruelty, I rode away and made an effort to get some neighbors to go and stop the inhuman proceedings, but was told to "mind my own business." I learned afterwards that the negro was so burned that he died the next day.

Scenes like this have occurred in this section of Kentucky before, but the newspapers studiously avoid publishing the accounts of them, and they remain unheard of unless some humane passer by happens to witness them.

I remain yours truly,
JOHN KINGSLEY.

A WORD FOR THE "OLD FOLKS."

Mr. Brewster,—I am glad that we are to have one more opportunity to listen to some of the "dear old songs of yore," at the Concert next Sunday evening—which we learn is gotten up by the original projector of these entertainments in this region, without regard to expense; and as an enthusiastic lover of the "Ancient Musick," I would request the publication of the following, if your columns are not too much crowded.

A great portion of the church music is old; but that it is more generally admired is evident from the fact that no publisher dares to issue a collection of sacred music without inserting enough of it, say, to preserve his book. And certainly, of many singing books published within a few years, it may well be said, the less "original" music they contain the better. Another evidence of the inferiority of most modern music, is its short life. What has become of the ten thousand tunes composed within the last twenty years? With but few exceptions, they are "dead and gone." Old "Windham" and "China" have acted as pall bearers for half a century; and were it not for "Old Hundred," and tunes of like character, there had been no music suitable either for a doxology or a benediction upon surviving friends. The fact is, the old composers were probably better acquainted both with God and man. They had studied human nature as well as scientific theories. Many of them were holy men, and their music, composed amid the hills and forests of Puritanic New-England, is but an embodiment of pious devotion. This will explain the reason why old "Majesty" and "Hosanna" will make the eyes of a congregation sparkle, or "Hatfield" and "New Durham," or "Complaint," make them weep, while modern compositions produce little or no effect.

In every part of the United States, even where new music is sung in the public congregation because it is fashionable, let any one mingle with the devout worshippers of God in their social meetings, and he will hear—not the scientific gingling of imparted discord—but the simple harmony of old "Turner," "Northfield," or the "Union Hymn," or something that moves the heart of good men, if it does not tickle the fastidious taste of infidels.

It is said that the rules of modern composition are frequently violated by the old composers; so are old rules violated by men, and their effect proves their comparative value. Every one knows how much the old tunes have suffered by modern improvement, and I rejoice that the "Ancient Harmony Revived" has rescued the ancient music from oblivion, and that the management of the "Old Folks'" Concert next Sabbath evening have secured the valuable assistance of a powerful orchestra capable of appreciating and rendering not only the "immortal" mass, but also the good old "songs our fathers sang," sincerely hoping all who take part on that occasion may join the full chorus of "Worthy the Lamb" in the swelling anthems of eternity. SENEX.

"Senex" writes as he sings, "with the spirit and the understanding." He anticipates a "rare treat," and unless we mistake the feelings of our community, there is a deep interest in this Concert. No expense has been spared to render it worthy of patronage and we doubt not it will meet and merit success.—Journal.

From the N. H. Gazette.

THE PENNSYLVANIA SENATOR.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.

Three events have agitated political and social circles here for some days past; the election of Simon Cameron to the U. S. Senate from Pennsylvania, in place of John W. Forney, the democratic candidate; the investigations of the Committee of Inquiry upon the charge of corruption against members of Congress, preferred by the N. Y. Times; and a battle-duel between the Hon. Mr. Campbell of Ohio, and the Hon. Mr. East of Arkansas.

The loss of a democratic Senator is not, in the present constitution of the Senate, an event so much to be deplored as the manner in which it is said to have been accomplished. That men elected on their supposed and proclaimed fidelity to certain principles, should betray their generous and confiding constituencies, and under circumstances pregnant with suspicion of corruption, is a matter of great public moment, seriously endangering the permanence of representative institutions; for these will cease to exist when the sole object of their construction—i. e., the reflection by the delegate of the constituent opinion—is neglected and abused.—What strikes us here as an aggravating feature of this deplorable case is the fact that of the three democrats who went over to Cameron, two had gone into the democratic caucus and voted for Forney, with the very design, as it is now supposed, of warding off any suspicion of their contemplated treachery, adding thus personal dishonor to public outrage. Destroy the confidence that subsists between man and man, and how can political or other societies be maintained? Forney's nomination may have been inopportune; the insistance of his friends impolitic; but fealty to public principle can, under no circumstances, safely be violated. An unchecked deed of this kind might acquire the dangerous strength of a precedent, and many an evil from this one example rush into the State.—Gazette.

FATAL ACCIDENT AT THE STEAM MILL.—On Friday afternoon an explosion of one of the boilers at the new steam mill, near Horse Shoe Pond, took place, instantly killing Mr. Lorin A. Webster, and severely injuring Mr. Kenniston, the fireman. Mr. Webster had been at work in the mill, and went into the boiler-room to warm himself. He was standing at the end of the boiler, a portion of which struck him in the head, killing him instantly. Both ends of the boiler were blown out, knocking down the walls at both sides of the building. Mr. Kenniston was thrown some fifty feet on to a pile of lumber, and was considerably bruised, and an arm was broken so that amputation was found necessary.

Mr. Webster was a highly respectable young man, about 30 years of age, the son of Atkinson Webster, Esq., of this city. He leaves a wife and a large circle of friends and relatives to mourn his sudden death.—Concord Patriot.

FIRE.—On Thursday morning, between one and two o'clock, the boiler house of the stationary engine at the Concord Railroad shop took fire, and there was a great turn-out of citizens, but there was not much of a fire, and but little damage.—Concord Patriot.

So much confidence had some in the strength of the ice on Saturday, that one man accepted a bauter to pass over the river on a horse. Desiring to obtain one which would not endanger his rider by a heavy step, he procured one with a sled from Mr. U. Blaisdell, and performed the feat—and Mr. A. K. P. Dearing is probably the only man who ever did or ever will pass over the Piscataqua on ice on horse back. He is to be commended for his prudence in selecting a steady horse, in the form of two XX's.

SOLEMN PROVIDENCE.

"Presume not God to scan."—An Abolition print of this city speaks of Mr. Brooks as dying by the "visitation of God," &c. The disorder of the South Carolina representative is reported to have been croup or quinsy, a complaint which proved fatal to George Washington and thousands of other good men.—Boston Courier.

We suppose that God, who is the giver of life, also sees fit to take it away in his own time and manner. And it must be true, either that all men, who die without the hand of human violence or carelessness, die by the visitation of God, or that none die so. If Sumner had died, or should now die, by the effect of Brooks's blows,—we should hardly in common parlance, call that a visitation of God, because man had so visible a hand in it.

In the case of Brooks, who died of a terrible disease, the visitation is of—whom? Some Abolition print in Boston says, "of God." To this, the Courier, we were about to say, takes exception. It does not, quite, however, but only brings in the death of Washington, as a parallel or set off. To the set off, we cannot object—for we recognize the hand of God, and not of man, in both cases.—Nor would we make special objection to the parallel, but only carry it out a little further.

Washington died of the croup, so did Brooks; Jesus of Nazareth died on the cross, so did the two thieves.

There is in each compared case, a similarity of circumstances, but not a great likeness, in any other respect.

There is one other power yet, to which we have not yet alluded, which may be named to any persons who object to Brooks dying by the Visitation of God. We refer to the Devil: of whom, the Epistle to the Hebrews says, Jesus took part of flesh and blood, "that through death he might destroy him that had the power of Death, that is the Devil." If any choose to refer poor Brooks's death to his visitation, rather than to those of the Heavenly Powers, why so be it. But we prefer to consider his death as a dispensation of Divine Providence, in the hands of Him, who says, (Rev. 1.) I am the first and the last—and have the keys of hell and of death!—We prefer not to refer it to infernal agency,—and we commend the thought to some of our editorial neighbors in this State and Maine, who gave us grave and sanctimonious talks, on the Deaths of Col. Barton and Rev. John Moore, whose departure they deemed to be special providences, testimonials of God's displeasure against certain political heresies.

Possibly, in the light of Brooks's case, they may see the folly of their remarks on Moore & Barton. If they do not, we do.

The Boston Telegraph says of Mr. Brooks: "If we mistake not, it will be found that the overwhelming weight of the public opinion of the civilized and Christian world has driven him to a life of excess, to which his early death must be directly attributed, and that it is no exaggeration or superstition to trace a direct connection between the crime against our Senator and the untimely and mournful end of his assailant." It is not unreasonable to conclude that a dissipated man would become more so, under such circumstances.

At all events, he has passed out of mortal sight—a fellow man—who was busy, earnest, passionate; loving and hating, assaulting and aiming to kill—but in a moment is motionless and lifeless—done with all things earthly—and leaving behind the lesson, What shadows we are, and what shadows we pursue.

Let us learn the lesson, and then forget the man, if possible.

SPEECH OF SAVAGE IN EULOGY OF BROOKS AND HIS ASSAULT ON MR. SUMNER.—Washington, Jan. 29.—The impudent speech, to-day, of Savage of Tennessee, on the death of Brooks, created quite a sensation in the House. He said, "the world has approved of the stabbing of Cæsar by Brutus in the Capitol, and so will after generations approve the act of Brooks in striking down Sumner in the Senate Chamber."

This outrageous language caused a large number of Representatives of the North to leave the House. The Massachusetts delegation, with the exception of Mr. DeWitt who was officious in the ceremonies, viewed the attempt to justify the assault on Mr. Sumner, on such an occasion, as an insult to them and to their State; and they declined to remain during the services which followed. A large number from other States followed their example.

Mr. Buchanan, who was present, remained in the House until after the procession left for the grave. He then held quite a levee. Hundreds were introduced to him.—Special Despatch to the Telegraph and Chronicle.

☞ Provincetown harbor is said to be now frozen over, entirely, for the first time.

☞ The seven Democratic members of the Pennsylvania Legislature, who voted for Henry D. Foster for U. S. Senator, have published a card giving their reasons for so doing. They stigmatize Mr. Buchanan's alleged interposition in favor of Mr. Forney, which they say they have satisfactory and overwhelming proof of, as "unwarrantable assumption of authority," and say that had it not been for that, they would have supported the caucus nominee.

☞ The reader will be interested, perhaps edified, in reading under the Congress head an account of Mr. Brooks's funeral honors;—in which Mr. Savage glorifies him as a hero for his cowardly assault in the Senate chamber; and in which the old Congress chaplain takes his text from the penitent thief. Any comment of ours would spoil the story.

LYNCH LAW IN ALABAMA.—The Spirit of the South, published at Eufaulia, Alabama, states that the negro Moses, who killed his master, Mr. Lindsay, of Henry County, was taken from jail and burned to death near Abbeville, Alabama, in presence of a large number of people. He made a confession of his guilt, and implicated a white man and negro as being connected with the murder.

☞ The decline in the value of the real estate in San Francisco, says the Shasta Courier, within the three years last past has been unparalleled. The proceeds of the late Folsom estate sales only amounted to about $340,000. Three years ago Folsom was offered for it the sum of two million of dollars—one million down, one on bond and mortgage at ten per cent. per annum.

☞ A good deal of trouble has been caused in Cincinnati, by the bursting of water pipes. One parlor carpet was found in the morning covered over an inch thick, with ice. The boys got their skates, and had a good time of it. In another house, a costly piano was found filled with ice.

☞ A farmer in California states that he has ploughed seventy-five acres this year, with a yoke of cows. He says they are faster walkers than oxen—that they give milk, and save the expense of keeping another team.

☞ Hon. Wm. Berry, State Treasurer, died at Concord, the 23d inst, after a short illness. He was about 60 years of age, and formerly lived in Barnstead. He was an honest and upright man, and a faithful public officer.

☞ In the Essex Common Pleas Court last week, Mrs. Copeland, of Salem, recovered $1643 damages for injuries sustained by stepping into an open drain in Gloucester on the evening of Nov. 28, 1855.

☞ The Newburyport Herald of Thursday morning says that Wm. S. Tuckerman, ex-treasurer of the Eastern Railroad, is very sick with fever, and that doubts are entertained of his recovery.

☞ On Sunday, the 18th, a number of the soldiers of Quebec, while on their way to church, had their faces frost-bitten; the thermometer was 30° below zero.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

This wonderful preparation is having an extensive sale in all parts of the Union. It is one of the few patent medicines which are now sold over the country, that are really what their inventors claim for them. Wherever it has had a fair trial, the result has been precisely as Wood predicts. It has never failed to turn the white hair back to the natural color, where the directions have been strictly followed, and in numerous cases it has restored the hair upon heads that had been bald for years. It is not pretended that it will make the hair grow in every case, but where it fails there is certainly no remedy. The restoration of the hair has been effected in so many instances where the case seemed utterly hopeless, that it is certainly worth while for those who have lost their hair to try the experiment of using a bottle or two of Wood's Restorative.—[Moline Workman.

THE GREAT DISCOVERY.

Many years ago, Doctor Burleigh Smart, of Kennebunk, Me., discovered that a simple article never before used as a medicine, was a never failing cure for coughs of every description, and was an excellent blood purifier. By its use in his private practice, he acquired the reputation of being the best physician in New England, for all diseases of the lungs. After his death, Messrs. Shaw & Clark of Biddeford, Me., obtained a Copy Right from Government, for its exclusive manufacture, and now have it carefully prepared strictly according to the original recipe. There is no cough but it will not cure, unless the patient is past all human aid, or has been guilty of some unpardonable sin! It is called "Doctor Burleigh Smart's Cough Medicine," and is for sale by all apothecaries. n27 TuTsSh 6m

TO NIAGARA.

BY WIDESWARTH.

Oh sheet of standard melody sublime!
My ravished ears drink in thy liquid notes:
A cherished anthem of the ancient time,
That, still unchanging, to far ages floats;
An "old folks concert" of undoubted age,
That fears no check of innovation's bars,
So perfect that no Vandal dare engage
To mend the song coeval with the stars?
In hearing of thy solemn monotone,
The universe with puseless awe might list,
Whilst I, struck dumb, hark to its strains alone,
And feel my wandering soul among the mist
That like an echo of the chorus grand,
Quavers responsive to the thrilling land.
At the Falls, Jan. 1857.

INFLUENCE OF TOBACCO ON THE BRAIN.—Mr. Solly, the eminent writer on the brain, says in a late clinical lecture on that frightful and formidable malady, softening the brain, "I would caution you, as students, from excesses in the use of tobacco and smoking, and I would advise you to disabuse your patients' minds of the idea that it is harmless. I have had a large experience of brain disease, and I am satisfied now that smoking is a most noxious habit. I know of no other cause or agent that tends so much to bring on functional disease, and through this in the end, to lead to organic diseases of the brain, as excessive use of tobacco."

A REFUGE FROM STRIFE.—I have all along been, says the late Dr. Chalmers, vastly too much disquieted by the misconstructions of those who did not comprehend me, and have suffered much, both from the fatigue of refuting and explaining the same thing a hundred times over, and from the vexation felt in finding that, in in spite of every effort, there is a character assigned to my views, the very reverse of every principle by which I am actuated. But why should the opposition of men thus affect me? Does it not test my belief in the reality of an all-perfect mind, that is now looking on when I suffer so painfully from the adverse understandings of the limited and subordinate minds by which I am surrounded? Would it not nobly accredit my faith in God, that in quiet communion with him I felt a refuge and a resting-place when sorely urged by the strife of tongues? To Him may I at all times patiently commit my cause, and be still in the thought that he is God. Let me consider Him, who endured, not merely the controversy of adverse wills—the contradiction of sinners—and let me not weary nor faint in my mind. "If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain."

THE MATERIAL VERSUS THE SPIRITUAL.—An afflicted female of Cambridge thus relates her sad experience to the Editor of the Chronicle, of that place:—

Will you oblige me by inserting this letter in the Chronicle. Perhaps through your means some one will aid me in my present trying difficulties. My husband has taken a 'spiritual partner,' and disowns me as his wife. Now, as I do not wish to be his servant or his housekeeper, to keep his wardrobe in exquisite order, that he may adorn himself for his spirit-bride, I wish to know if there is any law by which I can obtain a divorce. And if there is none, if I can apply to the Legislature for a new one to suit such aggravated cases as mine.

A few days since, a man was fined $640 in Bedford, Ind., for retailing spirituous liquors.

From their continued practice together, of the sterling old music; and the fact that the Instrumental portion of the Choir will be much heavier (and the number of Singers larger) than at their former Concerts—they can promise a more attractive entertainment even than those of last year, which were received with so much favor.

LOCAL.

MUSICAL, &c. — Parham's Ethiopian Troupe drew an audience which crammed the Temple, on Thursday evening, at 25 cents per ticket. Their entertainments are perhaps as good as the average of such;—but this was not nearly so good as the last years concert. The company has changed, and not improved; and exhibited neither extra fine performances in chorus or solo singing, nor originality or wit in their so-called jokes. We certainly have no reason to find fault with this Troupe—but we hope that those persons who consider a quarter too much to be asked for a concert ticket, will consider the fact that in this instance at least a thousand people found quarters to pay—for a concert, not of the first order, certainly.

The "Old Folks," Choir, with Lawrence's Orchestra, give a Concert at the Temple, to-morrow evening—the first Concert ever given there on a Sunday evening. A word for the Old Tunes will be found in another column, from the Journal. The Orchestra we have not heard; but Mr. Lawrence being leader, is guarantee of its efficiency. The old musical friends of Mr. and Mrs L. will be pleased to meet them once more in public.

This is probably the last chance to hear the "Old Folks" here, as the choir have no design of giving more concerts. They will sing in a neighboring town, during the continuance of the sleighing and the new moon.

The vocal programme commences with the beautifully-sublime "Song of the Old Folks," written by A. L., and now sung by special request. We republish it on our fourth page, with the improvement (if possible) or alteration of a few words by the author. The concert will close with Old Hundred, in which the whole audience will be invited to join.

PROMPT INSURANCE COMPANIES.—In less than thirty-six hours from the time fire was cried in our building, on Wednesday morning, our damage was adjusted and paid by the Insurance Company. Our policy was in the Howard Fire Ins. Co., of Lowell—of which Mr. John Sise is agent in this city; and Mr. J. W. Daniels, the gentlemanly Secretary of the Company, after examination of our premises, promptly cashed the amount allowed by the appraisers.

The Hartford Company, of which Mr. Sise is also agent, were no less prompt or accommodating in regard to their risk on the building; and on Thursday morning the joiners commenced their repairs.

FROM ZANTE.—Letters from Zante, Ionian Islands, of Dec. 20, 1856, state that there had been a good crop of currants, thanks to the remedy which had been discovered for the blight, with which the vines had been afflicted for three or four seasons past. This remedy was the application of powdered limestone to the vines at different stages of their growth, and until the full maturity of the fruit. The crop was estimated as follows: Cephalonia, 7 or 8,000,000 pounds; Zante, 9 or 10,000,000; Morea, (Greece) 25 or 30,000,000. Prices have varied very much. Cephalonia, $58 a 72 per 1000; Zante, 69 a 74—now 77 a 80 for what remains, about two millions. At Cephalonia and in Greece, no more remain for sale. The letter adds that "as the use of this sulphuric remedy will be upon a much greater scale for the ensuing season, we shall be expecting a far larger crop, and at much more moderate prices."

HOW TO TREAT YOUR GAS.—Mr. Cresse, of the gas department of Philadelphia, explains how people should treat their gas to obtain a supply when stopped by frost. "The meter and pipe coming through the out wall should be covered with a cloth, and hot water poured upon the cloth till it is well saturated. This melts the ice and leaves the pipe clear.

With the exception of a few miles in Virginia, there is now a connected line of railroad, all the way from Bangor, on the Penobscot, to Montgomery, on the Alabama; ere long, the chain will be extended to New Orleans, thence be carried westward, until it reaches the Pacific.

FROZEN TO DEATH.—An Irishman named Peter Whalon, was found frozen stiff on Monday morning, in the Northerly part of Westport. He had been employed in the Westport factory, and went to Fall River on Sunday for the purpose of attending the Catholic Church. On his return in the evening, it is supposed, he was overcome by the cold and was frozen to death. He was not addicted to intemperance.—New Bedford Standard.

MODEST.—A nice young lady was once asked the nearest way to her chamber. She replied, "Through the churchyard up to the Altar." The querist was so charmed that he traveled that road within a month.

WEBSTER'S DICTIONARY.

Uncle Toby has long rejoiced in the possession of Webster's Dictionary which was published in 1806, and looks old and dingy. But this week an excellently bound and well printed book was laid on his desk, lettered Webster's Counting House & Family Dictionary.

It contains over 500 pages, 3 columns on a page, and is thus truly described:—

The Vocabulary is pruned of obsolete and useless words, while important new ones lately received into the language are added, giving about 40,000 words, embracing those in common use. The vocabulary embraces many new words in science and art, not found in works heretofore published.

The Definitions are given with greater fullness than has ever been attempted in any abridgment of this size. Short descriptive phrases are used for this purpose, in respect to most of the important words.

Synonymous words arranged after such definitions in many hundreds of instances, in order to give a selection of terms to the writer.

A discrimination of synonymous words is given in numerous instances, embracing some thousands of terms, designed to point out the meaning of each, with the ground of the distinction clearly shown.

But its distinguishing excellence, as a Dictionary for the Counting House and Family, is first, its Tables of Money, Weight and Measure, of all the principal commercial countries of the World, our own included, as, of money, avoirdupois weight, apothecaries' weight, long measure, square measure, cube, cloth, wine, ale and beer, and dry measure, tables of distances, time, motion, &c., with translations.

Also, a table, giving the currency, rate of interest, penalty of usury, and laws in regard to collection of debts, in the several United States.

The whole being intended to form an abridged Dictionary adapted to general use, and especially to that of students in the higher classes of literary institutions, the Family and the Counting House.

It is published at New York by Mason Brothers; and at Springfield by G. & C. Merriam; and must prove a valuable contribution to American popular literature, as it is within the reach of all as to price.

ANOTHER OF THE BEAUTIES OF SLAVERY.—Joseph L. Blodgett, of Charlemont, furnishes the Greenfield Gazette, the particulars of his expulsion from the State of Florida, after being cruelly whipped. Mr. Blodgett had lived at Jacksonville and in its vicinity, since 1852. He says that in June last, a company of "Regulators," numbering about seventy men, was formed for the purpose of punishing such offenders as they saw fit. This band, Mr. Blodgett says, has already killed several men—one was whipped to death, one was shot dead, and others have been whipped and sent out of the State. On the 26th of December, Mr. B. was seized, taken to the woods, stripped of his clothes, and received eighty lashes from a raw hide upon his back. He was then forwarded to Savannah, and thence made his way to New York. Several citizens of Charlemont certify that the sores and scars on Mr. Blodgett's back are sufficient evidence of his having received a severe whipping, and other citizens testify to his good character, previous to his departure for the South. The offence charged against Mr. Blodgett by the "Regulators," was that he had said he had taught negroes to read.

SHOCKING.—The Buffalo Courier relates that while the mother of a family was out procuring some necessaries on Saturday afternoon, the father towards evening made some whiskey sling, which he drank freely himself and gave freely to their two children, who were four and two years of age, respectively. When they had become stupefied, he put them to bed on the floor, and left the house. When the mother returned, she found the youngest child standing near the stove crying, while the other was literally roasted to death in the burning bed, which had probably been set on fire by embers from the father's pipe.

FIRE IN WALTHAM.—A house owned and occupied by Bernard Kearnan, in Waltham, Mass., was burned on Tuesday morning about 1 o'clock. Insured for $1000, which will probably cover the loss. A clothing dealer in Waltham for whom Kearnan's family were at work, picked up a bundle of cloth, and as he went home tossed it into his store in Rumford Building. On opening his store in the morning, he found that the cloth was burning, and the fire had made its way through the floor of his store.—Boston Tel.

A London magistrate, recently fined a respectable woman £10, and in default of payment sent her to jail for three months, because she gave a good character to a dishonest domestic.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.
DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS FOR FEMALES,
Prepared by an old Physician of 40 years experience.
THE combination of ingredients in these Pills, is the result of a long and extensive practice; they are mild in their operation, and certain to restoring nature to its proper channel. In every instance have the Pills proved successful. They are certain to open those obstructions to which females are liable, and bring nature into its proper channel, whereby health is restored, and the pale and deathly countenance changed to a healthy one. No female can enjoy good health unless she is regular; and whenever an obstruction takes place, whether from exposure, cold, or any other cause, the general health immediately begins to decline, and the want of such a remedy has been the cause of so many consumptions among young females. Headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, loathing of food, and disturbed sleep, that most always arise from the interruption of nature; and whenever that is the case, the Pills will invariably remedy all these evils. In all cases of painful menstruation, or nervous and spinal affections in the back and limbs, lowness of spirits, hysterics, &c. Nor are they less efficacious in the cure of Leucorrhœa, commonly called the "Whites." These Pills should never be taken during pregnancy, as they would be sure to cause a miscarriage. Warranted purely Vegetable, and free from anything injurious to life or health. Full and explicit directions which should be read, accompany each box.
These Pills are put up in square, flat boxes.—Persons residing where there are no Agencies established, by enclosing One Dollar in a letter, prepaid, to DR. C. L. CHEESEMAN, Box No. 4,581, Post Office, New York City, can have them sent to their respective addresses by return mail.

SONG OF THE "OLD FOLKS."

TUNE—Auld Lang Syne.

Written by request, for the second "Old Folks Concert" at Portsmouth, N. H., Jan. 24, 1855.

BY ALBERT LAIGHTON.

"Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And never brought to min' ;
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And songs of auld lang syne ?
For auld lang syne we meet to-night,
For auld lang syne ;
To sing the songs our fathers sang
In days of auld lang syne.

We've passed thro' many varied scenes,
Since youth's unclouded day ;
And friends, and hopes, and happy dreams,
Time's hand hath swept away ;
And voices that once joined with ours,
In days of auld lang syne,
Are silent now, and blend no more
In strains of auld lang syne.

Yet ever has the light of song
Illumed our darkest hours ;
And cheered us on life's toilsome way,
And gemmed our path with flowers :
The sacred songs our fathers sang,
Dear songs of auld lang syne ;
The hallowed songs our fathers sang
In days of auld lang syne.

Here we have met—here we may part
Perhaps on earth no more ;
And we may never sing again
The songs of auld lang syne.

But when we've crossed the sea of life,
And reached the heavenly shore,
We'll sing the psalms our fathers sang
Transcending these of yore :
We'll meet to sing diviner strains
Than those of auld lang syne ;
Immortal songs of praise, unknown
In days of auld lang syne.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,

(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to procure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on Moderate terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—the novelty of other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantage for securing patents, not ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below give proof that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES, I claim to be the most successful. I have had abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate—The immense practice which the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I counsel the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any, persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none by which conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents.

From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the prosecution of business at the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

Arnold's Vital Fluid

PURIFIES and strengthens the blood by eradicating, through a slow chemical action, the causes of impurities and humors. Hence its power to cure humors that mere medicine cannot cure. Heavy layers of our Chemistry are thawing the blood. It furnishes to a certain extent, the element of which pure blood is composed. It eradicates and cleanses away whatever clogs and thickens the blood.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID

Renders the system strong and healthy, by freeing the blood and stomach from those deleterious materials. It nerves and vivifies the system, by furnishing the elements which give vitality.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID

Gives to the system an influence of effect similar to that produced by exercise in the open air. It exhilarates by strengthening the blood to brighter and better action—doing its work by beginning at the beginning. It is pleasant to the taste, and becomes a favorite wherever known.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID

Removes Biliousness in the most direct and easy manner, by neutralizing the acrimony in the principle of its action in removing illness generally. It neutralizes the cause, by freeing the blood from impediments to its proper fulfilment of its life-giving functions.

This principle of neutralizing the cause is why ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID CURES HUMORS that mere medicinal preparations cannot affect, and why it cures other diseases.

Resulting from Poisons in the Blood, that most medicinal preparations cannot affect. Mercury are poisons in the blood, and it is by their chemical action in neutralizing those poisons that ARNOLD'S GLOBULES are enabled to cure them so thoroughly and speedily.

VITAL FLUID 50 cents per bottle; GLOBULES 25 cents per box.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. FRAZIER & Co. are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another law, which the managers call the attention to, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The price of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Ternary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

of these Instruments have been finished and are now in use.

THE latest improvement in our Melodeons is the DIRECT SWELL, secured to us by Letters Patent 23d May, 1855.—By means of this Swell Solo Passages may be played with the full power of the instrument, while the Accompaniment is softly subdued.—Hereafter, all Melodeons made by us, will be furnished with this attachment without extra charge.

Extract from the Commercial Advertiser, July 27, '55.

"Messrs. Prince & Co. could realize a handsome fortune by disposing of rights to other manufacturers to use their new improvement; but as they prefer to make it a feature in their instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufacture."

It is now eight years since we commenced the manufacture of this new celebrated Musical Instrument, during which time we have finished and sold nearly NINETEEN THOUSAND. Voluntary testimonials to the excellence of our Instruments from the most distinguished Professors of Music in different parts of the United States have from time to time been received. Thus far we have made but little, and our advertisements were seldom seen for the reason that we could not supply the demand. We have lately erected one of the largest and most perfect Manufacturing Establishments in the United States, and we now think that we can fill orders promptly. We therefore give one testimonial we have received.

NEW YORK, 15th Oct., 1855.

"G. A. Prince & Co.: Gentlemen—The Double Reed Melodeon has arrived, and a most charming Instrument it is. It has been played on by Wallace, Dodworth, Hodges, Wm. Mason, and a host of others, and they all pronounce it very sweet and beautiful toned reed instruments they have ever touched. Very resp'ly. JAMES F. HALL."

We are not aware that the above mentioned Melodeon is in any particular way different from those we are daily finishing, and we can assure those who are inclined to favor us with their orders, that they will be furnished with an instrument equally as good. Our latest Melodeon just finished is Rosewood Cases, and the workmanship is of the very best quality. The styles and prices are—

Arnold's Vital Fluid

PURIFIES and strengthens the blood by eradicating, through a nice chemical action, the cause of impurities and humors. Hence its power to cure tumors that most defy the knife and cure. Hence its power of strengthening and vitalizing the blood. It furnishes to a certain extent, the element of life, from which blood is composed. It eradicates and cures away whatever clogs and thickens the blood.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID

renders the system strong and healthy, by freeing the blood and stomach from objectionable materials. It nerves and vivifies the system, by furnishing the elements which give vitality.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID

gives to the system an influence and effect similar to that produced by exercise in the free open air. It differs by strengthening the blood to brighter action—doing the work by beginning at the beginning. It is pleasant to the taste, and a favorite wherever known.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID

Biliousness in the most direct and easy way by neutralizing the cause. This is the effect of its action in removing illness generally—neutralizes the cause, by treating the blood—ridding it of impurities and obstructions to its proper fulfilment of its functions.

The principle of neutralizing the cause is why ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID CURES HUMORS where medicine cannot sensibly affect, and cures other diseases.

Suffering from Impurities in the Blood, where medicinal preparations cannot alleviate—humors are poisons in the blood, and it is by chemical action in neutralizing those poisons that are enabled to cure them so that they stay cured.

ARNOLD'S GLOBULES

Price 50 cents per bottle; GLOBULES 25 per box.

Sold by Seiler & Co., 1 Cornhill, General Agents. Wm. Potter, 154 Washington street, and Wm. Ware, 99 Union street, Wholesale Druggists. Redfield & Co., 11 City wharf, Special Agents. Boston.

MECHANICS' LYCEUM.

Lecture on Tuesday evening, by Rev. Lyman Whiting of this city. Subject: "The Use of Books." The profusion of books in this country and especially in New England, and their general distribution among all classes was spoken of as but a slight wonder compared with the process of transferring ideas, thoughts and knowledge contained in them, into other minds, so that the recipient of the thought or idea may catch it perhaps more clearly than it existed in the mind of the originator, yet which looses nothing by the record of its product. Not only one reader, but thousands may take from the printed page all its knowledge, reasoning and fancy, and yet nothing be really abstracted from it. Letters are unshapen sounds till the mind kindles meaning in them, so that like glowing phosphorences they become paths of light. Until letters, words and language take upon their wings or shoulders the fabrics of mind, thought can have no visible or sensible existence. Unlelped they are mere gleams that stream for a moment over the horizon, and perish as they go. In the hand of letters they are solidified into stars fixed for all time in this same horizon. A printed page! Simply lines of fragile types, which by combination, safely convey the ideas and thoughts of the past, the present and the future,—the royal records of Abram, and of Moses and David, of Herodotus, Homer, Plato—of Paul, and John, and Augustus, and of all that lordly host who have sown their imperishable thoughts upon the wayside of man's march through the ages! The world of books transports us back behind cosmogonies and mythologies, and lifts us to those summits whence we look off into the eternal Past and the eternal Future. Sinai, Pisgah, Olympus, Parnassus, Horeb, Calvary, the Sea of Edom and the Great Sea, compose the scenery of the reader's landscape.

The effects of reading upon the individual were considered. Every man's reading works itself more or less through his mind, into his daily life. Especially in youth will all books be absorbed and reenacted in the mind. Apt examples of the effect of nursery literature were given. The Catos and Hampdens and Cromwells were reproduced in the Adamses and Otises and Henrys of our revolution, and their triumphing compeers. Any person's life is much the books he reads, done over; rendered back again into deeds, and better portraying a prior life itself transported back into life.

Reading gives us an intimacy with the choicest minds of all ages, and sets patterns before us for the choicest character. The personal knowledge a thoughtful reader can gather of an author from a page or a chapter, is surprising. A knowledge of his range of talent, style, and mental capacity and depth, of his taste and genius,—all these qualities of mind are distinctly discerned by the reader, tho' it may not be conscious to him. You can frame a man, give him body and soul, and even countenance from the printed page. The 12th book of Milton's Paradise Lost supplies to a genius data for a portrait of the poet's private character.

A very touching personation of books was made by that eminent literary merchant, Wm. Roscoe, of Liverpool, on being obliged by misfortune in business to sell his valuable library. He took his leave of his books in an exquisite sonnet, penned as for consolation to himself and them:

"As one who destined from his friends to part,
Regrets his loss, but hopes again erewhile
To share their converse, and enjoy their smile,
And tempers as he may affliction's dart;
Thus, loved associates, chiefs of older art—
Teachers of wisdom, who could once beguile
My tedious hours, and lighten every toil:
I now resign you, not with fainting heart,
For pass a few short years, or days, or hours,
And happier seasons shall their dawn unfold,
And all your sacred fellowship restore—
When freed from earth, unlimited its powers,
Mind shall with mind direct communion hold,
And kindred spirits meet to part no more."

The speaker then proceeded to consider reading as a means of education—how it promotes memory, and chastens imagination and regulates taste, and perception, and brings man to judge accurately of all things. The discovery of how much one mind and one generation is indebted to another, and how little really original power any single mind possesses is most surprising. The most signal success is generally the result of a skillful copy of a rare model, which in turn, wisely chose its own model. But here and there rises a mind which in a sense thinks for a generation, as Plato or Aristotle in Science and Philosophy, Luther and Calvin in Biblical literature, Addison and his compeers in belles lettres, but they have all been displaced as standards by the general progress of mind in their several spheres, and the corresponding advance of the popular standards. Perhaps no man has furnished the English mind with so many favorite phrases and treasured maxims as Edmund Burke. Many of these are now mere wearisome commonplaces; but the generations since his day have by no means exhausted the originality and strength of his pen. Franklin and Webster, each in a measure did the same thing. Such men are great educators; the millions are their pupils. Cowper's exquisite picture of the "Preacher such as Paul," is only a superior version of Dryden's "Country Parson," and that in turn is a poor imitation of Chaucer's "Parrish Preste as he sholde be."

The lecturer would especially address the young, or portion of his audience when he desired them to aspire to be readers. Learn to long for books.—Never let a book escape your eye if in the reach of your hand. Somebody lies under the covers and may have a treasure for you if you enter. Dr. Johnson said, "Anything which had come to printing and binding deserved to be looked through." It may indeed be but a mere sarcophagus—too for an inconsiderate pigmy, never a man Barnum made a fortune by—may not you do?

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 185...

CRIME IN NEWBURYPORT.—The police records for 1856 show very little difference in the aggregate results, from those of 1855. The whole number of cases before the Police Court was 431. They were as follows:

Drunkenness,	125
Common Drunkards,	71
Assaults,	100
Larceny,	32
Violating Ordinances,	12
Violating the Liquor Law,	6
False pretences,	2
Disobedient children,	12
Vagrants,	9
Adultery,	6
Malicious Mischief,	8
Burglary,	4
Violating Sunday Law,	10
Various other offences,	34

Here is a great deal of mischief for so small a place as this, and the cause of the principal part of it is very apparent—free rum. We have 202 cases, in drunkenness, common drunkards, and violations of the liquor law, directly from rum; then one half of the remainder, to speak moderately—assaults, disobedience, vagrancy, violation of Sunday laws, &c.—is from the same cause; so that the necessity of a Police Court, a City Marshal, with a day and night guard, a watch-house, &c., springs from rum-selling and rum-drinking. We could show from an examination of the inmates of the almshouse, that the same was true of pauperism.—Newburyport Herald.

The cause is too manifest to admit of a question; the remedy is total abstinence, for each individual;—the pledge and temperance fashions, for the social circle;—and the execution of the law of Massachusetts, in Newburyport, for the public safety, and for true economy. They need no new law there; they need not the repeal of any present law,—but the honest enforcement of the present.

SINGULAR DEATH.—Mr. John M. Bean, aged 28 years, formerly of Nottingham, N. H., and of late a partner with Mr. George A. Fernald, (formerly of Portsmouth) in the lumbering and saw-mill business, near Cincinnati, Ohio, was killed in a very singular manner, a few weeks since. The two young men were felling trees, and had cut down a very large oak—which in its fall caught a limb in the fork of a smaller hickory tree standing near. The hickory was bent down considerably, and the branch torn off from the oak and left in the crotch or fork where it caught. The sudden springing up of the hickory, as it righted, threw the branch (which probably weighed six hundred pounds) about one hundred and thirty-eight feet, in the direction of the young men.

Mr. Fernald did not see the limb, but on being warned by Mr. Bean that a limb was coming, he ran ahead, towards the limb, and it passed over his head. Mr. B. turned, and ran the other way, from the limb—but it overtook him, and struck the back of his head with terrible force—so that he was insensible thereafter, and died next morning. He was a young man of much promise, and his early death is deeply lamented by many. His body was brought home to Nottingham for burial.

☞ Governor Allston, of South Carolina, has commuted the sentence of death lately passed upon Darling Beam, at Fairfield, for negro stealing, to imprisonment for one year, and ten years' banishment from the State. The petition for commutation was signed by the owner of the slave, the jury, and a large number of the prominent inhabitants of Fairfield. The petition sets forth an entire lack of capacity on the part of Beam, he being a very ignorant and simple-minded man. From the character of the parties; it seems doubtful whether Beam stole the slave (a negress) or was himself her dupe.

☞ Thomas Murphy, an Irishman, living in Chicopee, so exposed himself on Friday night, Jan. 23,—one of the coldest nights of the season—that he died on Monday evening. He was an intemperate man, and on that night got out of bed, jumped through the window, crossed the Connecticut river, bare-foot and bare-headed, and was absent about two hours.

☞ In a town in Orange county, N. Y., are living a man and his wife who have not spoken together for eight years. They sleep in one bed, take their meals at the same table, and show not the slightest anger to each other. The only reason for their obstinate silence is that each is too proud to speak first.

☞ A mother and four daughters, all ...ks in Northampton, have, ...ed the year ... Two moth... ...s of her dau...

☞ E. B. Kelley, a well known veteran and native of Norwich, Conn., died in that city on the 14th instant, aged 74 years. Few men ever passed a more romantic life. From his early boyhood he was a sailor, and there are not many seaports on the globe that he was not familiar with, and no commercial language that he had not at least a smattering of. For seven years he was a slave in Tripoli. In his prime he was a man of herculean strength.

SUDDEN DEATH.—On Thursday morning, Mr. William Wait, an old resident of Malden, was found dead in his bed. He retired the evening before in perfect health, and his wife says he manifested no signs of distress during the night. His death was not discovered until the hour for breakfast, when his wife endeavored to wake him, and found life was extinct, though the body was still warm. Mr. Wait was above 70 years of age, and an excellent man, greatly respected and beloved.

☞ The New York Observer is out on what it calls the mob of novels that have flooded the country within the last three years or so, mostly written by women. It has been lately told that the demand for these books and their sale has almost ceased, and thinks the fact should encourage the ladies to stop. "Go out washing," it says to them, "take in sewing, attend to the children, nurse the sick, do anything honest and useful, but do stop writing wishy-washy, namby-pamby, milk and water, sentimental love stories."

A COMPLIMENT.—The Concord, N. H., Democratic Standard says:

It would seem that the advocates of the Maine Liquor Law are hypocrites everywhere.

This is very important, if true; because it follows that no honest man, no temperance men, no christians are to be found anywhere, except in the ranks of those who oppose the law, or are indifferent or neutral.

☞ Gov. Newell, of New Jersey, walked from his residence at Allentown to Trenton, twelve miles, through the snow on Tuesday morning, before his inauguration, the road being impassable by teams. He was accompanied in his laborious journey through the drifts by a candidate for the Attorney Generalship.

☞ At Stillwater, Minnesota, Rev. A. G. Nelson, Methodist minister, broke down in his Sunday morning sermon, and was so confounded by the awkward and unaccountable dilemma, that he dismissed his congregation and ran home. He got there just in time to save his house from destruction by fire, which was well under way.—So say the papers.

☞ Ship James Buchanan, (of Portsmouth,) Burdick, from Liverpool for Mobile, before reported ashore at Dungarvan, it is thought will prove a total wreck. The cargo (salt) is all gone, and the ship has a rock through her bottom. Men are engaged in stripping the ship and saving the materials.

DESERTERS CAPTURED.—Two men who deserted from the Ohio on Sunday night last, have been captured at a groggery near the navy yard gate, Charlestown, and returned to their old quarters. That's one of the benefits of the groggery.

☞ The Intelligencer says of the President's last levee, that it was the most successful one held for four years, everything passing off well, especially the hats and shawls in the ante-room.

☞ Fine sense and exalted sense are not half so valuable as common sense. There are forty men of sense for one man of wit; and he that will carry nothing about with him but gold, will be at a loss every day for ready change.

☞ Judge Russel of New York is dealing summarily with the "garroters."—Friday he sentenced one to the State Prison for life and another to twelve years' imprisonment.

☞ Dr. Nathaniel Wheet, an aged and highly respected physician of Manchester, N. H., died on the 25th inst. While in active life he was prominent in religions and reformatory movements.

☞ The Rev. Charles E. Lord, formerly of Niles, Mich., (a nephew of President Lord, but eschewing his slavery proclivities) has accepted a unanimous call to the church in Mt. Vernon, N. H., and will be installed on Wednesday, Feb. 11. Sermon on the occasion, by Dr. Cleveland of Lowell.

☞ Six or seven hundred recruits have ...ed ... ...ing to ...

☞ Emigration to California has very much declined. In the last year there were 28,000 arrived in San Francisco and 22,000 left, showing but a trifling excess of 5000; and in the last six months of the year there were about 1000 more departures than arrivals.

SOUTHERN EMIGRATION.—According to the Memphis Bulletin, an immense emigration is going on from the older slave States to Arkansas and Texas. Two or three ferry boats are constantly occupied in ferrying them over the river at Memphis, and often thirty or forty wagons are left behind, encamped on the Bluffs. The emigration is mostly from Virginia, the Carolinas, Georgia, Alabama, and Tennessee, and is destined to Arkansas and Texas.—These States are the natural receptacles of emigration from the older Slave States;—and if left to flow in its natural channel, this emigration will settle there. The attempt to turn it North to Kansas is up hill business. By the way, we see some Southern papers threaten a large emigration to Kansas in the spring.

NOBLE DEEDS.—Peter Falcon, of Cohasset, during the late terrible storms, saved the lives of eleven ship-wrecked seamen. Although strongly urged not to leave the shore, he fastened his life preservers upon his knees and went upon the ice, upwards of a quarter of a mile to the bark New Empire and ship California, wrecked on the coast, and rescued the lives of eleven men.

Alfred H. P. Edwards, son of Ex-Gov. Edwards of Connecticut, and a descendant of old Jonathan Edwards, died suddenly in New York, a few days ago of disease of the heart, leaving a fortune of several hundred thousand dollars. He married last June, a daughter of George N. Griswold, and leaves his estate to her and child, if any; if not, to her and his brothers and sisters. Mrs. Worthington Hooker of New Haven is among the latter.

On the last night of December, Mr. John Cox, one of the oldest settlers in Ohio, after his family had gone to bed, was warming himself in his night clothes, at Mesopotamia, when they took fire, and he was burnt so badly as to cause his death. He was 84 years old, and leaves a wife 85 years old, and numerous descendants.

☞ The Gloucester Telegraph is mistaken in saying that the ship California, wrecked last week, was the vessel in which R. H. Dana, Jr., made his voyage of "Two Years before the Mast." Mr. Dana went out in the brig Pilgrim and returned in the ship Alert. The California was on the coast while he was there, and is frequently mentioned by him in his book.—Salem Reg.

AYER'S AMERICAN ALMANAC is now ready for delivery at William R. Preston's, who is supplied with it by the publisher for distribution gratis to all who call for it.—It contains about the richest collection of anecdotes we know of—a calendar accurately calculated for this meridian and found reliable, besides a large amount of valuable medical information which should be in the possession of every family. This little manual has become a welcome visitor to the fireside of the American people,—and not to them alone, for its numbers are freely circulated in almost every civilized country under the sun. It is published in the English, French, Spanish and German languages, with calendars adapted to every meridian of the Northern hemisphere. Over twenty-seven hundred thousand copies were issued last year, which is doubtless the largest edition of any one book in the world. Our readers are respectfully invited to call and get a copy, and when got, keep it.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

This wonderful preparation is having an extensive sale in all parts of the Union. It is one of the few patent medicines which are now sold over the country, that are really what they are represented to be for them. Wherever it has had a fair trial, the result has been precisely as Wood predicts. It has never failed to turn the white hair back to the natural color, where the directions have been strictly followed, and in numerous cases it has restored the hair upon heads that had been bald for years. It is not pretended that it will make the hair grow in every case, but where it fails there is certainly no remedy. The restoration of the hair has been effected in so many instances where the case seemed utterly hopeless, that it is certainly worth while for all who have lost their hair to try the experiment of using a bottle or two of Wood's Restorative.—[Moline Workman.

THE GREAT DISCOVERY.

Many years ago, Doctor Burleigh Smart, of Kennebunk, Me., discovered that a simple article never before used as a medicine, was a never failing cure for coughs of every description, and an excellent blood purifier. By its use in his private practice, he acquired the reputation of being the best physician in New England, for all diseases of the lungs. After his death, Messrs. Shaw & Clark of Biddeford, Me., obtained a Copy Right from Government, for its exclusive manufacture, and now have it carefully prepared strictly according to the original recipe. There is no cough but it will not cure, unless the patient is past all his ...man aid before commencing its use! It is called "Doctor Burleigh Smart's Cough Medicine," and is for sale by all apothecaries. ow22 TuTh3m

HEALTH AND STRENGTH.

☞ Dr. S. O. RICHARDSON'S SHERRY WINE BITTERS is the best Medicine ever used for Summer Complaints. It has been more liberally patronized than any other ever established in this country. It is the same Richardson's Bitters which has restored so many invalids to health throughout New England during the past thirty years.

N. B.—Beware of imitations called Sherry Wine Bitters. The genuine have a fac simile of signature upon the outer envelope. For sale by druggists everywhere, and at my office, ...anover St., Boston. ...

...Portsmouth, J. H. THACHER. ...

☞ The reader will be interested, perhaps edified, in reading under the Congress head an account of Mr. Brooks's funeral honors;—in which Mr. Savage glorifies him as a hero for his cowardly assault in the Senate chamber; and in which the old Congress chaplain takes his text from the penitent thief. Any comment of ours would spoil the story.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—The Corruption Committee.—Owing to the non-arrival of witnesses living far distant from Washington, the corruption committee will not be able to make their report as soon as was anticipated, probably not for ten days.

The Senate went into executive session to-day, by one majority, upon the nomination of Mr. Harrison, as Judge of Kansas Territory, in place of Judge Lecompte, and adjourned after three hour's warm debate, without taking the question. It is thought Harrison cannot be confirmed, or that if if he is, the vote will be remarkably close.

The House Committee on the Judiciary have resolved that Judge Watrous of Texas shall be impeached for high crimes. This is the first impeachment of a Federal Judge for twenty years. The Committee will report on the first opportunity.

Dr. Jacoby's Establishment,

FOR THE TREATMENT THE OF SKIN, AND THE RESTORATION OF THE HAIR, No. 2 TREMONT STREET, BOSTON. Dr. JACOBY invites the attention of persons subject to diseases of the skin mentioned in the profuse loss of the hair, or persons who are already bald, to his establishment, where a remedy can in most cases be found under his Mineral treatment. He cannot, in this connection, warn persons too strongly against the use of greasy substances, or those deleterious washes commonly composed of castor oil and alcohol, which are at once so fatal to the hair and skin. In many cases, the loss of the hair proceeds from these circumstances:—The system expels through the pores of the skin a certain quantity of animal matter; if this is suffered to remain, the pores become clogged up, and consequently the health of the hair is impaired. Now, to add to these animal secretions, greasy substances, particularly one so vicious and gummy as castor oil, is of course to increase the evil. Cleanliness is the first law of nature. The animal deposits must be removed, the skin kept free from all fatty matter, and the pores kept open. Let this be done and in nine cases out of ten there will be no trouble with the hair. In cases where disease of the skin have been contracted by a long neglect of these rules, a mineral treatment is necessary to restore the skin to a healthful and natural condition. Dr. JACOBY will be happy to give to any person calling on him a more extended explanation of the whole theory of such diseases and their treatment, founded upon the immutable laws of natural science. The appended certificate is only one of a large number from other sources, testifying to the efficacy of his Mineral Washes as a remedy for baldness.

This is to certify that I have had an article called the Berlin Hair Wash, applied during the last five or six weeks, to my head, for the purpose of renewing and strengthening the hair. It has been very effective in producing such a result; and I can cheerfully recommend the same to those afflicted with baldness or diseases of the hair.

JONAS CHICKERING.

Dr. JACOBY would also call the attention of the public to his celebrated MINERAL HAIR DYE, which will be found, on trial, to possess no caustic, not any Dye ever discovered, or now in use. The majority of the usual Hair Dyes are composed of nitrate of silver, which is a powerful caustic, not only sure to injure the skin and burn the hair, but producing green, pink and metallic tints in its coloring. Dr. Jacoby's Hair Dye, although deprived from metallic ingredients, has nitrate of silver metal nor acid. It will produce any tint from the highest brown to the deepest black, and perfectly imitate the natural color of the hair. It will also soften the texture of the hair. It will in no case stain, burn, nor in any way injure the skin. Any person can test its its capabilities by a single trial. The most entire and perfect satisfaction is guaranteed for it.

The appended certificate from Dr. Charles T. Jackson will testify to its efficacy:—

Boston, Nov. 18, 1851.

I have seen Dr. M. Jacoby's Hair Dye used in coloring hair of deep brownish black of a beautiful natural color, and can certify that it is perfectly efficient and permanent.

HAD 'EM AT LAST.—A young man from the "rural districts" went to the post office the other day, with a bank note, for a dollar's worth of postage stamps. He was told that paper money was not received.—He went away and shortly returned with four Spanish quarters. "We don't receive them now" said the attendant, "for more than twenty cents apiece." The countryman thought Uncle Sam was mighty particular, so he went away again and obtained a dollar in coppers. "Now," said he, on returning to the office, and laying down his "pile" at the window of the delivery. "I guess I can suit ye." The man inside looked at the display of "specie currency," and coolly said, "We never take more than three cents in coppers at any one time—it is not legal tender above that sum."

The countryman looked at the composed official for the space of a minute and a half without stirring; and then he belched out, "Look here, you; ain't you almighty kind of particular, for fellers locked up in such a jail as this ere? You don' take only three cents in coppers at a cime, hey?—Well, then, s'pose you give me three cents' worth of stamps, anyhow." The official very politely cut him off a single stamp, and passed it out, for which the countryman laid down three cents. He was about to pass away, when the latter cried out "Look here, you! Hold on! That 'ere's one time. Now s'pose you gin me three cents worth more on 'em."

Uncle Sam's clerk was not slow in discovering that he had caught a tartar. He turned back to the window. "How many coppers have you got?" he asked. "Wall, only about ninety-seven of 'em; I had a hundred on 'em when I begun." "Pass 'em in," was the gruff reply. "Pass out your stamps fust, and then I will," said Jonathan, "but I reckon you don't ketch me agin." The stamps were passed out, and the coppers were handed over, when the countryman went off saying, "I 'spose because a feller holds office under Uncle Sam he thinks he's smarter'n all creation; but I guess they larnt somethin' that time."—Lowell News.

THE CALIFORNIA'S CREW.—Capt. Greenleaf and the Irishman, who were on board the California, when she blew out of this harbor during the gale, arrived home on Monday afternoon. Capt. G. states that the ship struck on the rocks about six o'clock, being about twelve hours in crossing the Bay. They succeeded in getting on a ledge of rocks, soon after, and remained there till they were taken off. They suffered exceedingly from cold and wet, and it was only through extreme exertions that they kept alive. They made a rope fast to a plank and dragged it around the ledge, to give themselves exercise. The black man was considerably frostbitten. After they had landed, they obtained nothing to eat except what they procured from the Irish in the neighborhood, and Capt. G. had his pocket picked of his wallet. He does not speak very highly of the hospitality of the people in that quarter.—Gloucester Telegraph.

NEW YORK, Jan. 30.—Richmond and Norfolk papers give details of disasters of recent storms. At Norfolk, snow commenced falling on Saturday evening and continued till Monday morning, accompanied nearly the whole time, by a tremendous gale. Considerable damage was done in the city, and the harbor was frozen over so firmly that people passed in crowds over to Portsmouth. The cold was the most intense ever known in that region.

There had been no communication by the roads with Petersburg, but telegraphic despatches state that 19 persons had been frozen to death in that city since Saturday. Among them were Dr. Jos. E. Cox and his nephew R. C. Traylor.

The schooner Times, which left Norfolk, 17th, for New York, went ashore same night, at Lynnhaven Beach. The captain and cook were frozen to death.

LIGHT SHIPS ON THE COAST.—The drifting of the light ships between here and New York, from their stations, would be of immense importance to mariners, but for the fact that navigation on this route, is for the present, suspended. The light ship off Stratford, Ct., disappeared on Saturday. It is not known whether she drifted off or was cut down by the ice and sunk. There were seven men on board of her. The light ship off Cornfield Point, near Saybrook, parted her moorings on Saturday morning, and could be seen during the day drifting away with a field of ice, driven by the tide, with signals of distress set. It is hoped she may be reached by some vessel, passing through the Sound, as it is impossible to render her any aid from on shore. Her crew consisted of seven men.—Traveller.

DISEASES OF THE SCALP.—There is no disease so widely prevalent as those affections of the skin which manifest their existence and progress in the decrease, rapid or gradual, of the hair. To all persons thus affected, we commend a perusal of the advertisement, in another column, of Dr. M. Jacoby's establishment, in the Tremont Temple, Boston, for the treatment of all diseases of the skin, and more particularly those which produce baldness. By reference to the advertisement, it will be seen that Dr. Jacoby is in possession of a certificate from the lately deceased Jonas Chickering, testifying to the efficacy of his treatment on Mr. Chickering's name, in this connection, will have more weight with the public, than any statement or opinion of ours, however favorable to the skill and experience of Dr. Jacoby.

Dr. Jacoby has invented a hair dye, which bears the imprimatur of Dr. Charles Jackson, Massachusetts State Assayer, and which we can pronounce, from personal observation of its operation, to be the very best article of the kind in use.—Commonwealth.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.

SENATE.—The consideration of Mr. Houston's resolution, touching descriptions from the navy, was resumed, and again postponed.

After the transaction of some unimportant business, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—The consideration of the private calendar occupied the attention of the House during the whole session. Adjourned.

REMARKABLE BIRTHS.—We find the following article in the Salem Gazette of Friday, communicated by Dr. George Osgood of Danvers, who has been a regular physician in that town for upwards of half a century, having been licensed by the Massachusetts Medical Society in the year 1804:

Mrs. Fitz Gerald of Danvers, Jan. 15th, gave birth to three male children; the weight of each was as follows, 6 1-2 pounds, 6 do., 5 1-2 do. They are this day, Jan. 20th, all well and to all appearance in good health, and with as good a chance to live as any other infants. The mother is as well as could be expected. The mother of these three children, within four years has given birth to two children at single births, twins, and now the triplets abovementioned, making in all seven children in four years. Twins are of no uncommon occurrence, but trines or triplets are of rare occurrence. In the beginning of the present century, a lady in Hamilton, in this county, by the name of Brown, was the mother of three sons, who all lived to be grown up young men, and may be now living. In Salem, another matron had triplets within a few years, and I have heard of another case in Essex. The writer of this communication has lived in Danvers over half a century and had his proportion of practice in his profession, but never had a case of triplets or trines before. Neither does he remember of hearing of such an event in the town.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE celebrated machines are in practical and profitable use in all parts of the civilized world. In all the various trades, and in sewing every sort of fabric, either of cloth or leather, they have been fully tried and approved. Sewing machines of other manufacturers often fail to work, but SINGER'S MACHINES being strong, durable and complete in contrivance and workmanship. A perfect sewing machine kept employed affords a clear profit of $1000 a year; but an imperfect one is a cause of constant vexation and loss. The entire RELIABILITY of our machines is one great reason for their unparalleled popularity.

ALWAYS OPERATE PERFECTLY,

MACHINES FOR FAMILY SEWING, of a frail and delicate construction, are recommended by other manufacturers. Such machines are made to catch the eye, not to herform substantial work. The truth is, family sewing machines ought to be stronger than any other, because they go into less skilful hands than when sold to manufacturers, and are used for a greater variety of work. The machines which have proved best for all other purposes must be best for family use, and they are Singer's. The speed of our machines has lately been doubled. No other can compare with them in quantity of work.

☞ New machines of the latest improved style will be exchanged on liberal terms for old sewing machines of our own make, or for operative machines of other manufacturers. Local agents wanted to sell our machines.

N B.—All persons desiring full information about sewing machines, can obtain it by applying for a copy of "I. M. Singer & Co.'s Gazette," a paper devoted entirely to the subject. It will be sent gratis. I. M. SINGER & CO.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.

DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS FOR FEMALES,

Prepared by an old Physician of 40 years experience.

THE combination of ingredients in these Pills, is the result of a long and extensive practice; they are mild in their operation, and certain to restoring nature to its proper channel. In every instance have the Pills proved successful. They are certain to open those obstructions to which females are liable, and bring nature into its proper channel, whereby health is restored, and the pale and deathly countenance changed to a healthy one. No female can enjoy good health unless she is regular; and whenever an obstruction takes place, whether from exposure, cold, or any other cause, the general health immediately begins to decline, and the want of such a remedy has been the cause of so many consumptions among young females. Headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, loathing of food, and disturbed sleep, the most always arise from the interruption of nature; and whenever that is the case, the Pills will invariably remedy all these evils. In all cases of painful menstruation, or nervous and spinal affections in the back and limbs, lowness of spirits, hysterics, &c. Nor are they less efficacious in the cure of Leucorrhœa, commonly called the "Whites." These Pills should never be taken during pregnancy, as they would be sure to cause a miscarriage. Warranted purely Vegetable, and free from anything injurious to life or health. Full and explicit directions which should be read, accompany each box.

These Pills are put up in square, flat boxes.—Persons residing where there are no Agencies established, by enclosing One Dollar in a letter, prepaid, to Dr. C. L. Cheeseman, Box No. 4,581, Post Office, New York City, can have them sent to their respective addresses by return of mail.

ion from bloody, cruel conquest or accidental occupancy, no tainted pedigrees or royal dishonesty displaying and dishonoring the record. The story is clear, lucid and authentic. The founders of our country in the light of conscience, did from principle what former ancestries did from base and often inhuman motives. An American youth, not familiar with his native country's blameless history, derives another name than American.

After American, seek the history nearest in kindred—England, France, the northern peoples and Teutonic tribes, then the nations of Asiatic origin, and so by system, in a little time, the globe of history can be circumnavigated. Do so in all reading. "Pursue a system." Read every book as in a class; then you know where to find everything when you need it.

Poetry, that life-blood of all literature, invites the careful selection. For genuine poetry, John Milton is the poet for the English mind. In idiom, in force, in genuine and essential genius, beauty and morals, he can be less easily spared than any other English poet, always excepting the great dramatist, who is a world by himself. Pope lacks in soul and truth, a chief essential of any true genius. Gray, Thompson and Young are slowly merging into classics which no true scholar will neglect. Wordsworth, Coleridge, Byron, Southey, and their lesser compeers, sorrowfully subdued themselves to schools or systems, and by so much lost the high rank their genius would have given them. Sir Walter Scott and Mrs. Hemans, in a measure, escaped that misfortune. Their verses are a thousand times to be preferred to the tawdry flippancies and magazine flutterings, which is most of the poetry many persons now care anything about. Of the modern poets, Tennyson charms by a curiously delicate and shy meaning; Mrs. Browning, like a Madonna, courses mid-sky, till awe and longing fill you to see her descend to the sphere of common morals.—The cultivated and Ganymede-like Longfellow—

'Whose songs gushed from his heart
As showers from the clouds of summer;
Who through long days of labor,
And nights devoid of care,
Still heard in his soul the music
Of wonderful melodies.'

Dana, the rapt philosophic bard, songful, like Dante, on themes deeper and awful; Bryant, cooling his fervid strains in the mountain brooks and breezes; Willis, the poet of the gold-headed cane and scented snuff-box, picking out dainty columns of bijoutry as he strolls along Broadway or canters about Idlewild; Whittier, the heroic and acutely vehement lyrist, on what Horace Walpole 70 years ago, teasingly called 'Hannah More's black-assality—showing a touch of ebony and a shade of cant, each freedom-throbbing song;' and not forgiven by myself shall he be," remarked the lecturer, "if I omit to mention the engaging authorship on the Piscataqua's banks, which in delicacy, beauty and purity of style and thought, if not in force and moral aim, is rapidly inviting the gratitude of the times."

The subject of prose literature was then dwelt on with a nice discrimination, and this highly interesting and eloquent lecture was concluded with an appeal in behalf of the claims of reading as a spiritual exercise, elevating in its effects upon the highest moral and religious natures.

We have presented a brief and very imperfect sketch of the main ideas of this lecture, which we cannot too highly recommend to lyceum committees and societies who, in the present dearth of valuable lectures, are put to the extreme of their wits to keep up with the popular taste. Mr. Whiting is a graceful and pleasing orator, and we envy not the taste and mental condition of that audience which is not attracted both by his manner and matter.

Alfred-the-Great Bunn is lecturing on America, and John Bull, in Edinburg. Bunn was in this country about three months; half that time he was in bed an invalid, consequently he knows all about America. "Great country, sir."

Bunn's acquaintance with America was probably of a spiritual kind. We come to this conclusion from his large brandy bill the Portsmouth Lyceum paid for the day he passed in Portsmouth and lectured at the Cameneum.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1836.)

No. 75 State st, opp. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to ascertain the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and other official documents relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, enable him, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

August 17, 1850.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. FRENCH & Co. are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commission issued by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner; and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day at Baltimore, and if no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets, however, are sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan, and Tertary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

Prince & Co.'s Improved Melodeons.

THE OLDEST ESTABLISHMENT IN THE U.S.
Employing Two Hundred Men,
and finishing

Eighty Instruments per Week.

BETWEEN 18,000 AND 19,000 of these instruments have been finished and are now in use.

THE latest improvement in our Melodeons is the DIVIDED SWELL, secured to us by Letters Patent 22d May, 1855.—By means of this Swell Solo Passages may be played the full power of the instrument, while the Accompaniment is soft and subdued.—Heretofore, all Melodeons made by us, will be furnished with this attachment without extra charge.

Extract from a Musical Critique, Jan. 1855.

"Messrs. Prince & Co could realize a handsome fortune by disposing of rights to other manufacturers to use their new improvement; but as they prefer to make it a feature in their instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufacture."

It is now eight years since we commenced the manufacture of the new octave Musical Instrument, during which time we have finished and sold nearly NINETEEN THOUSAND. Voluntary testimonials to the excellence of our instruments, from the Leading Professors of Music in different parts of the United States, have from time to time been received. Thus far we have said but little, and our advertisements were seldom seen for the reason that we could not supply the demand. We have lately erected one of the largest and most perfect Manufacturing Establishments in the United States, and we now think that we can fill orders promptly. We therefore give one testimonial we have received.

NEW YORK, 15th Oct., 1855.

"G. A. Prince & Co.: Gentlemen—The Double Reed Melodeon has arrived, and a most charming instrument it is. It has been played on by Wallace, Dodt, Hodges, Wm. Mason, and a host of other celebrated performers, and pronounced the most beautiful toned reed instruments they have ever touched. Very really, JAMES E. HALL."

We are not aware that the above mentioned Melodeon is in any particular respect, or those we are daily finishing, and we can assure those who are inclined to favor us with their orders, that they will be furnished with an instrument equally as good. Our Instruments are finished in Rosewood Cases, and the workmanship is of the very best quality. The styles and prices are—

Four octave Melodeon, from C to C	.....	$45
Four and a half octave, " C to F	.....	90

RAILROAD UNION.

We give place to the following communication, on the proposed union of two railroads, because we think both sides should have a hearing.

We do not profess to understand the merits of the controversy, but we see no reason why the stockholders should not protect their interests, if they can, and as well as they can.

If the public has any adverse interest,—or if Portsmouth, or Manchester has any,—by all means let them defend theirs, and exhibit their strong reasons.—If any one will answer, as briefly and plainly as "A Stockholder" writes, we will give him a place.

For the Chronicle.

MANCHESTER & LAWRENCE AND CONCORD RAILROADS.

There have been efforts made by the stockholders of the Manchester & Lawrence and Concord Railroads to unite them and make them one interest. Application was made to the Legislature in 1855 by many of the stockholders of both Roads for this purpose, but it was opposed by the citizens of Manchester and the overgrown corporations of that city, mainly upon the ground that thereby the public good would be jeopardized. Now let us look and see who the persons are who opposed the union.

They were the agents of these corporations, their feed attornies, and such individuals, owning no stock in either of the Roads, as could be induced from mere personal and local considerations to lend their aid to defeat the measure. An agent of these corporations, whose yearly salary it is said is ten thousand dollars a year, found time to be present during most of the hearing before the Committee of the Legislature of the years 1855 and 1856. He Justified that his corporation paid one attorney three hundred dollars for services during the session of 1855. This agent represents a corporation whose very existence depends upon special legislation, yet he comes before them in this instance as the special advocate of the Public Good!!

If the roads can be used by this agent or corporation as he desires, and his large business done at less than cost prices, does it not follow that the public will have to make up the difference? or that the property of the stockholders must be ruined? Besides the Manchester citizen and corporation influence, the Nashua Railroad comes in with its agent, attornies and money, to oppose the measure. They say the Roads should not be united, because they have a better road, with easier grades, and can do the business cheaper than it can be done over the M. & L. Road. If this be so, they need not trouble themselves, and had better save their exertions and money, for the business will surely be done over their Road.

It is the object of the Stockholders by the union of the roads, to save the expense of two sets of Officers, which, with such a reduction of trains as can well be made, will create a saving of $50,000,—and also to enable the managers of the roads to charge a fair price to those who now improperly control the roads for the business done. This would probably add $50,000 more to the profits, making, together with the other $50,000 saved, an addition of nearly 6 per cent. upon the whole capital.

Divide this large saving between the Public and the Stockholders, and a dividend of 8 per cent can be made on the stock, and a marked reduction established in fares and freight over the roads. If the citizens of Manchester exist only through the concentrated wealth of their soulless corporations, the agents of which take the lead, by calling meetings to manufacture public sentiment on subjects about which they have none but adverse interests, the sooner it is known the better.—We will have a meeting here, and see if we cannot well advise them how to make "bags."

A STOCKHOLDER.

AN OLD TEACHER.—Miss Elizabeth Gray, teacher, who died in Edinburgh, in April, 1856, at the age of 108, having been born in May, 1748, and who at the census of 1851 was then the oldest person in that city, is said to have been at her death the oldest in Scotland. Her oldest brother died in 1728, twenty years before her birth, and her father in 1755. So that she survived her father 101 years, and (which is so much more extraordinary that it may not again occur in a century) her brother died 128 years before her. She long taught school in her native city, and a gentleman now residing in London, says he attended it seventy-one years ago.

"HARK FROM THE TOOMBS."—During the discussion of the sub-marine telegraph bill in the U. S. Senate, the other day, Toombs of Georgia declared that "war is the natural state of man." We have now the two leading points of Toombs' philosophy:—Slavery is the natural state of man, and war is also the natural state of man.—Now, if the second proposition should be reduced to practice in Georgia, where the first is pretty well established, what would be the natural state of Mr. Toombs?—Lowell News.

☞ Mr. Eichelberg gave his one thousandth concert in the lager beer Saloon of Mr. Wagner, in Berlin recently. The proceeds of these one thousand concerts amounted to the pretty sum of forty thousand Prussian thalers ($27,000). As the admission was only two cents, these concerts, therefore must have been visited by 1,200,000 persons. If we calculate that each person drank at least two mugs of beer, nearly 10,000 barrels of beer was consumed.

Arnold's Vital Fluid

PURIFIES and strengthens the blood by eradicating, through a nice chemical action, the causes of impurities and humors. Hence its power to cure humors that mere medicine cannot cure. Hence its power of strengthening and vitalizing the blood. It furnishes to a certain extent, the element of which pure blood is composed. It eradicates and cleanses away whatever clogs and thickens the blood.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID
Renders the system strong and healthy, by freeing the blood and stomach from objectionable materials. It nerves and vivifies the system, by furnishing the elements which give vitality.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID
Gives to the system an influence and effect similar to that produced by exercise in the free open air. It exhilarates by strengthening the blood to brighter and better action—doing its work by beginning at the beginning. It is pleasant to the taste, and becomes a favorite wherever known.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID
Removes Biliousness in the most direct and easy manner, by neutralizing the cause. This is the principle of its action in removing illness generally. It neutralizes the cause, by freeing the blood from impediments to its proper fulfilment of its life-giving functions.

This principle of neutralizing the cause is why ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID CURES HUMORS that mere medicine cannot sensibly affect, and why it cures other diseases.

Resulting from Poisons in the Blood, that mere medicinal preparations cannot alleviate. Humors are poisons in the blood, and it is by their chemical action in neutralizing those poisons that ARNOLD'S GLOBULES AND VITAL FLUID are enabled to cure them so that they stay cured.

VITAL FLUID 50 cents per bottle; GLOBULES 25 cents per box.

Morning Chronicle.

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1857.

PROVIDENT ASSOCIATION, SALEM.—Mr. John Ball, City Missionary of Salem, has sent us a pamphlet, his Annual Report to the Executive Committee of the Salem Provident Association, rendered December, 1856.

We make the following extracts:—

"The most aggravating cases are where the summer earnings, instead of supporting the suffering families, have been paid in fines at the Police Court for drunkenness, till, the money exhausted, the drunkard is sentenced to a term of months in prison, and his family is thrown on the public, clamorous for food. They are not the transgressors, and they must not be left to suffer, but there is little satisfaction in aiding them. If we could have a law by which a portion of the fines paid into the County Treasury could be appropriated to the support of these families, while the miserable parents served their sentence in prison, the burden would be far less. But few are aware of the extent of intemperance in this city. Not less than seventy two men and women were arraigned at the Police Court in September for this one vice.

"I have alluded in former Reports to the extremely low prices paid for sewing.—Many women sew from sunrise to nearly midnight, binding shoes at 1 1-2, 2 and 2½ cents a pair, or making shirts at 6 cents or pants at 12 cents, and other articles at similar rates, and this miserable pittance affords barely enough for two scanty meals a day. The close confinement to work, the coarse food hurriedly eaten, with no variety, day after day, and the want of meat or other hearty food, often engender disease which forces the poor seamstress to appl for charity which her daily toil would render unnecessary, if she could only receive fair remunerative prices. And in this connection, I would speak of the importance of introducing sewing into our Public Schools for girls. There are so many poor mothers of families, wholly ignorant of the method of making or even properly mending a garment, that unless their children are taught to sew at school they will probably never learn. In one of our New England cities, a lady has been appointed at a salary of one hundred dollars a year, to teach sewing in the school four afternoons of the week, the work to be prepared at her house. Will not the School Committee of our city follow the example.

"The want of nourishing food has in so many instances been the cause of sickness, and by advice of the attending physician, have frequently furnished meat and other articles which proved to be the only medicine needed. The scenes of sickness have some times been most painful to witness, where want of fuel, broken windows, insufficient bedding and too often the miser that always attends intemperance, aggravated the cease. In such cheerless homes, we may well exclaim, 'Who maketh us to differ?'"

☞ Jack-Frost is doing a great work this winter, not only in the air, but in the earth. The Boston Chronicle is informed by parties employed by the Gas Company that the frost has penetrated to an unusual depth this winter. It was thought at one time that it might get down to the Cochituate water pipes. The deep snow has, however, arrested its progress. In digging in Pitts street, on Friday, the soil was found frozen to the depth of 4 feet; in Court St. 4 feet 8 inches; and on Federal street, over 5 feet.

All the ponds and streams in the neighborhood of New-Orleans, were frozen on Monday, Jan. 26, and the skaters were out. At Cheraw, S. C., same day, the river was frozen entirely over, a thing unheard of. The intensity of the cold may be inferred from the fact that chickens, doves, and other birds were found frozen.

A SUDDEN FALL.—A man who tends on of the switches on the railroad, on Saturday morning last thought he would see how much he was suffering, and carried out a thermometer for that purpose. The mercury fell so suddenly that it knocked the bottom out! He said he was satisfied.—Nashua Telegraph.

A similar accident has happened down this way.

DR. KANE.—A letter from Havana, of 25th ult., says:—"I regret to inform you that Dr. Kane's health is very poorly, so much so, that his physicians have forbidden him to receive company."

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—Dr. Harver Burdett, a dentist in Bond street, was found murdered in his bedroom, yesterday. He had been strangled, and was stabbed in fifteen places. The perpetrators are unknown.

☞ We have already mentioned that six clergymen of Manchester, N. H., had protested in vain, against Theodore Parker's lecturing in the Manchester Lyceum. Now, the Boston Chronicle understands that Mr. Parker has received and accepted an invitation to deliver a course of lectures on Theological subjects in Manchester. The expenses are to be borne by subscription, and the lectures are to be free.

LYCEUMS.—The question whether Theodore Parker should or should not be allowed to lecture before the Manchester Lyceum, is being earnestly and voluminously discussed in the newspapers there. Among other items, the following table of the sums received for single tickets last year, is brought out by one of the Directors;—from which it appears that our friend Shillaber "leads" the host—for a host they are in themselves.

At Wendell Phillips' lecture,		$21.60
" Rev T. Starr King's	"	21.75
" Rev. E. H. Chapin's	"	44.25
" Bayard Taylor's	"	48.75
" Rev. J.P. Thompson's	"	9.45
" O. W. Holmes'	"	27.30
" Rev. J. Pierpont's	"	14.55
" B. P. Shillaber's	"	51.18
" Rev. A. L. Stone's	"	7.95

A REBELLION QUASHED.—A committee appointed by the Mayor and County Judge at Nashville, to investigate the charge of insurrection against the negroes in jail there, have just reported, after a careful inquiry, that they find no evidence of any insurrectionary tendencies or purposes of said slaves, and that they be discharged from confinement. The confessions previously published were made by negroes unworthy of belief, and for private malice.

☞ It appears from the Concord. N. H. Independent Democrat, that the Syrian correspondent of the Boston Traveller is understood to be Rev. Henry Wood, U. S. Consul at Beyrout; and that he has written that paper a marvellous account of the recent discovery of the remains of the Tower of Babel.

This Munchausen story is turned into ridicule by the papers. The ridiculous point is the statement that a two story structure can be seen 50 or 60 miles. Mr. Wood has a large bump of Marvellousness,—and has made some wonderful discoveries.

ANOTHER LESSON.—In speaking of the decease of the late Preston S. Brooks, the New York Times says:

We have heard that in conversation Col. Brooks more than once deplored his conduct on that occasion as the blot and misfortune of his life—that he declared his only purpose at the outset was to inflict the disgrace of a blow, and not any severe injury—that he was excited with wine, of which he partook freely, and that the first blow struck roused all the demon within him, and left him no longer in possession of his judgment or self-control.

The Boston Journal says:

It has been remarked by those who were acquainted with Mr. Brooks, that intoxication had become a confirmed vice with him since the Sumner affair. He has seemingly attempted to drown conscience in the wine cup, and latterly has been so constantly under the influence of strong drinks as to induce the apprehension that his life would be prematurely cut short. We would fain suppress this fact in the career of one who had generous traits of character, but when it is attempted to gild crime with the gloss of patriotism, historic justice demands that the meretricious covering should be stripped aside. While deploring the sad termination of the career of the man, let his crime and his remorse stand without palliation and without exaggeration, as a solemn warning to others who like him may be tempted in an evil hour to uplift the hand of violence.

The Springfield Republican, also, well remarks:

"Into the grave we can follow no man with malediction, and, indeed, if we are to believe the accounts given of Mr. Brooks, he was more the object of pity than of revenge before he died. He had lost his easy assurance, his peace of mind, and his health of body for months before his death. The once full and graceful figure had grown thin, and the once radiant, good-natured face looked worn and haggard. Conscience and the denunciation of all who were not the partizans of the foul interest in whose behalf he had sacrificed himself, were too much for him to carry without staggering. That he has suffered intensely, we have no doubt. Let him sleep, with no breath of revenge to disturb the silence above him. Let pity drop a tear upon his bier, that one so capable of enjoyment and giving enjoyment to others, could be tempted to a deed which, living evermore in history, must be associated with his name in infamous relations. If we may not wholly forget him, let us for give; and above all, let us take to our hearts the lessons which the great tragedy in which he has acted so prominent a part is so well calculated to convey. The spirit of liberty still lives, and though wounded in the house of its friends, will live on and conquer. The spirit of slavery—vindictive, sensitive, brutal, passionate, and revengeful, still lives also, and the very blows it administers in its blind wrath can but hasten on its own destruction.

CONGRESS.

SATURDAY, Jan. 31.

SENATE.—The Senate was engaged in discussing the Indian appropriation bill. Among other items, $700,000 are appropriated for the pacification of the savages in Oregon and Washington territories.

In the debate Mr. Hale aninadverted in strong terms upon the conduct of Gov. Stephens, of Washington territory.

HOUSE.—The House, with little debate, passed bills providing for the admission of Oregon and Minnesota as states.

A bill for the relief of the inhabitants of Kansas was reported by the Committee on Territories. The bill abrogates the laws passed by the Kansas Legislature, and provides for a new election.

OHIO LEGISLATURE.—On the 29th ult., Mr. Slough was expelled from the House, for striking Mr. Caldwell, by a vote of 70 to 35. All the Democrats opposed Mr. Slough's expulsion, with the exception of Mr. Curry. Mr. Slough left for Cincinnati immediately.

CHARADE.

Early on the blessed Morning,
We will to my 1st repair,
Christian's duty there performing,
Sure the Savior will be there.
See what sport you 1ad enjoys,
As my Next he twirls with glee,
No bad thought his mind employs,
Like the lark in air 'tis free.
Those that occupied my Whole
Upon a foretold day,
When horrors fierce around them roll,
Were bidden there to stay,
And not come down to take their clothes,
But hasten far away.

BOILING ROCK.

A Teetotaller sends us a communication upbraiding the religious portion of the community for a want of interest in the temperance movement. Perhaps it will answer his purpose if we say that there will be a lecture Sunday evening, upon that subject, at Market Hall, free to all.—Newburyport Herald.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

This wonderful preparation is having an extensive sale in all parts of the Union. It is one of the few patent medicines which are now sold over the country, that are really what their inventors claim for them. Wherever it has had a fair trial, its result has been precisely as Wood predicts. It has never failed to turn the white hair back to the natural color, where the directions have been strictly followed, and in numerous cases it has restored the hair upon heads that had been bald for years. It is not pretended that it will make a bald head grow in one place, but where it fails there is certainly no remedy. The restoration of the hair has been effected in so many instances where the case seemed utterly hopeless, that it is certainly worth while for all who have lost their hair to try the experiment of using a bottle or two of Wood's Restorative.—[Moline Workman.

THE GREAT DISCOVERY.

Many years ago, Doctor Burleigh Smart, of Kennebunk, discovered that a simple article never before used as a medicine, was a never failing cure for coughs of every description, and an excellent blood purifier. By its use in his private practice, he acquired the reputation of being the best physician in New England, for all diseases of the lungs. After his death, Messrs. Shaw & Clark of Biddeford, Me., obtained a Copy Right from Government, for its exclusive manufacture, and now have it carefully prepared strictly according to the original recipe. There is no cough but it will not cure, unless the patient is past all hope, when aid before commencing its use! It is called "Doctor Burleigh Smart's Cough Medicine," and is for sale by all apothecaries. w77 TuTh3m

N. B.—Beware of imitations called Sherry Wine Bitters. The genuine have a fac simile of my signature upon the outer envelope. For sale by Druggists everywhere, and at my office, No. 51 Hanover St., Boston. aus26m

Hutchins' Hair Dye.

The very best now in use, as the many thousands that have tried it well testify.

THE great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, having but one preparation, it also contains twice as much as any other, and sold at a much less price. This Dye imparts to the hair the most natural color of any yet discovered, and instead of injuring, it gives it the beauty and elasticity of youth. This Dye is having the largest sale of any Dye in the market, and is warranted to give better satisfaction than any yet offered to the public.

Certificate from Mr. J. A. Sassard, Boston, Mass., Manufacturer of Wigs, &c.

H. HUTCHINS, Esq; DEAR SIR:—Having tried your Hair Dye, which you gave me for trial, I have found it to be superior to any other Hair Dye I ever tried, both in its simplicity and most natural color. The application requires less trouble; I may add, no trouble at all. I therefore wish to use it, recommend it to all my customers, and warrant it, in consideration of my profession, and desire to promote the universal use of your Dye.

Dr. Jacoby's Establishment.

FOR THE TREATMENT THE OF SKIN, AND THE RESTORATION OF THE HAIR, NO. 2 TREMONT STREET, BOSTON. Dr. JACOBY invites the attention of persons subject to diseases of the skin manifested in the gradual loss of the hair, or persons who are already bald, to his establishment, where a remedy can in most cases be found under his Mineral treatment. He cannot, in this connection, warn persons too strongly against the use of greasy substances, or those deleterious washes commonly composed of castor oil and alcohol, which are at once so fatal to the hair and skin. In many cases, the loss of the hair proceeds from these circumstances. The system expels through the pores of the skin a certain quantity of animal matter; if this is suffered to remain, the pores become clogged up, and consequently the health of the hair is impaired. Now, to add to these animal accumulations, greasy substances, particularly one so vicious and gummy as castor oil, is of course to increase the evil. Cleanliness is the first law of nature. The animal deposits must be removed, the skin kept free from all fatty matter, and the pores kept open. Let this be done and in nine cases out of ten there will be no trouble with the hair. In cases where diseases of the skin have been contracted by a long neglect of these rules, a mineral treatment is necessary to restore the skin to a healthful and natural condition. Dr. JACOBY will be happy to give to any person calling on him a more extended explanation of his whole theory of skin diseases and their treatment, founded upon simple and obvious conditions of natural science. The appended certificate is only one of a large number from other sources, testifying to the efficacy of his Mineral Washes as a remedy for baldness.

This is to certify that I have had an article called the Berlin Hair Wash, applied during the last five or six weeks, to my head, for the purpose of renewing and strengthening the hair. It has been very effective in producing such a result; and I can cheerfully recommend the same to those afflicted with baldness or decaying or broken hair therewith.

JONAS CHICKERING.

Dr. JACOBY would also call the attention of the public to his celebrated MINERAL HAIR DYE, which will be found, on trial, to possess over any Dye ever discovered, or now in use. The majority of the usual Hair Dyes are composed of nitrate of silver, which is a powerful caustic, not only serve to injure the skin and hair, but also producing green, pink and metallic tints in its coloring. Dr. Jacoby's Hair Dye, although derived from mineralsdoes not contain either neither metal nor acid. It will produce any tint from the highest brown to the deepest black, and perfectly imitate the natural hue of the hair. It will also soften the texture of the hair. It will in no case stain, burn, nor in any way injure the skin. Any person can test its its capabilities by a single trial. The most entire and perfect satisfaction is guaranteed for it.

The appended certificate from Dr. Charles T. Jackson will testify to its efficacy:—

BOSTON, Nov. 18, 1851.

I have seen Dr. M. Jacoby's Hair Dye used in coloring hair of deep brownish black of a beautiful natural color, and can certify that it is perfectly efficient and permanent.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE celebrated machines are in practical and profitable use in all parts of the civilized world. In all the various trades, and in sewing every variety of fabric, either of cotton or leather, they have been fully tried and approved. Sewing machines of other manufacturers often fail to work, but SINGER'S MACHINES

ALWAYS OPERATE PERFECTLY,

being strong, durable and complete in contrivance and workmanship. A perfect sewing machine kept employed affords a clear profit of $1000 a year; but an imperfect one is a cause of constant vexation and loss. The entire reliability of our machines is one great reason for their unparalleled popularity of a frail and delicate construction, are recommended by other manufacturers. Such machines are made to catch the eye, not to perform substantial work. The truth is, family sewing machines ought to be stronger than any other, because they go into less skilful hands than when sold to manufacturers, and are used for a greater variety of work. The machines which have proved best for all other purposes must be best for family use, and they are Singer's. The speed of our machines has lately been doubled, no other can compare with them in quantity of work.

MACHINES FOR FAMILY SEWING,

☞ New machines of the latest improved style will be exchanged on liberal terms for old sewing machines of our own make, or for operative machines of other manufacturers. Local agents wanted to sell our machines.

N B.—All persons desiring full information about sewing machines, can obtain it by applying for a copy of "I. M. Singer & Co.'s Gazette," a sheet devoted entirely to the subject, and will be sent gratis.

LOCAL.

OUR NEW VOLUME, &c.

We don't want to have too much to say about ourselves, but it is pleasant occasionally to chat a little with our friends, and tell them of our success, of our plans, &c.

With the month of January, closed the first six months of the Daily Chronicle, which we have published alone, that is, with no partner to assist or advise. We never had any doubts as to the success of the enterprise, (nor indeed, of the success of anything else we ever undertook,) but it was with a less cheerful heart that we assumed the sole charge of our little sheet, than that with which we first issued even a smaller, with the aid of two as able and willing as ourself.

At the close of our fourth year, we ventured to increase the price of our Daily one-third; at the same time that we somewhat enlarged and improved the paper. Our six months trial has satisfied us with the experiment, and we shall never again print a "penny paper,"—we think. To be sure, a dozen or two of our subscribers (and those are all considered wealthy, too, — but doubtless are of the kind who never feel rich) thought they "couldn't afford" to pay us four dollars a year for our paper; but we now receive several hundred dollars a year more on our entire list, and think we shall not soon put our price down, but rather up. Newspapers are too cheap—and while printers' labor and stock both keep increasing in price, papers have been growing cheaper and cheaper. We don't believe in starvation prices—a thing or an idea worth having, is worth paying for.—If all the men who read our paper regularly, were subscribers, our paper heap would materially increase forthwith.

With the present week, we commenced our tenth (half-yearly) volume, with increasing hopes and favorable anticipations. Our busines during the past six months, has been better than at any previous time, and we have in our plans for the early future, various improvements, typographic and editorial.

To all our patrons, and especially to those who were with us from the start, we tender our thanks — trusting the Daily Chronicle may continue to meet their approbation.

THE UNION CONCERT, at the Temple on Sunday evening, was a decided success, in every respect. The fire of the previous week burnt the grand piano; but by the courtesy of Mr. Cobb, a new and excellent instrument was substituted. The storm of the two days previous, rendered the roads almost impassible, and a large portion of the choir—strangers who had intended to come in on Sunday, was wanting; so that only about one-half were present. However, as it was, there were nearly a hundred singers and players—and the whole could hardly have done better. Among the strangers present, were Rev. Mr. Cmonings, now of Massachusetts, — who was almost the first to engage with us in the Old Folks Concerts here; and who opened this concert with an earnest, heartfelt, and appropriate prayer. Mr. Chase, who is to lead an Old Folks Concert in Dover, on Wednesday evening next,—at which the performers are to be dressed in ancient costume—also came down in a sleigh, Sunday afternoon, to be present.—Messrs. Dow and Wheeler, of Exeter, also came down, and rendered valuable service on the bass.

As the concert-going people from our neighboring towns could not well get in, the audience was composed almost exclusively of our own citizens—of whom, notwithstanding the "horrid walking," probably six or seven hundred were in attendance. And richly were they repaid for wading through the slosh, too.

Mozart's Requium, a beautiful, splendid composition, was finely performed, by Lawrence's Orchestra, including several players in this city. No orchestra equal to it has played in Portsmouth for years, except the Germanians or Julien's Burlesque Troupe. Mr. Lawrence is entitled to great credit, for his skill, taste and indefatigable perseverance in drilling his Orchestra.—Mrs. L. played the beautiful Æolian attachment with her well-known taste and skill, and Miss E. M. Hadley well seconded her. It was astonishing to many, that so grand a concert, and so large an audience, could be got out on so unfavorable an evening; but with Mr. Christie and Mr. Lawrence for leaders, there could be no question of the excellence of the performances; and the full attendance shew the interest felt in them. Had the heavens been more propitious, the Temple would not have held the crowd. The audience was exceedingly well behaved,—not a hand or a foot being raised to make a clatter,—though the closest attention and interest was manifest throughout.

The Old Folks have probably given their last concert here—and this was certainly the best they have ever had. The Requium will probably be brought out again here, with the splendid vocal parts also, sometime during the present season.

☞ It will be seen that we advertise, this morning, a Concert, in aid of the Poor of our City. The concert is to take place on Thursday evening, and the programme (which we shall probably publish to-morrow) will consist of glees, songs, duets, &c.

The affair is under charge of Mr. Preston, who knows how to get up a good concert, and is public-spirited enough to do it occasionally. We doubt not the entertainment will be attractive enough in itself to draw a good audience; but, considering the object, the Temple ought not to hold half those who should go, or at least buy tickets.

Were we on the committee on arrangements, the tickets would be more than "a quarter," rather than less—and we think the poor would realize a larger sum at 25, than at 15 cents. The Temple full, at 15 cents, won't pay a man day-wages for getting up a good entertainment; and we don't like to have good music so cheapened in price, compared to other things. A man will pay a dollar, two, sometimes five, for a dance; why not for a concert. All the talk of low priced tickets is lost on us, after considerable experience in concert-giving; especially when a crowded house can be gathered to hear a second-rate "Nigger Concert," at twenty-five cents a ticket.—We have nothing to say against the Ethiopian music, except that of course it is the lowest and cheapest sort of music—and certainly should not be prized or sold at a higher rate than that which is vastly superior to it.

However, those who are disposed to be charitable, needn't take "any change back," for a quarter, and can pay even fifty cents, if they choose. We hope none who pay fifteen cents, will consider themselves benevolent—especially if they get a concert worth twice that sum.

CHARITIES ACKNOWLEDGED.—The subscriber had occasion a week ago, to acknowledge the receipt of several donations for the relief of the poor. Since then, several others have been added, making the whole amount contributed to the funds of the Mission within the last fortnight $67. Among these donations were two of five dollars each, received through the post-office from unknown friends. He has also received a valuable parcel from one of our Dry Goods merchants, besides various articles of partly worn bedding and clothing from different individuals.

These supplies have been very seasonable. Quite a number of families were under his care whose resources were almost entirely cut off; while in several cases, sickness and death were making unusual demands upon them. Several worthy families, who have never known want before, find themselves just now in a position where their scanty means are insufficient to meet the demands of winter, and many have been obliged to ask help in order to keep their children in school.

He feels himself deeply indebted to the different Benevolent Societies in the city, as well as to the Overseers of the Poor, for the prompt and cheerful manner in which they have uniformly co-operated with him in his work. But to make his mission in all respects what it should be, he needs supplies at his immediate disposal. The benevolent are manifesting a willingness to aid him in this matter. While sincerely thanking them for the past, he would earnestly solicit their continued co-operation.

N. MEDBERY.

☞ On Monday afternoon, Jan. 26th, 1857, a "real" horse and sleigh, with two gentlemen, left Portsmouth through Salter street, and, proceeding on the ice, rode under the middle of New Castle Bridge,—and thence up the creek, to a landing place within a few rods of Sagamore Bridge; a feat which we think was never before performed in the middle of the channel, if ever on the border of the river. TREMONT MILLS.
Teas, Coffees, Chocolates, Cocoas, Spices, &c.
WHOLESALE,—AND ALSO IN SMALL PACKAGES.
E. E. DYER & CO.
(Sign of the Chinaman grinding coffee,)
141 Washington St., Boston,

SUPPLY the best, finest and purest articles, at lowest Cash prices. Their Stock consists of Teas, Coffees, Chocolates, Allspice, Pepper, Mustard, Ginger, Cayenne Pepper, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Cream Tartar; Taraxacum, or Prepared Dandelion Root, &c., &c.
Having every facility for manufacturing and preparing the several articles named, the public may rely upon having them pure and genuine, as they are put up carefully, and bear our name and label, "TREMONT MILLS, E. E. DYER & CO."
To give consumers some idea of our sales, we annex the following scale of prices, viz.:

5 lb. Souchong Tea,	1.50	5 lb. Mocha Coffee,	1.00
5 lb. Oolong "	1.75	5 lb Java "	90
5 lb. Y. Hyson "	2.25	8 lb. good "	1.00

☞ The Spices are put up in ¼ and ½ lb. tin cases, expressly for family use, and are warranted to be strictly a pure article, and only need a trial to establish them in public favor.
SPANISH COFFEE.—We would call the attention of customers and dealers to our Spanish Coffee, as an article which is highly esteemed, and gives the greatest satisfaction. It is prepared with particular care, and by a peculiar process in roasting, one pound of this coffee, it is believed, is equal to 1½ lb. of any other.
DANDELION COFFEE.—This article is carefully prepared at our Mills, and put up in packages having our trade mark, and may be relied upon as the best and most approved mixture of dandelion and coffee.
TARAXACUM, or Prepared Dandelion Root.—This article is prepared and roasted at our Mills, is retailed by Family Grocers generally in city and country, and bearing our trade mark, "Chinaman grinding coffee." may be relied upon as the GENUINE ARTICLE. The proportion used is about one-half the quantity of coffee. The price is 20 cents per pound, and it is warrented to be the same as that which has been sold for fifty cents a pound by Druggists.
The medical properties of Dandelion are well-known, and held in high estimation by all who use it. This being a preparation of the root, with all its medicinal virtues retained, can be mixed with coffee or not, as best suits the taste, and will be found cheap and economical as a family beverage, one pound of which being nearly equal to two pounds of coffee It is prescribed by many eminent physicians to invalids, children and aged persons, as a nutritious beverage, and as a remedy for Dyspepsia, Bilious affections, &c.
☞ Be careful to observe that all our Coffees have our trade mark, "Chinaman grinding coffee."
☞ To Grocers and Dealers a liberal discount is made, enabling them to supply their customers at the same low rate.
☞ TO CASH PURCHASERS.—Our object being to secure large sales at small profits, we offer inducements which cannot be afforded by those who do business on the credit system; and we confidently invite an examination of the quality of our stock and our prices, as compared with those of any other house.

The writer of this was once conversing about an actor who suddenly left a good situation. "What could have been the cause?" I asked.

"Very trifling one," was the reply, "you see Jack was very much displeased at something the manager said to him, and so he left."

"Indeed!" I remarked, "I didn't think Jack was so hasty and so foolish. What could the manager have said to him?"

"Why the manager said he didn't want him any more."—Sat. Eve. Gaz.

Harry H——, of Providence, tells a good story of a young man who had a light and incipient moustache. One day, while fingering the few hairs, he said to Harry—

"Hadn't I better dye this moustache?"

"Oh no"—replied Harry—"let it alone and it will die of itself."—Sat. Eve. Gaz.

"WHERE THE GOOD DARKIES GO."—There was in 1840, 25,562 free colored people in the State of Louisiana. But in 1850, the number had decreased to 17,462. In the third municipality of New Orleans, they fell off from 8,704 in 1840, to 3,524 in 1850. The census man remarks that "the colored persons who are known to have left the city, will not account for this decline." One of the reasons he gives for this great decrease is that "they are passing into the white column."

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.
DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS FOR FEMALES,
Prepared by an old Physician of 42 years experience.

THE combination of ingredients in these Pills, is the result of a long and extensive practice; they are mild in their operation, and certain to restoring nature to its proper course, in every instance have the Pills proved successful. They are certain to open those obstructions to which females are liable, and bring nature into its proper channel, whereby health is restored, and the pale and deathly countenance changed to a healthy one. No female can enjoy good health unless she is regular; and when any obstruction takes place, whether from exposure, cold, or any other cause, the general health immediately begins to decline, and the want of such a remedy has been the cause of many consumptions among young females. Headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, loathing of food, and disturbed sleep, that most always arise from the interruption of nature; and whenever that is the case, the Pills will invariably remedy all these evils. In all cases of painful menstruation, or nervous and spinal affections in the back and limbs, lowness of spirits, hysterics, &c. Nor are they less efficacious in the cure of Leucorrhœa, commonly called the "Whites." These Pills should never be taken during pregnancy, as they would be sure to cause a miscarriage. Warranted purely Vegetable, and free from anything injurious to life or health. Full and explicit directions which should be read, accompany each box.

These Pills are put up in square, flat boxes.—Persons residing where there are no Agencies established, by enclosing One Dollar in a letter, prepaid, to Dr. C. L. CHEESEMAN, Box No. 4,231, Post Office, New York City, can have them sent to their respective address by return mail.

American and Foreign Patents.
R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,
(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)

No. 76 State st, oppo. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers and Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions, and the best and their advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The business for the last given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL. AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents, and he has the most extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, rendering it, in this respect, a question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the most learned, and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them as early and favorable consideration at the Office."
EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."
From the present Commissioner.

AUGUST 11, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the Office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. Fraser & Co. are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is that persons have a legal right to send money for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are forwarded unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan, and Ternary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

Prince & Co.'s
Improved Melodeons.
THE OLDEST ESTABLISHMENT IN THE U.S.
Employing Two Hundred Men,
and finishing
Eighty Instruments per Week.

BETWEEN 18,000 AND 19,000 of these instruments have been finished and are now in use.

THE latest improvement in our Melodeons is the PIANO VIOLELLA, secured to us by Letters Patent 22d May, 1855.—By means of this Swell Solo Passages may be played with the full power of the instrument, while the accompaniment is softly and subdued.—Heretofore, all Melodeons made by us, will be furnished with this attachment without extra charge.

Extract from the Commercial Advertiser, July 27, '55.

"Messrs. Prince & Co. could realize a handsome fortune by disposing of rights to other Melodeon manufacturers to use their new improvement; but as they prefer to make it a feature in their instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufacture."

It is now eight years since we commenced the manufacture of this new celebrated Musical Instrument, during which time we have finished and sold nearly NINETEEN THOUSAND. Voluntary testimonials to the excellence of our Instruments, from the most distinguished Professors of Music in the different parts of the United States, are from time to time been received. Thus far we have said but little, and our advertisements were seldom seen for the reason that we could not supply the demand. We now flatter ourselves we are the largest and most perfect Manufacturing Establishments in the United States, and we now think we can fill orders promptly. We therefore give one testimonial we have received.

NEW YORK, 15th Oct., 1855.

"G. A. Prince & Co.: Gentlemen—The Double Reed Melodeon has arrived, and a most charming instrument it is. It has been played on by Bellak, Jacobs, Dest, Hodges, Wm. Mason, and a host of others, and they all pronounce it one of the most beautiful toned instruments they have ever touched. Very respfly. JAMES F. HALL."

We are not aware that the above mentioned Melodeon is in any particular superior to those we are daily receiving, and we can assure those who are inclined to favor us with their orders, that they will be furnished with an instrument equally as good. Our Instruments are all finished in Rosewood Cases and the workmanship of the very best quality. The styles and prices are—

MAINE TEMPERANCE CONVENTION.

This Convention was held at Augusta last week. Neal Dow was president.

The afternoon session was held in the Representatives' Hall at the State House, the use of it having been kindly tendered by the unanimous vote of the members.

An address to the people of the State was reported by the Business Committee, and unanimously adopted. The following resolutions were adopted with like unanimity.

1. Resolved, That the Liquor Traffic in its very nature is immoral, that it always degrades and impoverishes both the State and the individual; that its inevitable results are only evil to every interest of society; and therefore it ought to be prohibited by law.

2. Resolved, That the State ought not to afford protection to any branch of business, however lucrative to a few individuals, which increases pauperism and crime, wastes the national resources, perverts the moral interests, corrupts the social habits, and destroys the health and lives of the people.

3. Resolved, That the results of all past legislation upon the liquor traffic demonstrate the impossibility of regulating by license a system so pernicious in all its tendencies.

4. Resolved, That the enactment of the Maine Law was hailed with rejoicing by every temperance man and woman, as a just expression of public opinion against the rum traffic.

5. Resolved, That in the result of the Maine Law, the best hopes of the friends of temperance were fully realized. The open traffic in intoxicating liquors was everywhere suppressed, and the sale of such liquors in many places entirely eradicated.

6. Resolved, That we recognize it as the imperative duty of every temperance man, to vote for such men only as are well known, outspoken, unequivocal friends of the re-enactment of a Prohibitory Law, and of its prompt and vigorous enforcement.

A third session of the Convention was held in the Representatives' Hall in the evening. It was well attended and enthusiastic.

A reeling drunkard, on meeting Colonel Cates, accosted him thus—"Well, Colonel, I hear you can raise the devil." "Yes," replied the Colonel, and with his foot sent the drunkard's basket, containing a jug of rum, twenty feet above his head!

A gentleman of Alabama was lying in bed one morning, when a friend stepping in said.—"R——, breakfast is coming on." "Let it come," exclaimed R——, with a look of defiance, "I am not afraid of it."

Eight divorces were granted at the late session of the Franklin county court, Vt.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2.—It is reported that a steamboat met the Tennessee 3 miles outside of Sandy Hook, and placed on board of her 300 additional men for recruits, 3 eight-pounders and 2 six-pounders, with quite a large number of muskets and other munitions of war.

Citizens of New York in Bondage.—Gov. King sent a message to the Legislature on Saturday, concerning two men, citizens of New York, who are now held in slavery in the Southern states. One of them named Henry Dixon, was a citizen of Rochester, where he maintained a good character.—While on his way home from Washington, he was kidnapped and sold to a man named Dean, of Macon, Ga., by whom he was sold, and his whereabouts is now unknown. The other is named Charles Granby, but nothing definite is known of his case. The Governor makes no suggestion as to the action proper to be taken, except to pay expenses already incurred.

[Uncle Toby thinks he has heard some people say the North had nothing to do with slavery!]

THE NEW YORK LEDGER is conducted by a man that does not stop for trifles, Robert Bonner. During the great storm, when the roads were so blocked up that it was almost impossible to get freight through from New York to Boston, the New York Ledger "came to time," by Adams & Co.'s Express. Adams refused to carry them at first, said it was impossible. Bonner said, "You can get them through with money enough — name your price." "$200," said Adams, and he drew the money, and told him to put the bundle through, and he did. Adams named the price so high, that he did not dream he would accept of it.

LIBEL SUITS IN NEW YORK.—Two of the Episcopal papers of New York have gone to law. The Churchman has sued the Church Journal for libel, damages $5000, the libel consisting chiefly in the assertion that the Churchman "is unhappily getting more and more prolific in personalities against the clergy, and has now attacked with such reckless and scandalous extravagance one of the best and most laborious men among us." The latter clause refers to the Rev. Dr. Migenbredt, of New York, upon whom the Churchman has been severe.

☞ The last legislature of Mississippi, being composed mostly of new men, became confused in the labyrinths of legislation, and for several weeks made statutes at random. The result is that Gov. McRae declares himself Governor for life, and, for all that the law says on the subject, for an indefinite period after. As to judges and members of the legislature, the shrewdest legal acumen isn't able to discover when their term of office expires.

☞ Hudson Carter was driving a team through Livonia, Me., on Tuesday, when John Agan, who was drunk, seized the horse's bit and refused to let go. Carter thereupon threw a large gate hinge at Agan, inflicting a wound which caused his death the next day.

Arnold's Vital Fluid

PURIFIES and strengthens the blood by eradicating, through a nice chemical action, the causes of impurities and humors. Hence its power to cure humors that mere medicine cannot cure. Hence its power of strengthening and vitalizing the blood. It furnishes to a certain extent, the element of which pure blood is composed. It eradicates and cleanses away whatever clogs and thickens the blood.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID
Renders the system strong and healthy, by freeing the blood and stomach from objectionable materials. It nerves and vivifies the system, by furnishing the elements which give vitality.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID
Gives to the system an influence and effect similar to that produced by exercise in the free open air. It exhilarates by strengthening the blood to brighter and better action—doing its work by beginning at the beginning. It is pleasant to the taste, and becomes a favorite wherever known.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID
Removes Biliousness in the most direct and easy manner, by neutralizing the cause. This is the principle of its action in removing illness generally. It neutralizes the cause, by freeing the blood from impediments to its proper fulfilment of its life-giving functions.

This principle of neutralizing the cause is why ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID CURES HUMORS that mere medicine cannot sensibly affect, and why it cures other diseases.

Resulting from Poisons in the Blood, that mere medicinal preparations cannot alleviate. Humors are poisons in the blood, and it is by their chemical action in neutralizing those poisons that ARNOLD'S GLANDULES AND VITAL FLUID are enabled to cure them so that they stay cured.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1857.

BURKE AND WELLS.—We have already published the recommendation, by the Democratic State Committee, that Mr. Buchanan should put Mr. John S. Wells, of Exeter, into his Cabinet. The Democratic Standard publishes it also, and then makes the following remarks:

"We regard this movement as a virtual withdrawal of Mr. Wells from the canvass, and a proclamation to the enemy that the Democracy of this State will make no fight in the coming election. If the Committee acted in good faith, their proceedings can have no other interpretation.—And if such was their design, it was their duty to call a Convention to nominate a new candidate. For, whatever may be the intention of the State Committee, the Democracy of New Hampshire do not intend to permit the coming election to go by default.

"We cannot interpret the motives of the Committee in this singular movement. It cannot have been intended as a friendly act towards Mr. Wells; for nothing could damage him more than this movement by the State Committee, constituted as it is, if he has any aspirations for the honor for which that Committee have designated him. Its effect upon the interests of the Democratic party in the coming election, cannot be doubted. The Committee must, in this movement, have designed to kill Mr. Wells off, for some ulterior purpose which we have already shadowed forth in our columns; or they have committed a great and irretrievable blunder.

"We cannot believe that this movement has the sanction of Mr. Wells. And we are confident that he will disavow it, and assure the Democracy of New Hampshire, that he will in this emergency, stand by them to the last. He will then secure a firm and indefeasible title to the highest honors which they can bestow, when the State shall pass again under their control, as it surely will in the lapse of one or two years, if not in the very next election.

"But, if Mr. Wells does not disavow this action of the State Committee, we shall be compelled reluctantly to admit, that it has his approbation; and that he is a candidate for a seat in the Cabinet, and not a candidate for the office of Governor of New Hampshire, for the two positions are, under the circumstances of our State canvass, incompatible.

"In that aspect of the case, we shall then claim the same privilege which other democratic papers assume and exercise, and discuss Mr. Wells's claims to a seat in the Cabinet, in connection with the claims of other gentlemen who have aspirations to the same high position. And we shall unveil the concoctors of this act of treachery (for such it is) to the masses of the Democracy of New Hampshire—their motives and designs. They are too transparent to escape the sagacity of even blunder heads."

A GENTLE HINT.—Rev. Jonathan French of South Andover, was to be supplied with wood by his parishioners, according to the terms of his settlement. Winter was coming on, but no wood had been furnished. Mr. French waited until the Governor's proclamation for Thanksgiving came, when after reading it to his people, he said, with great apparent simplicity,

"My brethren, you perceive His Excellency has appointed next Thursday as a day of Thanksgiving; and according to custom, it is my intention to prepare two discourses for that occasion—provided I can write them without a fire." The hint took, and on the next day all his winter's wood was in his wood-yard.

☞ Dr. Kane, on his Arctic expedition outward bound, used the following daily daily prayer, "Lord, accept our gratitude, and bless our undertaking." After all hope of farther exploration ceased, and the only effort was to get his party back home, the prayer was changed, and read thus, "Lord, accept our gratitude and restore us to our home."

☞ The Passaic Falls, we learn from the Paterson (N. J.) Guardian, are entirely frozen over, and the view is very fine. The spray having settled upon the sides of the gorge and frozen steadily, has at last entirely closed the orifice, and the water disappears without the least noise above the ice—nor can any of its usual leap be observed.

☞ The Town Council of Athens, Geo., have imposed a tax of $500 on Billiard Tables, and passed an ordinance prohibiting the sale of liquor in less quantities than a quart.

MURDER IN NEW YORK.

A dentist in New York, named Harvey Burdell, a man of means and standing was murdered on Friday night. His sleeping room, operating and other rooms, were in the house of Mrs. Cunningham, but Dr. Burdell ate his meals at the Metropolitan Hotel.

On Saturday morning, when his servant boy went to his room at the usual hour in the morning, he found the doctor lying dead on the floor, covered with blood flowing from fifteen wounds he had received, in addition to which it was evident from marks on his neck that he had been suffocated by strangulation. An investigation into the circumstances of the foul deed is being made, and several witnesses have been examined, but the testimony thus far has not afforded any positive clue to the murderer or murderers, or the motive of the fearful crime. Mrs. Cunningham, keeper of the house, who, it appears, was married to the deceased some months ago, and two persons who boarded in the house, have been taken into custody on suspicion. A bloody dagger and a loaded revolver have been found in a drawer in the female prisoner's room, and some articles of clothing smeared with blood were discovered in one of the attic rooms. The relations between the husband and wife have been shown to be very equivocal, inasmuch as the marriage relation was never acknowledged, and she was never known to be his wife until she produced her marriage certificate before the coroner. There were circumstances shown before the coroner's jury which rather implicated her character as connected with her intercourse with her two boarders, Mr. Eckel and Mr. Snodgrass, but they were slight. No money was taken from the unfortunate man, who made a desperate defence for his life, as was shown by blood upon the walls. The whole affair is a mysterious one.

A New York despatch of Feb. 2, says nothing positive has yet been elicited to fix the Burdell murder on any party. A bloody dagger and a loaded revolver are said to have been found yesterday in one of Mrs. Cunningham's bureau drawers. The dagger is said to have belonged to Eckle, one of Mrs. Cunningham's boarders, of whom Dr. Burdell was jealous. Eckle and Snodgrass, another of Mrs. C.'s boarders, are in custody, as also is Mrs. C., awaiting the result of the Coroner's investigation. Burdell was quite wealthy. In October last, he was privately married to Mrs. Cunningham, which marriage was by agreement of parties, to have been kept secret until June next.

The consumption of foreign molasses in the United States has constantly decreased from 1851, when it was 33,238,278 gallons, to 1856, when it was but 23,014,878 gallons. The total consumption in 1851 was 43,948,013 gallons and increased to 1854, when it was 56,093,419 gallons; it has since declined to some less than forty million gallons. There was a falling off from 1854 to 1855 of nine million gallons, and from '55 to '56 of about eight million gallons. As the price advances the consumption is less.

A great part of the price which we pay for sugar and molasses, is really a rum tax. And so is a great part of the price of bread.

PORTLAND, Feb. 2.—Rev. Mr. Kalloch of Boston lectured here this evening. He was very favorably received by a crowded audience.

The lecture was before a young men's Christian Association.

NORFOLK.—Extract from a letter dated Norfolk, Jan. 29:

Our intercourse with the world has been entirely suspended for the last ten or twelve days. We have never before experienced such weather as we have had since the new year commenced. People are walking on the ice, daily, to Hampton Roads and back again. Yesterday a gentleman came, with difficulty, from Cape Henry Lighthouse to the city. He reported several vessels ashore from the late gale, and some persons frozen to death. It has been a time of fearful suffering. The loss of life and property must be great. To-day it is a trifle milder, but with no prospect of change soon. Business is entirely suspended.—We learn to-day that it is impossible for vessels to even get into the Chesapeake, as it is frozen tight over from Cape Henry to Cape Charles, and nothing but ice to be seen along the sea coast as far as the eye can reach, North and South.

PERSONAL.—The Washington correspondent of the New York evening Post, thus describes the new Senator from Pennsylvania.

Simon Cameron, Senator elect from Pennsylvania, was in the Senate to-day, listening to the reading of the certificate of his election. Mr. Cameron is a tall, wiry, sharp-featured man, with a well bronzed face, and an ample supply of iron grey hair, which is cut evenly round his forehead, in what the old women call the punkin-shell style. He is of Scotch descent, and has the general aspect of a shrewd Pennsylvania farmer. Having thus described the appearance of this noticeable personage, I deem it my duty to state that the report of Buchanan's having requested his daguerreotype, to be hung up in his bedroom, is considered without foundation. Mr. Cameron was a prominent object of interest at a party given last evening by Col. Seaton, the venerable editor of the Intelligencer. He insists that Pennsylvania does not, and never would, on a fair expression of the popular will, give her voice for Buchanan.

FROZEN TO DEATH.—The body of Joseph Sanford was found by some school children a few days ago, frozen stiff in a snow bank, near Berry's Mills, in West Bath, Me. Sanford is reported to have been intemperate.

On Saturday night, Patrick Sullivan of Bath, came to his death in the same manner, while in a state of intoxication.

WHY BUTTER IS HIGH.—Somebody accounts for the high price of butter as follows:

There is a fine pasture all over the country now, and the price of butter ought to be down to a shilling a pound. Why isn't it? Because the women and girls don't know how to make it. For twenty years past the girls' butter making education has been sadly neglected. They can play the piano, but cannot churn; can dance, but cannot skim milk; can talk a little French, but don't know how to work buttermilk. The women who made the butter twenty years ago are passing away, and there are none to take their places.—That's why butter is high.

☞ The Columbia, S. C., Times says that the unexpected intelligence of the death of Hon. Preston S. Brooks was received there with every demonstration of grief. The bells of the city were tolled during a part of the day. The students of South Carolina College passed resolutions expressive of their sorrow.

DEAD AND ALIVE.—All the men who have been elected Governors of New Hampshire since 1838 are alive, and all before that period are dead.—Nashua Tel.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

This wonderful preparation is having an extensive sale in all parts of the Union. It is one of the few patent medicines which are now sold over the country, that are really what their inventors claim for them. Wherever it has had a fair trial, the result has been precisely as Wood predicts. It has never failed to turn the white hair back to the natural color, where the directions have been strictly followed, and in numerous cases it has restored the hair upon heads that had been bald for years. It is not pretended that it will make the hair grow in every case, but where it fails there is certainly no remedy. The restoration of the hair has been effected in so many instances where the case seemed utterly hopeless, that it is certainly worth while for all who have lost their hair to try the experiment of using a bottle or two of Wood's Restorative.—[Molmes Workman.

THE GREAT DISCOVERY.

Many years ago, Doctor Burleigh Smart, of Kennebunk, Me., discovered that a simple article never before used as a medicine, was a never failing cure for coughs of every description, and an excellent blood purifier. By its use in his private practice, he acquired the reputation of being the best physician in New England, for all diseases of the lungs. After his death, Messrs. Shaw & Clark of Biddeford, Me., obtained a Copy Right from Government, for its exclusive manufacture, and now have it carefully prepared strictly according to the original recipe. There is no cough that it will not cure, unless the patient is past all human aid before commencing its use! It is called "Dr. Smart's Cough Medicine," and for sale by all apothecaries. ow77 TuTsh 6m

Hutchins' Hair Dye.

The very best now in use, as the many thousands that have tried it will testify.

THE great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, having but one preparation. It also contains twice as much dye as any other, and sold at a much less price. This Dye imparts to the hair the most natural color of any yet discovered; and instead of injuring, it gives it the beauty and elasticity of youth. The Dye is having the largest sale of any Dye in the market, and is warranted to give better satisfaction than any yet offered to the public.

Certificate from Mr. J. A. Sazzard, Boston, Mass., Manufacturer of Wigs, &c.

H. HUTCHINS, Esq; DEAR SIR:—Having tried your Hair Dye, which you gave me for trial, I have found it to be superior to any other Hair Dye I ever tried, both in its simplicity and most natural color. The application requires less trouble; I say add, no trouble at all. I therefore wish to use it, recommend it to all my customers, and warrant it, in consideration of my profession, and desire to promote the universal use of your Dye.

Dr. Jacoby's Establishment,

FOR THE TREATMENT THE OF SKIN, AND THE RESTORATION OF THE HAIR, No. 2 Tremont row, Boston Jy 26, eow1y invites the attention of persons subject to diseases of the skin manifested in the gradual loss of the hair, or persons who are already bald, to his establishment, where a remedy can in most cases be found under his Mineral treatment. He cannot, in this connection, warn persons too strongly against the use of greasy substances, or those deleterious washes commonly composed of castor oil and alcohol, which are at once so fatal to the hair and skin. In many cases, the loss of the hair proceeds from these circumstances—The system expels through the pores of the skin a certain quantity of animal matter; if this is suffered to remain, the pores become clogged up, and consequently the health of the hair is impaired. Now, to add to these animal accumulations, greasy substances, particularly one so vicious and gummy as castor oil, is at once to increase the evil. Cleanliness is the first law of nature. The animal deposits must be removed, the skin kept free from all fatty matter, and the pores kept open. Let this be done and in nine cases out of ten there will be no trouble with the hair. In cases where diseases of the skin have been contracted by a long neglect of these rules, a mineral treatment is necessary, to restore the skin to a healthful and natural condition. Dr. Jacoby will be happy to give to any person calling on him a more extended explanation of the whole theory of such diseases and their treatment, founded upon simple and obvious conditions of natural science. The appended certificate is only one of a large number from other sources, testifying to the efficacy of his Mineral Washes as a remedy for baldness.

This is to certify that I have had an article called the Berlin Hair Wash, applied during the last five or six weeks, to my head, for the purpose of renewing and strengthening the hair. It has been very effective in producing such a result; and I can cheerfully recommend the same to those afflicted with baldness or diseases connected therewith.

JONAS CHICKERING.

Dr. Jacoby would also call the attention of the public to his celebrated MINERAL HAIR DYE, which will be found, on trial, to possess advantages over any Dye ever discovered, or now in use. The majority of the usual Hair Dyes are composed of nitrate of silver, wh ch is a powerful caustic, not only sure to injure the skin and the hair, but producing green, pink and metallic tints in its coloring. Dr. Jacoby's Hair Dye, although derived from minerals, has in its composition neither metal nor acid. It will produce any tint from the highest brown to the deepest black, and perfectly imitate the natural hues of the hair. It will also soften the texture of the hair. It will in no case stain, burn, nor in any way injure the skin. Any person can test its its capabilities by a single trial. The most entire and perfect satisfaction is guaranteed for it.

The appended certificate from Dr. Charles T. Jackson will testify to its efficacy:—

Boston, Nov. 18, 1851.

I have seen Dr. M. Jacoby's Hair Dye used in coloring hair of deep brownish black of a beautiful natural color, and can certify that it is perfectly efficient and permanent.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE celebrated machines are in practical and profitable use in all parts of the civilized world. In all the various trades, and in sewing every sort of fabric, either of cloth or leather, they have been fully tried and approved. Sewing machines of other manufacturers often fail to work, but SINGER'S MACHINES being strong, durable and complete in contrivance and workmanship. A perfect sewing machine kept employed affords a clear profit of $1000 a year; but an imperfect one is a source of constant vexation and loss. The entire RELIABILITY of our machines is one great reason for their unparalleled popularity.

ALWAYS OPERATE PERFECTLY,

MACHINES FOR FAMILY SEWING, of a trail and delicate construction, are recommended by other manufactures. Such machines are made to catch the eye, not to perform substantial work. The truth is, family sewing machines ought to be stronger than any other, because they go into less skillful hands than when formed in the factories, and are used for a greater variety of work. The machines which have proved best for all other purposes must be best for family use, and they are now selling at a speed of our machines has lately been doubled. No other can compare with them in quantity of work.

☞ New machine of the latest improved style will be exchanged for liberal cash, or good sewing machines of our own make, or for operative machines of other manufacturers. Local agents wanted to sell our machines.

N. B.—All persons desiring full information about sewing machines, can obtain it by applying for a copy of "I. M Singer & Co.'s Gazette," a paper devoted entirely to the subject, which will be sent gratis. I. M. SINGER & CO.

SPORT.—See advertisement of racing on the ice, to-morrow.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 2.—The Indiana House of Representatives and the Democratic members of the Senate met in what purported to be joint convention to-day, the Republicans refusing to go into convention.

While the Democrats and the Lieutenant Governor were leaving the Senate Chamber, the Republicans called one of their own members to the Chair, and took from the table the contested seat of Mr. Woods, a Democratic Senator, and, in the absence of the Democratic Senators, declared his seat vacant, and immediately adjourned.

This gives the Republicans a clear majority in the Senate over all parties.

The joint convention met and adjourned to the 5th inst., without transacting any business.

CHARLESTOWN, Feb. 1.—Advices from Florida of the 30th ult., state that Gen. Harney had made a requisition for three companies of additional troops. The Indians were supposed to be concentrated near New Smyrna, and plans had been laid by the troops to surround and intercept them.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—The Committee on Foreign Affairs, in the House, will report the French Spoliation Bill, but its friends will not attempt its consideration, owing to the pressure of other business, and for want of time for its consideration.

The Committee on Elections have formally decided to report a resolution declaring vacant the seat held by Mr. Whitfield of Kansas, but making no recommendation relative to Mr. Reeder.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2.—[Correspondence of the New York Herald.]—The President sent to the Senate to-day the following officers to fill vacancies now existing in the Navy: Commanders Bailey, Purviance, Lynch and Morris to be Captains; Lieutenants Pennock, Emmons, Middleton, Hunter, Scott, McDougal and McIntosh to be Commanders. DeGrasse Livingston, Wm. E. Fitzhurgh, Trovet, Abbott, B. P. Dugall, C. H. Cushman, D. F. Stanton, Wm. H. Cheever, H. A. Adams, Jr., B. B. Taylor, U. H. Ward, J. W. Dunnington, H. M. Garland, Jesse Taylor, Jr., James G. Maxwell, Henry Euben Jr., and Francis E. Shepperd, now Masters in the line of promotion, to be Lieutenants.

[New York Tribune correspondence.]—Judge Lecompte's letter of defence, which was read to the Senate in Executive Session on Friday, and furnished in duplicate to the President, has been sent to Gov. Geary for review. Meantime assurances have been given that Mr. Harrison's nomination will be received if the facts alleged by Judge Lecompte are substantiated.

[The latter sentence must be a blunder. We suppose it means that Harrison's nomination will be negatived. We presume it will be—as we have never yet seen the least disposition in the Senate to allow Kansas to be a free State, since Douglas got President Pierce's foot into the Nebraska trap.]

P. S.—Mr. Harrison's nomination (as we see by a later dispatch,) is to be recalled, under certain circumstances.

A gay young man in Pittsburg, entered one of the "fashionable churches" in that city, last Sunday, with a lady on his arm, and after gracefully laying his overcoat over the back of his seat, sat down. Suddenly, however, the congregation was startled by a most outrageous racket, and lo! from the pockets of the young man's overcoat had rolled a torrent of bullets and caps, followed by a silver mounted pistol. The owner of the coat was observed to be very red in the face.

☞ Preston King was chosen U. S. Senator from New York, on the 3d inst. In the Senate he had 14 votes; Headley, K. N., 9; Sickles, Dem., 1.—In the House, King's majority was large.

CONGRESS.

MONDAY, Feb. 2.

SENATE.—On motion of Mr. Weller, a resolution was adopted requesting the Secretary of War to communicate copies of all correspondence not heretofore furnished relative to the proceedings of the San Francisco Vigilance Committe of 1856.

The Senate resumed the consideration of the Indian Appropriation bill, and passed it, with many amendments,—among them the following:—Securing to the New York Indians, who emigrated to Kansas under the treaty of Buffalo Creek, the quantity of land to which they were entitled, to include their improvements; the residue of the tract to constitute part of the public domain; separating the office of Governors of Territories from that of Superintendent of Indian Affairs. Adjourned.

HOUSE.—The House passed the bill legalizing entries under the gradation act of 1854, made prior to its passage, in case where a settlement was made in good faith.

The House took up the bill establishing the Collection Districts of the United States, designating the ports of entry and delivery, and codifying and remodeling the revenue system generally, and it was postponed till Monday next.

Mr. Pelton, from the committee on Commerce, reported back the bill authorizing the President to procure a suitable steam revenue cutter, and an appropriation of $150,000 for that purpose.

The House concurred in the Senate's amendments, striking out the original provisions—"It shall be stationed in New York, and used for the purposes of rescuing shipwrecked persons." The bill now awaits the action of the President.

A bill deviding Texas into two judicial districts, was passed.

Mr. Barbour, from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported a resolution, "that John B. Watrous, District Judge for the Distric of Texas, be impeached of high crimes and misdemeanors."

Pending which the House adjourned.

Nathan Morrill, Esq., of Charlestown, Mass., the popular Superintendent of the Female Seminary in that city, fell upon the sidewalk near his house, a day or two since, breaking the bone of one leg, and putting the ancle of the other out of joint.

☞ The town of Washington, Vermont, has less than 340 voters, and takes 449 newspapers.

ALBANY, Feb. 2.—The Democratic Caucus have nominated Daniel E. Sickles for United States Senator.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.

DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS FOR FEMALES,

Prepared by an old Physician of 40 years experience.

THE combination of ingredients in these Pills, is the result of a long and extensive practice; they are mild in their operation, and certain to restoring nature to its proper channel. In every instance have the Pills proved successful. They are certain to open those obstructions to which females are liable, and bring nature into its proper channel, whereby health is restored, and the pale and deathly countenance changed to a healthy one. No female can enjoy good health unless she is regular; and whenever an obstruction takes place, whether from exposure, cold, or any other cause, the general health immediately begins to decline, and the want of such a remedy has been the cause of so many consumptions among young females. Headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, loathing of food, and disturbed sleep, that most always arise from the interruption of nature; and whenever that is the case, the Pills will invariably remedy all these evils. In all cases of painful menstruation, or nervous and spinal affections in the back and limbs, lowness of spirits, hysterics, &c. Nor are they less efficacious in the cure of Leucorrhœa, commonly called the "Whites." These Pills should never be taken during pregnancy, as they would be sure to cause a miscarriage. Warranted purely Vegetable, and free from anything injurious to life or health. Full and explicit directions which should be read, accompany each box. These Pills are put up in square, flat boxes.—Persons residing where there are no Agencies established, by enclosing One Dollar in a letter, prepaid, to Dr. C. L. Cheeseman, Box No. 4,531, Post Office, New York City, can have them sent to their respective addresses by return of mail.

141 Washington St., Boston,

SUPPLY the best, finest and purest articles, at lowest Cash prices. Their Stock consists of Teas, Coffees, Chocolates, Allspice, Pepper, Mustard, Ginger, Cayenne Pepper, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Cream Tartar; Taraxacum, or Prepared Dandelion Root, &c., &c.

Having every facility for manufacturing and preparing the several articles named, the public may rely upon having them pure and genuine, as they are put up carefully, and bear our name and label, "TREMONT MILLS, E. E. DYER & CO."

To give consumers some idea of our sales, we annex the following scale of prices, viz.:

5 lb. Souchong Tea,	1.50	5 lb. Mocha Coffee,	1.00
5 lb. Oolong "	1.75	5 lb. Java "	90
5 lb. Y. Hyson "	2.25	8 lb. good "	1.00

☞ The Spices are put up in ¼ anh ½ lb. tin cases, expressly for family use, and are warranted to be strictly a pure article, and only need a trial to establish them in public favor.

SPANISH COFFEE.—We would call the attention of customers and dealers to our Spanish Coffee, as an article which is highly esteemed, and gives the greatest satisfaction. It is prepared with particular care, and by a peculiar process in roasting, one pound of this coffee, it is believed, is equal to 1½ lb. of any other.

DANDELION COFFEE.—This article is carefully prepared at our Mills, and put up in packages having our trade mark, and may be relied upon as the best and most approved mixture of dandelion and coffee.

TARAXACUM, or Prepared Dandelion Root.—This article is prepared and roasted at our Mills, is retailed by Family Grocers generally in city and country, and bearing our trade mark, "Chinaman grinding coffee," may be relied upon as the GENUINE ARTICLE. The proportion used is about one-half the quantity of coffee. The price is 20 cents per pound, and it is warrented to be the same as that which has been sold for fifty cents a pound by Druggists.

The medical properties of Dandelion are well-known, and held in high estimation by all who use it. This being a preparation of the root, with all its medicinal virtues retained, can be mixed with coffee or not, as best suits the taste, and will be found cheap and economical as a family beverage, one pound of which being nearly equal to two pounds of coffee it is prescribed by many eminent physicians to invalids, children and aged persons, as a nutritious beverage, and as a remedy for Dyspepsia, Bilious affections, &c.

☞ Be careful to observe that all our Coffees have our trade mark, "Chinaman grinding coffee."

☞ To Grocers and Dealers a liberal discount is made, enabling them to supply their customers at the same low rate.

☞ TO CASH PURCHASERS.—Our object being to secure large sales at small profits, we offer inducements which cannot be afforded by those who do business on the credit system; and we confidently invite an examination of the quality of our stock and our prices, as compared with those of any other house. SLIPPING PREVENTED.—A neat contrivance has been invented to prevent pedestrians slipping on ice. It consists of a central slip of metal, to which two arms are pivoted. The surface of each is mounted with a point which enters the ice. The extremity of each slip is hooked, and the hooks serve as clamps to the heel of the boot, to which it can be readily and securely fastened by the wearer, in a moment.—When not in use, it may be folded in compact form and carried in the pocket.

☞ James Costellow, who was to have been hung at New Orleans on the 16th ult., for the murder of policeman Dunn, took his own life by strychnine; but Patrick Kennedy, the murderer of James Cruise, was executed in the prison yard on that morning by a tall hangman in a slouched hat, black mask and blue domino.

☞ It is said the duties on American flour will soon be reduced, and in future it will be allowed to enter Cuba on the same footing as the Spanish, with the exception of the difference always allowed to Spanish carriers.

AYER'S Cathartic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED,)

ARE MADE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK

Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians, Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach, Costiveness, and Liver Complaints.

DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache any body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. It seems to order from a deranged stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will cure others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing.

Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE,
Clerk of Steamer Cactus.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, WASHINGTON, D. C., 7 Feb., 1858.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and can honestly say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and decided, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them.

Fraternally yours, ALONZO BALL, M.D.,
Physician Government Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARRLAND, LIV. CO., MICH., Nov. 10, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you. She had been sick and lying away for six months. Was off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her, by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her son and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here.

GEO. J. griffin, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WILLIAM, WYCOMING CO., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1857.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountains of the blood.

JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Farmerville Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the paragon of all that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair, which your pills have cured. My child tried your Pills, and they have cured her. ASA MORGRIDGE.

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawkes, of the Methodist Episc. Church.

PULASKI HOUSE, SAVANNAH, GA., Jan. 6, 1856.

HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful if I withheld the skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in chronic rheumatism. Notwithstanding, I had the best of physicians, my disease grew worse and worse, until, by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Mackenzie, I tried your Pills. Their effect was clear, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

SENATE CHAMBER, BATON ROUGE, LA., 5 Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease, which I had suffered for years. VINCENT SLIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are accomplished.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skillful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every quarter of our country, and in many of the American states, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country in this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous disease of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant grounds to believe the CHERRY PECTORAL saves more lives from consumption it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, for prefect them until we hemlin still can master the incurable cankerer that fastened on the vitals, eats your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and as they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not dwelling to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and then offer it to those who rely on it the best agent which our skill can furnish the sick.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which H. Fauntz & Co. are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and see that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. A matter of fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received. In remitting for tickets, the drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Ternary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $10,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

Improved Melodeons.

THE OLDEST ESTABLISHMENT IN THE U.S.

Employing Two Hundred Men, and finishing

Eighty Instruments per Week.

BETWEEN 18,000 AND 19,000

of these instruments have been finished and are now in use.

THE latest improvement in our Melodeons is the DIVIDED SWELL, secured to us by Letters Patent 22d May, 1855.—By means of this Swell Solo Passages may be played with the full power of the instrument, while the Accompaniment is soft and subdued.—Hereafter, all Melodeons made by us, will be furnished with this attachment without extra charge.

Extract from the Commercial Advertiser, Feb. 7, 1855.

"Messrs. Prince & Co could realize a handsome fortune by disposing of rights to other manufacturers to use their new improvement; but as they prefer to make it a feature in their instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufacture."

It is now eight years since we commenced the manufacture of this new and elaborate Musical Instrument, during which time we have finished and sold nearly NINETEEN THOUSAND. Voluntary testimonials to the excellence of our Instruments, from the highest Musical Professors of Music in different parts of the United States, have from time to time been received. Thus far we have said little, and our advertisements were seldom seen for the reason that we could not supply the demand. We have lately erected one of the largest and most perfect Manufacturing Establishments in the United States, and we now think that we can fill orders promptly. We therefore give one testimonial we have received.

NEW YORK, 15th Oct., 1855

"G. A. Prince & Co.: Gentlemen—The Double Reed Melodeon has arrived, and a most charming instrument it is. It has been played on by Wallace, Dodworth, Hodges, Wm. Mason, and a host of others, and they all pronounce it the most beautiful toned reed instruments they have ever touched. Very resp'ly, JAMES F. HALL."

We are not aware that the above mentioned Melodeons are in particular demand by those we are daily finishing, and we can assure those who are inclined to favor us with their orders, that they will be furnished with an instrument equally as good. Our Instruments are all finished in Rosewood Cases, and the workmanship is of the very best quality. The styles and prices are—

TEMPERANCE IN MAINE.

Messrs. Editors:—Good news from the Pine Tree State will be grateful to you, and those who read your good paper, and such I have to communicate. Since our glorious anti-liquor law was stricken down by Vandal hands, the rum traffic has been carried on openly and above-board, and the results are such as always follow it—pauperism, crime, and domestic wretchedness are found in all our towns. I shall be safe in saying that there is more of drunkenness seen in one month, than for the three years preceding. Such is the operation of our "judicious license law." But the masses of the people are far from being satisfied with this state of things.—"There is a change going on"—a manifest reaction taking place, which will inevitably, in the end, overthrow this miserable, wicked law, and enact one in its place like the one which has wrought such wonders in former years, a good Prohibitory Law.

Our State Temperance Convention was held last Thursday in the Capitol, and a great affair it was, I assure you. For numbers, weight of character, enthusiasm, it has been rarely if ever surpassed in the State. Hon. Neal Dow presided, and never appeared to better advantage; he is almost idolized by the temperance men of Maine. In the evening, in the Representatives' Hall, he delivered a speech of two hours, of surpassing eloquence and power; scattering the sophistry and arguments of faint hearted temperance men, as well as opponents, to the wind. He is, I am sorry to say, to leave us on the first of April, for a six months' tour in England on this important mission. The action of the Convention was of the right stamp, fully up to the times, and if carried out by the State Committee, will put the State back where she stood formerly, within one year. This result we think inevitable, and could name many reasons for it, if we had space; the most important of which is, that men are found in every community, who were most bitter opponents of the Maine Law formerly, and voted for its overthrow, who are now satisfied that the present law is a failure, and are crying out for another Maine Law.

The idea of the politicians submitting a law to a popular vote of the people, found no favor in the convention, but a resolution was passed by a unanimous vote "To vote for such men, and such only as are unequiqocal and out-spoken forprohibition."

Rev. E. W. Jackson, who has been laboring in this State for the past four months, has received and accepted a call from the New York State Society to become their agent. We hope the Granite State will stand firm for prohibition. Maine will again join her soon. Yours truly,

Maine, Feb. 2, '57. ELIPHAZ.

TRIAL—OR NO TRIAL.—Messrs. Giddings & Bailey, the accusers of Rev. Mr. Kalloch, of Boston, have published the following card:

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.—In answer to the statements made by the committee in the case of Rev. I. S. Kalloch, we wish to say that the published affidavits can be corroborated by evidence not yet made known. Also, that some of the statements of that committee can, and will, if necessary, be refuted by the testimony of gentlemen in as good standing as any one on that or any other committee. The public can rest assured that a legal investigation will be had in the matter.

EPHRAIM P. BAILEY,
SAM'L GIDDINGS.

East Cambridge, Feb. 2, 1857.

The Hartford Courant, the Boston Journal, and some other papers, have advised Kalloch and his friends to procure a legal investigation—and the latter paper now says, in view of the above card:

It is probable that the facts will be judiciously investigated, without the friends of Mr. Kalloch taking the initiative.

There are two or three ways to get the case into court.

1. Kalloch and his friends may sue Giddings and Bailey, and the editor of the Times, if they can find him, for libel! but unless they are uncommonly green, (almost as green as K. was to go to the Lechmere House,) they will never do that.

2. Giddings and Bailey, or any body else in that county, who believes their story, may complain of K. for adultery, which crime they aver they believe he committed.

3. K.'s wife, or the husband of the woman who went with him, may complain of either or both, for any crime they choose, and call for damages, or sue for divorce.

We do not see, at present, much prospect of either. We see none at all, of the 3d course,—as we have never yet seen any intimation that the respective partners of the accused are in the least suspicious.

If G. and B. really meant to complain, they would complain, and not promise or threaten in the papers to do so. No officer, as we suppose, would complain, on the testimony they give in their affidavits, without more and better evidence of adultery, which is the crime committed, if any.

☞ A lengthy article in the Danbury (Conn.) Times, giving a history of the hat manufactory in that town, states that the first building ever erected in this country as a Hat Shop was built in Danbury and the first hat ever made in these United States was made in that town.

Arnold's Vital Fluid

PURIFIES and strengthens the blood by eradicating, through a nice chemical action, the causes of impurities and humors. Hence its power to cure humors that mere medicine cannot cure. Hence its power of strengthening and vitalizing the blood. It furnishes to a certain extent, the element of which pure blood is composed. It eradicates and cleanses away whatever clogs and thickens the blood.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID
Renders the system strong and healthy, by freeing the blood and stomach from objectionable materials. It nerves and vivifies the system, by furnishing the elements which give vitality.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID
Gives to the system an influence and effect similar to that produced by exercise in the free open air. It exhilarates by strengthening the blood to brighter and better action—doing its work by beginning at the beginning. It is pleasant to the taste, and becomes a favorite wherever known.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID
Removes Biliousness in the most direct and easy manner, by neutralizing the cause. This is the principle of its action in removing illness generally. It neutralizes the cause, by freeing the blood from impediments to its proper fulfilment of its life-giving functions.

This principle of neutralizing the cause is why ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID CURES HUMORS that mere medicine cannot sensibly affect, and why it cures other diseases

Resulting from Poisons in the Blood,
that mere medicinal preparations cannot alleviate. Humors are poisons in the blood, and it is by their chemical action in neutralizing those poisons that ARNOLD'S GLOBULES AND VITAL FLUID are enabled to cure them so that they stay cured.

VITAL FLUID 50 cents per bottle; GLOBULES 25 cents per box.

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1857.

FROM KANSAS.—The Lecompton correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat, under date of Jan. 23, says:

A bill passed the Council on Wednesday, repealing the test oaths imposed by law at the last session.

Four or five members spoke, declaring that they would vote for repeal through policy—otherwise a State Constitution recognizing slavery could not be got through Congress. The vote was unanimous in the same body that enacted them unanimously last year. The members of the Council state that it was no concession to the Free-soilers of the Territory, to whom they declared endless hostility.

The repeal of these test oaths, although a just measure, is too late to be of value to the people of the Territory. All of the counties will be organized, and county officers appointed by this body before it goes into force, and these hold offices for several years, and until Kansas will be a State.

Several important political measures have already come under the consideration of the Territorial Legislature, but up to this date the absorbing business has been a shoal of charter and corporation bills of a private character. These latter originated to a great extent, with the members of the Legislature themselves. They are the corporations of towns, railroads, banks, &c., and if any other pro-slavery man wants a measure through this body, his easiest way of obtaining it is, by giving members a large interest in the same.

This feature, as your readers will remember, characterized the legislation of this body, in the summer of 1855, and from appearances will be carried to a much greater extent this session.

A bill has been passed to a third reading, legalizing the acts of Mr. Shanard, the successor of Sheriff Jones, although Gov. Geary refused to commission him. A Legislative Committee waited upon the Governor, to demand his reasons for taking this course, and he replied that the citizens of Lecompton and of the County of Douglas had sent him a memorial, protesting against the appointment of Shanard. One of the Judges of the county court had also protested against the appointment to him; and that besides these reasons, the appointee was a man of violent passions and character, an intemperate man, and would only raise mobs and disturbances. His instructions were to commission none such.

The Leavenworth correspondent of the Democrat states that the dispatch from Washington, stating that the land sales would soon be resumed in this place, and continued here until all the trust lands belonging to the Delawares were sold, was received by the squatters with much gratification, as nothing could have been more injurious to the interests of stockholders in Leavenworth, than the removal of the sale to Washington.

The writer calls for the removal of Brindle, the receiver of public moneys, and Calhoun, Surveyor General, for these good reasons:

Brindle was one of the kidnapping fraternity in Lycoming county, Pennsylvania, and after having swindled the government of that State for a series of years, came out here, and made himself obnoxious in the eyes of every man who has the least spark of philanthropy, by heading a gang of ruffians in this place, at the time Phillips was shot and Hoppas scalped. For this act of bravery he was appointed receiver of public moneys, and Thomas Shoemaker removed. Brindle is a notorious rascal, and for the benefit of the community should be removed immediately. Calhoun, Surveyor General of this and Nebraska Territories, is a fit subject for the immediate consideration of his Excellency, Franklin Pierce.—Calhoun procured the carriage that took H. Miles Moore to Wyandott City, where preparations were being made to hang him, and had it not been for the timely interference of the citizens of Kansas City, he would probably have met the fate of a great many that have fallen in that vicinity because they desired Kansas to become a free State. He has been connected with almost every disturbance in this Territory, is a notorious drunkard, and is unfit to occupy any position before the public.

SPANISH COIN.—Spanish quarters and dimepences are changing hands very rapidly. Some of our traders refuse to take them at more than twenty and ten cents; others take them at their old value. Those who hold them should not part with them at the above named low rates, as they are worth more for old silver. The brokers will take them at nearly their original value.—Boston Chron.

They pass freely in Portsmouth at the old rates. And the above item shows that this [illegible] is right. As a general thing, the [illegible]rs are worth more than 20 cts.—and quart[illegible] them are as heavy as our American many of [illegible]. L. DE FORREST.—Since the mysterious disappearance of young Pierce, about a year ago, says the New York Times, there has been no case of the kind so entirely shrouded in mystery as that of Mr. De Forrest. A young man of wealth, education and promise, and an only son, visits the city and suddenly disappears.—Although seventeen days have elapsed since his mysterious absence was made known, we have yet no clue to his whereabouts—nothing but the well known bad character of the city after dark to base our conjectures upon as to his fate. He is the son of Dr. De Forrest of Watertown, Connecticut, and a graduate of Yale College; he studied engineering at New Haven for three years subsequent to leaving college. He is a young man of means, having inherited about $20,000 from a relative a few years since. His father, who is a retired physician, is also reputed wealthy.—He is 22 years of age, stout built, full face, square, prominent forehead, dark hair, black eyes, and very small whiskers. He came to New York from Watertown, on the 13th of the present month, intending to sail on the 17th in the Empire City, on a pleasure trip to Havana, in company with an aunt then stopping at the residence of Mr. Coe, No. 9 First Place, South Brooklyn. On the 14th, he called on Mr. Eli Curtis, an uncle, No. 57 Maiden Lane, who was not in at the time, and thence went to the American Exchange Bank, where he was known to have had a check cashed for $120. The total amount of money he had about his person after leaving the bank was not far from $500.

On Friday his friends became alarmed at his prolonged absence, and set to work canvassing the principal hotels, in search of him. It was soon discovered that he had stopped at the Metropolitan Hotel, and was last seen there on the morning of Wednesday, the 14th; his room was unoccupied on Wednesday evening. On Monday advertisement was inserted by his friends, offering $500 reward for his body, and stating that his baggage having been found at the Metropolitan Hotel, where he stopped, it was supposed he had been robbed and murdered.

On Thursday, January 22, Mr. Eli Curtis, of No. 56 Maiden Lane, received the following note from an unknown source;

BROOKLYN, Jan. 30, 1857.

Mr. Curtis: Dear Sir—Mr. De Forrest was knocked down after crossing the ferry, on the 13th inst. The body will be found on the change of the tide within six days, in the East River.

The writer made an evident mistake in naming the 13th, as Mr. De Forrest did not disappear till the day succeeding. On Thursday last, Dr. De Forrest returned home, having abandoned the search for his missing son, and well nigh resigns all hope of seeing him again.

☞ In a duel, fought near New Orleans, about a fortnight since, Le Blanc, Deputy Sheriff of the Supreme Court of Louisiana, was instantly killed. The insult which led to this fatal result, and which the New Orleans Delta characterizes as "one of the grossest kind, demanding appeal to the most deadly redress," was the refusal of the Committee of Invitation to a public ball to issue a card of admission to a friend of the deceased.

☞ A bill to repeal the present statute against lotteries, is before the Louisiana Legislature, with a fair prospect of success. The argument which has most weight with the leading journals of the State, is the fact that the Havana lotteries draw no less than $750,000 annually out of the State, and other lotteries $250,000. A law to legalize and regulate home lotteries would (so they reason) add so much to their own legitimate revenue.

THE HEALTH OF MRS. PIERCE.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Courier writes as follows:—"The health of Mrs. Pierce continues so much affected that it is thought unadvisable for her to undertake any journey North or South, until the settled weather of the late spring shall have arrived. In view of her condition Mr. Buchanan has invited Gen. Pierce to make the White House his residence as long as he shall desire to remain in the city, and it is stated that the invitation has been accepted.

AIDS TO THE GOVERNOR.—Gov. Hamlin of Maine, in his capacity as Commander-in Chief has appointed M. F. Wentworth, of Kittery, Charles A. Wing, of Windham, Theophilus H. Cushing, of Frankfort, and Benjamin Freeman of Bethel, to be his Aid-de-Camp, with the rank Lieut. Colonel.

☞ There is much suffering among the poor of Richmond, Va. The City Council has appropriated $1000 for their relief.

☞ A coward, named Joseph M. Wilmot, a "third hand" on the Boott corporation in Lowell, Mass. knocked down one of the girls in the room, named Caroline Esty, on Friday forenoon, and then dragged her out of it. It appears that the parties had not been on good terms. In the absence of the first hand, Wilmot ordered her out, and on her not obeying, served her in the brutal manner described, striking her several times. The second hand looked on without protecting the girl. Wilmot was fined ten dollars and costs in the Police Court in the afternoon, and has been discharged from the mill. A civil action for damages has been commenced against him. So says the News.

ESSEX COUNTY C. C. PLEAS.—This Court is now in session in Salem, Judge Bishop presiding. A large number of indictments were presented by the Grand Jury. Several liquor dealers were arraigned for sentence on old counts. It was reported at the Court House, that a large number of new indictments had been formed against liquor dealers, but they have not as yet, been made public.

It appears that the great number of witnesses from Newburyport, summoned before the Grand Jury, were wanted for their knowledge of the liquor business. Of course, they were Know Nothings, and the District Attorney ought to have learned before this, that one of the effects of liquor drinking is to render men oblivious of what they are doing, and the more they take the less they know. If he did not understand that before, we guess he does now.—But we don't hardly see how this court can make up a face—they can make a farce well enough—to try a liquor case, after that supper.—Herald.

What does the Herald mean? Are the court a set of tipplers?

☞ Mr. Caleb Upham, of Weathersfield, Vt., an old man in his 83d year having had some trouble with a couple of men in the management of his farm, and getting into dispute with them said that, "he would die first, but he would have his own way a part of the time," and after saying these words, dropped dead. He was a highly respectable man.

LETTER FROM A SUBSCRIBER.

(———),N.H., JANUARY, 28, 1857.

Mr. Miller: Dear Sir,—When I was turned over, by the editor of the "New Hampshire Phœnix," to your paper, I thought that when the time for which I had paid, should expire, I should say "stop." But on reading it for nearly a year, (and I assure you that I do read it,) I have become so strongly attached to it, that I will enclose one dollar to pay for it another year. I am greatly pleased with the high independent stand, which you take on the great moral questions of the day. And as a minister of Jesus Christ, let me exhort you to stand firm on the rock of eternal truth. Never, no, never, go back, but let your motto be "onward to perfection." It always has, and probably always will, cost men something to stand up for the truth and right. See that you never pamper the depraved appetites and passions of men. But as far as your paper shall spread, let it carry a moral balm "for the healing of the nation."

Yours, respectfully,

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

This wonderful preparation is having an extensive sale in all parts of the Union. It is one of the few patent medicines which are now sold over the country, that are really what their inventors claim for them. Wherever it has had a fair trial, the result has been precisely as Wood predicts. It has never failed to turn the white hair back to the natural color, where the directions have been strictly followed, and in numerous cases it has restored the hair upon heads that had been bald for years. It is not pretended that it will make the hair grow in every case, but where it fails there is certainly no remedy. The restoration of the hair has been effected in so many instances where the case seemed utterly hopeless, that it is certainly worth while for all who have lost their hair to try the experiment of using a bottle or two of Wood's Restorative.—[Moline Workman.

THE GREAT DISCOVERY.

Many years ago, Doctor Burleigh Smart of Kennebunk, Me., discovered that a simple article never before used as a medicine, was a never failing cure for coughs of every description, and an excellent blood purifier. By its use in his private practice, he acquired the reputation of being the best physician in New England, for all diseases of the lungs. After his death, Messrs. Shaw & Clark of Biddeford, Me., obtained a Copy Right from Government, for its exclusive manufacture, and now have it carefully prepared strictly according to the original recipe. There is no cough that it will not cure, unless the patient is past all human aid before commencing its use! It is called "Doctor Burleigh Smart's Cough Medicine," and is for sale by all apothecaries. Hutchins' Hair Dye.

The very best now in use, as the many thousands that have tried it will testify.

THE great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, having out one preparation. It also contains twice as much as any other, and sold at a much less price. This Dye imparts to the hair the most natural color of any yet discovered; and instead of injuring, it gives it the beauty and elasticity of youth. This Dye is having the largest sale of any Dye in the market, and is warranted to give better satisfaction than any yet offered to the public.

Certificate from Mr. J. A. Sassard, Boston, Mass., Manufacturer of Wigs, &c.

H. HUTCHINS, Esq; DEAR SIR:—Having tried your Hair Dye, which you gave me for trial, I have found it to be superior to any other Hair Dye I ever tried, both in its simplicity and most natural color. The application requires less trouble; I may add, no trouble at all. I therefore wish to use it, recommend it to all my customers, and warrant it, in consideration of my profession, and desire to promote the universal use of your Dye.

Dr. Jacoby's Establishment,

FOR THE TREATMENT THE OF SKIN, AND THE RESTORATION OF THE HAIR, No. 2 TREMONT STREET, BOSTON. DR. JACOBY invites the attention of persons subject to diseases of the skin manifested in the gradual loss of the hair, or persons who are already bald, to his establishment, where a remedy can in most cases be found under his Mineral treatment. He cannot, in this connection, warn persons too strongly against the use of greasy substances, or those deleterious washes commonly composed of castor oil and alcohol, which are at once so fatal to the hair and skin. In many cases, the loss of the hair proceeds from these circumstances:—The system expels through the pores of the skin a certain quantity of animal matter; if this is suffered to remain, the pores become clogged up, and consequently the health of the hair is impaired. Now, to add to these animal accumulations, greasy substances, particularly one so viscous and gummy as castor oil, is of course to increase the evil. Cleanliness is the first law of nature. The animal deposits must be removed, the skin kept free from all fatty matter, and the pores kept open. Let this be done and in nine cases out of ten there will be no trouble with the hair. In cases where diseases of the skin have been contracted by a long neglect of these rules, a mineral treatment is necessary to restore the skin to a healthful and natural condition. Dr. JACOBY will be happy to give to any person calling on him a more extended explanation of the whole theory of such diseases and their treatment, founded upon simple and obvious conditions of natural science. The appended certificate is only one of a large number from other sources, testifying to the efficacy of his Mineral Washes as a remedy for baldness.

This is to certify that I have had an article called the Berlin Hair Wash, applied during the last five or six weeks, to my head, for the purpose of renewing and strengthening the hair. It has been very effective in producing such a result; and I can cheerfully recommend the same to those afflicted with baldness or diseases connected therewith. JONAS CHICKERING.

Dr JACOBY would also call the attention of the public to his celebrated Mineral Hair Dye, which will be found, on trial, to possess advantages over any Dye ever discovered, or now in use. The majority of the usual Hair Dyes are composed of nitrate of silver, which is a powerful caustic, not only sure to injure the skin and burn the hair, but producing green, pink and metallic tints in its coloring. Dr. Jacoby's Hair Dye is entirely derived from minerals, has in its composition neither metal nor acid. It will produce any tint from the highest brown to the deepest black, and perfectly imitate the natural color of the hair. It will also soften the texture of the hair. It will in no case stain, burn, nor in any way injure the skin, any person can test its capability by a single trial. The most entire and perfect satisfaction is guaranteed for it.

The appended certificate from Dr. Charles T. Jackson will testify to its efficacy:—

Boston, Nov. 18, 1851.

I have seen Dr. M. Jacoby's Hair Dye used in coloring hair of deep brownish black of a beautiful natural color, and can certify that it is perfectly efficient and permanent.

Singer's Sewing Machines.

THESE celebrated machines are in practical and profitable use in all parts of the civilized world. In all the various trades, and in sewing every sort of fabric, either of cotton or leather, they have been fully tried and approved. Sewing machines of other manufacturers often fail to work, but SINGER'S MACHINES being strong, durable and complete in contrivance and workmanship. A perfect sewing machine kept employed affords a clear profit of $1000 a year; but an imperfect one is a cause of constant vexation and loss. The entire RELIABILITY of our machines is one great reason for their unparalleled popularity.

ALWAYS OPERATE PERFECTLY,

MACHINES FOR FAMILY SEWING, of a trail and delicate construction, are recommended by other manufacturers. Such machines are made to catch the eye, not to perform substantial work. The truth is, family sewing machines ought to be stronger than any other, because they go into less skilful hands than those sold to manufacturers, and are used for a greater variety of work. The machines which have proved best for all other purposes must be best for family use, and they are selling more rapidly of our machines has lately been doubled. No other can compare with them in quantity of work.

☞ New machines of the improved style will be exchanged on liberal terms for old sewing machines of our own make, or for operative machines of other manufacturers. Local agents wanted to sell our machines.

N. B.—All persons desiring full information about sewing machines, can obtain it by applying for a copy of "I. M. Singer & Co.'s Gazette," a paper devoted entirely to the subject. It will be sent gratis. I. M. SINGER & CO.

LOCAL.

☞ The Concert this evening at the Temple, ought to command a full house, on its own merits, as it will doubtless be in good taste, and be handsomely executed.—And it should crowd the Temple as full as it can hold, on the score of the charity it proposes to aid.

The programme of the pieces to be sung,—and the names of the performers, may be seen in our advertising columns.

For the Chronicle.

PISCATAQUA RIVER.—Messrs. Editors:—We have noticed an article in the Chronicle, purporting that "our river" had recently been frozen sufficiently to support persons walking. A former resident of Portsmouth informs us, in January, 1779, Dr. Hall Jackson having a patient in New Castle (then called Great Island), crossed over from Portsmouth, on the ice, with his horse and sleigh. B. P.

☞ Those who relish a horse-race, or who like to see a "trial of speed" will find something to their mind, on the North Mill Pond, this afternoon. Sporting on the ice, though very common elsewhere, has never been tried here before, or not for a long time, at least.

MEAN SWINDLING.—The Lowell News of Jan. 31, tells the following story.

A party applied at the Mayor's office during one of the cold evenings of last week in behalf of an Irish family on Water street, who were, it was said, in the greatest extremity for food and fuel. A messenger was promptly despatched to care for them through the night. Everything betokened the most squalid poverty. The next morning, the worthy master of the poor farm, accompanied by the city messenger, went to the house to ascertain the wants of the family, that they might be supplied. As in all such cases, an investigation was previously made. The first movement revealed very nearly a whole barrel of flour. The next, a barrel of crackers. Then came three-fourths of a ton of coal; and then a half-cord of firewood sawed and split. The woman then interfered, and Messrs. Langland Mooney thereupon took their leave. No further pitiful stories of the family's sufferings have been heard at the Mayor's office.

MAINE REFORM SCHOOL.—Of 345 committed since the Institution of the School, 49 were foreign born.

SNOW IN THE TROPICS.—There was a fall of snow in the city of Mexico, on the night of the 20th ult., and the thermometer stood at one degree above zero. In the morning, the whole city was covered with a mantle of snow. The storm of that date seems to have covered an immense space.

There were 110 divorce suits instituted in San Francisco during the year 1856.—In 39 of these cases decrees of divorce had already been granted. In 1855 there were 72 divorce suits commenced in San Francisco, and it is presumed that decrees dissolving marriage have been rendered in all of them.

☞ Henry W. Shroeder, a tailor, was murdered in his shop at St. Paul, Minnesota, no doubt for his money, as he had been heard to say he never would deposit his gains again, because the banker with whom he once entrusted $1700, failed and cheated him out of it.

☞ John H. Griffin, Esq., of Jackson county, Ga., slaughtered a hog last week weighing 687 1-2 pounds. A negro who fed the animal got so drunk in rejoicing that he died in a fit.

CONGRESS.

TUESDAY, Feb. 3.

SENATE.—Mr. Wilson introduced a bill securing to actual settlers alternate sections in lands granted for railroads.

The Senate went into Executive session at 1 o'clock, Mr. Mason saying there was imperious duty for doing so immediately. The Central American treaty was debated for three hours, and the Senate adjourned without coming to any conclusion on the subject.

HOUSE.—The House was mostly occupied on business relating to the District of Columbia, and adjourned without having done anything of least public importance.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—The inquest into the Bond street tragedy was concluded yesterday. Young Burchell, who first discovered the murder, testified to having seen Eckle go into the back yard, where he had never known him to go before, at an early hour on Saturday morning. A Mr. and Mrs. Stephens testified to Dr. Burdell's having told them that he felt unsafe in his own house, from the presence of persons he did not like; that he had made his will and should never marry; that Mrs. Cunningham was very anxious that he should marry her, but he would not have her to save all his money and his life besides, and that when her lease was out in May, he should clear them out of his house. They also testified to sundry things, tending to show a plot on the part of Eckle and Mrs. Cunningham against the Doctor.

Other testimony makes it probable that the murder was committed about 11 o'clock.

A TERRIBLE TALE TOLD ROUND A CHRISTMAS FIRE.—A sickly looking young man, who gave the name of Walter Booth, aged nineteen, at present an inmate of the Islington workhouse, but who was formerly a butcher, was placed at the bar of the Clerkenwell police court, charged by James Arnault, a pauper in the same establishment, with committing a murder under the following extraordinary circumstances:

On Christmas day the inmates at the workhouse, sitting around the fire, had agreed to relate terrible stories and adventures. The prisoner, during the relation of a murder story seemed to be much troubled in mind, being pressed to account for this, he said he had committed a most horrible and atrocious crime, and that the recollection of it haunted him night and day. Pressed to narrate the particulars, he told a tale of horror—his going forth along the banks of the Regent's canal—his determining to assail the first person he met, and have their money—his meeting and murdering an elderly gentleman by stabbing him repeatedly with a butcher's knife, his rifling the body of gold, notes, gold watch, chain, &c., and his throwing the body into the canal.

This story, with all the attendant expressions of horror and remorse which Booth uttered, induced the inmates to apprise the police. The evidence made it clear to the magistrate that the whole thing was a mere romance. The prisoner, who is very ill, and in a consumption, said, in defense, that it was only a terrible tale which he had told round the Christmas fire, for the amusement of his companions, and he never thought he should be given in custody and locked up for it. He was entirely innocent of the charge of murder. Mr. Tyrwhitt said, after a long and patient examination, that there was no foundation whatever for the charge. It was evidently a Christmas story, and he should discharge the prisoner. The prisoner then left the court with his friends.—London Police Gazette.

An inquisitive priest having asked a young lady her name in the confessional, she replied, with as much wit as modesty, "Father my name is not a sin."

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.

DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS FOR FEMALES,

Prepared by an old Physician of 40 years experience.

THE combination of ingredients in these Pills, is the result of a long and extensive practice; they are mild in their operation, and certain to restoring nature to its proper channel. In every instance have the Pills proved successful. They are certain to open those obstructions to which females are liable, and bring nature into its proper channel, whereby health is restored, and the pale and deathly countenance changed to a healthy one. No female can enjoy good health unless she is regular; and whenever an obstruction takes place, whether from exposure, cold, or any other cause, the general health immediately begins to decline, and the want of such a remedy has been the cause of so many consumptions among young females. Headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, loathing of food, and disturbed sleep, that most always arise from the interruption of nature; and whenever that is the case, the Pills will invariably remedy all these evils. In all cases of painful menstruation, or nervous and spinal affections in the back and limbs, lowness of spirits, hysterics, &c. Nor are they less efficacious in the cure of Leucorrhœa, commonly called the "Whites." These Pills should never be taken during pregnancy, as they would be sure to cause a miscarriage. Warranted purely Vegetable, and free from anything injurious to life or health. Full and explicit directions which should be read, accompany each box.

These Pills are put up in square, flat boxes.—Persons residing where there are no Agencies established, by enclosing One Dollar in a letter, prepaid, to DR. C. L. CHEESEMAN, Box No. 4,581, Post Office, New York City, can have them sent to their respective addresses by return of mail.

5 lb. Oolong "	1.75	5 lb. Java "	.90
5 lb. Y. Hyson "	2.25	8 lb. good "	1.00

☞ The Spices are put up in ¼ and ½ lb. tin cases, expressly for family use, and are warranted to be strictly a pure article, and only need a trial to establish them in public favor.

SPANISH COFFEE.—We would call the attention of customers and dealers to our Spanish Coffee, as an article which is highly esteemed, and gives the greatest satisfaction. It is prepared with particular care, and by a peculiar process in roasting, one pound of this coffee, it is believed, is equal to 1½ lb. of any other.

DANDELION COFFEE.—This article is carefully prepared at our Mills, and put up in packages having our trade mark, and may be relied upon as the best and most approved mixture of dandelion and coffee.

TARAXACUM, or Prepared Dandelion Root.—This article is prepared and roasted at our Mills, is retailed by Family Grocers generally in city and country, and bearing our trade mark, "Chinaman grinding coffee." may be relied upon as the GENUINE ARTICLE. The medical properties of Dandelion are well-known, and held in high estimation by all who use it. This being a preparation of the root, with all its medicinal virtues retained, can be mixed with coffee or not, as best suits the taste, and will be found cheap and economical as a family beverage, one pound of which being nearly equal to two pounds of coffee. It is prescribed by many eminent physicians to invalids, children and aged persons, as a nutritious beverage, and as a remedy for Dyspepsia, Bilious affections, &c.

☞ Be careful to observe that all our Coffees have our trade mark, "Chinaman grinding coffee."

☞ To Grocers and Dealers a liberal discount is made, enabling them to supply their customers at the same low rate.

☞ TO CASH PURCHASERS.—Our object being to secure large sales at small profits, we offer inducements which cannot be afforded by those who do business on the credit system; and we confidently invite an examination of the quality of our stock and our prices, as compared with those of any other house.

AYER'S Cathartic Pills,
(SUGAR COATED,)
SEE SIDE TO

CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK
Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians, Philanthropists, read their Effects, and judge of their Virtues.

FOR THE CURE OF
Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach,

PITTSBURG, PA., May 1, 1856.
DR. J. C. AYER. Sir: I have been repeatedly cured of the worst headache and liver complaint by a box or two of your Pills. It seems to arise from a foul stomach, which they cleanse at once. If they will cure others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing.
Yours with great respect, ED. W. PREBLE, Clerk of Steamer Clarion.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints.

DEPARTMENT OF THE INTERIOR, WASHINGTON, D. C., 7 Feb., 1856.
SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice ever since you made them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we employ. Their regulating action on the liver is quick and skilful, consequently they are an admirable remedy for derangements of that organ. Indeed, I have seldom found a case of bilious disease so obstinate that it did not readily yield to them.
Fraternally yours, ALONZO ALE, M. D., Physician of the Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

POST OFFICE, HARTLAND, LIV. CO., MICH., Nov. 16, 1855.
DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than all the rest we use. She had been sick and pining away for months. Went off to be doctored at great expense, but got no better. She then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her, by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her body. They afterwards cured her and our two children of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your pills. While others around us paid from five to twenty dollars doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured entirely even once. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be prized here.
GEO. J. GRIFFIN, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Impurity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.
DR. AYER: Have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those who have called to visit in distress. To regulate the organs of digestion and purify the blood they are the very best remedy I have ever known, and I can confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours,
J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, WYOMING CO., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1855.
DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the fountain of life.
JOHN G. MEACHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Forwarding Merchant of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.
DR. AYER: Your Pills are the best cathartic pill that is great in medicine. They have cured my little daughter of ulcerous sores upon her hands and feet that had proved incurable for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her face and in her hair. After our child was cured, she also tried your Pills, and they have cured her. ASA MORRIDGE

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hawks, of the Methodist Episc. Church.
FULTON HOUSE, CINCINNATI, O., Jan. 4, 1856.
HONORED SIR: I should be ungrateful for the relief your skill has brought me if I did not report my case to you. A cold settled in my limbs and brought on excruciating neuralgic pains, which ended in a violent rheumatism. Notwithstanding I had the best of physicians, the disease grew worse and worse, until, by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. Magruder, I tried your Pills. Their effects were slow, but sure. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.
SYMES CHAMBER, BATON ROUGE, LA., 5 Dec., 1855.
DR. AYER: I have been entirely cured by your Pills of a Rheumatic Gout—a painful disease that had afflicted me for years. VINCENT SLIDELL.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and effectual.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the alterative action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilful hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the danger of administering it frequently follow its incautious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL
FOR THE RAPID CURE OF
COUGHS, COLDS, HOARSENESS, INFLUENZA, BRONCHITIS, WHOOPING COUGH, CROUP, ASTHMA, INCIPIENT CONSUMPTION,
and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of the American States, its wonderful cures of pulmonary complaints have made it already known. Nay, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its effects; and fewer yet the communities any where which have not among them some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous disease of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the insidious enemy that steals upon them unprepared. We have abundant proofs to believe the CHERRY PECTORAL cures more lives by the consumptions it prevents than those it cures. Keep it by you, and cure your colds while they are curable, or say, like Cæsar, unto all no human skill can succeed against the canker that fastened on the vitals, saith your life away. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and so they know too the virtues of this remedy, we need not dwelling more than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, no toil to produce it the most perfect possible, and to offer it with full reliance that the best agent which our skill can furnish for their relief.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. FRENCH & Co. are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and by consolidating their stock by the people, who be sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the drawings of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If any particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are sent out, unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Ternary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to the purchasers immediately after it is over.

of these instruments have been finished and are now in use.

THE latest improvement in our Melodeons is the DOUBLE SWELL, secured to us by Letters Patent 22d May, 1855.—By means of this Swell Solo Passages may be played with the full power of the Instrument, while the Accompaniment is soft and subdued.—Hereafter, all Melodeons made by us, will be furnished with this attachment without extra charge.

Extract from the Commercial Advertiser, July 27, 1855.
"Messrs. Prince & Co could realize a handsome fortune by disposing of rights to other manufacturers to use their new improvement; but as they prefer to make it a feature in their Instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufacture."

It is now eight years since we commenced the manufacture of this new celebrated Musical Instrument, during which time we have built and sold nearly NINETEEN THOUSAND. Voluntary testimonials to the excellence of our Instruments, from the most distinguished Professors of Music in different parts of the United States, have from time to time been received. Thus far we have said but little, and our advertisements were seldom used for the reason that we could not supply the demand. We have lately erected one of the largest and most perfect Manufacturing Establishments in the United States, and we now think that we can supply the demand promptly. We therefore give one testimonial we have received.

NEW YORK, 15th Oct., 1855.
"G. A. Prince & Co.: Gentlemen—The Double Reed Melodeon you sent us arrived safe, and in good order. It is has been played on by Wallace, Doct. Hodges, Wm. Mason, and a host of others, and they all pronounce it one of the most beautiful toned reed instruments they have ever touched. Very resp'lly, JAMES F. HALL."

We are not aware that the above mentioned Melodeon is in any particular superior to those which are daily finishing, and we would say to those who are inclined to favor us with their orders, that they will be furnished with an instrument equally as good. Our Instruments are all finished in Rosewood Cases, and the workmanship is of the very best quality. The styles and prices are—

LETTER FROM REV. THEO. HILL.

OLD-TOWN, Me. Jan. 19, 1857.

To the Hon. Samuel Wells, former Governor of this state.

SIR:—I presume you remember well the remark you made at Alfred in the political campaign of '55, viz:—"That the Maine Law was a cruel Law." I presume you also recollect the liberty I took in addressing a private letter to you, therein detailing some of the horrid scenes I have witnessed in consequence of the free use of intoxicating drinks, and expressed my fears that if you and others should succeed in the repeal of the Prohibitory Law, like scenes might be enacted again. In conversation with the Hon. W. S. Moore a few days since, I learned from him that you are the Father of the present Liquor Law, and of course, after so much labor expended upon it, you will appreciate any and all facts connected with its working. I am located in Old Town, the great thoroughfare of the lumbering interest of the Penobscot River. Hundreds of men are often discharged in a day, after a drive. Previous to the enactment of the Maine Law, Old Town and vicinity was accommodated with any amount of liquor, and the community cursed with any amount of drunkards, from fifty to one hundred in a day, cursing and howling enough to drive all sober people from the place. Such was the condition of things prior to the ushering in of the Maine Law. Soon after that a citizens' meeting was called and the liquor dealers were notified that all violators of the Law would be prosecuted, when three taverns and six open grog shops closed up all open sales. In '55 a much greater change was apparent. Two or three hundred men could be discharged from a long drive on the river, all come in sober, and attend to their business and disperse sober and quiet. One man, although opposed to the Maine Law, declared in the presence of a score of men of truth, on the drive of 1855, that in consequence of the closing up of the liquor shops, it had saved him as a contractor one thousand dollars. Another gentleman who had the care of the boom in '55, who is now chairman of our board of Selectmen, stated that for four months, only one case of intoxication occurred in a crew of two hundred men. In fact it was the opening of a temporal millenium in all this region. I have thus given you a brief sketch of the cause you so much desire to personate, up to the date of your assuming the reins of the government of this State, and the repeal of the Maine Liquor Law.

I have been in this place six months, and have, in passing through the vicinity, seen more persons intoxicated than I have before for five years. We have for your consideration in Old Town, four hotels, all selling liquor, and reports say doing a smart and safe business (that is, so far as prosecuting is concerned.) Twelve open grog-shops grace our town, and they all are employed to supply men, women and children. I am quite certain that all the Landlords and retailers are your political friends. In the Town of Bradley in '55 no grog-shops existed; now they have five. Their pauper tax for the last six years has been about $200 per year. This year with five grog-shops it is $500, with the expectation of its increasing to six or seven hundred, as a supplement. In Milford, they have three fatherly landlords at the work, with open bars, and six open grog-shops, with a hopeful prospect of paupers enough to tenant their town farm. If you and the Legislators who framed and passed the present law, expected and intended to multiply Rum Taverns and grog-shops, you have succeeded admirably. If you expected crime and poverty would increase under its operation, your expectations have been and will be most fearfully realized. If you and those who labored with you to bring about this state of things in our State, intended to kill off and use up the present generation of drunkards, and thus rid the earth and society of a burden, your work has been and is going bravely on. At my first acquaintance with you in Waterville, 25 years since, you was a staunch Whig. If you have set this rum trap as an old sly Whig, to kill off the Democratic party out of this State, 12 months more will cut their numbers down so that the most sanguine may begin to tremble.

In conclusion, if in your retirement you can derive any consolation in having heaped upon your head the dreadful anathemas of the poor inebriates' wretched families, you are thrice welcome to the whole of it. May God have mercy upon our guilty land.

Yours, &c.,
THEO. HILL, a friend to the wretched.

NOTE.—But at the same time, a larger number of young men are being converted into drunkards to supply the place of the old ones thus killed off. And some of the families of the men who were instrumental in passing the present law, are paying fearful tribute in sons, to its desolating power. —Ed. Portland Journal.

DR. KANE.—This noble and heroic man was born in Philadelphia, on the 3d of February, 1852, and is consequently thirty five years old to-day. Few persons have accomplished so much at such an early age. The last number of the National Era has a poem by Miss Whittier, the sister of the Quaker poet, which we copy below, as we are sure the prayers of the fair Quakeress will be responded to by "a million hearts." —Transcript.

DR. KANE IN CUBA.

A noble life is in thy care,
A sacred trust to thee is given:
Bright Island! let thy healing air
Be to him as the breath of Heaven.

The marvel of his daring life—
The self-forgetting leader bold—
Stirs, like the trumpet's call to strife,
A million hearts of meaner mould.

Eyes that shall never meet his own,
Look dim with tears across the sea,
Where, from the dark and icy zone,
Sweet Isle of Flowers! he comes to thee.

Fold him in rest, oh, pitying clime!
Give back his wasted strength again;
Soothe, with thy endless summer time,
His winter-wearied heart and brain.

Sing soft and low, thou tropic bird,
From out the fragrant, flowery tree—
The ear that hears thee now, has heard
The ice-break of the winter sea.

Through his long watch of awful night,
He saw the Bear in Northern skies;
Now, to the Southern Cross of light,
He lifts in hope his weary eyes.

Prayers, from the hearts that watched in fear,
When the dark North no answer gave,
Rise, trembling, to the Father's ear,
That still His love may help and save.

Amesbury, Jan. 1857. E. H. W.

Arnold's Vital Fluid

PURIFIES and strengthens the blood by eradicating, through a nice chemical action, the causes of impurities and humors. Hence its power to cure those that mere medicine cannot cure. Hence its power of strengthening and vitalizing the blood. It furnishes to a certain extent, the element of which pure blood is composed. It eradicates and cleanses away whatever clogs and thickens the blood.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID
Renders the system strong and healthy, by freeing the blood and stomach from objectionable materials. It nerves and vivifies the system, by furnishing the elements which give vitality.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID
Gives to the system an influence and effect similar to that produced by exercise in the free open air. It exhilarates by strengthening the blood to brighter and better action—doing its work by beginning at the beginning. It is pleasant to the taste, and becomes a favorite where it is known.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID
Removes Biliousness in the most direct and easy manner, by neutralizing the cause. This is the principle of its action in removing illness generally. It neutralizes the cause, by freeing the blood from impurities and to its proper fulfilment of its life-giving functions.

This principle of neutralizing the cause is why ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID CURES HUMORS that mere medicine cannot sensibly affect, and why it cures other diseases.

Resulting from Poisons in the Blood, that mere medicinal preparations cannot alleviate. Humors are poisons in the blood, and it is by their chemical action in neutralizing those poisons that ARNOLD'S GLOBULES AND VITAL FLUID are enabled to cure them so that they stay cured.

VITAL FLUID 50 cents per bottle; GLOBULES 25 cents per box.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1857.

DIALOGUE.

N. H. Patriot.—That rum-selling and rum-drinking have increased since the passage of that Law, is a fact susceptible of ample demonstration.

Uncle Toby.—Please to demonstrate it, then. We do not believe it is true in our part of the State, if we compare 1854 with 1857.

Pat.—That drunkenness and all its attendant evils have increased and are increasing, is distinctly admitted by the friends and supporters of the Liquor Law.

U. T.—They have increased in this city within the past year—and have now perhaps reached the point where they were three or four years ago.

Pat.—At the same time, everybody knows that a strict enforcement of the law would effectually suppress the illegal sale of liquor, and consequently do away with much of the admitted intemperance so notoriously prevalent in this State.

U. T.—Partly true,—but not wholly. No human law ever effectually suppressed any branch of human wickedness.

Pat.—With these facts before the public, what is the course and policy of the friends of the Liquor Law, and the boasted champions of temperance? We state it as a fact susceptible of proof, that there is a distinct understanding and arrangement among them, that this state of things shall be permitted to exist until after the March election—that the law shall be permitted to remain a dead letter—that nothing shall be said or done either to enforce the law or to awaken the people to a realizing sense of the alarming increase of intemperance, and the deplorable consequences to result therefrom!

U. T.—So far as our knowledge extends, there is not a word of truth in these statements. In our own section of the State, the contrary is true. There are twenty-one liquor cases on the docket of the S. J. Court for this county, this month,—and some new cases are to go up. No such understanding exists here, as is mentioned, but we have had several temperance meetings this winter, and are doing what we can to awaken the people.

Pat.—And we state further that it can be shown that clergymen are parties to this arrangement, and have agreed not to preach upon the subject, or to argue the enforcement of the law until after the election!

U. T.—Show it, then. Give the name of one!

Pat.—But it is further agreed that immediately after the election, a grand "temperance campaign" shall be opened, and that the law shall then be enforced to the utmost extent.

U. T.—This may be true; but it is news to us,—and it is rather strange the Patriot should be so much better informed about it than we.

Pat.—We repeat that this is the arrangement, distinctly entered into, and we can give the names of prominent black republican leaders and "political priests" who have been instrumental in perfecting it.

U. T.—We repeat that we disbelieve the whole statement,—and we call for the Patriot's names and proofs. We published a year ago, viz., January 31, 1856, a statement from the Patriot very much like the above extracts, upon a similar understanding, which was just as true as these, viz., not true at all, as the event showed. We call the Patriot to give the names, in the next number, that we may expose the men who have made any such arrangement.—Will it be done? We shall see.

THE TROUSSEAU OF A SLAVE BRIDE.—A letter from a lady who owns slaves in Georgia, gives an account of the recent marriage of one of her negroes, in which she remarks—"The couple last night were both very young and handsome, and the groom, in a full suit of black, with a white cravat, looked as serene and unembarrassed as if he had been a gentleman. The bride's trousseau, furnished by her parents, who, like herself, are common field hands, would do credit to a decent white mechanic. She has seven new dresses and a shawl, besides more necessary articles, and the trifles from the groom, one of which is invariably a bottle of cologne."

This is a beautiful picture. Let us add one shade to it. The bride and bridegroom may be sold at auction to-morrow, to the highest bidder, or bidders—trousseau, cologne bottles and all.

☞ The Newburyport Herald states, "upon good authority," that Gen. Caleb Cushing is to retire from his office of U. S. Attorney General, in April, and to return to Newburyport to live.

☞ Rev. Charles J. Hill, of Philadelphia, was ordained Pastor of the First Congregational Church of Nashua, on Wednesday of last week.

☞ The New Hampshire Act for the Suppression of Intemperance, "has received the endorsement of the" New Hampshire Patriot.

SINGULAR PRESERVATION.—The Buffalo Courier states that a gentleman in that city received the unexpected news on Tuesday evening the 13th ult., that the steward on the schooner Iowa had been almost miraculously saved: His name is Theodore La Corgny, and he writes from Detroit, giving the particulars of his escape from the wreck. He says that at the time of the wreck he was in the cabin, and as the water was running in quite freely, he went on deck. The sea was breaking over the vessel, and he was unable to stand. He bethought him of the provision box, and by some means he succeeded in reaching it. He crept into it, and in a few hours found himself on land, the lake on one side and a forest on the other. There was nothing in the box except one ham, and this was his only food for two days, during which he travelled in the woods.—At the expiration of this time he came across an Indian, who kindly took him to his cabin and took care of him during an illness of several weeks. The Indian then took him to Mackinac, whence he came to Detroit, where he is now in a destitute condition. His friends in Buffalo will send for him. It is not known that any other person on board the Iowa was saved. The schooner and all hands went down.

☞ At the C. C. Pleas in Salem, Mass., Geo. W. Wilson, of Marblehead, for a single sale of intoxicating liquors, was fined $10 and cost, twenty days in the House of Correction—if fine and costs not paid, thirty days additional in House of Correction. Also, to recognize to Commonwealth not to violate any law for one year relating to sale of intoxicating liquors. Roderick Bailey, Andover, common seller under act of 1855—fined $50 and costs, and three months in House of Correction—and recognizance in $1000 as aforesaid.

☞ Verger, the assassin of the Archbishop of Paris, if executed, will be degraded on the guillotine. This sentence has been frequently carried into execution. The Bishop of the diocese, attended by the clergy, is seated on the scaffold, surrounded by all the sacred implements which are used at the consecration of priests. He then utters a prayer, and after some ceremonies the bishop will scratch the palm of Verges' hand, the end of the fingers and thumbs, and the shaven crown of his head, to remove the odor of sanctity from the culprit. He will then be unfrocked and afterwards decapitated.

☞ Mr. Lyford, the dissenting railroad commissioner gives his reasons for opposing the lease of the Manchester and Lawrence road to the Concord road, for the term of five years. The strongest is, that the Legislature of the State has refused, by a large majority, to unite the two roads—and therefore the Commissioner and Governor and Council ought not to do indirectly, what the Legislature refused to do directly.

The Manchester Mirror gives the following reason:

Let this lease scheme be accomplished, this next approval obtained, and the union is completed; Manchester will become a way station, and the cars will run through it like soap suds through a sieve. Already in anticipation of the result, the repairs have been taken to Concord, and the offices of the Manchester and Lawrence have gone there also.

A GENTLEMAN named Lyman, from Canada, was driving in a cutter a short distance from Rutland, Vt., on Thursday last, when a fellow on foot asked him for a ride. After they had proceeded about a quarter of a mile, and while Mr. Lyman's attention was attracted by some object on the roadside, the stranger sprang upon him, grasped him by the throat, drew out his wallet, and jumping from the sleigh, coolly bade him good bye. The wallet taken contained $1200 in bills, and some papers.

☞ Donald McKay's creditors have compromised their claims at 15 per cent, in order that he may be able to come out of chancery soon, and not only be unembarrassed by debts, but that he may be able to commence business under favorable circumstances. The merchants, mechanics, and traders of Boston, feel that they are under obligations to Mr. McKay in raising the character of the shipping, and adding to the prosperity of the city.

☞ Rev. Charles Howard Malcolm, who was recently dismissed from his pastorate in Virginia, on account of his belief in the application of Christianity to human affairs, has accepted the charge of the Baptist Church in Newport, R. I., formerly occupied by the lamented Dr. Choules.

Young wife: "Oh, Im so glad you like birds; which kind do you most admire?"

Young Husband: "Well, I think a good turkey, with plenty of dressing, is about as nice as any."

☞ Rev. Mr. Harvey, Methodist minister of Carbondale, Pa., who a few years ago turned spiritualist, and has been holding religious services connected with the rappings, has been brought to see the error of his ways; and finally he and his principal followers have come out in a card, owning their conviction that the whole is an imposture and a delusion.

A beggar woman at Brooklyn, N. Y., who has been an object of charity for a long time, accidentally dropped her bank book where she was waiting for cold victuals, on which over $500 was placed to her credit.

The wife of Hon. Edmund Burke, died suddenly, last week, from cold contracted while preparing for a social gathering of friends.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Prof. Wood, the renowned discoverer of the invaluable "Hair Restorative," still continues to labor in behalf of the afflicted. His medicines are universally admitted by the American press to be far superior to all others for causing the hair, on the head of the aged, to grow forth with as much vigor and luxuriance as when blessed with the advantages of youth. There can be no doubt we give more credit in the commendable testimonials which the Professor has in his possession, that it is one of the greatest discoveries in the medical world. It restores, permanently, gray hair to its original color, and makes it assume a beautiful silky texture, which has been found desirable in all ages of the world. It frequently happens that old men marry beautiful and amiable young ladies, and not unfrequently crusty old maids make victims of handsome, good-natured young gentlemen, and by what process it has never been determined, until lately, when it was attributed to the use of this invaluable Hair Restorative.—[Lasalle Journal.

THE GREAT DISCOVERY.

Many years ago, Doctor Burleigh Smart, of Kennebunk, Me., discovered that a simple article never before used as a medicine, was a never failing cure for coughs of every description, and an excellent blood purifier. By its use in his private practice, he acquired the reputation of being the best physician in New England, for all disease of the lungs. After his death, Messrs. Shaw & Clark of Biddeford, Me., obtained a Copy Right from Government, for its exclusive manufacture and now have it carefully prepared strictly according to the original recipe. There is no cure it but it will not cure, unless the patient is past all human aid before commencing its use! It is called "Doctor Burleigh Smart's Cough Medicine," and is for sale by all apothecaries. ow27 TuTsh 6m

HEALTH AND STRENGTH.

DR. S. O. RICHARDSON'S SHERRY WINE BITTERS is the best Medicine ever used for Summer Complaints. It has been more liberally patronized than any other ever established in this country. It is the same Richardson's Bitters which has restored so many invalids to health throughout New England during the past thirty years.

N. B.—Beware of imitations called Sherry Wine Bitters. The genuine have a fac simile of my signature upon the outer envelope. For sale by druggists everywhere, and at my office, No. 51 Hanover St., Boston. aug8 6m

☞ Two miserable scapegraces in the Missouri legislature, had a fight the other day, both of whom would have been hung long ago, if justice had been done them. Bitter words between Mr. Darnes, (American) and Mr. Reid, (Democrat) led to blows. Reid came up to Darnes, while the latter was speaking, and knocked him down. He subsequently drew a knife on him. Reid is the fellow who commanded the Missourians at the famous battle of Ossawatamie, in Kansas. He is the leader of the Democrats in the House.—Darnes is remembered in those quarters, as the murderer of Andrew Jackson Davis, nephew of the late John Davis of Massachusetts, in the streets of St. Louis. What are the people who will be represented by such wretches?—Ex.

☞ Mr. Keitt, the intimate friend of the late Preston S. Brooks, and participator in the Sumner assault, is confined to his bed with the identical disease of which Mr. Brooks died. The unusual severity of the winter at Washington operates unfavorably on persons from the extreme south.

☞ At the Mayor's office, Clonmel, Ireland, a man was charged, in the graphic language of the constable who arrested him, with thrashing his wife, walloping his grandmother, and beating his children. The prisoner simply defended himself by saying that he was "reasoning with them."

☞ Franklin's grave is in the Christ Church yard, Philadelphia, the congregation of which is so reduced by removals and changes, that it is proposed to erect a church elsewhere, and efface the old one and the grave yard attached.

A USURER'S EPITAPH.—It is said the following is a common epitaph for money lenders out West:

Here lies old thirty-five per cent,
The more he made, the more he lent;
The more he got, the more he craved;
The more he made, the more he shaved;
Good Heavens! how can such a soul be saved?

FRIGHTENED.—A small liquor dealer in Newburyport, was terribly alarmed with the fear of prosecution. To one person who threatened him for selling a pint of liquor, he offered to give a barrel of flour to keep mum, and finally did give him two dollars in cash. Afterwards two young rowdies informed him that they were summoned before the Grand Jury, but would go out of town, and keep clear, if he would pay expenses. He hired them a horse and sleigh and they had a grand frolic at his cost. Poor man, fleeing when none pursueth.—Herald.

In East Salisbury, Jan 24, Mrs Hannah Morrill, aged 87. She was a vigorous old lady, having done all the housework on her farm nearly up to the time of her death—and for fifty years she has been a regular subscriber for the Newburyport Herald, and was the oldest female subscriber on the list.

Hutchins' Hair Dye.

The very best now in use, as the many thousands that have tried it well testify.

THE great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, having but one preparation. It also contains twice as much as any other, and sold at a much less price. This Dye imparts to the hair the most natural color of any yet discovered; and instead of injuring, it gives it the beauty and elasticity of youth. Pride Dye is having the largest sale of any Dye in the market, and is warranted to give better satisfaction than any yet offered to the public.

Certificate from Mr. J. A. Sassard, Boston, Mass., Manufacturer of Wigs, &c.

H. HUTCHINS, Esq; DEAR SIR:—Having tried your Hair Dye, which you gave me for trial, I have found it to be superior to any other Hair Dye I ever tried, both in its simplicity and most natural color. The application requires less trouble; I may add, no trouble at all. I therefore wish to use it, recommend it to all my customers, and warrant it, in consideration of my promotion, and desire to promote the universal use of your Dye.

LOCAL.

CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS.—On Tuesday, we understand that Mr. J. B. Currier had one of his shoulders dislocated, as he was driving his sleigh, by the shaft of another sleigh, which came in collision.

On Wednesday, Mr. John Trefethen, of Newington, carpenter, fell from the bow of a ship in the Company's yard, Noble's Island, and was badly jarred, though no bones were broken.

☞ Notwithstanding the unpleasant drizzle of rain which commenced just about the time appointed for the racing on the ice on the North Mill Pond, on Thursday afternoon, there was a large collection of people, including a considerable number of ladies, to witness the sport. Quite a number of horse fanciers were out with their teams, and considerable irregular fun was had on the course, previous to any regular start.

The spectators crowded upon the track too closely, in spite of all remonstrance of the managers; and at length, while a couple of pacers were coming down, and a couple of trotters going up, two of the passing teams came in collision. A fine pacing mare driven by Mr. N. Jones, was struck on the fore leg by another sleigh, and badly cut and bruised. The other horse, which also belonged to Mr. J.,—the driver of which was thrown out by the collision—ran about the Pond considerably, but without doing other serious injury.

This accident rather dampened the ardor of all, and the crowd dispersed without any regular race being had.

For the Chronicle.

Uncle Toby:—While I was reading in the Chronicle of yesterday, a notice of a benevolent act in sprinkling ashes upon the icy side-walk near the Baptist Meeting House, on Middle street—an instance of true goodness of heart came to my recollection, which took place near the same spot on one of the coldest Sundays of last winter: A lady of wealth and respectability, on returning from church, observed a horse attached to a sleigh by the road side, shivering and shaking with cold, the buffalo robe having fallen under his feet. She stepped from the side-walk and replaced it upon the back of the freezing animal with particular care, and passed on, seemingly much gratified in being able to administer some comfort to the suffering beast,—while many of the lords of creation passed on unconcerned. MIDDLE ST.

THE ISLAND OF CUBA.—The Queen of the Antilles is the glory of Spain. She is guarded with care and cherished with affection. Ever since the Ostend manifesto made its appearance, the Spanish forces on the island have been gradually increased, and large squadrons watch around her coasts. Cuba contains from thirty-two to thirty-five thousand square miles of the richest soil, and its products are immensely valuable. The population at the close of 1855 was estimated at 1,445,462, divided, according to Mr. Thrasher—whose misfortunes became so much a subject of interest with his American friends—as follows:—

Whites	564,698,	or 39 per cent.
Free Colored	219,170,	or 15 per cent.
Slaves	662,599,	or 46 per cent.

This population has increased in the following ratio:—

In 1775 it was	170,379
1817 "	554,998
1827 "	700,486
1841 "	1,007,624
1850 "	1,247,230
1855 "	1,445,562

Among the free blacks, strange to say, are a large number of property holders, and they are by no means so generally degraded as their brethren who are slaves.

A GOOD ONE.— Not many months ago, it happened at Benicia, California, the headquarters of the U. S. troops, Capt. Jones of the U. S. A., a Virginian by birth, was ordered to that point, whether he went accompanied by a faithful body servant, named Joe. The captain was startled not long after by the news of Joe's having shot another negro. As soon as he was brought into his master's presence, he sternly asked him how he dared to act in the manner he had done. Joe seemed at first cast down, but rallying himself, and looking the captain full in the face, replied: "De fact is, massa, dat ar nigger was one of dem New York free niggers. He 'sulted me, and I had to take high suddron ground wid him."

GLAD TO HEAR IT.—The child that was so awfully frozen to death in the Argus, a few days since, turns out to have had only "the end of a toe frost-bitten." The father is not an "habitual drinker," and the mother is a "worthy, sober, industrious woman." So perish all such cases of "Shocking Brutality" in our city.—Portland Advertiser.

Col. Clairborne says that when Mr. Van Buren was elected President, he sold the lease and furniture of his house in the "Thirteen Buildings" to a distinguished Senator. Everything was found in perfect order, and nearly new, except the carpet before a French mirror in hisdressing room—that was worn threadbare.

CONGRESS.

WEDNESDAY, Feb. 4.

The Senate voted to print the correspondence between Gen. Scott and the War Department.

It also made arrangements for counting the Presidential Votes.

The House adopted a resolution to the effect that Mr. Hall is legally elected from the first Congressional district of Iowa.

The House then discussed the joint resolution giving to each branch of Congress the entire control of its contingent fund.

The bill was passed by a majority of 77.

Mr. Campbell of Ohio, from the Committee on Ways and Means, reported favorably the Senate's sub-marine telegraph bill.

Mr. Jones of Tennessee moved to lay the bill on the table. Negatived by a vote of 57 against 123.

The House concurred in the amendments of the Senate to the diplomatic and consular appropriation billl.

The House went into committee on the tariff bill, when Messrs. Wright of Tennessee, Evans and A. K. Marshall made party speeches. Adjourned.

SHARP REPLY.—An elderly lady recently entered a railroad car in Paris, where were three or four gentlemen, one of whom was lighting a cigar. Observing her, with the characteristic politeness of a Frenchman, he asked her if smoking would incommode her. She turned towards him, and with a quiet dignity replied:

"I do not know, sir; no gentleman has ever smoked in my presence."

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—The French Embezzlement Case.—A warrant has been received from Washington for the extradition of Carpenter, Grelet, and the other parties accused of embezzling the funds of the Great Northern Railway of France.

The New Orleans Embezzlement Case.—The $50,000 embezzled by Stringer from a New Orleans bank, were found to-day in a state room on board the steamer Cahawba, where the embezzler hid it.

Later from Havana.—The steamer Cahawba arrived this morning from Havana, bringing advices to the evening of the 30th. Nothing important had transpired there since the departure of the last steamer.

Steamer Sailed.—Steamship Persia sailed at two o'clock for Liverpool. She took out 150 passengers, and $375,000 in specie.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.—Late advices from St. Domingo via Havana, state that Gen. Segovia, the Spanish Consul, had been maltreated by the natives, and the flag and arms of the Consulate torn down. The 5000 stand of arms sent some time since from Havana, were, it is reported, landed in Hayti, and not in St. Domingo.

The New York Courier & Inquirer, in some comments on the death of the South Carolinian, made this discriminating statement:

The assault of Mr. Brooks upon Mr. Sumner was taken as an attack by the institution of slavery upon the sacred right of free debate in the council halls of the nation. To that view it owed the tremendous sensation it produced upon the public mind. And the conception was a just one. Personal considerations were of no real account in the matter; they are are of no account still. The assaulting party has gone from the scene of action; his rage is hushed forever. But the sanction given to his deed yet remains. It will be remembered. The stigma is indelible.

There is a farmer in Bethany, Ct., who has not worn a hat, or any covering on his his head, for twenty years, winter or summer, and who says his head is never cold. During the recent severe weather, he might be seen working roads through the show in that town, with thick warm mittens on his hands, but no covering on his head.

The first marriage of a Hindoo widow that ever occurred in Calcutta, took place on the 7th of December. The parties in this transaction are of the highest respectability, and this will prove a marked event in the history of Hindostan.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.—Indianapolis, Feb. 4.—The Democrats of the Indiana Legislature held to-day a joint convention for the election of United States Senators, without the concurrence and in opposition to the protest of the Senate. Graham L. Fitch was elected to the vacancy, and Jesse D. Bright for the full term. There were 26 Senators present, but the convention lacked 15 of a quorum.

E. Meriam wrote from Albany on Saturday last, one of the bitterest days of the cold term:—

"I walked three miles this morning in the open air before sunrise, without any overcoat, and with the same dress I wore in July and August, without feeling cold. In the early part of next week, if the roads are passable, I proceed to the Adirondack, and other mountains, clad in my summer costume, and anticipate no difficulty as to cold."

If Ney was the bravest of the brave, Meriam is the gayest of the gay.

MR. MACREADY.—In his calm retreat in Dorsetshire, Mr. Macready, the actor, is living the life of a Christian gentleman, endearing himself alike to his poorer neighbors and those who are his equals in rank, by his kindly deeds and enlightened associability. He has built at his own expense a school for the education of fifty boys, which has now been in full work for a year, and its breaking up for the Christmas holidays was made the occasion for a kindly meeting between the founder and the boys.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.

DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS FOR FEMALES,
Prepared by an old Physician of 40 years experience.

THE combination of ingredients in these Pills, is the result of a long and extensive practice; they are mild in their operation, and certain to restoring nature to its proper channel. In every instance have the Pills proved successful. They are certain to open those obstructions to which females are liable, and bring nature into its proper channel, whereby health is restored, and the pale and deathly countenance changed to a healthy one. No female can enjoy good health unless she is regular: and whenever an obstruction takes place, whether from exposure, cold, or any other cause, the general health immediately begins to decline, and the want of such a remedy has been the cause of so many consumptions among young females. Headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, loathing of food, and disturbed sleep, that most always arise from the interruption of nature; and whenever that is the case, the Pills will invariably remedy all these evils. In all cases of painful menstruation, or nervous and spinal affections in the back and limbs, lowness of spirits, hysterics, &c. Not are they less efficacious in the cure of Leucorrhœa, commonly called the "Whites." These Pills should never be taken during pregnancy, as they would be sure to cause a miscarriage. Warranted purely Vegetable, and free from anything injurious to life or health. Full and explicit directions which should be read, accompany each box.

These Pills are put up in square, flat boxes.—Persons residing where there are no Agencies established, by enclosing One Dollar in a letter, prepaid, to DR. C. L. CHEESEMAN, Box No. 4,531, Post Office, New York City, can have them sent to their respective addresses by return of mail.

ITINERANT MINISTERS.—Of the eighteen hundred and seventy-five clergymen in the Protestant Episcopal church twenty-five are Chaplains in the Army or Navy, ninety-five teachers, and two hundred and sixty-three without parochial charge. Of the rest, "more than one fourth, in fact nearly one third, have been compelled from one cause or another, to sever old, and form new parochial relations. So says the editor of the (P. E.) Church Almanac. It would seem that clerical changes are as frequent in this denomination as in any other.

PROPER TO DEATH.—On Friday evening 23d ult., about eight o'clock, Capt. Spinney, a resident of Illinois, but recently on a visit to this, his native State, started from Freedom village to walk to his old homestead, about four miles distance, and was found Saturday morning within about two rods and a half of the door, upon his hands and knees, with his head in the snow, frozen to death.—*Rockland (Me.) AYER'S Cathartic Pills,

(SUGAR COATED,)

ARE RECEIVED

TO CLEANSE THE BLOOD AND CURE THE SICK

by Invalids, Fathers, Mothers, Physicians, Philanthropists, read their Effects and judge of their Virtues.

Headache, Sick Headache, Foul Stomach,

Dr. J. C. Ayer: Sir: I have been repeatedly cured in the worst headaches my body can have by a dose or two of your Pills. Nothing else ever gives a bad stomach, which they cleanse so speedily. If body will cure others as they do me, the fact is worth knowing.

Yours with great respect, REV. W. FRERER, Church of Redemption.

Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints

REGULATING OFFICE, PATENTS, WASHINGTON, D. C., 7 February, 1856.

SIR: I have used your Pills in my general and hospital practice, and find the results from them, and cannot hesitate to say they are the best cathartic we possess. Their rapid yet lasting action on the liver is quick and decided, and they are an admirable remedy for derangements of the organs. Indeed, I have scarcely a case in which they do not seem so obviously that it did not readily yield to them.

Friendly yours, ALONZO HALL, M. D., Physician of Marine Hospital.

Dysentery, Relax, and Worms.

TOWN OTTER, Montgomery County, Ohio, Nov. 26, 1855.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the perfection of medicine. They have done my wife more good than I can tell you for years, and she will not plague every few months. We all use to doctor for a dead year, and spent two hundred dollars. Then commenced taking your Pills, which soon cured her by expelling large quantities of worms (dead) from her system. They have cured her of a complaint of long standing of bloody dysentery. One of our neighbors had it bad, and my wife cured him with two doses of your Pills, while others had given him five to ten dollars worth of other doctors' bills, and lost much time, without being cured more than even then. Such a medicine as yours, which is actually good and honest, will be mined here.

Yours, with respect, JOHN S. GRIFFITH, Postmaster.

Indigestion and Imparity of the Blood.

From Rev. J. V. Himes, Pastor of Advent Church, Boston.

DR. AYER: I have used your Pills with extraordinary success in my family and among those I am called to visit. In cases of indigestion and impurity of the blood they are the very best remedy I have met with, and I am confidently recommend them to my friends. Yours, J. V. HIMES.

WARSAW, WYOMING CO., N. Y., Oct. 24, 1854.

DEAR SIR: I am using your Cathartic Pills in my practice, and find them an excellent purgative to cleanse the system and purify the blood. Yours, JOHN G. MELCHAM, M. D.

Erysipelas, Scrofula, King's Evil, Tetter, Tumors, and Salt Rheum.

From a Reverend Member of St. Louis, Feb. 4, 1856.

DR. AYER: Your Pills are the purgative of all that is claimed for them. My little girl, my little daughter of whom you saw my last letter, has been entirely relieved for years. Her mother has been long grievously afflicted with blotches and pimples on her skin and in her hair. Nothing has cured her like your Pills, and they have cured her. ASA MORGRIDGE

Rheumatism, Neuralgia, and Gout.

From the Rev. Dr. Hinton, of the Methodist Episc. Church,

PRINCE EDWARD, CANADA, Dec. Jan. 6, 1856.

MESSRS. AYER: I should be ungrateful if I do not your skill has brought me if I did not. Suffering as I was with the Gout, I grew worse and worse, until, by the advice of your excellent agent in Baltimore, Dr. McKenzie, I tried your Pills. They relieved me at once. Yours, &c. By persevering in the use of them I am now entirely well.

SUSAN CRAMER, Barber Shop, Ex. N. Y. Dec., 1855.

DR. AYER: I have been severely cured by your Pills of Rheumatic Gout—I mean, I think, I shall be cured in a few years. VINCENT MILLER, Jr.

For Dropsy, Plethora, or kindred Complaints, requiring an active purge, they are an excellent remedy.

For Costiveness or Constipation, and as a Dinner Pill, they are agreeable and efficacious.

Fits, Suppression, Paralysis, Inflammation, and even Deafness, and Partial Blindness, have been cured by the sympathetic action of these Pills.

Most of the pills in market contain Mercury, which, although a valuable remedy in skilled hands, is dangerous in a public pill, from the dreadful consequences that frequently follow its injudicious use. These contain no mercury or mineral substance whatever.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL

FOR THE RAPID CURE OF

and for the relief of consumptive patients in advanced stages of the disease.

We need not speak to the public of its virtues. Throughout every town, and almost every hamlet of this American continent, there dwells some one who owes his life to this preparation. Many a family, too, has its plaints have made it already known. Say, few are the families in any civilized country on this continent without some personal experience of its efficacy, and fewer yet the communities any where which have not heard of some living trophy of its victory over the subtle and dangerous diseases of the throat and lungs. While it is the most powerful antidote yet known to man for the formidable and dangerous diseases of the pulmonary organs, it is also the pleasantest and safest remedy that can be employed for infants and young persons. Parents should have it in store against the hard-to-subdue enemy that wakes upon them unprepared. We have abundant proofs to believe the Cherry Pectoral saves more lives from the consumptive in parents than any other medicine. It is by you, and care your sons while they are candidates for fame, the fact then will so honest will one matter the incredulous mother that, fastened on the child, will save her boy. All know the dreadful fatality of lung disorders, and so they know too the virtues of the remedy, we need not dwell here than to assure them it is still made the best it can be. We spare no cost, no care, nor labor to make it the most perfect possible, and then afford those who rely on it the best agent which our skill and hands for their use.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. Tyler & Co. are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything transpires with them done in a perfectly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by the laws of that state. A drawing takes place every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets range from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Ternary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

Prince & Co.'s Improved Melodeons.

THE OLDEST ESTABLISHMENT IN THE U.S.

Employing Two Hundred Men, and finishing

Eighty Instruments per Week.

BETWEEN 18,000 AND 19,000 of these instruments have been finished and are now in use.

THE latest improvement in our Melodeons is the DIVIDED SWELL, secured to us by Letters Patent 22d May, 1855.—By means of this Swell Solo Passages may be played from the full power of the instrument, while the Accompaniment is soft and subdued. Hereafter, all Melodeons made by us, will be furnished with this attachment without extra charge.

Extract from the Commercial Advertiser, July 27, '55.

"Messrs. Prince & Co found the foundation of fortune by disposing of rights to other manufacturers to use their new improvement; but as they prefer to make it a feature in their instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufacture."

It is now eight years since we commenced the manufacture of this new celebrated Musical Instrument, during which time we have finished and sold nearly NINETEEN THOUSAND. Voluntary testimonials to the excellence of our Instruments, from the most distinguished Professors of Music in different parts of the United States have from time to time been received. Thus far we have said but little, and our advertisements were seldom used, for the reason that we could not supply the demand. We have lately erected one of the largest and most perfect Manufacturing Establishments in the United States, and we now think that we can fill orders promptly. We there tore give one testimonial we have received.

NEW YORK, 15th Oct., 1855

"G. A. Prince & Co.: Gentlemen—the Double Reed Melodeon has arrived, and is another fine instrument. It is has been played on by Wallace, Dodd, Hodges, Wm. Mason, and a host of other celebrities in this city, and all pronounce it a beautiful toned reed instruments they have ever touched. Very resp'lly, JAMES F. HALL."

We are not aware that the above mentioned Melodeon is in any particular superior to those we are daily finishing, and we can refer to those who are inclined to favor us with their orders, that they will be furnished with an instrument equally as good. Our Instruments are finished in Rosewood Cases, and the workmanship is of the very best quality. The styles and prices are—

For the Chronicle

AN ADVENTURE.

At my boarding house, when the sun was low,
All lonely sat we three below;
And dark as Erer was the flow
Of strange tho'ts running rapidly.

By one was seen another sight,
As we all sat there, 'bout midnight;
Scratching the kitchen fire bright,
To lighten up the scenery.

The senior of the party there,
Sat braced 'gainst lamp-stand, in his chair;
For others he seemed not to care,
Tho' back-bones ached most fearfully.

But suddenly my tho'ts were riven,
Against my anger long I'd striven;
But high in thought revenge had risen,
Though I looked gay and cheerfully.

The 'xtended legs I fiercely clasp—
The affrighted wretch the stand doth grasp;
Stand, lamp and all, fell with a crash,
And—oiled our pants, beautifully.

ENOTCH.

EMANCIPATION IN MISSOURI.—A remarkable incident occurred in the Missouri Legislature last week. Mr. Palm of St. Louis was run as a candidate for Director of the Bank of the State. It was stated by one of the members that he was an avowed emancipationist, and the gentleman who nominated him declared he knew such to be the fact.

This gave rise to an animated debate, and caused the presentation of a pro-slavery candidate in opposition to Mr. Palm. Mr. Brown, a member from St. Louis, declared himself a Free Soiler, though opposed on personal grounds to the nominee. Mr. Clover, from the same city, said openly that he was an emancipationist, and that the question transcended all other issues.—Leading pro-slavery Democrats rallied, and active pro-slavery Whigs combined with them, to defeat Mr. Palm, but in vain. He was elected.

The Tauton Republican says that Mr. Emerson C. Strange, of that town, "has obtained a patent for an improved machine for sawing hoops." A dress maker wants to know what kind of hoops the Republican means?—any thing new for petticoats?" No ma'am—the machine is made to saw the hoops in two, so as to get the lady out!—powerful machine, ma'am—Post.

The Indiana House of Representatives have voted to repeal the liquor law of that State.

FROM PUNCH.

"THE RESOLUTE."—Well, we have been invaded by Jonathan, and all of us Englishers taken prisoners. Capt. Hartstein and his jovial, gallant crew, have carried away the best parts of the Britishers—their hearts. We have struck to the generosity of the Stars and Stripes, and only pant with a feeling to avenge ourselves by the best and greatest act of gratitude that destiny may yet have in store for us. The Resolute, a waif and stray amidst mountainous icebergs, rubbed and barked, and a little, and not a little nipped, was picked up by American hands, carried into an American port, and forthwith docked in an American dock, to be returned by son Jonathan to daddy John, as spick and span as when she first turned her bows from her English home for Arctic seas. There was fine music going on whilst the Resolute lay in that American dock. Every blow of the shipwright's hammer struck a note of lasting peace between the two countries. Yankee Doodle and God Save the Queen were sounded by that harmonious iron. It would take very many of the brassy tongues of the Mitchells and Meaghers—Irishmen rancorous with wrongs of "the first flower" and "the first gun"—to drown the recollection of those sweet sounds in the memory of Englishmen. Capt. Harstein, in his manly, sailor-like speech—with the smack of the true salt in it—hoped that the old timbers of the Resolute would float for many a day. Sure we are that they will float with a still enduring strength, none the worse but all the better, for the bit of timber grown on the soil of America, that may here and there be found in her English carcase. Sweet, and especially fragrant, tho pitch, that newly caulked her—pitch tapped from American pines.

Capt. Harstein has departed, and is now on the Atlantic. Our regret is that he could not have been brought face to face with all England; that every Englishman could not have had a grip of his sailor-hand. This was not to be, but—we give the hint to the Lords of the Admiralty—why not, as a further perpetuation of the memory of the gallant fellow's mission, why not christen the English ship launched—the Harstein? Further, we know not whether we would not lengthen the name of the Resolute into The Resolute Jonathan or, we are not particular, to the Jonathan Resolute. In these suggestions Punch has done his duty; let the Lords of the Admiralty imitate Punch.

THE "RESOLUTE" AND THE IRRESOLUTE.—England intends imitating the generous example of America. She intends sending over to the Emperor Alexander one of the Russian ships taken in the late war, and to beg his acceptance of it—admiral, crew, and all. The Admiral selected for the appointment has been Sir Charles Napier, and several of the most sensible electors of Southwark form part of his crew.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—Rev. E. H. Havens, a Wesleyan Methodist minister, in Steuben, New York, on the 21st ult., was boiling two gallons of spirits of turpentine, resin, &c., upon a stove, preparing a balsam, when it took fire, and as he was trying to remove it out of doors, it exploded, shattering all the windows in the house, setting it on fire, and scattering the burning fluid all over himself and wife and three children. All died within a day or two, except one daughter of 15, who threw herself upon a bed, and saved her life by smothering the flames. The parents had other children, who were at school.

☞ The testimony at the Coroner's Inquest, in the Burdell case, shows up Burdell as a quarrelsome, mercenary, litigious man; and the other inmates of the house no better than they should be.

Arnold's Vital Fluid

PURIFIES and strengthens the blood by eradicating, through a nice chemical action, the causes of impurities and humors. Hence its power to cure all impurities that mere medicine cannot cure. Hence its power of strengthening and vitalizing the blood. It furnishes to a certain extent, the element of which pure blood is composed. It eradicates and cleanses away whatever clogs and thickens the blood.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID
Renders the system strong and healthy, by freeing the blood and stomach from objectionable materials. It nerves and vivifies the system, by furnishing the elements which give vitality.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID
Gives to the system influence and effect similar to that produced by exercise in the free, open air. It exhilarates by strengthening the blood to brighter and better action—doing its work by beginning at the foundation. It is pleasant to the taste, and becomes a favorite wherever known.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID
Removes Biliousness in the most direct and easy manner, by neutralizing the cause. This is the principle of its action in removing illness generally. It neutralizes the cause, by freeing the blood from impediments to its proper fulfilment of its life-giving functions.

This principle of neutralizing the cause is why ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID CURES HUMORS that mere medicine cannot sensibly affect, and why it cures other diseases.

Resulting from Poisons in the Blood, that mere medicinal preparations cannot alleviate. Humors are poisons in the blood, and it is by their chemical action in neutralizing those poisons that ARNOLD'S GLOBULES AND VITAL FLUID are enabled to cure them so that they stay cured.

VITAL FLUID 50 cents per bottle; GLOBULES 25 cents per box.

THE CONCERTS.

THE SUNDAY EVENING CONCERT was well attended, notwithstanding the bad state of travelling, and the audience were well satisfied with the merits of the performance. The choir numbered over a hundred.

The performance of Mozart's Requiem occupied the first halfhour. The orchestra for this part was under Mr. Wm. F. Lawrence. The Requiem, we think, has never before been presented to a Portsmouth audience. This part was well executed. The vocal additions would have much increased its interest.

The old tunes, however, came home more to the hearts of the older parts of the audience; bringing back remembrances of the old singing schools and choirs of half a century ago. It would be pleasant to hear them often in our churches, instead of the new fabrications with which so few are acquainted.

We understand the "Old Folks" have been half promised an excursion to sing in a neighboring city; should they go, we wish them and their indefatigable agent, Mr. F. W. Miller, all the pleasure and success they desire. We doubt not they will be received anywhere by a crowded house.

BENEFIT OF MR. PEARSON.—Some of the friends of Mr. Pearson, who have a stock of better notes than any Bank can discount, purpose to make use of them next Thursday evening for his benefit, to make up in part the very severe loss he met with in the late fire.

Mr. Pearson is a deserving gentleman, has been long enough among us to establish an excellent character, socially and professionally, and it will be a source of gratification to many to be able in this way to give him a helping hand.

A CARD TO THE PUBLIC.

THE undersigned, in behalf of the Ladies and Gentlemen who performed at the Sacred Concert on Thursday evening, in aid of the Howard Benevolent Society and City Mission, must respectfully return their thanks for the liberal patronage bestowed on the occasion. We regret exceedingly that Mr. Frederick W. Miller to do justice to the part assigned her. Suffering under a severe cold, and sustaining, as she had done throughout the rehearsal, the first soprano, her loss was deeply felt by the Choir, and drew very sensibly from the effect of the Concert upon the audience. Notwithstanding the very unfavorable state of the weather, the audience was a very respectable one, and the receipts would by gross receipts amounted to $45. The expenses were as follows:—Use of Temple, $9; Music, $8; Printing, $4.25; Posting, $2.50; leaving $20.50 for the benevolent societies, which should has been paid to the Treasurers.

To the Printers particularly, we are under special obligations, as also to the dockmasters who charged nothing for their services.

Several have requested a repetition of the Concert—we may be induced some time during the month to do so. As a Concert is advertised for next week for the benefit of Mr. Pearson, a gentleman whose services have been so liberally tendered in performing gratuitously on several occasions, the public should turn out in a mass and acknowledge their appreciation of his kindness. We hope the Temple will be filled on this occasion, and render a substantial aid to a deserving individual who has recently lost all he possessed by the late fire in Exchange Buildings.

Feb 7 W. R. PRESTON.

Mr. Wm. Haley acknowledges the receipt of $5 for the Howard Benevolent Society, from an unknown source.

Capt. Wm. Day, Treasurer of the Howard Benevolent Society, acknowledges the receipt of $11.25 from Wm. R. Preston, Esq. being half of the proceeds of the Concert of Thursday evening.

Rev. N. Medbery, City Missionary, acknowledges a like sum from the same source, for the City Mission.

MURDER OF DR. BURDELL.

GARROTING.—This is a singular word, which has its definition in the punishment awarded to criminals in the Spanish governments, who are choked to death instead of being hanged,—which was the fate of Lopez, the Cuban insurrectionist. The miscreants of the time have seized upon the idea, and in New-York we hear of various private application of this choking process of street thieves. One of them has been stated in the dreadful murder of Dr. Harvey Burdell, a dentist in Bond St. who was found murdered in his bedroom Saturday. He had been strangled, and was stabbed in fifteen places. The perpetrators are unknown.

DR. BURDELL.—The New York Herald gives the following description of this man, whose tragic death has caused such an intence excitement in that city:—

"The testimony of the dentist and persons who knew Harvey Burdell, is, that he was a mercenary, selfish man, with strong passions; he was easily excited, but was not a man very likely to attack another. He quarreled with every one with whom he came in contact. He quarreled with all his relatives, and had lawsuits with most of them. At the time of his death, those of them living in the city were not on speaking terms with him. Honesty was by no means a characteristic of his dealings, and his reputation among good men was very bad. He was very penurious. He was a very licentious man, and had a great many difficulties in consequence of it; his name is found on the books at the Tombs, in the law courts, and has been known to the head of the police for many years. While living in Chambers street, he was sued by a disreputable woman for non-payment of money alleged to be due to her.

In 1835, or thereabout, Harvey Burdell was engaged to be married to a respectable young lady, but her father peremptorily refused to permit the marriage; at which, Burdell got angry, struck the father and gave him a black eye. Subsequently he was engaged to be married to another young lady, an adopted daughter of a worthy lady and gentleman; the day and hour was set for the wedding, the wedding party assembled, when Dr. Harvey Burdell entered the room of the old man and told him that before he married the girl he wanted a check for $20,000. The old gentleman told him that if he was marrying his daughter for money, he should have neither; so the wedding did not take place.

Subsequently the lady married the person who was to be groomsman on the former occasion.—He received the check for $20,000. The check on the previous occasion was made out for Burdell, and would have been given him immediately after the marriage was performed; and when he heard about it he is said to have become greatly excited, and declared that he would never get married.

Dr. Burdell had a very curious servant girl, called Biddy, who was with him five years at 262 Broadway, and two years at 31 Bond street, during the whole of which time he never furnished her with a bed or anything to sleep upon. He gave her a small weekly salary, upon which she supported herself, buying her food at the groceries. The girl could speak four languages fluently—the English, French, German and Spanish. She had great passion for studying and learning languages. She was an Irish girl, and a most faithful servant.

Morning Chronicle.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1857.

SCHOOLS AND BOOKS.—A writer in the Dover Gazette says: "In learning to read, the manuscript alphabet should always be learned first, and every spelling book and primer should contain this alphabet, and the first lessons in spelling and reading in it, before the other is learned. If this were the case, there would be no trouble about learning to write, every child who knew the alphabet would be a writer, as he now is usually a "printer," if he can get a pencil with which to make the "printed letters," so that teachers who wish to put something on the black-board or elsewhere for little children to read, do it in Roman letters. Printed Mss. letters would answer the purpose better than written, because they would be more uniform and more easily imitated than any person's hand-writing.

Arithmetic is perhaps more practically taught than any other branch. Warren Colburn's intellectual has done more to make it so than anything else, yet the best part of this for beginners has been thrown aside; his plates, which at first accompanied the work, and by which the child could see at a glance what he must stretch his imagination a great way to conceive.—No school should be without a complete set of weights and measures;—no child should be left to imagine what a quart is, when he can see it;—what a pound is, when he can feel it; or what a yard is, when a yardstick can be had. Questions that are practical and of real occurrence, are preferable to abstract and imaginary ones. Such as could be collected in a journal of any day's business in a grocery store would be a good exercise. In Geography the most glaring deficiency is the want of Globes."

CAUSE OF QUARREL.—We have already published an item setting forth that Messrs. Darnes and Reed, of the Missouri Legislature, had a fight on the floor.

It now appears that a resolution had been offered by Mr. Darnes, declaring the emancipation of slavery unjust to the slaveholders, and that it was laid on the table, after the fight between the mover and Mr. Reed, who declared that the resolution was introduced from the worst of motives.

There is an earnest movement among the democracy of Missouri, in favor of making that State free from the blight of slavery.

The St. Louis Democrat says the emancipation of 80,000 slaves, would give her 500,000 freemen.

Mrs. Abagail Rudd died in Bozrah, Ct., on the 22d ult. She was in the 100th year of her age, and probably the oldest person in New London county, if not in the State. Her maiden name was Abagail Allen, and she was married in 1780. She was born in Montville. Up till within a few weeks of her death, she has always been the sole housekeeper of her son, who manages a large farm. She drew a pension in consequence of the revolutionary services of her husband, who has been dead many years. A friend writing of this remarkable woman, says:

"She was remarkable for her great memory. It is but a few years since she would repeat verbatim Milton's Paradise Lost.—The Bible she would repeat perfectly. She would give a history of our country, especially the days of the Revolution. She retained her faculties until the last, and often said that she was ready and prepared to go whenever the summons came. The democracy of our country was her theme."

COALS TO NEWCASTLE.—Among the arrivals at New York on Monday, was the barque Martha Ann, from Toulon, having as her cargo a large quantity of pork, sent there for sale on account of the French government. It was purchased for the French Crimean army, but the termination of the war reduced the present and prospective consumption of the article, and it is sent here for a market. It seems a little singular that this should be done, and it is apparent that the people along the shores have no taste for this description of food.

THE PLEDGE.—The Boston Times says, about thirty recruits on board the receiving ship Ohio, have recently signed the pledge, at the solicitation of Rev. Phinous Stowe, who presented each of them with a testament.

INSTALLATION AT FAIRBAULT, MINNESOTA. Rev. Lauren Armsby was installed over the Congregational Church of Fairbault, on the 7th of January.

☞ Rev. S. S. N. Greeley of Great Barrington, Mass., has received a call to become the pastor of the Congregational church at Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Correspondence of the Chronicle.

A NORTHERNER AT THE SOUTH.

MOBILE, Ala., Jan. 27, '57,

Friend Frank:—I suppose you are enjoying sleighing at the rate of "two forty," while I am sitting in my office by an open window, snuffing refreshing breezes from the Gulf of Mexico.

When I last saw you, you were in pursuit of delinquent subscribers, under difficulties,—the chief difficulty being to get past the place where I then sojourned; which place possessed magnetic attraction of no ordinary powers to a bachelor.

As you ever keep pace with the times, you have doubtless ere this, not only secured the delinquent subscriptions, but also a (Mrs.) Miller to weave around you a web of silken ties, whose vibrations shall be your household music.*

Mobile is the most New English city I have visited this side of dissension line. Our schools and churches are almost as numerous as in cities of the same size in New England; and our Barton Academy is surpassed by few schools north.

But for our darkey draymen, and a certain quiet way of doing business peculiar to southern men, one might suppose himself in Portland or Providence, with their hills and valleys made plain.

You look in vain for any interruption of the unbroken plain upon which the city is built. Not even a hillock rises in the distance, to give one an idea that the world extends beyond the city limits; save a slight elevation of land on the eastern shore of Mobile Bay, where everybody and wife go in summer.

The ladies of the South (God bless 'em!) are of quite a different character from what is generally supposed by northerners. Instead of being fanned and fed, and carried about in the arms of their "servants," (the word slave is never used here in society,) as some represent, they are far in advance of Northern ladies similarly circumstanced, in all household accomplishments. Bear this in mind, if peradventure you have not become entangled in those musical cords.

One cannot form a correct estimate of Southern life and our "peculiar institution," by a mere visit. He must live among us, and enjoy our "institution," before he can form any just conception of its real merits.

I cannot, in a brief letter, give you a full "South side view" of the picture; but be assured that slavery in practice is very different from the theoretical representations so common among you.

One of your Portsmouth belles, I learn on good authority, has made an impression in this quarter. Don't imagine, however, that it comes within the experience of ——— ELECTROTYPE.

* Much obliged to "Electrotype;" but the only "web" yet woven for us, consists of cotton and woolen, and our only "silken tie" is the one we wear on our neck,—and that don't yield much "music," for we can sing better with it off. By the way, we should like to inquire if "Electrotype" sports the "vibrating silken tie" he talks so knowingly of. P.

CONCORD, N. H., Jan. 5.—The Lease of the Manchester & Lawrence Railroad to the Concord Railroad, heretofore sanctioned by the Railroad Commissioners, has this day been approved by the Governor and Council.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Prof. Wood, the renowned discoverer of the invaluable "Hair Restorative," still continues to labor in behalf of the afflicted. His merits are universally admitted by the American press to be far superior to all others for causing the hair, on the head of the aged, to grow forth with as much vigor and luxuriance as when blessed with the advantages of youth. There can be no doubt of the fact, as we have seen numerous testimonials which the Professor has in his possession, that it is one of the greatest discoveries in the medical world. It restores, permanently, gray hair to its original color, and makes it as sure a beautiful silky tresses, which has been very desirable in all ages of the world. It frequently happens that old men marry beautiful and amiable young ladies, and not unfrequently crusty old maids make victims of handsome, good-natured young gentlemen, and by what process we have never been determined, until lately, when it was attributed to the use of this invaluable Hair Restorative.—[Lassalle Journal.

THE GREAT DISCOVERY.

Many years ago, Doctor Burleigh Smart, of Kennebunk, Me., discovered that a simple article never before used as a medicine, was a never failing cure for coughs of every description, and an excellent blood purifier. By its use in his private practice, he acquired the reputation of being the best physician in New England, for all diseases of the lungs. After his death, Messrs. Shaw & Clark of Biddeford, Me., obtained a Copy Right from Government, for its exclusive manufacture, and now have it carefully prepared strictly according to the original recipe. There is no cough that it will not cure, unless the patient is past all hope, and before commencing its use! It is called "Doctor Burleigh Smart's Cough Medicine," and is for sale by all apothecaries. ow7 Tu7&8 6m

N. B.—Beware of imitations called Sherry Wine Bitters. The genuine have a fac simile of my signature upon the outer envelope. For sale by druggists everywhere, and at my office, No. 51 Hanover St., Boston. aug8ow

CAPT. SAMUEL GODFREY, of Manchester, bought the well-known packet schooner Sarah, 65 tons register, at Provincetown, a few weeks since. Arrived at Manchester, Mass., on Friday before the gale, from Boston, and discharged all her cargo but twenty-five hogsheads of salt.—Sunday night she broke adrift from the wharf, with no one on board, having one anchor down with forty fathoms chain. Captain G. gave her up for lost, thinking it impossible for her to go clear of the many rocks between Manchester and the ocean. On Wednesday, Capt. G. received a despatch by telegraph from Provincetown. The vessel was ashore at Wood End, one mile from the wharf, with loss of mainsail and steering-wheel, and anchor chain parted—hull not damaged. She was got off on the 25th, and taken to the wharf at Provincetown, waiting the arrival of Capt. G. and crew.

A NEW YORK SCHOOL TEACHER TRIED FOR TONGUE BURNING.—Some days ago, the warden of Randall's Island, New York, notified the Governors of the Almshouse that Miss Susan F. Jackson, principal of the primary department of the Ward School, at that place, had exercised unusual punishment towards one of the children, by causing him to place his tongue upon the stove. Miss Jackson was arraigned before a Committee of the Twelfth Ward Board of School officers, and testimony offered by assistant teachers and scholars, strongly against the accused, who affirmed that she had on certain occasions, ordered the children to touch the stove with their tongues, but never when the heat was sufficient to injure them.

Hutchins' Hair Dye.

The only but now in use, as the many thousands that have tried it will testify.

THIS great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, having but one preparation. It also contains twice as much as any other, and sold at a much less price. This Dye imparts to the hair the most natural color of any yet discovered; and instead of injuring, it gives it the beauty and elasticity of youth. This Dye is having the largest sale of any Dye in the market, and is warranted to give better satisfaction than any yet offered to the public.

Certificate from Mr. J. A. Sazzard, Boston, Mass., Manufacturer of Wigs, &c.

H. HUTCHINS, Esq: DEAR SIR:—Having tried your Hair Dye, which you gave me for trial, I have found it to be superior to any other Hair Dye I have tried, both in its simplicity and most natural color. The application requires less trouble; I may add, no trouble at all. I therefore wish to use it, recommend it to all my customers, and warrant it, in consideration of my profession, and desire to promote the universal use of your Dye.

LOCAL.

The Portsmouth, N. H., Chronicle folks are trying to make people think that they got burnt out last week, but they can't do it, for everybody got their paper just as regular as though nothing had happened.—Charlestown (Mass.) Advertiser.

Perhaps if the joker of the Advertiser had been disturbed at 3 or 4 in the morning, with the announcement that "the Chronicle office is all afire;" and had flew to the rescue of subscription and account books—in the saving of which (from premises literally crammed with smoke, in spite of the injunction "No Smoking" posted about) he should upset a bottle of ink and another of oxalic acid, on a pair of new pants; and should have a stream of water played first in his face and then in the back of his neck; and should have candles "run" on his coat, from his neck to his heels; and have his papers, in bundles, heaps, and files, smoked smutted, and soused; and sundry printed jobs served ditto; and everybody running everywhere, and everything shoved no-where; and rooms smutted, presses rusted, cases flooded, &c. &c.,—we say, if all this should happen to Mr. Charlestown Advertiser, he might consider himself burnt out, or at east, near enough to say so.

☞ We are pleased to learn that a portion of the boys in the school of T. G. Senter, Esq., have recently presented him,—on the anniversary of his birth-day,—with a handsome copy of the Narrative of Commodore Perry's Japan Expedition. The book, in itself a highly desirable work, can but be ten-fold more prized by the recipient in this case, as a gift from those in whose welfare and progress he evinces a deep interest. Mr. Senter is one of the most capable and indefatigable of schoolmasters,—and nobody appreciates good boys more than he.

☞ The Fremont Boys of this city and vicinity are to have a mass meeting and levee at Jefferson Hall on Monday evening next, and anticipate a large and happy gathering. They invite all their young friends in the region round about to join them on the occasion.—Admittance five cents.

FREMONT LIGHT GUARDS, ATTENTION!—The members of the above named company are requested to meet at Washington Hall, this (Saturday) afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Per order of the Captain.

☞ We publish in another column, a brief letter from an old acquaintance, formerly a "lightning-writer" in this city and elsewhere in New England—a random epistle, on all sorts of topics,—racy and readable. His peculiar views, our readers must take for what they are worth—as we shall his advice. We shall be pleased to hear from "Electrotype," at any time.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Myers Truett, a leading member of the Vigilance Committee of San Francisco, was arrested yesterday on board the steamer Illinois, at the suit of Reuben Maloney, an exiled Californian.

The Fillibuster Examination.—The Fillibuster examination was continued yesterday. An unsuccessful effort was made to give in evidence of a letter per Sydney Webster, Esq., Private Secretary of Franklin Pierce, and bearing the President's frank. The defence professed they could show by it that the President and other high U. S. officials have an interest in the Mosquito grant, and have been connected with Consul Fabens, Gen. Cazneau and others, in the colonization of Nicaragua. Gen Cazneau testified that he had heard that President Pierce has a twelfth interest in the Mosquito grant. The General also said that the Steamship Company were to receive 100 acres of land for every passenger taken out.

NEGRO VOTING IN THE SOUTH.—The Ohio State Journal of Saturday evening, in the leading article concerning a petition presented for the amendment of Article 5, section 1 of the Constitution of Ohio, striking the word white therefrom, we find the following:

"In Tennessee and North Carolina, free negroes used to vote. The Hon. John Bell, the present Senator from Tennessee, told us not a month ago, in Cincinnati, that the first time he ran for Congress in his District he received upwards of three hundred negro votes. He was then a Jackson man, and the negroes who voted for him doubtless voted for the hero of New Orleans likewise."

THE HEIGHT OF INGRATITUDE.—The Americans have sent us a noble vessel, and it is proposed in return, to send them a noble Lord. An Ambassador in exchange for a Resolute. Small craft for great craft!—Truly the days of Glaucus and Diomed have returned, and brass is given for gold. Well, we can calculate the exchange is awful agin the States. Yes Siree, come.—Punch.

WASHINGTON, 6th.—It is understood here that President Pierce and Sydney Webster have been subpoened in the fillibuster case in New Orleans, which, in case of an adverse decision to defendants, will be carried to the Supreme Court.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 5.

SENATE.—The Senate agreed to the House amendments to the bill relative to foreign coins and coining cents, and added another amendment.

The Senate passed the House bill, confirming entries of land under the graduation act, and extending the time for selling the lands granted the Kentucky Asylum for the education of the deaf and dumb.

Mr. Rusk introduced a bill for the transportation of the mails from the Mississippi River to San Francisco.

The annual report of the Commissioner of Patents for 1856, was received in both Houses. Adjourned.

HOUSE.—Mr. Campbell moved the previous question on the Senate's Submarine Telegraph bill, but it was not sustained, forty-five only voting in the affirmative.

Debate ensued.

Pending the subject, the House went into committee, the Tariff bill being nominally under consideration.

The Senate's resolution providing for counting the votes for President and Vice-President, next Wednesday, was adopted. Messrs. Jones of Tennessee, and Howard, were appointed as tellers on the part of the House.

The House then took a recess until 7 P. M.

Evening Session.—Mr. Morrill made a speech in favor of protection.

Mr. Taylor advocated the Louisiana sugar interests.

Mr. Colfax argued that sugar should be free, saying that one-eighth the revenue last year was derived from the duty on sugar and molasses. The House then adjourned.

FOUR DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE.

NEW YORK, Feb. 5.

The Collins steamship Baltic, Captain Comstock, has arrived below this port. She brings dates of the 21st ult.

The political news is quite unimportant.

The Swiss question is considered settled, as the Neufchatel prisoners have been liberated.

The event of the most interest is the trial of Verges, the assassin of the Archbishop of Paris. The trial is full of dramatic interest. Verges is condemned.

A mutiny of a colored crew took place on board of the J. L. Bogart, of New York, in the Mersey, bound to Mobile.—The first mate was badly wounded, and is in the hospital. The second mate was arrested for shooting a seaman, and three of the crew for assault. The case was adjourned to the 22d.

The alleged cause of the mutiny on board the ship J. L. Bogart, is that they shipped under articles for New York, but subsequently learned that the ship was to proceed to Mobile, where, as they were nearly all colored men, they would be detained in slavery.

Lord Napier will probably leave for Washington in about three weeks.

The weather has been very mild.

SWITZERLAND.—A despatch from Berne, of the 18th, states that the Neufchatel prisoners were, on the preceding night, escorted by a detachment of Swiss troops to the French Frontier. The Federal Council has given orders for immediately disbanding the troops.

CHINA.—Private advices from Shanghae, of Nov. 19, say there is a prospect that special shipments to that port may prove excessive, owing to the scarcity of produce.

The English at Canton were strengthening their position, but showed a disposition to remain on the defensive until they receive advices from England. Meanwhile reinforcements are understood to be sent for.

THE LATE STORM ON CAPE COD.—A letter from a school teacher in Wellfleet, a native of Vermont, states that the drifts formed by the late storm exceeded in magnitude any which he had ever before seen. The windows of his sleeping room were completely darkened by the drifted snow; and when he arrived at the school house, a portion of the scholars were enjoying themselves in coasting upon an immense snow-drift, the starting point being the ridgepole of the building.

☞ In the Police Court at Concord a schoolboy named Lamprey was sentenced to pay a fine of $1 and costs of prosecution, or in default of payment, to ten days in the House of Correction, for insubordination and the use of shockingly profane language in school.

GEORGIA LOTTERY.

"Fortune! do thou but aid me now,
And I will never trouble thee again."

A CHANCE THAT SHOULD NOT BE NEGLECTED.—Mr. James F. Winter of Macon and Savannah, Geo., the old and honored public agent for the State in which he resides, has forwarded a prospectus containing the plan by which Georgia proposes to endow her Jasper County Academy. There are to be 15,000 subscribers, and among those, on the 16th of February and the 16th of March, will be distributed over 1712 "tokens of gratitude" for their co-operation in such a laudable design. These "tokens" vary, through all gradations of hundreds and thousands, from a prize of $20, which is the lowest, up to the magnificent chinoteric of Fifteen Thousand Dollars in hard gold, without deduction or per centage! A man may become a whole subscriber for $10, a half for $5, a quarter for $2 50, and who could grudge any of these paltry sums for such a chance of limitless prosperity? Whether is it better to invest a gold piece in a speculation which may render you independent for life, or to squander it in a debauch which will surely injure your health and character? How delightfully a wife might surprise a husband by saving the price of a ticket from the weekly expenditures, and some day, if successful, laying before him a sum of gold sufficient for all their future wants! Think of it Ladies! If orders are directed to James F. Winter, Manager, Macon or Savannah, Georgia, they will be immediately answered.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.
DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS FOR FEMALES,
Prepared by an old Physician of 40 years experience.
THE combination of ingredients in these Pills, is the result of a long and extensive practice; they are mild in their operation, and certain to restoring nature to its proper channel. In every instance have the Pills proved successful. They are certain to open those obstructions to which females are liable, and bring nature into its proper channel, whereby health is restored, and the pale and deathly countenance changed to a healthy one. No female can enjoy good health unless she is regular; and whenever an obstruction takes place, whether from exposure, cold, or any other cause, the general health immediately begins to decline, and the want of such a remedy has been the cause of so many consumptions among young females. Headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, loathing of food, and disturbed sleep, that most always arise from the interruption of nature; and whenever that is the case, the Pills will invariably remedy all these evils, as all cases of painful menstruation, or nervous and spinal affections in the back and limbs, lowness of spirits, hysterics, &c. Nor are they less efficacious in the cure of Leucorrhœa, commonly called the "White," These Pills should never be taken during pregnancy, as they would be sure to cause a miscarriage. Warranted purely Vegetable, and free from anything injurious to life or health. Full and explicit directions which should be read, accompany each box. These Pills are put up in square, flat boxes.—Persons residing where there are no Agencies established, by enclosing One Dollar in a letter, prepaid, to Dr. C. L. CHEESEMAN, Box No. 4,531, Post Office, New York City, will receive them sent to their respective addresses by return of mail.

THE KANSAS JUDGE.—The U. S. Senate, in executive session on Friday, Jan. 30, debated the nomination of Mr. Harrison for Judge in Kansas, in place of Lecompte, but without coming to a decision. The Washington correspondent of the New York Courier and Enquirer says: "The nomination will be withdrawn or rejected. The South sustains Lecompte to a man.—Lecompte is still acting. It is apparent that his removal was a premeditated deception."

BOSTON NORTH END.—The Boston Times says:

It is stated that within a short time past, it has been ascertained that about 700 liquor shops exist within the boundaries of the 1st Police District, which embraces that section of the city commonly denominated "North End."

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,

(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the act of 1836.)

No. 76 State st, opp. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britian, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers connected with Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not unmeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The business being given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and official decisions relative to patents, and has besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, beyond question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, with all the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were many persons acting in that capacity, who had as much business before the Patent office, and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the ablest, informed and most skillful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a person more competent, more worthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure to them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner.

ACCOMP. 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business with the office, as a Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse. CHAS. MASON,
Commissioner of Patents.

TREMONT MILLS.

Teas, Coffees, Chocolates, Cocoas, Spices, &c.

WHOLESALE,—AND RETAIL IN SMALL PACKAGES.

E. E. DYER & CO.

(Sign of the Chinaman grinding coffee,)

141 Washington St., Boston,

SUPPLY the best, finest and purest articles, at lowest Cash prices. Their Stock consists of Teas, Coffees, Chocolates, Allspice, Pepper, Mustard, Ginger, Cayenne Pepper, Nutmegs, Cinnamon, Cloves, Cream Tartar; Taraxacum, or Prepared Dandelion Root, &c., &c.

Having every facility for manufacturing and preparing the several articles named, the public may rely upon having the purest and finest article, as they are put up carefully, and bear our name and label, "TREMONT MILLS, E. E. DYER & CO."

To give consumers some idea of our sales, we annex the following scale of prices, viz.:

5 lb. Souchong Tea,	1.50	5 lb. Mocha Coffee,	1.00
5 lb. Oolong "	1.75	5 lb. Java "	90
5 lb. Y. Hyson "	2.25	1 lb. Chocolate,	1.00

The Spices are put up in ¼ and ½ lb. tin cases, expressly for family use, and are warranted to be strictly a pure article, and only need a trial to establish them in public favor.

SPANISH COFFEE.—We would call the attention of customers and dealers to our Spanish Coffee, as an article which is highly esteemed, and gives the greatest satisfaction. It is prepared with particular care, and is a very superior article, being, one pound of this coffee, it is believed, is equal to 1 lb. of any other.

DANDELION COFFEE.—This article is carefully prepared at our Mills, and put up in packages having our trade mark, and may be relied upon as the best and most approved mixture of dandelion and coffee.

TARAXACUM, or Prepared Dandelion Root.—This article is prepared and roasted at our Mills, is relished by Family Grocers generally in town and country, and bearing our trade mark, "Chinaman grinding coffee," may be relied upon as the GENUINE ARTICLE. The proportion used is about one-half the quantity of coffee. The price is 20 cents per pound, and it is warranted to be the same as that which has been sold for fifty cents a pound by Druggists.

The medical properties of Dandelion are well known, and held in high estimation by all who use it. This being a preparation of the root, with all its medicinal virtues retained, can be mixed with coffee or not, as best suits the taste, and will be found cheap and economical as a family beverage, one pound of which being nearly equal to two pounds of coffee. It is prescribed by many eminent physicians to invalids, children and aged persons, as a nutritious beverage, and as a remedy for Dyspepsia, Bilious Complaint, &c.

Be careful to observe that all our Coffees have our trade mark, "Chinaman grinding coffee."

To Grocers and Dealers a liberal discount is made, enabling them to supply their customers at the same low rate.

TO CASH PURCHASERS.—Our object being to secure large sales at small profits, we offer inducements which cannot be afforded by those who do business on the credit system; and we confidently invite an examination of the quality of our stock and our prices, as compared with those of any other house.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. FRANCIS & Co. are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commissioner elected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that such persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets in Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is named, orders are filled in the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20. No tickets are, however, sent unless the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Tertary combination. PRIZES VARY IN AMOUNT FROM $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

Prince & Co.'s Improved Melodeons.

THE OLDEST ESTABLISHMENT IN THE U.S.
Employing Two Hundred Men,

Eighty Instruments per Week.

BETWEEN 18,000 AND 19,000

of these instruments have been finished and are now in use.

THE latest improvement in our Melodeons is the DIVIDED SWELL, secured to us by Letters Patent 23d May, 1855.—By means of this Swell Solo Passages may be played with the full power of the instrument, while the Accompaniment is soft and subdued.—Heretofore, in Melodeons made by us, will be furnished with this attachment without extra charge.

Extract from the Commercial Advertiser, July 27, '55.

"Messrs. Prince & Co. could realize a handsome fortune by disposing of rights to other manufacturers to use their new improvement; but as they prefer to make it a feature in their Instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufactures.

It is now eight years since we commenced the manufacture of this new celebrated Musical Instrument, during which time we have finished and sold nearly FIFTEEN THOUSAND. Voluntary testimonials to the excellence of our Instruments, from the most distinguished Professors of Music in different parts of the United States, have from time to time been received. Thus far we have said but little, and our advertisements were seldom seen for the reason that we could not supply the demand. We have lately erected one of the largest and most perfect Manufacturing Establishments in the United States, and we now think that we can fill orders promptly. We therefore give one testimonial we have received.

New York, Mercer st., Oct., 1855.

"G. A. Prince & Co.: Gentlemen—the Double Reed Melodeon has arrived, and a most charming instrument it is. It has been played on by Wallace, Dodt, Hodges, Wm. Mason, and a host of others, and they all pronounce it one of the most beautiful toned reed instruments they have ever heard. Very truly, Wm. A. Wolcott."

We are not aware that the above mentioned Melodeon is in any particular superior to those we are daily finishing, and we can assure those who are intending to favor us with their orders, that they will be furnished with an instrument equally as good. Our Instruments are all finished in Rosewood Cases, and the workmanship is of the very best quality. The usual prices are—

METHODIST CHURCH MUSIC.

Under this head, "Our Church Music: what was it? what is it?" the New York Church Advocate has been publishing a series of articles "on the dangers which beset Methodism from the late changes in its 'material and social' condition." After referring to their building of churches, to the "pew question," to the comparative withdrawal from the poor, &c., the Advocate says the Methodists are dengenerating, as a Church, it is to be feared, in another important respect, namely, their Church Music.

What was our Church music? It was quite distinctive of the denomination in the "good old times." It was a mighty power in our assemblies. None who saw those times will deny it; all who remember them will say, in this respect, Would God they could return again. Not only was our old singing characteristic of us as a religious community, but it grew essentially out of our system; our system of theology, of practical measures, and religious life. It was full of freedom, of simplicity, of feeling and energetic sentiment. It was as wings of seraphim, upon which our congregations were often borne, as it were, up to the heavens—preachers and hearers so elevated in the introductory hymn, that the whole subsequent service frequently showed its effect.

But, to be more particular, we had then, first, no choirs, or even choristers, not to speak of instruments; the exceptions, at least, were few. We mention it not as an advantage, (for we shall have a favorable word for these directly,) but we mention it as a fact; and a fact full of significance, in connection with the other fact, that our Church melody was then so full of power, and of popular attraction. An individual worshipper, authorized in some places for the purpose, in most cases not, started the tune, as in a prayer-meeting he would lead in prayer, and the assembly joined in "lustily," as Mr. Wesley exhorts; in this respect we did only as some of the best religious communities in Europe now do.—Throughout Scotland a single "precentor" "raises" the tune to this day:

"And old Dundee's wild warbling measures rise,
Or plaintive Martyrs, worthy of the name;
Or noble Elgin beats the heavenward flame,
The sweetest far of Scotia's holy lays.
Compared with these, Italian trills are tame,
The tickled ears no heartfelt raptures raise,
Nae unison has they with our Creator's praise."

We all sung together in those days.—Singing was not a performance, a recreation or tasteful ceremony to relieve the rest of the service, it was worship; it was the beginning, as it were, of the prayer. It was devotion; and there was power in it; the people felt it; and the multitude flocked to our temples under its mighty charm, and many a hardened heart broke under its spell into prayers and tears.

Our tunes were characteristic. They consisted of two classes. First, we used, in common with all Protestant Christendom, the grand old tunes which have grown up in the progress of Christianity, and grown out of its essential spirit, in the common mind of the Christian world. Old Hundred, Dundee, Wells, China, Mear, Coronation, and similarly mighty strains rolled oftener then along the walls of our Zion, throughout the land, than they do now; oftener by far. They seemed to be incentive to the deep devotional feeling of our people. If our congregations had not the artistical appreciation and execution of music which belongs to the present day, they had, at least, a truer religious sentiment for it; and their choice of tunes of this class showed, in our humble judgment, a really higher musical taste than now prevails among us.

The other class of tunes were simple ""ociable," melodies which prevailed in our "social services," and grew up, we hardly know how; but they grew out of the profound religious spirit of the times; and many of them expressed that spirit in the most vivid life and power. We do not, indeed, consider it presumption to say that Methodism, in this department of its music, produced the first native melodies of our country. They preceded and gave birth to some of the beautiful airs which have become national among us, and are pronounced, as yet, our only national music, the Negro Minstrelsy. And let not the reader smile at the allusion. Never did truer music gush from the deep instinctive sentiments of the human heart, than those old tender or triumphant airs. We have seen ten thousand men swayed to and fro under their power, at camp-meetings, like the forrest under the rising gale. We ridicule them now-a-days, and the poetry to which they were sung, as "ditties," "doggerel," &c.; the reproach is true, somewhat, but not so fully as is supposed; for there was a period when these melodies were used almost exclusively with Charles Wesley's noble strains.

The two classes of tunes we have mentioned were mixed among them, in both public and social worship; confined almost entirely to Charles Wesley's unrivalled lyrics, they rung not only through our public assemblies and social meetings, but habitually through our habitations. Methodist singing, at church and at home, had a charm of its own, almost as much as Quaker apparel had a fashion of its own; and everybody liked it because it spake to what in us "makes all hearts akin." Such was our Church music. What is it now? We shall answer in our next.

FROZEN TO DEATH.—The Barre Gazette says that John Stanton, of Phillipston, was frozen to death on the road between that place and Royalston, on Saturday night last. He returning home from the latter place with his brother Michael. On the way, Michael stopped at a house to warn himself, but John refused to stop—being within a mile of his home, where a young wife was awaiting him. He only went about a hundred rods, when he sat down in a snow drift, where he was subsequently found by his brother, dead.

HIGH PRICE OF FISH.—The schooner Florence Nightingale, of Swampscott, on Thursday, caught three hundred and seventy five pounds of cod-fish, which were sold for $5,72 per hundred pounds, the highest price ever paid on the beach.

A CONFESSED MURDERER.—David Roche, who murdered Abner Nutting in a quarrel at Groton Junction, pleaded guilty before the examining justice, and is now in Cambridge Jail.

Arnold's Vital Fluid

PURIFIES and strengthens the blood by eradicating, through a nice chemical action, the causes of impurities and humors. Hence its power to cure humors that mere medicine cannot cure. It cures them by strengthening and vitalizing the blood. It furnishes to a certain extent, the element of which pure blood is composed. It eradicates and thence away whatever clogs and thickens the blood.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID

Renders the system strong and healthy, by freeing the blood and stomach from objectionable materials. It nerves and vivifies the system, by furnishing the elements which give vitality.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID

Gives to the system an influence and effect similar to that produced by exercise in the free, open air. It exhilarates by strengthening the blood to brighter and better action—doing its work by beginning at the beginning. It is pleasant to the taste, and becomes a favorite wherever known.

ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID

Removes Biliousness in the most direct and easy manner, by neutralizing the cause. This is the principle of its action in removing illness generally. It neutralizes the cause, by freeing the blood from impediments to its proper fulfilment of its life-giving functions.

This principle of neutralizing the cause is why ARNOLD'S VITAL FLUID CURES HUMORS that mere medicine cannot sensibly affect, and why it cures other diseases.

Resulting from Poisons in the Blood, that mere medicinal preparations cannot alleviate. Humors are POISONS in the blood—and it is by their chemical action in neutralizing those poisons that ARNOLD'S GLOBULES AND VITAL FLUID are enabled to cure them so that they stay cured.

VITAL FLUID 50 cents per bottle; GLOBULES 25 cents per box.

Morning Chronicle.

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1857.

THE FLORIDA INDIAN WAR.—The Tampa Peninsular of the 17th ult., says that both regulars and volunteers were under orders to commence scouting immediately. Gen. Harney had started for the Istapoga country, where he was confident of finding the Indians. He will endeavor to catch Billy Bowlegs.

Ah! our old friend Billy Bowlegs, like Osceola, seems to give the Army and the Treasury a great deal of work. If somebody who has access to the documents, would figure up the bills we have paid on account of Florida, since the day when Gen. Jackson hung Arbuthnot and Ambrister, the amount would stagger some and frighten others.—Those bills are mostly to be charged to the account of slavery. We conquered and bought the territory, to promote the safety of slave property in Georgia and Alabama. The State is thinly settled, and ever will be—it sends one Representative and two Senators to Congress—and has cost untold millions!

☞ The Salem Gazette of Friday informs us, that, in the Court of Common Pleas for Essex Co., the principal business of the term promises to be the trial of liquor cases; there being about sixty of these cases upon the docket—the Grand Jury having found at the present term forty, and there are about twenty others that came up on appeal. Most of the old liquor cases that went to the Supreme Court on appeal and exceptions, have come back for sentence, and, in consequence, quite a number of dealers will be required to change their residence in the course of a few days to Lawrence or Ipswich.

VALENTINES.—Shop-windows begin to notify the people, in flaring colors, that St. Valentine's month has come. Caricatures grin, and witless rhymes abound, giving the vulgar a chance, for the small outlay of a few cents, to wound the sensibility of an acquaintance. If you can't afford to send something that will give pleasure, don't trouble the senseless caricatures. Let them lie profitless on the hands of those who get them up, and they will get up something better the next time. So says the Charlestown Advertiser,—so say we.

EMANCIPATION IN MISSOURI.—The St. Louis Leader, a strong pro-slavery Democratic paper, admits that the emancipationists can poll many thousands of votes in Missouri; that they have complete possession of St. Louis city and county; that they have at least thirteen members of the State Legislature, and there are probably many more in that body, as many of the interior counties are pretty thoroughly emancipationized. The party is now just beginning to agitate the question.

LIFE INSURANCE GAMBLING.—The Newark Advertiser alludes to a novel bill which has just been reported to the Legislature of New Jersey:—

A bill entitled the supplement to the laws for the prevention of gaming has been introduced, which has something of a singular interest. The enemy of man has often been represented as gambling for the souls of various deluded individuals whom he could induce to throw dice with him; but it is not, perhaps, generally known that human beings gamble in the lives of each other, or, in other words, invest their money in life insurance policies on the lives of individuals in whom they have no interest, and who, they think, will die soon enough to make the investment profitable. The bill proposes to render criminal such proceedings.

MANUMISSION.—By the will of the lat Mrs. Hill, of Fredericksburg, Virginia, all the slaves belonging to her estate, numbering thirty six, have been set free, with the choice of going either to Liberia or to a free state.

MARBLEHEAD.—At the annual town meeting in Marblehead on Monday, the people's ticket was elected over the citizen's ticket. Mrs. Maria Antoinette Lakeman was chosen keeper of the town pound.

☞ L. Smith, formerly of Nashua, has been chosen Secretary of the Council of the Minnesota Legislature. He was formerly Clerk of the N. H. House of Representatives.

☞ Rev. Amos Foster having removed from Ludlow, Vt., to Acworth, N. H., requests all mail matter designed for him to be directed to the latter place.

EMIGRANT AID COMPANY.—Professor Longfellow has subscribed $1000 to the capital stock of the New England Emigrant Aid Company.

☞ G. P. R. James, Esq., the novelist, has given five tons of coal to the poor of Richmond, Va.

GREAT DOINGS.—In Boston on Thursday, night, the Harbor Police arrested Michael Doyle and committed him for being drunk. After his arrest, Doyle discovered that he had been robbed of $90 in cash, and his gold watch and chain, valued at $250.

Subsequently, officer Kennedy, of the 3d Station, arrested John Sinclair, for fighting and creating a disturbance, and took him to the Station House, where, on searching him, Mr. Doyle's watch and also his tax bill was found upon him, and he was committed to the Toombs to await examination on the charge of robbing Doyle. In the Police Court, next morning, Doyle was fined $8 and costs for being drunk the night before.

Sinclair was brought before the Police Court, and waiving an examination, was held in $1500 for trial at the Municipal Court. In default of bail, he was committed to jail.

The Worcester papers give some particulars of the murder committed in Groton on Tuesday. The name of the murderer is Abner Nutting, who resides about a mile and a half from the Junction. The murdered man, David Roche, had been with Nutting to Groton Junction, where they had procured a gallon of rum; they returned to Nutting's house, and after drinking very freely, a quarrel arose; Nutting seized a loaded gun and fired at Roche, the contents, a charge of shot, penetrating his heart, and producing instant death. The murderer was arrested, and having pleaded guilty was committed to the jail at Cambridge. Both the murderer and the victim were Irishmen.

MARINE LOSSES IN JANUARY.—A list of the vessels reported to be totally lost during the month of January, shows a total of one hundred and thirty-one vessels, of which twenty four were ships, fourteen barks, thirty-two brigs, fifty-nine schooners, and two sloops. The total value of the property lost was three millions, seven hundred and thirty-four thousand, two hundred dollars. This is exclusive of partial losses of cargo, and damages to vessels not amounting to a total loss, which, at an estimate, would be likely to increase the figures to something near five million dollars. The vessels reported in this list are chiefly American, although some foreign are included, when bound to or from a United States port, or known to be insured in this country. The number of lives actually reported to be lost is eighty-one, but if we add the crews of the vessels reported to be "missing," in regard to which all hope is abandoned, it swells the total to three hundred and eighty-three, a fearful sacrifice of human life to the pursuit of commerce.

MUTTON VS. PORK.—Physicians recommend mutton as the most wholesome meat the easiest digested, and best suited to invalids; while pork, as everybody knows, is the most unwholesome flesh eaten. In England, mutton is a favorite dish, and we apprehend it is to this, rather than to roast beef, that the Englishman owes his robust health and rosy complexion. Our people eat too much pork and too little mutton. And yet, as a cotemporary well remarks, mutton can be produced pound for pound, at less than half the price of pork; yields more nourishment when eaten, and keeping sheep does not exhaust a farm to the extent that feeding hogs does. Sheep can be kept during the winter on hay and turnips, or mangrel wurtzel, or sugar beet, while hogs will not do without at least some corn. We would like to see in the papers fewer accounts of big pigs, and more about fat sheep.—Portland Tran.

A man living "out west" became suddenly ill, being attacked by "fever and ague." Fearing he would not live many days, he turned his attention to religion, and began to repent his wickedness, as people are apt to do when death approaches.

While he was in bed grievously mourning for his sins, a physician entered the room. The sick man mistook him for a clergyman that had been sent for. His mind being filled with thoughts of eternity, he piteously exclaimed in the language of Scripture:

"Oh, sir! sir! what shall I do to be saved?"

The physician thinking he alluded to his bodily illness, replied, drily,—"take Quinine."—Sat. Eve. Gaz.

All the vessels of war at the Brooklyn navy yard are frozen in tight. Men are at work sawing a passage through the ice. We wish all the war vessels in the world were frozen in, there to remain till the dissolution of the world should break the ice. Commerce, the means of civilizing, christianizing, and saving the human race, has three enemies—custom houses, pirates and war ships.—Newburyport Herald.

LIQUOR PROSECUTION.—Last week, Samuel Scripture, who keeps the "Merrimack House," in the south part of Nashua, on the Lowell road, was arraigned before the Police Court, on a complaint for selling liquor. He was bound over in the sum of $200 for his appearance at the August term of the Supreme Judicial Court.—Nashua Gaz.

FOREIGN NEWS.—Steamer Africa, arrived at Sandy Hook, left Liverpool, 24th ult.—three days later.

Her accounts mention the confirmation of the settlement of the Swiss difficulties, while those at Canton were still more complicated.

In commercial affairs it is stated that cotton had advanced an eighth of a penny in price during the week, and the Liverpool market for breadstuffs was dull and declining. Good western flour was selling at a smaller price in Liverpool than it sells at here at the present time. The provision market was dull without change in prices, and the tea trade was excited in the presence of speculators.—Money was reported to be easier upon the London 'Change, and consols had fallen slightly within the week.

The news from China is short, but important. The Chinamen had set on fire and destroyed the foreign factories or "hongs," and had burned down the banking houses. On the other side, it is stated that Canton city was to be immediately shelled or bombarded.

FRANCE.—The petition which the assassin Verges, has addressed to the French Emperor fills four pages, and displays some literary ability, but is humble and suppliant in tone. It, however, shows that the petitioner considers himself different from the rest of mankind, and believes in his own infallibility. He declares, in the course of it, that Christianity requires regeneration, and the inferior clergy ought to be enfranchised from the yoke of the higher. He declares, too, that he looks on himself as the "Peter the Hermit" of a new Crusade, and, that being determined to announce his mission by a coup d'etat, he had selected for a victim the highest dignitary of the church. He, however, adds that his condemnation to death does not surprise him, as a great judicial manifestation was required for so illustrious a death, but that rare manifestation is sufficient satisfaction to social order; and that to go beyond it, would be unjust and impolitic. He therefore prays that, instead of being put to death, he may be subjected to a noble and honorable exile.

The merchants of the principal commercial cities of France have appealed to the Emperor, in behalf of French citizens, who suffered by the destruction of Greytown by the American frigate Cyane.

PERSIA.—The British fleet had taken possession of the forts of Bushire and the Island of Karrack, in the Persian Gulf. It was also reported that the Russians had occupied Astracan.

CHINA.—A despatch from Trieste mentions the arrival at Suez of the East Indian mail steamer Calcutta, with later dates from Persia and China to Dec. 16. Only a few words were telegraphed, but they are important. Yeh, the Governor of Canton, continued obdurate. French Folly fort had been taken and destroyed. The Chinese had set fire to the factories, and all the "hongs" were destroyed. The Oriental Bank, Bank of Asia and Mercantile Bank were on fire, with no hopes of saving them. It is said the city of Canton would no longer be spared, and that the discharge of rockets and shells had already commenced.

One pleasant Sabbath morning, (said he,) while Henry Ward Beecher was on his way to church, he found the sidewalk occupied by a number of boys, playing marbles, upon which he stopped short and exclaimed—"What, boys, playing marbles upon the Sabbath day!—why you frighten me!" Upon which a hardened little sinner looked up and answered—Frightened, he!—why in the d——l I don't you run, then?"—Sat. Eve. Gaz.

WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE.

Prof. Wood, the renowned discoverer of the invaluable "Hair Restorative," still continues to labor in behalf of the afflicted. His medicines are universally admitted by the American press to be far superior to all others for causing the hair, on the head of the aged, to grow forth with as much vigor and luxuriance as when blessed with the advantages of youth. There can be no doubt, if we place credit in the innumerable testimonials which the Professor has in his possession, that it is one of the greatest discoveries in the medical world. It restores, permanently, gray hair to its original color, and makes it assume a beautiful silky texture, which has been very desirable in all ages of the world. It frequently happens that old men and grey headed and amiable young ladies, and not unfrequently crusty old maids make victims of handsome, good-natured young gentlemen, and by what process it has never been determined, until lately, when it was attributed to the use of this invaluable Hair Restorative.—[Louisville Journal.

THE GREAT DISCOVERY.

Many years ago, Doctor Burleigh Smart, of Kennebunk, Me., discovered that a simple article, never before used as a medicine, was a never failing cure for coughs of every description, and an excellent blood purifier. By its use in his private practice, he acquired the reputation of being the best physician in New England, for all diseases of the lungs. After his death, Messrs. Shaw & Clark of Biddeford, Me., obtained a Copy Right from Government, for the exclusive manufacture, and now have it carefully prepared strictly according to the original recipe. There is no cure in the world more certain for the patient to put all his trust in than this, when used according to directions, and used before commencing its use! It is called at "Doctor Burleigh Smart's Cough Medicine," and is for sale by all apothecaries. ow TuTh 6m

Hutchins' Hair Dye.

The very best now in use, as the many thousands that have tried it will testify.

THE great superiority of this Dye consists in its easy application, having but one preparation. It also contains twice as much as any other, and sold at a much less price. This Dye imparts to the hair the most natural color of any yet discovered; and instead of injuring, it gives it the beauty and elasticity of youth. This Dye is having the largest sale of any Dye in the market, and is warranted to give better satisfaction than any yet offered to the public.

Certificate from Mr. J. A. Sussard, Boston, Mass., Manufacturer of Wigs, &c.

H. HUTCHINS, Esq: DEAR SIR:—Having tried your Hair Dye, which you gave me for trial, I have found it to be superior to any other Hair Dye I ever tried, both in its simplicity and most natural color. The application requires less trouble; I may add, no trouble at all. I therefore shall use it, recommend it to all my customers, and warrant it, in consideration of my profession, and desire to promote the universal use of your Dye.

LOCAL.

NEW PETS.—We have now in our office several well behaved mice, who come running about us while we scribble in the night time, with impunity and great boldness. The little rogues smell our paste dish, we reckon.—Nashua Telegraph.

We used to have a goodly number of the little "well behaved" po(s)ts; but by the setting of sundry traps, their visits have been rendered less frequent. Finally, a nice, plump little fellow having sprung a trap while our boys were at work, one of them took him from it, and preserved him for a few weeks in a glass-covered box. He was becoming, apparently, quite contented and familiar; but being one day put into a barrel, while his box was cleaned out, he jumped or scrambled over the side, and "cut" under a coal heap. From that time to the present, we have neither seen nor heard of him or any other mouse in our whole premises. He probably told his companions of his choking and imprisonment, and warned them to keep off—as we do now.

P. S.—Somebody or something set our building afire—at least, it burnt some, the other night. Who knows but it was that mouse, in revenge?

☞ Don't forget Mr. Lamprey's dance this evening.

PERILOUS PROPERTY.—A negro fisherman in Norfolk, Va., came one day, to his master, and said; "Massa, I want to buy myself free—I got tree hundred dollars, sir; I will pay you dat down and geb you. de rest when I mek um." "Very well, Tom," said his master, "you have been a faithful fellow, and I will comply with your wish." The money was accordingly paid, and the inchoate freedom of Tom commenced. A few days afterwards Tom went out to fish in company with a fellow servant; and there came up a blow, which capsized the fishing smack, and drowned Tom's companion. The next day Tom came to his master, and said, "Massa, I change my mind, sir; I don't want to buy myself any more—please give me back my money, sir?" "Why, Tom," said his master, "you have already paid a large portion of your price, and by industry, in your profitable calling, you will soon earn and pay the residue, and you had better carry out your original intention." "No massa," was Tom's economical answer;" "I rudder hab my money back—nigger property too unsartin, sir."

THEODORE PARKER, lectured before the Manchester Lyceum, last evening, to more than 1100 people. It was the greatest crowd the Lyceum has had for years. The largest amount drawn by any previous lecturer within a year or two, was about $51,00. Last night, Mr. Parker produced them a few religious and political "hard feelings" and $77,00 in money, not reckoning anything on season tickets.—Manchester Mirror.

Some folks caught a Tartar, after all, in Theodore Parker. He was unmercifully severe upon all hunkerdom. Joseph Kidder, Esq., who sat upon the stage, bore it like a martyr, and so did the rest of the hunkers present.

The hall was crowded to its utmost, and the lecture was listened to until the last sentence with the closest attention.

He got through his address without touching much on Theology.—American.

A United States soldier named Lawlor, recently confessed to the Chief of Police in New York, that he had committed a murder in Ireland four years previously. His confession was considered at the time as the result of insanity, for which he was sent to Blackwell's Island. Meanwhile correspondence has passed respecting the murder, of which Lawlor confessed himself to be the perpetrator; the result of which goes to show that a murder was committed about the time stated by the prisoner; that the name of the victim was Mary Dunn; and that Lawlor was a teacher in the workhouse at the time. These facts result in his being sent back to Ireland for trial, as he is now recovered from his real or assumed insanity.

HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—Charles Thomas of Andover, a lame man, accompanied by a friend, went into the rum-saloon corner of Stoddart and Court streets, Boston, on Tuesday night. He was spotted at once by a party already there, and one of the number asked him to "treat," which he did.—He then left the place with his companion, but the thieves followed after; one tripped him, and the others fell upon him and robbed him of his wallet, containing fifteen or twenty dollars. It is a little singular that no effort has been made to rid this Stoddard street of the ruffians who gather there in gangs every night. The Chief of Police has had his attention called to the matter many times, and the Mayor is not ignorant of the bad character of the locality.—Courier.

A gentleman of great wealth received from his nephew, who was his reputed heir, a splendid pheasant, to enjoy which he invited his friends to partake. The dinner was gay, but at the dessert one of the guests remarked the host had not tasted of the dainty bird "Ah," said he, "to tell the truth, I was fearful that it might be poisoned, coming from my heir."—Sat. Eve. Gaz.

Here is an apt illustration of the misery resulting from "intelligent" servants.

"Now, then, Thomas, what are you burning off my writing table there."

"Nothing but the paper that's written all over, sir; I ain't touched the clean."

CONGRESS.

FRIDAY, Feb. 6.

SENATE.—On motion of Mr. Wilson, a resolution was adopted, directing the Committee on Commerce to enquire into the expediency of authorizing the Secretary of the Navy to expend such sums as he may deem necessary, not exceeding $50,000, for the further exploration of the River La Plata and its tributaries. Mr. Fish of New York, from the Committee on Naval Affairs, reported back the joint resolution authorizing the Secretary of the Navy to pay the officers and seamen of the expedition in search of Dr. Kane, at the same rate as was allowed to the officers and seamen under the expedition under Lieut. De Haven.

The private calendar was then taken up.

The Senate passed the House bill for the relief of Mary Reeside, and receded from its former amendment against the allowance of interest.

HOUSE.—The House passed seventeen private bills. Adjourned.

THE BURDELL MURDER—IMPORTANT REVELATIONS.—New York, Feb. 7.—The investigation into the Bond street murder was proceeded with yesterday, with no abatement in the excitement. There were several important points made by witnesses, as follows:—Officer Davis swore that when he was in the Doctor's house in September last, called there to settle the difficulty that grew out of the charge on Mrs. Cunningham of robbery; he heard Mrs. Cunningham, amid demonstrations of great rage, say she would have satisfaction, or would see his heart's blood.

Officer Siddel swore, that on the same occasion she said to the Doctor she was his wife by every tie that could be.

Daniel Olney swore, that at Dr. Burdell's request, he got Mr. Valentine Butler to put on the hall door one of his burglar safe locks, which he, Olney, declared could be opened from the outside only by the key, and it could not be opened from the inside without the key, unless at the cost of considerable trouble.

Rev. Dr. Richard Cox swore, that on Friday morning last, the day of the murder, Burdell told him that Mrs. Cunningham, Eckel and Snodgrass had threatened violence, and begged him to come and stay with him that night, which he promised to do, but he was prevented from fulfilling his promise.

Mrs. Stanbury swore that she made an arrangement, on the day of the murder, to take the house from the first of May, 1857, and agreed that her husband should call and settle the agreement on Saturday, the next morning.

Mrs. Cunningham, she thought, heard that conversation.

Yesterday afternoon a writ of habeas corpus was granted by Judge Brady, to bring up Eckel and Snodgrass, in order to ascertain the grounds of their detention in the Toombs.

Another application will be made to bring up Mrs. Cunningham at the same time.

The inquest was adjourned to this forenoon. The first three witnesses to be examined are Mrs. and the Misses Cunningham.

Singer's Sewing Machines.
THESE celebrated machines are in practical and profitable use in all parts of the civilized world. In all the various trades, and in sewing every sort of fabric, either of cloth or leather, they have been fully tried and approved. Sewing machines of other manufacturers often fail to work, but SINGER'S MACHINES
ALWAYS OPERATE PERFECTLY,
being strong, durable and complete in contrivance and workmanship. A perfect sewing machine kept employed affords a clear profit of $1000 a year; but an imperfect one is a source of constant vexation and loss. The entire RELIABILITY of our machines is one great reason for their unparalleled popularity.
MACHINES FOR FAMILY SEWING,
of a frail and delicate construction, are recommended by other manufacturers. Such machines are made to catch the eye, not to perform substantial work. The truth is, family sewing machines ought to be stronger than any other, because they go into less skilful hands than when sold to manufacturers, and are used for a greater variety of work. The machines which have proved best for all other purposes must be best for family use, and they are Singer's. The speed of our machines has lately been doubled. No other can compare with them in quantity of work.
☞ New machines of the latest improved style will be exchanged on liberal terms for old sewing machines of our own make, or operative sewing machines of other manufacturers. Local agents wanted to sell our machines.
N. B.—All persons desiring full information about sewing machines, can obtain it by applying for a copy of "I. M. Singer & Co.'s Gazette," a paper devoted entirely to the subject. It will be sent gratis. I. M. SINGER & CO.

Prince & Co.'s
Improved Melodeons.
THE OLDEST ESTABLISHMENT IN THE U.S.
Employing Two Hundred Men, and finishing
Eighty Instruments per Week.
BETWEEN 18,000 AND 19,000
of these instruments have been finished and are now in use.
THE latest improvement in our Melodeons is the DIVIDED SWELL, secured to us by Letters Patent 22d May, 1855.—By means of this Swell Solo Passages may be played with the full power of the instrument, while the Accompaniment is soft and subdued.—Heretofore, all Melodeons made by us, will be furnished with this attachment without extra charge.
Extract from the Commercial Advertiser, July 27, 56.
"Messrs. Prince & Co. could realize a handsome fortune by disposing of rights to other manufacturers to use their new improvement; but as they prefer to make it a feature in their Instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufacture."
It is now eight years since we commenced the manufacture of this new celebrated Musical instrument, during which time we have finished and sold nearly NINETEEN THOUSAND. Voluntary testimonials to the excellence of our Instruments, from the most distinguished Professors of Music in different parts of the United States, have from time to time been received. Thus far we have said but little, and our advertisements were seldom seen for the reason that we could not supply the demand. We have lately erected one of the largest and most perfect Manufacturing Establishments in the United States, and we now think that we can fill orders promptly. We therefore give one testimonial we have received.
NEW YORK, 15th Oct., 1855.
"G. A. Prince & Co.: Gentlemen—The Double Reed Melodeon you sent us arrived, and a most charming instrument it is. It has been played on by Wallace, Dodworth, Hodges, Wm. Mason, and a host of others, and they all pronounce it one of the most beautiful toned reed instruments they have ever touched. Very really, JAMES F. HALL."
We are not aware that the above mentioned Melodeon is in any particular superior to those we are daily finishing, and we can assure those who are inclined to favor us with orders, that they will be furnished with an instrument equally as good. Our Instruments are all finished in Rosewood Cases, and the workmanship is of the very best quality. The styles and prices are—
IN PORTABLE CASE:

One summer's day, a classical commedian, (commedians can be classical as well as tragedians,) who had been amusing the inhabitants of a certain village by his acting, had wandered out into the neighboring country to view the beauties of nature, and indulge in a few romantic thoughts. He came to a place where some farmers were working,—by one of them he was recognized as the funny man he had seen at the "show." Beckoning his companions to him, he consulted with them, and it was decided that they would have a "taste" of the actor's "quality," there and then; so while the commedian was absorbed in deep reflection, the farmer drew a 5ve cent piece from his pocket, and throwing it to the actor, exclaimed, "Come now, old fellow, Cut up, cut up!—Sat. Eve. Gaz.

American and Foreign Patents.

R. H. EDDY, solicitor of Patents,

(Late Agent of U. S. Patent Office, Washington, under the Act of 1837.)

No. 70 State st, opp. Kilby st, Boston,

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States; also in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries. Caveats, Specifications, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch. Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions,—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same. Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar. Assignments recorded at Washington.

This Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing patents, or ascertaining the patentability of inventions, unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere. The testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL. AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber; and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other Agency can inventors, for the charges for professional services so moderate.—The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past, has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of specifications and decisions relative to patents. These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him, without question, to offer superior facilities for obtaining patents.

All necessity of a journey to Washington to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there, are here saved inventors.

Testimonials.

"During the time I occupied the office of Commissioner of Patents, E. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, did business as his agent at the Patent Office, as Solicitor of Patents. There were few, if any persons acting in that capacity, who had so much business before the Patent office; and there were none who conducted it with more skill, fidelity, and success. I regard Mr Eddy as one of the best informed and most skilful Patent Solicitors in the United States, and have no hesitation in stating to such of my friends as may wish to employ a person more competent and trustworthy, and more capable of putting their application in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office.

EDMUND BURKE,
Late Commissioner of Patents."

From the present Commissioner of Patents.

AUGUST 17, 1855.—During the time I have held the Office of Commissioner of Patents, R. H. Eddy, Esq., of Boston, has been extensively engaged in the transaction of business at this office, as Solicitor. He is thoroughly acquainted with the law, and the rules of practice of the Office. I regard him as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse.

☞ The Spices are put up in 4 and 8 lb. tin cases, expressly for family use, and are warranted to be strictly a pure article, and only need a trial to establish their superior flavor.

SPANISH COFFEE.—We would call the attention of customers and dealers to our Spanish Coffee, as an article which is highly esteemed, and gives the greatest satisfaction. It is prepared with particular care, and by the process of roasting, one pound of this coffee, it is believed, is equal to 1½ lb. of any other.

DANDELION COFFEE.—This article is carefully prepared at our Mills, and put up in packages having our trade mark, and may be relied upon as the best and most approved mixture of dandelion and coffee.

TARAXACUM, or Prepared Dandelion Root.—This article is prepared and roasted at our Mills, it is much used by Physicians generally in city and country, and bearing our trade mark, "Chinaman grinding coffee," may be relied upon as the GENUINE ARTICLE. The proportion used is about one-half the quantity of coffee, and is sold at 20 cents per pound, and it is warranted to be the same as that which has been sold for fifty cents a pound by Druggists.

The medical properties of Dandelion are well-known, and held in high estimation by all who use it. This being a preparation of the root, with all its medicinal virtues retained, can be used with coffee or not, as best suits the taste, and will be found cheap and economical as a family beverage, one pound of which being nearly equal to two pounds of coffee. It is prescribed by many eminent physicians to invalids, children and aged persons, as a nutritious beverage, and as a remedy for dyspepsia, bilious affections, &c.

☞ Be careful to observe that all our Coffees have our trade mark, "Chinaman grinding coffee."

☞ To Grocers and Dealers a liberal discount is made, when they buy of us to supply their customers at the same low rate.

☞ TO CASH PURCHASERS.—Our object being to secure large sales at small profits, we offer inducements which cannot be afforded by those who do business on the credit system; and we confidently invite an examination of the quality of our stock and our prices, as compared with those of any other house.

LOTTERIES.

The well-known Maryland Consolidated Lotteries, of which R. Faunce & Co. are the managers, are chartered by the state of Maryland, and a commission, selected by the people, who is sworn to superintend and certify that everything connected with them is done in a strictly honorable manner, and that the interests of parties who reside at a distance are as well protected as if they themselves were present at the drawing. Another fact which the managers call attention to, is, that all persons have a legal right to send orders for tickets to Maryland, as lotteries are legalized by special law in that state. A lottery is drawn every day of the month. If no particular class is mentioned, tickets will be sent the first drawing to take place after the communication comes to hand. The prices of tickets vary from $1 to $20, which sum, however, must accompany the money for the same is received with the order. The drawings are upon the principle of one number on each ticket (after the Havana plan), and Tertiary combination. Prizes vary in amount from $20 to $100,000. All orders for tickets or packages will receive prompt attention, and the drawing mailed to all purchasers immediately after it is over.

Extract from the Commercial Advertiser, July 27, '55.

"Messrs. Prince & Co. could realize a handsome fortune by discharging one half of their operatives and manufacture to use their new improvement; but as they prefer to make it a feature in their Instruments, it can only be obtained by purchasing one of their manufacture."

It is now eight years since we commenced the manufacture of this new celebrated Musical Instrument, during which time we have finished and sold nearly TWELVE THOUSAND. The numerous testimonials to the excellence of our Instruments, from the most distinguished Professors of Music in different parts of the United States, have from time to time been received. Thus far we have said but little, and our advertisements were seldom seen for the reason that we could not supply the demand. We have now prepared one of the largest and most perfect Manufacturing Establishments in the United States, and we now think that we can fill orders promptly. We there fore give one testimonial to show how we stand.

NEW YORK, 15th Oct., 1855.

We are not aware that the above mentioned Melodeon is in any particular superior to those we are daily finishing, and we can assure those who are inclined to favor us with orders, that they will be furnished with an instrument equally as good. GARROTING IN BOSTON.—The garroting system of highway robbery, which has been so fashionable for some time past in New York, and which has so much alarmed the people of that city, has been introduced in Boston, and was practiced on Thomas W. Steamburg, barber, on Thursday night. While crossing the Common to his home, No. 15 Grove street, he was attacked by three men,—one seized him by the throat and half strangled him, another sealed his mouth with a gloved hand, and the third abstracted his wallet, which contained $75 in money, which he had saved to pay the rent of his shop. The robbers having secured their plunder, ran off in a northwesterly direction. Steamburg states that he was for a moment bewildered, but recovering his senses and strength, he shouted for aid; but no one came to his assistance. He does not think he could identify the rogues. The robbery was committed near the "Frog Pond," and the wallet was found near the great elm, the next day.

The Courier says:

There is one way of putting a stop to these bold robberies: and it should be resorted to forthwith. This class of crime is committed by a gang of ruffians numbering about twenty persons. Captain Ham knows every scoundrel just as well as he knows his grandmother. Let the Mayor authorize him to lock up every person known to be a thief found in the street after 9 1-2 o'clock P. M. There is plenty of law to warrant such an order on the part of the Mayor; and the officers—certainly Ham, Jones, Whitcomb, Holmes, Heath, Eaton and others—will soon clear the streets of highwaymen. Don't pause because the first person garroted is a "person of color." The three robbers will attack a white man just as quick.

If the policemen are not instructed to pursue the thieves in the manner here suggested, the result will be that the citizens will arm themselves, and by and by, we shall find peaceable men loaded with a revolver in one pocket, a billy fastened to the wrist, and a bowie knife concealed between the shoulders. This state of society can be avoided by purifying Stoddard street, which is the great mart in Boston, and by directing the whole energies of the police department against highwaymen, well-dressed vagabonds and panel theives. This is the class against whom war should be made—not the poor topers and night-walkers.

These robbers congregate in the drinkeries of Stoddard street.—Is there not law enough to purify or close them?

MORAL SUASION.—There is nothing like "moral suasion." It has grown to be a great and controlling institution. The best example of the same occurred in San Francisco recently. You well know—if not, I can inform you thereon—that the chief city of California is frequently, if not oftener, infested by Chinamen. An acquaintance of ours was junior partner and occasional salesman in a firm whose business it was to sell fish-hooks, cod-lines, rope's-ends, and other odds and ends. One day, a John Chinaman, followed by a train of about ten of his countrymen, ranged tandem fashion, entered the establishment, and after peering around for a few seconds, exclaimed:

"Cotton seine twine—got him?"

"Yes!" was the answer.

"How much takee?"

"One dollar a pound."

"Um! give fifty cents!"

"Get out!" said the junior partner, with a menacing gesture, and John Chinaman departed, followed by his tail and his countrymen.

The train passed and repassed the door several times, and at length re-entered.—John, looking around as though he had never been there before, again inquired:

"Cotton seine twine—got him?"

"Yes!"

"How much takee?"

"One dollar a pound!"

"Um! give seventee-five cents."

"Get out!" cried the excited partner, and the Chinese population departed as before."

The wild geese procession paraded past a few times and then re-entered. The spokesman, after gazing around some time, lifted up his voice a third time, and thus he spoke:

"Cotton seine twine—got him?"

"Yes!!!"

"How much takee?"

The salesman whispered to Patrick, the porter, to hand him a cleaver. This had, he grasped the astonished John Chinaman with his left hand, and raising the cleaver with his right, exclaimed:

"One dollar a pound!!"

John gave one look at the cleaver, another at the face of the salesman, and yelled out:

"I takee one hundred pound!"

The bargain was thereon closed. —So much for moral suasion.—Letter to Porter's Spirit.

JOHN P. ADDAMS, or Yankee Addams, (so called because of his unrivalled personation of Yankee character,) was playing in a piece written by himself. Some passage (in the play) deemed obnoxious, offended the audience, who unanimously hissed. The eccentric commedian stepped to the footlights, and thus addressed the audience:

"Ladies and gentlemen, I have spoken nothing but the text of the play—and as an actor I am bound to say what the author sets down for me. Are your hisses intended to reprove me for speaking the language written, or are your hisses intended to condemn the author?"

Cries issued from all parts of the house—"the author"—"the author"—"we hiss the author"—"we don't hiss you, we hiss the author"—"go on, Addams"—go ahead, old fellow."

Quiet was restored, and the play was about to proceed, when an inquisitive old gentleman cried out, "Who is the author?"

With a coolness seldomed equalled, the comedian replied,—"John P. Addams."

The audience were for a moment dumbfounded, but a hearty laugh ensued, and turned the tide in favor of Addams.—Sat. Eve. Gaz.

Arnold's Vital Fluid

PURIFIES and strengthens the blood by eradicating, through a nice chemical action, the causes of impurities and humors. Hence its power to cure humors that mere medicine cannot cure.
